HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies at our command and its successful operation, and the immense demand wherever this continent never sleep exists, is a sufficient guarantee to any in the malarious districts, preparatory for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and by invigorating the stomach.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is certainly the most wonderful of all the Skin and Blood Remedies for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Itch, Chin Welts, Psoriasis, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Shingles and Crusted Scurf, and all Veterinary and Cattle Diseases, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Redness, and Irritation of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Redness, and Irritation of the Skin; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Inflammation of Blood and Skin Humors, Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after sores are covered.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but be sure I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.

CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to do myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. My parents tried everything that came along. "I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The last box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. As I can say to you, I think you most nearly cure my cure. Any person who thinks this letter is true, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL McDONALD.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the (Seventeenth Edition) just published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION!

Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or diseases impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, for whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains 300 pages, over 125 engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 40 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail postpaid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated supplement to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains all accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and in fact the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

THE BEST REMEDY

FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative properties of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of coughs, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. Whooping-cough and Consumption, there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The world owes much to AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. A single impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM, OF LYNN, MASS.

DISCOVERER OF

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

The Positive Cure

For all Female Complaints.

THIS PREPARATION RESTORES THE BLOOD TO ITS NATURAL CONDITION, DIRECTS THE VITAL POWER ARIGHT, STRENGTHENS THE MUSCLES OF THE UTERUS AND LIFTS IT INTO PLACE, AND GIVES IT TONE AND STRENGTH, SO THAT THE CURE IS radical and entire. It strengthens the back and relieves region; it gives tone to the whole nervous system; it restores displaced organs to their natural position. That painful feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use.

It will, at all times and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the laws that govern the female system.

For the cure of kidney Complaints of either sex, this Compound is unsurpassed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is prepared at the proprietors laboratory.

No. 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass.

Price, $1. Six Bottles to one address, $5.

Mrs. Pinkham freely answers all letters of inquiry. Send for pamphlets. Address as above.

No family should be without LIVER PILLS. They cure Constipation, Biliousness, and Torpidity of the Liver. 25c.

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES

LAXATIVE CATHARTIC.

Pleasant to the taste. Relieve without Griping.

CURE CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS AND LIVER TROUBLES.

They take the place of the nauseating and violent cathartics used to relieve Costiveness, Biliousness and Liver Complaint. One Medicated Prune (LAXATIVE) acts as a mild laxative; two or three have the effect of cathartic medicines or six taken at bedtime will relieve constipation. No bad effects but without pain or griping. Prunes full of a yellow powder, and sold in 25c. and 50c. boxes. Ask for Smith's Medicated Prunes, and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Physicians recommend them. Druggists keep them.

While here we saw the true inwardness of the Moffatt bell-punch, which goes out of practice on the 30th of April. The fine for not registering is $50, but the revenue does not come up to what was anticipated when the punch went into practice three years ago, and the old licence law takes its place.

After leaving this little town among the hills,—which the inhabitants fondly believe will grow into a large city on account of the immense goat ranch at Mountain Lake—and traveling upward eight miles more, we reach our destination, which derives its name from a very pretty sheet of water three-quarters of a mile long and one-quarter of a mile wide, nestled among the mountains 4500 feet above tide. Around its banks are rhododendrons, laurel and evergreen the entire distance, and when the flowers are in bloom, in June and July, the whole must make a picture of rare beauty. The lake is within fifteen minutes' walk of the summit of Bald Knob, the highest land in Virginia, climbing which we have a view of Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee. Five miles off is the Cascade, a very pretty fall of water, seventy-five feet in height, with a path half-way up on the hill-side behind it, from which you can enjoy the sight of the broad sheet of water sparkling in the sunlight. There are also sulphur and alum springs in every direction, within easy distances, and the scenery changes with every mile.

The country 'round is full of game; there are deer, wild turkeys, pheasants, partridges and, it is said, bears, besides the usual sprinkling of smaller fry. The other morning a deer swam the lake within one hundred yards of the house. There a grand rush for the gun, but the shot pouch was empty. The lake and mountain streams are also famous for trout.

As a goat ranch the situation cannot be surpassed. Everything is adapted to the peculiar wants of the animal, and he can wish for nothing unless it be for hoop-skirts, tomato-cans and garbage, on which the city goat browses. The Angora goat is a native of Asia Minor, and the country to which he belongs corresponds exactly to this part of Virginia. As for our common goat he can live anywhere. When the ranch is fully stocked to commence business it will contain 800 Angoras and 20,000 ewe goats of original Maltese stock, to be brought from Mexico. The property contains 120,000 acres, and there are several good buildings on the place which are used in connection with the main hotel during the summer for boarders. The natural beauties draw people from all parts of the south.

SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1880.

News and Notes.

The public debt statement shows a decrease of the public debt during March of $14,719,386.95; cash in treasury, $201,106,983.03.

An explosion of fire damp occurred March 31st in the colliery at Anderlues, Belgium. Twenty corpses were recovered in a short time. There were 150 persons in the pit at the time of the explosion.

The jury in the case at Trenton, N. J., of Alvinia Waters against the Connecticut Mutual life insurance company, in the United States courts, for the recovery of the amount of a policy on her husband's life, returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $2,398.89. The defense was that Waters died by his own hand, and that the policy contained a clause that risks would not be paid when this was the case.

An overseer in Jones's mill, Sabattus, Me., was fined $10 and costs in the Lewiston municipal court. The offence was using profanity to a young lady in his employ.

W. H. Fessenden of Portland, Me., furnished the Mt. Desert & Sullivan Steamboat company with the engines and boilers of the steamer Mt. Desert, stipulating, as is claimed, that she should make fifteen miles an hour with forty pounds of steam, without forcing the fires. She cannot make but twelve, and the steamboat company brieg suit, claiming that the steamer is worth $25,000 less than she otherwise would have been.

The state authorities of Virginia on the first inst. sent to the mouth of the Rappahannock river a rifled steel gun, with plenty of solid shot, shell and powder, to protect the oyster fisheries there.

The county court house and jail of Brown county, Texas, were burned by an incendiary fire a few days ago, all the county records and several prisoners being cremated.

At Silver Lake, Ind., April 1st, the house of a Mr. Holloway was burned during his absence, and the remains of his wife and child were found in the ruins. Foul play is suspected.

Ben Johnson, a young colored man, was jailed at Winchester, Ky., March 31st, for attempted outrage on a respectable young lady. Next morning he was taken from jail by a mob, and hung.

The wife of Frank Lemany of Cochituate, Mass., left her bed during Wednesday night, the 31st ult., and drowned herself in the lake. She had been deranged for some time. She leaves a husband and six children.

The death is announced of the oldest commissioned officer in the English navy, Admiral Philip Westphal, at the age of ninety-eight years. He entered the navy in 1794.

Messrs. Cooper and Bailey have been offered $50,000 for the baby elephant—Hebe's daughter—but they decline the offer.

The house committee on post offices has agreed to report the bill providing that persons in the railway mail service, known as railway post office clerks, route agents, local agents and mail route messengers, shall be designated as railway postal clerks, and divided into five classes, whose salaries shall not exceed $800, $900, $1,000, $1,200 and $1,300 a year.

The Pacific Mail Steamship company has filed a paper with the senate judiciary committee declaring that no contract has been signed between it and the Pacific railroads with reference to the matter upon which an investigation has been ordered, and that accordingly it has no existence in fact.

The New York World says: The great Providence Line between New York and Boston will reopen for the season on Monday, April 5. On the magnificent steamers, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, of this line, no second class passengers are carried, travellers enjoy an opportunity for a full night's rest, electric bells connect each state-room with the steward's department, the dining-saloons are on the main deck, away from the disagreeable odors and close air of the kitchens and the sleeping berths, and a full view of the beauties of Narragansett Bay by daylight may be enjoyed. Steel boilers, steam steering apparatus, and all approved devices tending to safety, are in use on the steamers, and the capacity of only forty-two miles on one of the shortest of railways is noticed only as a pleasant feature.

New Hampshire Items.

The farm buildings of Richard F. Morgan, in Hopkinton, were burned March 31st, with two cows, a yoke of steers and two hogs. Loss $3000; insured $1200.

Gold has been discovered on land owned by a Frenchman near Long pond, some four miles from Concord. The ore taken out assays $40 to the ton.

Nashua had another fire on the night of the 31st ult., when a business block owned by C. B. Hill was damaged to the amount of $2000, Baker & Coburn, grocers, losing $2000 on their stock; both insured. Four tenants in the upper part of the block were burned out.

An unsuccessful attempt to steal the valuable trotting span of horses of Daniel F. Tillotson, at Orford, was made on Tuesday night, the 30th ult. One horse was nearly harnessed and the other was bridled before they were discovered. The thieves were noticed round the buildings during the evening, and a watch set, but the darkness of the night and the strong wind both helped to cover the work of the rogues. Mr. Tillotson was absent from home. The thieves escaped, although hotly pursued as far as Lyme.

Naval Gazette.

Cadet Midshipmen Harry P. Huse and W. L. Rodgers have reported their return home from the Pensacola, and been placed on waiting orders.

The death of Commodore Edward Barrett promotes Captain R. B. Lowry to be a commodore, Commander W. A. Kirkland to be a captain, Lieutenant-Commander C. H. Craven to be a commander, Lieutenant Chas. M. Thomas to be a lieutenant-commander, Master M. F. Wright to be a lieutenant, and Ensign A. L. Case to be a master.

The U. S. S. Nipsic sailed from Portsmouth, Va., for Villefranche, France, on the 1st inst.

Political.

The majority against the Kearney-Kalloch party in San Francisco is over 6,000.

The Bangor Whig says that the Hale committee did not complete its labors, and that the three ex-councillors who made such a blister at Augusta a few days since will probably have an opportunity to see the returns in the presence of that committee.

The United States senate on the 1st inst. passed the deficiency bill, with the Garfield amendment relative to the appointment of marshals at elections.

—Madame lacks confidence in her husband's veracity. "At the skating rink all the afternoon? I don't believe it!" "Shall I show you my bruises?"

— In Brooklyn live two young ladies, next door neighbors, between whom there is a certain rivalry in society. One evening, recently, after a rehearsal, one of them was allowed by the young gentlemen to go home without an escort. Entering the house she soon sallied forth wearing a pair of her brother's boots, and with these she walked up and down the path to the gate, in the snow. When her rival passed by she saw the footprints and said, "I wonder who went home with Susy last night."

—The archery clubs are beginning to agitate themselves already. The interest in this delightful sport promises to be greater than ever this season.

— Thomas Fo an, a smart but wicked Brooklyn boy, some weeks ago was sentenced to fifty days in the penitentiary for stealing and selling his mother's clock. On his way to prison he met a German named Munse, who had been sentenced for two days but wanted a longer term with the accompanying board and lodging, so the two agreed to change names and places. On arriving at the prison Folan answered to Munse's name, and vice versa. Two days afterwards Folan got his discharge, but Munse served out the fifty days. The trick has since been discovered, and the clock thief is serving out his original term. The boy will make as smart a democratic statesman as Smith Weed, Tilden, Townshend or Acklen if he lives. —Kingston, N. Y., Freeman.

—A few days since—this is a fact—a little fellow anxious to find a home for a pet kitten, where it would stand a right good chance of being well brought up, carried it to the residence of one of our clergymen, asking him, as he responded to the knock, if he would like a kitten? "Oh, I don't know," said he; "what kind of a kitten have you got?" "A Unitarian kitten, sir." "No, I guess not of that sort." A few mornings after the little fellow appeared at the same door, rang the door-bell, and again found himself face to face with the "man of the house." The boy repeated his offer of the juvenile feline. "But aren't you the same boy that called the other day; and isn't this the same little Unitarian kitten you had then?" "I know it," the little man responded; "it's the same kitten, but he's got his eyes open now, and he's an Episcopal kitten." It is fair to surmise that the "opening of his eyes" proved the salvation of puss, and found for it an agreeable and congenial home.—Clinton Courant.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, April 3, 1:30 A. M.

Warmer cloudy rainy weather, south westerly winds falling barometer.

AROUND HOME.

The senate on the 31st ult. confirmed Joseph C. A. Wingate of Stratham as consul at Foo Chow, China.

At the South Parish, Sunday, the pastor will preach two discourses on "The Life and Teachings of Channing." All interested in this great religious teacher are invited.

Rev. A. A. Waite will lecture in the Methodist church this evening; subject, "How to read character." This will be Mr. Waite's last lecture here at this time. Admission ten cents.

Miss Nancy Parcher died suddenly at Faith Home Friday evening, of heart disease; she was in very good spirits ten minutes before her death, and was about seventy years old. Dr. Folsom was called.

Fannie Lovering, daughter of A. W. Lovering, formerly of Exeter, and whose mother was a Portsmouth lady, is playing the part of Mabel in the "Pirates of Penzance," to be represented this evening at Music hall.

Col. W. H. Hackett's lecture at the town hall last Thursday evening, was a most scholarly and finished production. So many lectures and books have been written descriptive of experiences in the Old World, that "Travels Abroad," as delivered by Colonel Hackett, was an agreeable surprise to an appreciative audience.—Gt. Falls Journal.

On Friday forenoon fifteen laborers employed in Frank Jones' malt house struck for more pay or for more help. They are at present getting thirty-five dollars a month. They state as their grievance that their employment is of such a nature that it involves both day and night work, and being very laborious deserves some further remuneration, unless more men are employed.

Rev. Dr. Spalding, of Dover, is to preach in Rev. Dr. Buddington's church in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Sunday. Pending the settlement of a new pastor over this society, several eminent preachers have been invited to officiate upon successive Sabbaths, the initial sermon of this series being given by the pastor of the First Congregational church in Dover, to be followed by other leading clergymen of the denomination.

The brethren and ladies of Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows had a merry time at their picnic party in Odd Fellows hall, Thursday evening last. A large party was present, and a splendid supper was served. There were numerous and laughable surprises for the unwary in the shape of sawdust pies, wool-stuffed turnovers, and leather doughnuts, which while fair and edible to look upon would not prove very digestible in the average dyspeptic stomach of to-day.

In another part of our paper will be found a very readable letter, giving the impressions gathered by a Portsmouth boy during a railroad ride through a portion of Virginia, and a very interesting description of the section of country where is to be tried the experiment (which is claimed by its projectors to be no experiment at all, but an assured business success) of raising Angora wool—or hair, or whatever the substance may be which grows on Angora goats—for the market on a great scale.

The entertainment given on the evening of the 31st ult. by Strawberry Bank Lodge, I. O. G. T., was a success financially and in all other respects. Mr. Stimpson's readings, and the violin playing of Miss Fannie P. Hoyt of Newington, were highly appreciated, as was also a recitation by Mattie Blatchford, a little mite of a girl who was stood up on the end of the piano to recite her piece. This is intended as the first of a series of somewhat similar entertainments, for the benefit of the lodge and the cause.

The officials of the Eastern railroad have declined to sell the Sagamore mill lot, but President Phillips has notified Messrs. Jones and Mendum that a long lease of the land can be had on any terms that may be agreed upon by Albert R. Hatch, acting for the road, and the directors of the Shoe Factory Co. A meeting of the directors of the company will be held next week to decide upon this matter. Owing to the slight difference in the cost of a brick from a wooden building, it is now thought best to build the factory of the former material.

The laborers on the Dover and Eliot bridge struck for higher wages, on Thursday last.

Miss Kate W. Cushing, who has very acceptably filled the position of assistant at the high school, recently resigned her situation. We learn that at the urgent solicitation of the high school committee, she has consented to withdraw her resignation for the present.—Journal.

Miss A. S. Tucker, of this city, is teaching the district school at the county farm at Brentwood, and proving herself an efficient teacher. There are about twenty children in the school, and the reading, spelling and writing would do credit to any country school.

Mr. Frank E. Dearborn of this city has been appointed general agent for the state of New Hampshire, for the sale of the celebrated Poland mineral spring water, which is becoming more and more popular as a specific remedy for all kidney affections.

A water tank holding 80,000 gallons is to be built at the western end of the Eastern depot, for the convenience of trains which, after the completion of the restaurant, are to stop at this station about "twenty minutes for refreshments." Surveys for the tank and other contemplated improvements have been made.

Mr. Editor: The communication in Thursday's issue of the CHRONICLE, expressing indignation that "Commodore Falls" abandoned a coon to his fate, after offering him protection from five dogs that had pursued him to the commodore's yacht, reminds me of a somewhat similar occurrence here,—with a different ending. A party of men were testing the qualities of their fowling pieces, in the rear of some warehouses on a wharf, when a rat, fleeing from a predatory cat, made directly for a gentleman who stood near the gunners, watching their trial of skill. The rat took refuge between the gentleman's feet, and throwing himself upon his haunches, held up both of his fore paws and squealed, as if imploring protection. The cat, seeing the group of men with guns, turned and made a rapid retreat. The sportsmen, eager for a shot, levelled their guns at the hunted rat, and asked the gentleman to step aside and let them shoot. "No, gentlemen," said he, "this poor little beast has sought asylum at my feet, and is now my guest; no harm shall come to him, that I have power to prevent, so please put up your guns." The firm though courteous tone in which the words were uttered assured them of his earnestness, and they good-naturedly resumed their target shooting. The rat seemed to comprehend the situation, and allowed his friend to caress him, without exhibiting any fear; and seemed loath to go when shown to a secure retreat under a building. M.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

This popular burlesque opera, by the authors of "Pinafore," will be presented at Music hall this evening—who by, the following letter will tell:

NEW YORK, April 1st, 1880.

Ed. Chronicle: My attention having been drawn to the fact that a report has been circulated by some of the New England papers, to the effect that my company which appears in your city on the 3 1 inst., is not the New York one but a much weaker organization, will you kindly allow me to inform your readers through your columns that the "Pirate of Penzance" will be played with the same cast as it was at the 5th Avenue theatre here, with the exception of Mdme. Roosevelt, whose medical adviser has absolutely forbidden her to sing for some time. Yours truly,

R. D'OYLY CARTE.

As a dramatic production and as a piece of musical writing, "The Pirates of Penzance" is claimed to be very much in advance of the musical absurdity "Pinafore," and it has certainly "drawn" well in the large cities.

"ALL THE RAGE."

Of this play, which is to be presented at Music hall next Wednesday evening, the Boston Journal says:

It is really a farce in four acts, the humorous and ridiculous elements almost completely overshadowing the sentimental. To unravel them by describing them or to attempt to give an outline of the story of the piece, with its relative and intervening complications, would require a lengthier notice than we can give. * * * If there is any power of attraction in pure and wholesome humor, with which is mingled a spicing of satire, "All the Rage" ought to fill the house at every entertainment.

The Transcript speaks of it as follows:

The plot is slight, but the fun abundant. An aspirant for political honor is enraged at the persistent attacks on his character by a young journalist and author, Will Goodwin. He smarts for revenge, and seeks the scribe with a view of chastising him. Goodwin has published a book which is "all the rage," and which wins the adoration of sentimental girls, but, being a sensible fellow, anxious to escape the attention they would gladly show, he takes refuge at Long Branch. Here, to gain further relief, he exchanges names with a friend. Here, too, appears a Dr. William Goodwin, a chiropodist, who is mistaken for the handsome writer, and receives all the admiration intended for the junior, as well as a whipping at the hands of the abused candidate, who has hunted him down. The confusion arising from the presence of three men claiming the same names continues for a long while, doctor and editor thinking each other an impostor. After several comical scenes a satisfactory explanation of misunderstandings is brought about.

Tickets now on sale at Preston's drug store.

HOW MUCH?

Mr. Editor: Some weeks ago you published under the above heading the following arithmetical question:

A farmer comes to market with produce, and wishes to procure a barrel of flour; the trader says he will sell his flour for $8 a barrel cash, or $10 barter; the farmer decides to take the barrel of flour, and pay one-half cash and one-half barter; how much does he pay for his flour?

One view of the question would be that he paid $9.00 for the flour,—one-half barrel at $5, and one-half at $4. I say that he paid $8.888 for the flour, or $4.444 in cash and $4.444 in barter. He receives .5555(plus) of a barrel for cash, and .4444(plus) of a barrel for barter, making .9999 for the whole barrel as near as decimals will allow. DOC.

A man makes a trade for an article of merchandise—price $8.00 cash, or $10 barter; he pays $4 in cash and $5 in barter; required, the cost of the goods.

Answer: Money being the standard of value, $8 is all that he actually pays for it. The realization of only $4 for $5 worth of goods shows an apparent loss on this head of one dollar, which loss is only imaginary—and to suit his notions he may add the whole or a part of this dollar to the $8, according as he is confident that a higher price than the $4 could be gained in a limited space of time. P.

The foregoing would seem to pretty well exhaust the barrel-of-flour problem, so here is a new one:

A man has a horse; he sells said horse for $45; he buys the same horse back for $40; then he sells the same horse again, this time for $50. How much does he make by his business operations?

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Dauntless Lodge of Good Templars, of South Eliot, has been awarded the library, valued at $30, offered by the grand lodge of Maine for the largest gain in membership during the year.

The old piazza around the Marshall house at York harbor, which is eight feet wide, is to be removed, and a new one, sixteen feet wide, put in its place. Other improvements are now making. At the close of the next season an addition of seventy feet is to be made to the hotel.

An extensive revival of religion has been in progress at South Berwick for some weeks, and it is said that one hundred and fifty persons have experienced religion; the interest awakened continues, though Messrs. Frost, Kenney, Smith and others, who were instrumental in starting it, have gone to North Berwick. In the latter place, and also at Salmon Falls, there is considerable interest manifested.

George A. Carpenter, runner for a Boston jewelry firm, carelessly left his pocket-book, containing $35, a diamond ring worth $60, a number of railroad tickets and some $300 worth of notes, on a table in the office of the Biddeford house while he went in to supper, and on his return failed to find it. The police arrested Joseph Lavine for the theft, and recovered the money and papers. The ring was subsequently found in the possession of a man who paid Lavine $1 for it.

—Madame, who is of great embonpoint, asks her husband in what character she shall attend the masquerade. "As a captive balloon," he said. "How must I dress that character?" "Simply by tying a string to your foot!" answered her husband.—Paris Paper.

—When a New York man, with his face swollen with mumps, struck a Maine town, they turned out with dogs and pitchforks and chased him over two hills, under the impression that he was a lightning-rod agent. They don't allow the season to open before June 1st.

There's not a charm that light's the face
With so ineffable a grace,
As sweet, pink lips and ivory teeth;
And nothing now, beneath the sky,
Can beautifies such as these supply,
Save SOZODONT, that wears the wreath.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

REV. SYLVANUS COBB this writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. Out of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and to parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any considerations whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 5

See a Woman!

In another column, praising grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first-class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

—"You do not mean to call that a yard, do you?" said an indignant house hunter looking at the little curl-score at the rear of "an elegant residence," which the broker was showing him. "Why, there is not more than three feet of ground there!" "Well," said the unperturbed house agent, "three feet make a yard, do they not?"

—Pilgrimages to Buffalo, N. Y., are made by thousands of invalids annually to consult with the medical and surgical staff of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, the largest private sanitarium in the world. All chronic diseases are treated by scientific methods. The practice is divided among nine eminent specialists. Among the most popular domestic medicines in the land are those manufactured by the association, among which are Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great alterative or blood-purifier, and Dr. Pierce's Pellets (little pills) that have largely superseded the old-fashioned cathartic pills. Compound Extract of Smart-Weed is deservedly popular as a remedy for diarrhœa, dysentery, flux, and kindred disorders, also as a painkiller and remedy for colds. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the great remedy for female weakness and associated derangements. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is the "Old Reliable." Invalids' Guide-Book—10 cents, post-paid. Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is currently believed to be the only positive specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pushes, Chin Welk, Prurigo, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Boils, Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Disease, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I feel so much gratitude that I wish to make my statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and hands were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entire y well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.

CAMDO, ZAD. TOWN., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I believed a most wonderful cure of a Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was unable to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to be myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. Some parents tried everything that came out to cure. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for them selves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

WILLIS G. MYERS,

1 Congress Block Portsmouth, N. H.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere, and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.

SHAKERS'

SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Prickly Ash, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, combined with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first to sell this the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighte n years. I have it as considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my profession and brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMO. R, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

A Temperance Lecture.

The wife of a skilled artisan named Schmid, of Samara, Russia, was brought to bed of a child, while her husband, who had spent all his wages for many previous weeks in liquor, was away from his home upon a drunken frolic. Two days after her confinement Schmid staggered in and began to shout, with horrible threats and curses, for his dinner. There having been neither food nor money in the house since he had last left it, the unfortunate woman had no nourishment for herself or her babe since its birth, and the latter had died of exhaustion but a few minutes before its father made its appearance. To Schmid's brutal menaces his miserable wife made no answer. She rose from her pallet, wan and emaciated, crept across the room to the dresser, took thence a large dish, which she carried back to the bed, and, placing her baby's corpse upon the dish, set it down upon the table before her husband, with the simple but awful words, "There's nothing else to eat in the house?" Schmid sat gazing with a glassy stare at his dead child for some time. Presently a neighbor came in and spoke to him, but he uttered no word and made no sign. Upon closer examination he was found to have entirely lost his reason, and he was conveyed to a madhouse, where he still remains, a helpless lunatic.

She Visits a Printing Office.

She came into the office smiling and beautiful. George and she were engaged, and George had a case. He had a galley of solid nonpareil on his frame which he was about to lock up and prove, George, blushing like a girl, shook her hand, and called her his darling. She eyed the galley, and smiled sweeter than before.

"Doddy, dear," she said, still eyeing the galley of nonpareil, "are them the things you print with?"

"Yes, darling," said Doddy feelingly.

She swept her taper fingers over the matter, squabbling the entire galley.

"Bless you, my darling!" said George, chokingly, the sweat pouring down his face.

She looked at him and said:

"Why, Doddy, dear, it's all in little pieces, isn't it?"

"Yes, love," said George, gently taking her hand and leading her toward the door.

"Good bye, darling!" he said.

"Good bye, Doddy; be sure you come to-night.

"Dear me," she soliloquized, "how George loves me! He nearly sobbed when I touched those funny little bits of thingummies."

George, mouthly: "It wish all the women were in—Heaven.

—Restaurant bills of fare are now brightened by the words "strawberry shortcake."

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

—The oratory of Demosthenes was good enough for his time, but let him start off in an American ward caucus today, and somebody would move the previous question on him in a York minute. —Detroit Free Press.

Suffering Woman.

There is but very small proportion of the women of this nation that do not suffer from some of the diseases for which Kidney-Wort is a specific. When the bowels have become costive, headache torments, kidneys out of fix, or piles distress, take a package, and its wonderful tonic and renovating power will cure you and give new life.

—A Kansas man bet $10 that with his rifle he could shoot an apple off his son's head, a la William Tell. He tried it, with the brave boy's consent, but aimed badly, and instead of merely piercing the apple on the lad's head, the bullet took the life of a mule in the next field.

Listen to This.

The unbiased opinion of some of the most intelligent medical men in this country and Europe, support the statement that Kidney-Wort is the greatest discovery yet, for curing Kidney and liver troubles, piles and constipation. It acts on both kidneys and bowels at the same time and thus cleanses the whole system.

— We accuse women of using more words than men, but it took seventy lines of poetry for a Columbia janitor to express his admiration for Mary Anderson, while a Vassar girl condensed the whole thing into the two words: "she's scrumptious."

Women that have been given up by their dearest friends as beyond help, have been permanently cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a positive cure for all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

— The population of the United States will be officially stated before long, but in the meantime people are guessing what the aggregate will be. One figure is 50,000,000; the majority set it at 48,000,000.

As a food and as a medicine nothing in medicine can compare with Malt Bitters.

Portsmouth Chronicle

MONDAY, APRIL 5, 1880.

News and Notes.

Rev. Geo. Punchard, founder of the daily Traveller of Boston, and for many years its editor, died in Boston on the morning of the 2d inst., at the age of seventy-four years. For fourteen years, from 1830 to 1844, he was pastor of the Congregational church in Plymouth, N. H., and he married a Miss Poole of Hollis.

Two deaths from diphtheria have recently occurred at Ferrisburg, Vt., which have a somewhat singular coincidence. On February 17th, Miss Josephine Doshow died of the disease, she being then fifteen years old. She was engaged to be married to John Sears of Ferrisburg. On March 17th Miss Delphine Doshow died of the same disease, at the age of nineteen years. She was engaged to be married to Henry Sears of Ferrisburg on April 1st. And now the two men will join in erecting similar gravestones over the remains of their loved ones.

Out of a family of four, that of Frederick Lathrop of St. Johnsbury, Vt., the father and two children died of scarlet fever last week, leaving the young wife and mother alone. Imperfect drainage was probably the cause.

Jenny Bowen and John T. Paris, long time a passenger conductor between Rutland & Bennington, Vt., were married. Then they were divorced, and then married again. Now they have been divorced again, she alleging intolerable severity.

A well-known lawyer of Westfield, Mass., who recently removed from the building which he occupied for nearly a score of years, to more modern quarters, is said to go regularly every morning to the old office and ascend the stairs until his eyes fall upon the legend in large display type, "removed to — ," when he gives his hat a jerk over his head and belts in the direction of his new quarters, warily looking around to see if any one has observed him.

Mrs. Mary B. Weiss hung herself at New Haven, Conn., March 30th, being deranged by fear of the result of a petty lawsuit.

The Hartford Society for the Prevention of Crime has within a short time enforced the marriages of four men to betrayed and deserted girls.

Nancy Bartholomew, who had been for some time past a street picker of twine, rope, rags and coal in New Haven, and was to all appearance in extreme poverty, died a few days ago. In her chemise, sewed up, were found $160 in bank notes, and it has been discovered that she owned $30,000 worth of real estate.

The crew of schooner West Wind, before reported wrecked on Nantucket, were saved by schooner Beta, which took them off before the West Wind drifted ashore.

A man who registered as H. T. Lenox, of New York, committed suicide at Young's hotel, Boston, Friday, by taking morphine. He left a note signed H. Treadwell.

The result of the British parliamentary election appears now to be that the Liberals will have a majority when parliament meets, and Beaconsfield will have to go, same as the Chinese.

Friday was hangman's day. Edward Tatro was hanged at Windsor, Vt., for the murder of Mrs. Alice Butler. He made a speech on the gallows and confessed that he was guilty of the crime, but said that Butler was to blame for it, as it was through his example that he (Tatro) learned to drink rum. James Stone, a mulatto, was hanged in Washington for the murder of his wife; his head was torn off by the fall. Robert Anderson (white) and Charles Webster (colored) were hanged in Louisville. Three negroes were executed in Mississippi, and two murderers paid the death penalty in Louisiana.

Mrs. L. V. Hathaway, of Fall River, is missing. She has been sick for some time, and feared she was to be affected with a tumor. She left her house between midnight and five o'clock Friday morning, leaving a note to her husband that her body would be found in the river. Foot prints, supposed to be hers, have been found on Wilson's wharf, and the river is being dragged.

A clergyman at Brantford, Conn., remarked in his recent farewell sermon that members of the choir had interfered with his pastoral work. A man in the choir gallery, opposite the pulpit, arose at this, calling upon the speaker to stop his talk, and threatening to turn on the organ and stop the parson's voice. Several woman fainted during the controversy.

There is great excitement in Warren county, Ohio, caused by the discovery in a field on the farm of Saul Hardy, near the Shaker village, of a human skeleton. Along with the body were found a double-barreled shot gun, some pencils, keys and a few other articles, but no money. The mystery was apparently impenetrable until Mrs. William Griffiths, who lives near the farm, examined the clothing and gun, and other articles found with the body, and recognized them as belonging to William J. Lanning, an orphan sent out years ago with others from Boston, and who found a home at Griffiths'. She says he was economical, and on the 5th of April, 1875, started with John Hardy, son of Samuel Hardy, to go to Monroe station, eight miles away. He had with him a gun, a silver watch and $400 in money. She never heard from him directly, but Hardy told her that he went to California and afterward to Texas. Hardy has been arrested. He denies all guilt, and says he went to the station with Lanning, and has letters received from him since.

A few days ago E. G. Patten, constable of Winslow, Me., who also owns a blacksmith shop, seized some liquor at the depot, which was taken from him by force by the parties claiming the same. A warrant was immediately procured for the assault. Thursday night Mr. Patten's blacksmith's shop was broken into, and tools and other property taken therefrom. Two granite posts belonging to E. B. Dunn of Waterville, a prominent temperance man, were also destroyed.

Dr. G. J. Crowley, a practicing physician of Rutland, Vt., about forty years old, committed suicide Friday, by taking thirty grains of morphine. The cause is not known. He entered a drug store in a state of excitement, bought the morphine, went home and swallowed it. He told his wife what he had done, and three physicians were called, but could not save him. He talked quietly to them for ten minutes. He said his life was not worth saving; he had disgraced himself and wanted to die.

No little regret has been caused in evangelical and non-conformist religious circles in Portland by the announcement that Rev. Dr. Newman Hall was married on Easter Monday to Miss Knife, with whom his wife accused him of having been unduly intimate for many years; he acknowledged that he had fallen in love with Miss Knife, and that he intended to marry her if the divorce was granted. These statements shocked many of Dr. Hall's friends, and they urged him not to marry the young lady. Dr. Hall is now sixty-five years old, and his new wife is about thirty years.—Biddeford Times.

Political.

The Michigan City Despatch asks, "After Tilden, who?" to which the New York World responds, "The United States district attorney, with a claim for unpaid taxes."

Gov. Garcelon is surprised at the frauds which were practiced by some of his council. He reminds us of a story told of a former citizen of our town. He was a highly respected citizen, but thought it no harm to evade the revenue law, if he didn't get caught. Once he was caught with a barrel of sugar which he had landed in the night time from his boat. A customs officer was watching him, and when asked what was in the barrel, he replied that he didn't know; some one had put it into his boat, but he hadn't the most remote idea as to its contents. The officer stove in the head of the barrel, and our citizen looking in exclaimed, "By George, it's sugar, ain't it."—Eastport Sentinel.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait.—Burlington hawkeye.

—At a social game of poker a Virginia City merchant recently won an undeveloped gravel claim, near Nevada city, and was laughed at. He said, with strong language, that he'd show them a trick or two, and soon after "sealing" his gravel bed with $500 worth of gold dust and small nuggets, induced eastern capitalists to examine his claim. They did so, bought it of him for $2,000, and in the first three weeks took $8,000 out of the claim. Then the Virginia City merchant was very disgusted with himself.

"Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving away, either as ministers or those who study closely, will find in Fellows' Hypophosphites Syrup the material to build them up and the tonic to keep them there.

DR. C. CLAY.

—The wide leather belts recently so popular with the fair sex have disappeared from the street, and hundreds of husbands are now strapping their razors on leather that once encircled their wives' waists.—Lowell Courier.

Pure water, fresh air, sunlight, and a bottle of Atkinson's Botanic Balsam (in case of coughs or colds) will save many doctors' bills and give health and vigor that no money can procure.

—It is pointed out that in these bad times a hint how to provide a most acceptable and inexpensive present for the children may not be unwelcome. It was the practice of an eminent army surgeon to lock up his olive branch a week before the anniversary of his birthday. On that day he solemnly opened his dungeon and released him, saying: "The most valuable boon which man can enjoy is liberty! Take it, my son, as a welcome present from your parent!"

Rich in fat producing material beyond all other foods and medicines are Malt Bitters.

Dropsy and Rheumatism.

Dropsical and Rheumatic persons find the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey, and the Wine Bitters, of incalculable benefit. Their purity and valuable properties have given them a wide reputation among physicians throughout this country and Europe. This wine took the highest premium at the late Centennial. It is excellent for weary and debilitated females.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

Fashionable Fancies.

Spanish lace is a furore.

Waistcoats are out of fashion.

Archery is fashionable in Georgia.

Old fashioned lutestring ribbons are revived.

Bonnets are small, of medium size, and hats are very large.

Ostrich plumes are to be the spring and summer feathers.

Butterflies formed of cashmere feathers and of cashmere beads are used on black lace bonnets.

The new shade in brown is exactly the color of old copper, and will be extensively used this season.

Jacqueminot or "Jacque" roses, violets, Marshal Neil roses and daffodowndillies are the favorite flowers now.

Feathers will be very much used on large summer bonnets that will be worn at watering-places. For small bonnets flowers will be preferred.

Lovely white muslin hats trimmed with open work like Irish point lace, or with Breton lace in spirals and full quilling, are shown for garden wear.

Square handkerchiefs of bright colored striped foulard are twisted into pretty dress caps for ladies, and fastened on the head with large Spanish pins or bouquets of artificial flowers.

There is a graceful fashion in millinery of veiling the flowers of warm color with gold-sprinkled tulle, which gives them exceeding delicacy and softness, besides preserving their freshness longer.

Among the many colors in spring silks are changeable "gorge de pigeon," with blue heliotrope, and blue, fire-color and water-green and mauve with gray; these silks combine admirably with satin.

Paniers are becoming so light and small that many persons are under the impression that they are going out of fashion. This is a mistake; they are still arranged in light draperies, and there is no further indication for the present of any change in this respect.

Early in the season as it is for parasols, many new styles are shown in the large establishments. Among the handsomest are those in solid colors, on one side of which is a bunch of hand-painted flowers. Ladies having a talent for painting but the plain parasols and paint a bunch of their favorite flowers thereon.

—When a woman wants to be pretty she hangs her hair, and when she wants to be ugly she hangs the door.

—While the great west, through the medium of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has been boasting of its triplets who have reached together the ages of twenty-one and even of fifty years, the east, conscious in the extent of its own resources, which have never failed it when the attacks of other sections of the land have been made upon it, has quietly contemplated its possession of the "boss" triplets of all. These are the product of a Nantucket family, that of the late James C. Lawrence, who are now all living at the age of seventy years. They are Mrs. Mary L. Paddock, now living on the island, and her brothers Francis and James, who live in California and Wisconsin respectively. Each has been married and raised a family of children.

There's not a charm that light's the face
With so ineffable a grace,
As sweet, pink lips and ivory teeth;
And nothing more, beneath the sky,
Can beauties such as these supply,
Save SOZODONT, that wears the wreath.

A Down Town Merchant

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother slipped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and the little fellow awoke next morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering, crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudice of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 6

AROUND HOME.

The Journal says "there are parties from this city" on board the U. S. S. Marion, at Rio Janeiro,—a long way to go to attend a party.

Capt. Jonathan Young, U. S. N., executive officer at this navy yard, returned to the yard on Saturday after a month's leave of absence.

Sunday forenoon was more like a day in the latter part of May than the 4th of April; overcoats were not plenty on the streets, and those who did have them on looked half ashamed.

Capt. Chas. C. Carpenter, U. S. N., returned from his examination for promotion at Washington to his residence in this city on Saturday. Capt. Carpenter reports for duty at the Boston navy yard this morning.

The fishing schooner "Water Lilly," of Eliot, is alongside the old wharf at Noble's island, undergoing extensive repairs. She is to have a new deck, bulwarks, etc.,—in fact, pretty much all her upper works are to be renewed.

The editor of one of our local papers begins a long article upon the state prison thus: "Having a spare hour in Concord last week, our steps very naturally, of course, turned towards the state prison." People whose steps naturally turn that way find oftimes considerably more than a spare hour in that cheerful establishment.

At the annual meeting of the Portsmouth Mercantile Library Association, Friday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Frank L. Pryor; secretary, Albert H. Sides; treasurer and librarian, Wm. C. Robinson; directors, Chas. H. Hazlett, Thomas H. Odlin, Charles H. Marston, Floron Barri, Wm G. Billings, Edward H. Hall; trustees, Wm. H. Sise, Wm. E. Hadley, T. E. O. Marvin.

The Butler shoe manufactory at the Creek was burglariously entered Friday night, and samples and other goods stolen. The thieves, who were evidently well acquainted with the premises, effected an entrance by getting into a one-story building near by, used for feather-bed renovating, and connected with the third story of the shoe-shop by a wooden chute. Through this chute the thieves crawled to the third story of the factory, and then easily made their way down stairs, passing out of the back door of the factory.

The house of Mr. Allen Pride, at Newmarket, was broken into on Thursday night last. The burglars effected an entrance through the cellar door, and pretty thoroughly explored the lower story of the house, as quantities of burnt matches were found scattered on the floors. None of the inmates were awakened, and nothing of value has been missed. The thieves probably expected to find money, as Mr. Pride collects bills for the firm of D. Lothrop & Co., of Dover, but they were unsuccessful in their search.

There were a number of arrivals at this port Saturday, and the wharves, which on Friday presented an absolutely bare appearance from Noble's island to the navy yard landing, on Sunday looked much better. The schooner Ida Hudson, from Rondout with cement, the Commonwealth, from Rockland with lime, and the Rebecca Shepherd, from Philadelphia with coal, moored at Concord railroad wharf; the Ida E. Latham, from New York with coal, hauled in to Sise's wharf, and the brig F. H. Fodd, from Port Johnson with coal for Sise & Co., took a temporary berth at Jones' wharf. Besides these vessels, one good-sized three-masted schooner went through the bridge on her way to Dover, in tow, and another one came to an anchor off Noble's island, and was towed up on Sunday.

The selectmen of Newmarket, in a notice dated April 1st, addressed "to whom it may concern," and printed in the Advertiser of that town, say: "Notice is hereby given, that the law prohibiting the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors as a beverage, including lager beer and ale, will be enforced by the undersigned, selectmen of Newmarket, upon all persons in said town who may violate its provisions." As the selectmen of that town once before issued a similar proclamation, from which nothing particular resulted, the liquor dealers of the place will probably regard this one as a sort of April fool joke, to be laughed at and disregarded.

The brig F. H. Todd, Maguire master, in coming up the river Saturday afternoon, lost her wind when near Badger's island, and had to let go her anchor to keep her from running ashore. She brought up so near the island that the current swung her stern against the rocks, but she was towed off at slack water with no apparent damage.

The old bell of the Middle street Baptist church in this city, which about the year 1825 was lent to the first Baptist church in Exeter, and was purchased by Deacon Moses and given to the present Baptist church, having been recast was hung in the tower of the new First Baptist church on Front street, Exeter, on Saturday, and rang out its peal from its new position for the first time. This church edifice is one of the finest in the state.

The sermon at the Unitarian church on Sunday forenoon was an eloquent and interesting sketch of the life, character and religious teachings of Dr. Channing, the one hundredth anniversary of whose birth is to be celebrated at Newport, R. I., on Wednesday. The sermon at vespers was in continuation of the subject; the preaching of Channing and its influence upon the world were among the subjects referred to by the pastor of the church, and both discourses were listened to with a great degree of interest. Rev. Mr. DeNormandie is take part in the exercises at Newport.

WRECK.

Schooner Johnny Meserve, E. L. Kenniston master, of Rockland, Me., 88.35 tons register, bound from Boston for Rockland in ballast, in attempting to enter Portsmouth lower harbor Saturday night about nine o'clock went on the rocks at Odiorne's point, through mistaking a light in Col. Eastman's cottage for the light on Whalesback, there being a thick fog at the time, and the foghorn not being heard. The schooner was high up at low water, in a very bad position, and it was supposed she would be a total loss. The crew saved their personal effects, and were cared for by the people living in the vicinity of the wreck. The schooner was six years old.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

The "Pirates of Penzance," at Music hall Saturday evening, drew a much larger audience than we expected to see, the scale of prices being higher than people generally are willing to pay, and Saturday evening not being a favorable date for a show in this city; for an ordinary company the audience would have been counted a large one, but we question if this immense company paid expenses. The play is finely put on the stage, the singing and acting are excellent, and there is considerable fun in the piece; but we do not think the "Pirates of Penzance" will ever attain the popularity of "Pinafore."

"ALL THE RAGE."

The Providence Star says of this comedy, that "the action is rapid, the dialogue bubbling with humor of the richest, purest kind, and the acting is of the highest order. Such a play, presented by such a company, cannot fail to catch on to public popularity. Frank Hardenbergh was warmly welcomed, and played with a vim, vivacity and grace that told. He handled the really witty dialogue that fell to his part with an ease and dry naturalness that kept his auditors on the broad grin all the time. Every movement and every word showed the finished artist. Mr. Davidge, as the irate doctor, was almost equally good. Those who dislike to laugh should avoid this show, but those who enjoy the ludicrous, the humorous and the sprightly, excellently interpreted, should not miss seeing All the Rage!" Tickets now on sale, at Preston's. See adv't.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Miss Flora Appleby, of Ogunquit, has a cat which has on each fore paw seven toes, and all of her kittens have the same number of toes.

F. A. Knight of North Berwick, a blacksmith whose winter recreation is fox-hunting, has been out eleven times this season with his dog and gun, and has taken twelve foxes.

Sixteen fishermen from Ogunquit spent a night on Boon island recently, the weather being such as to prevent their reaching home. They were hospitably entertained by the light-keepers.

Rev. S. S. Cummings, of the Baldwin place, Boston, home for little wanderers, will visit the 1st Methodist Episcopal church of Kittery on the morning of the 13th inst., the 2nd Methodist church in the afternoon, and the Methodist church at South Eliot in the evening.

W. N. Perkins, Jr., of Ogunquit, will not fire both barrels of his gun at once next time he shoots at a flock of ducks. He tried it on Monday of last week, and the gun kicked with uncommon vigor, knocking out two of his teeth, cutting his lip, making a hole through his nose, and badly bruising his shoulder and cheek.

A house at Kittery point belonging to Leroy Channing was burned on the 2d inst. Loss $1400; insurance $700.

A singular case of a real estate transaction has just been unearthed in Wells. Samuel B. Farnsworth and James M. Buffum, ex-mayor of Lynn, Mass., and a well-known labor reformer, purchased of George Butland and sister several thousand dollars worth of real estate, and gave their notes for the same, covering a period of eight years. Mr. Butland has been in very poor health for some time, and the deeds of the property were signed by him three days before he died; and it is held that at the time of signing he was not in a proper condition to transact any business. An injunction has been granted restraining the parties from making use of the property under such conveyance. The sister, who is non compos mentis, has been placed under the guardianship of John W. Treadwell, and he has commenced action against Messrs. Farnsworth and Buffum.—Kennebunk Star.

Naval Gazetts.

The U. S. S. Tallapoosa, Lieut. McRitchie commanding, arrived at Boston from Baltimore on Friday.

The President on Friday sent to the senate the following promotions: Commodores John M. B. Clitz and Andrew Bryson to be rear admirals; Captains Stephen P. Quackenbush and Earl English to be commodores; Commanders Richard W. Meade and Charles C. Carpenter to be captains; Lieutenant Commanders George H. Wadleigh and A. S. Crowninshield to be commanders; Lieutenants Joseph E. Craig and George Talcott to be lieutenant commanders; Masters Hugo Osterhaus, John B. Collins and Charles E. C. W. Calley's buckskin mill and tannery in Plymouth was burned Friday night. Loss $4,500; insurance about $3,000.

Charles N. Colburn, of the firm of Baker & Colburn, of Nashua, was arrested on Friday last on a charge of setting fire to the store of the firm, which is in the basement of the block partially burned on the night of Wednesday, the 31st ult.

Lindell E. Hoyt is suspected of the recent murderous assault on Mr. Healey at Candia, and is being looked for by the officers.

The Other Side.

A curious commentary on Lord Beaconsfield's twaddle about the population of the United States being swarming across the line into Manitoba and other of the British provinces, is contained in the following extract from the Globe, of St. John, N. B.:

It would, no doubt, be very difficult to make an absolutely correct estimate of the number of people now leaving the maritime provinces for the United States, but it would not be too much to say that they are departing from the province of Nova Scotia at the present time at the rate of one thousand a week. Indeed, we believe that these figures are largely within the number. They are going west by the Intercolonial railway, by St. John & Maine railway, by the steamer "Scud" from Annapolis and then by the International line, by the Halifax steamers and by sailing vessels. It is presumed that some of those who go north by the Intercolonial railway go to province of Manitoba, but if they do they are lost to us as much as if they went to the mines of Leadville. From our own province, too, the number that is leaving is very large. It is impossible to contemplate this departure of our people without feelings of sadness. It is a matter that rises above all party questions, and if any possible remedy can be found for it, it ought to be applied.

—A tin pedler in Newburg, N. Y., found a pocket-book containing $1000 in a lot of rags he bought one day last week in Orange county, and immediately returned it to the owner.

—Young man, don't swear. There is no occasion for swearing outside of a newspaper office, where it is useful in proof reading, and indispensably necessary in getting forms to press. It has been known, also, materially to assist an editor in looking over the paper after it is printed. But otherwise it is a very foolish habit.—Steubenville Herald.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. A. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price, $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.50.

A Horse Auction.

"Here, gentlemen," said the auctioneer, "is a horse—"

Bystander—"Glad you told us it was a horse, or we might have taken it for a sheep."

Auctioneer—"That wouldn't be so very strange if it had your head on. You see before you, gentlemen, a family horse."

Bystander—"He got those bunches on his knees from kneeling down at family prayers, didn't he?"

Auctioneer—"You'll never have any bunches on your knees on that account. A horse, gentlemen, that any family might well be proud of. Look what an eye he has."

Bystander—"What has become of the other eye?"

Auctioneer—"Gone to look after another such fool as you are. Like old dog Tray, so touchingly described by the Sweet Singer of Michigan, (singing)—

"He's gentle and he's kind—"

Bystander——"——— the kind."

Auctioneer—

"You'll never, never find—"

Bystander—"He would be fined by any court in Christendom, for spring halteration and interfering generally."

Auctioneer—

"A better horse than this old gray,
Old gray horse is ever faithful, et cetera. But we cannot waste our time on poetry, although the noble steed before you is the very poetry of motion. How much for him? What do I hear?"

Bystander—"Nothing, if you can't hear more than he does."

Auctioneer—"Among horses, gentlemen, this is the very ne plus ultra—"

Bystander—'Knock-knee-plus-ultra, you mean."

Auctioneer—"And the sine-qua-non—"

Bystander—"Compos mentis."

Auctioneer—"The tears you see running down his eyes, gentlemen, are not an indication of a want of flesh; they are simply a wise provision of Providence for carrying off the rain water."

Bystander—"What's the matter with his tail?

Auctioneer—"He was formerly owned by a violin manufacturer, and he pulled out all the hairs for fiddle bows. What do I hear?"

But we had heard enough to satisfy us that our friend was right, and that it was absurd to squander money on shows so long as these horse auctions are kept up to their present high standard.

WILLIS G. MYERS,

1 Congress Block Portsmouth, N. H.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere; and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMOOR, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

Chinese Money.

The Chinese probably illustrate to the most extreme manner the length to which loose views concerning currency can be carried. The history of their currency presents that mingling of the grotesque with the tragic which most of their actions have when viewed through western eyes. Coin money was known among them as early as the eleventh century before Christ, but their inability to comprehend the principles upon which a currency should be based has led them into all sorts of extravagances, which have been attended with disorder, famine and bloodshed. Coins came at last to be made so thin that 1,000 of them piled together were only three inches high; then gold and silver were abandoned; and copper, tin, shells, skins, stones and paper were given a fixed value, and used until, by abuse, all the advantages to be derived from the use of money were lost and there was nothing left for the people to do but to go back to barter, which they did more than once. They cannot be said now to have a coinage; 2,900 years ago they made round coins with a square hole in the middle, and they have made no advance beyond that yet. The well-known cash is a cast-brass coin of that description, and although it is valued at about one mill and a half of our money, and has to be strung in lots of a thousand to be computed with any ease, it is the sole measure of value and legal tender of the country. Spanish, Mexican, and our new trade dollars, are employed in China; they pass because they are necessary for larger operations, and because faith in their standard value has become established; but they are current simply as stamped ingots, with their weight and fineness indicated.

He Learned Something.

A gentleman not versed in the intricacies of feminine attire evidently thought it his duty to become a little critical in such matters after his marriage. Of course nothing was good enough for his bride, and several times he made slighting remarks about an overdress of hers. It was not heavy enough nor long enough to suit his fancy.

"I have a new black silk to trim," she said, "and you shall buy me the trimmings in Boston to suit yourself." This he very cheerfully consented to do, merely asking her for the number of yards of fringe and silk and jet gimp for its heading. He entered a large Boston store, asked to see the prettiest of silk trimmings, and after much careful thought on the subject, selected the softest and heaviest of chenille silk fringe, and the widest and prettiest and most jetted of gimp, and had the required number of yards cut off. He remembered having heard somewhere that trimmings were expensive, yet after all, they were but trifles, and a very small part of the whole. Yet, he thought, as he took out his pocketbook, the pile looked so soft and pretty, and glittered so, that perhaps it would break well into a ten-dollar bill, and he had it ready. The clerk figured away, and remarked, as he signaled a cash-boy, "Fifty-one dollars and seventy cents, sir."

Whatever the inner man may have felt, there was no outward sign. He walked to the desk and drew his check for the amount. He was newly-married or it might have been different. He has now one more commission. His wife insists that he shall go to Boston once more and buy her a black silk suitable for that trimming, the one she has being not half fine enough; but he refuses to do any more shopping, and falls into a brown study when a glittering garment sweeps past him, and is convinced that the trimmings of this vain world would clothe the naked and feed the hungry.—Boston Transcript.

—Canned crabs are the latest.

—It was at the "fag end" of the war. Richmond had fallen. A South Carolina soldier, trudging along with the remnant of Lee's army, said to his comrades, "Well, boys, blamed if I don't begin to believe South Carolina was a little hasty."

—The Parisian dealers are very sly. One of their favorite tricks is to place their pseudo antiquities in country inns and cottages in Brittany or Normandy. The tourist or the sportsman sees them one day; the innkeeper says they have been in his family for hundreds of years, and the unsophisticated amateur pays a long price for them, and restores them to their native Paris, which they had left only a few weeks before.

—Prof. C. F. Richel of Bridgeport, who went to New York last week with his new flying machine, tells the reporters there that he believes the invention will afford a means of reaching the north pole. His idea is that if there is little or no wind at the pole, as scientists claim, his machine could begin the work of exploration from the furthest point a ship could go. It could carry the means to renew the gas in its bag, and could travel for days at a time.

The "Albemarle" Prize-Money.

The report of the committee on naval affairs on the bill for the relief of the captors of the ram Albemarle, recalls the story of one of the most daring achievements of the late war, the capture and destruction of that formidable vessel, followed by the capture of Plymouth, N. C., with great quantities of military and naval stores. For prize money for this vessel, which cost the Confederates $1,500,000, and would have cost us more than half that, the captors, only two of whom escaped death or capture, were originally awarded but $79,944 in prize money. A reappraisal was subsequently had by act of Congress, and $202,912 90 additional allowed, leaving to be distributed, after deducting costs, $273,135.09. Of this sum, $21,850.80 went to the fleet officers, the rest was distributed as follows: W. B. Cushing, $56,056.27; Frank H. Swan, $31,102.20; W. Stoddurbury and C. L. Steever, each $23,925; W. L. Howarth, $35,887.50; T. S. Gay, $28,-710; J. Woodman, $11,484; S. Higgins, $8,613.01; R. Hamilton, $5,742.01; E. J. Houghton, B. Harley, W. Smith, each $4,593.60; R. H. King, H. Wilkes, L. Deming, each $4,019.40. The distribution was made in the proportion of the salaries at the time the award was made, which the report from which we quote holds was "in violation of the law and of the spirit and intent of the decree of the United States court." The distribution, it is held, should have been made upon the basis of salaries at the time of the capture. They hold that the rights of captors rest at the time of capture. They also hold that the torpedo boat, was a single ship, under and within the true intent and provision of the law, and that Cushing should have had but one-tenth of the prize money, and the balance should have been distributed among the others in proportion to their rates of pay. This would reduce Cushing's share by $30,-927.84; Howarth's, $18,979.02; Gay's, $11,801.52, and increase that of the others various amounts, for which it is proposed that they be permitted to sue in the court of claims. Paymaster Swan, who is still in the service, would get $14,691.-30 additional,—or at least the right to sue for it.

Pennsylvania Banditti.

The people of Honey Brook township, Chester county, Pa., are in a terrible state of alarm over the depredations of a band of Welsh Mountain thieves, who are burning their barns, and driving off their stock. The marauders robbed a country school house of a large Bible, nailed it to a tree and posted a notice, with skull and cross bones attached, stating that if the Horse Insurance company followed them up to make arrests, a fearful desolation would at once follow. A number of the members of the detective company have had their horses and cattle poisoned. A despatch from that locality says: "Honey Brook and the adjoining townships will be in a worse state of agitation than they were when the Gap gang were in existence. Barns have been burned by the marauders, stock have been poisoned, two horses with wagon and harness have been lately driven off, and never been traced out of the township, and robberies of a petty sort are a nightly occurrence. 'What shall be done?' is the cry of the citizens. They have already suffered greatly, and are in nightly expectation of seeing their buildings go up in smoke, as have those of many of their neighbors."

Connecticut Banditti.

Four dime-novel heroes, all under twelve years of age, started from Benedict farms, Conn., one day last week, on a campaign, armed with a revolver and a butcher knife. In the outskirts of Westport they built a hut, and set out on a foraging expedition. An old hen was successfully chased, but unluckily the owner pounced upon the boys, had them arrested, and they were each fined $7 and costs, which their parents paid.

News and Notes.

Daniel H. Knight, Jr., of Newburyport, thirty-four years old and unmarried, hung himself Monday morning.

Quite a shock of earthquake occurred at Fort Fairfield and in Maysville, Me., between two and three o'clock Saturday morning.

Eli Carpenter, a seventeen-years-old colored boy, has pleaded guilty at Bridgewater, Conn., to a charge of manslaughter, and been sentenced to the reform school until he is twenty-one. He shot Amos June of Greenwich, who lived seven weeks with a bullet in his heart.

By the caving in of the walls of the vault of the Methodist chapel in Attorney street, New York, Saturday, hundreds of human skeletons were exposed to view. The vault was sealed up over a quarter of a century ago, and then contained over 5000 bodies. It was a popular burying place during the cholera epidemic of 1832. It is probable that the vault will be filled up by the authorities without removing the skeletons, as there are few people now living who are interested in the remains buried there.

At Narrow Ridge, Mendocino county, Cal., on Sunday, Neil S. Hammond killed his wife Johanna and her paramour, Frank Allsen, as they were sleeping together, braining both. Hammond's little son, who was sleeping in the same bed, gave the alarm, and the murderer was secured. Hammond states that the intimacy had continued for the past year, and that he felt obliged to commit the deed. It is known that he had been fully aware of the nature of the intimacy, and apparently acquiesced in it, even to the extent of frequently sharing the same room with the guilty pair.

Samuel Ridlon, Sr., of Hiram, Me., has lived to see eighty-six descendants; fourteen children, sixty-three grandchildren and twenty-three great-grandchildren, all born within a few miles of his homestead. Mr. Ridlon and wife are in full possession of their mental faculties, and in comfortable health, at the ages of eighty-four and eighty-two respectively.

A man named Linscott and a woman named Lucy Johnson, with whom he was living in adultery in the town of Appleton, in Knox county, Me., have been arrested for causing the death of their illegitimate child. The woman confessed her guilt and that of her paramour.

A boiler in the saw mill of John H. Lawler, situated ten miles from Rushville, Ill., exploded Saturday afternoon with terrific force, demolishing the mill, and instantly killing Wesley M. Parker, fatally wounding John Randall and Thomas Jones, and seriously injuring two other persons.

At midnight on Saturday, at Harkers' Corners, near Peoria, Ill., Theo. Wasson entered the house of his divorced wife, and fired nine shots at her while she lay in bed, two from a shotgun and seven from a revolver, wounding her twice in the breast and head. He then kicked her in the head and face, and she begging for mercy, he relented and attempted to bind up her wounds, caring for her until five o'clock Sunday morning, when he took to the woods. The woman may possibly recover.

The Nautical Gazette states that when the four steam yachts now building at Chester, Philadelphia and Newburg are finished they will make a race to Southampton, England. The pool will be $60,000, the first boat in to take the prize.

A cyclone in Kansas, last Friday night, destroyed dozens of residences in Ottawa and Girard, and demolished many other buildings. Four persons were killed and many seriously injured.

The agents at Washington of the American Colonization society state that half a million colored people are ready to emigrate to Liberia, if the opportunity is furnished.

A United States senator states that this country paid $60,000,000 for pensions last year. England pays only $10,000,000, and France and Germany together pay only $8,000,000.

A terrible fire has occurred in Montainmout, a village of Savoy, France, in which seventeen of the inhabitants perished, and thirty-one dwellings were destroyed.

By the colliery explosion at Anderlues, Belgium, on Wednesday of last week, forty-two persons were killed. Forty-four who were in the pit at the time of the disaster escaped.

There is a break in the Anglo-American company's cable of 1873, at a point thirty-six miles from the landing place on the Irish coast, in eighty fathoms of water.

Political.

There is considerable of a fight going on between the democratic members of the house committee on elections, over the question of giving to Donnelly, democrat, the seat to which Congressman Washburn of Iowa was elected by a majority of over three thousand votes. The democrats in conspirators have got to calling each other liars and rascals, and telling other unpleasant truths.

New Hampshire Items.

Charles N. Colburn, of the firm of Baker & Colburn of Nashua, arrested on the charge of setting fire to his store, was discharged Saturday night after a continued hearing during the day. The state evidence was extremely weak.

A distressing case of lockjaw has occurred in Manchester within a few days. A French Canadian, by the name of Joseph Daniel, while using an axe, accidentally cut off three toes. He neglected the wound, and in a few days was seized with lockjaw, and died on the 21st ult. He suffered severely till near death, when the muscles of his jaw relaxed and he passed off without much suffering.

Naval Gazette.

The U. S. S. Constitution arrived at Fortress Monroe on Friday from Havana; all on board reported well.

The President on Friday approved the joint resolution directing the secretary of the navy to organize a board of not less than five nor more than seven naval officers, to inquire into the present condition of the double turreted monitors, and the propriety of completing them on the present models and agreements. The board are directed to report any change in the present plans that they may deem advisable. The report is to be transmitted to congress by the secretary, with his opinions thereon.

By direction of the secretary of the navy, Civil Engineer W. P. S. Sanger, bureau of yards and docks; Naval Constructors Philip Hichborn and W. L. Mintonye; Chief Engineer H. H. Stewart, and Civil Engineer F. C. Prindle, U. S. N., made an inspection on March 25th of the dry dock at Locust point, near fort McHenry, Md., now nearly completed. The inspection was made at the request of the Baltimore Dry Dock company. Gen. R. B. Ayers, U. S. A., commandant of Fort McHenry, and the principal officers of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad accompanied the inspectors. After a thorough inspection of the works the party formed a group at the upper end of the dock, and several photographs were taken. The Baltimore American says: "The government officers were reticent about expressing their opinions of the new dock before making their report to the secretary of the navy, but they appeared highly pleased with what they saw, one or two remarking that this was the finest dry dock in the country, and that the arrangements for repairing and building vessels with economy and despatch were unequalled in any other city in the United States."

are made by thousands of invalids annually to consult with the medical and surgical staff of the World's Dispensary and Invalid's Hotel, the largest private sanitarium in the world. All chronic diseases are treated by scientific methods. The practice is divided among nine eminent specialists. Among the most popular domestic medicines in the land are those manufactured by this association, among which are Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great alterative or blood-cleanser, and Dr. Pierce's Pellets (little pills) that have largely superseded the old-fashioned cathartic pills. Compound Extract of Smart-Weed is deservedly popular as a remedy for diarrhœa, dysentery, flux, and kindred diseases; also as a pain-killer and remedy for colds. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the great remedy for female weakness and associated derangements. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is the "Old Reliable." Invalids' Guide-Book—10 cents, post-paid. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., or London, England.

—Five years ago next June the wife of Rev. Thomas Guard, while journeying in the cars near New York, gave a valuable diamond ring to her child to play with, and the little girl in throwing a bit of orange-peel from the car-window, allowed the ring to slip from her finger. Search for the ring was made by employees of the road, unsuccessfully, at the time, but it was found a few weeks ago by a track-walker.

There's not a charm that light's the face
With so ineffable a grace,
As sweet, pink lips and ivory teeth;
And nothing now, beneath the sky,
Can beauties such as these supply,

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if desired), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, April 6, 1:30 A. M.

Colder clear or partly cloudy weather, north westerly winds and rising barometer.

AROUND HOME.

The U. S. Tallapoosa arrived at the navy yard on Monday.

The brig which touched the rocks at Badger's Island, Saturday, was not at the time in charge of a branch pilot, the skipper of a fishing boat having taken the job to pilot her up.

At the annual meeting of the Portsmouth Mercantile Library Association, Friday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, William A. Hodgton; vice president, Frank L. Pryor; secretary, Albert H. Sides; treasurer and librarian, Wm. C. Robinson; directors, Chas. H. Hazlett, Thomas H. Odlon, Charles H. Marston, Floron Barri, Wm G. Billings, Edward H. Hall; trustees, Wm. H. Sise, Wm. E. Hadley, T. E. O. Marvin.

We noticed this morning at the store of Moses Bros. a beautiful orchid, or air-plant, from the conservatory of Mr. C A. Hazlett. It has a number of peculiar shaped brown and yellow flowers, and grows on a hard clay slab, with its roots exposed to the air. There is also on the same counter a very rare pitcher-plant, the only one ever seen in this city, with pitchers (and covers to the same) six inches in length hanging by long, slender stems from the ends of the leaves.

The schooner M. E. Eldridge, formerly of this port, 299 tons register, when only six months old was badly burnt at Cape Cod. She was towed round to the yard of Taylor & Colby at Chelsea, Mass., and Capt. G. M. Edwards had a new stem put into her and the vessel almost entirely rebuilt, and this week she comes off the stocks with a new name and looking like a new ship. Her rig has been altered from a three-master to a two-master. She is intended for the coasting trade, and classes for twelve years.

The celebrated Providence line of steamers have resumed their trips for the season. This line, with its rail connection from New York by way of Providence, and the sound, is one of the finest routes of travel in the world. The railway ride of forty-two miles, over one of the very best roads in the country, is performed in an hour, while the elegance, speed and capacity of the steamers Rhode Island and Massachusetts is unrivalled. Travellers from this city can leave Portsmouth at three o'clock P. M., and Boston at six o'clock P. M., reaching New York at six o'clock on the following morning. The boats leave New York for the east at five o'clock in the afternoon. The agency of the Providence line in Boston is at the long-established office, corner of State and Washington streets.

It is said that Mr Waite is preparing for a grand expose of Spiritualism on Fast day evening, at Music hall. He has been doing the exposition business in Dover—that is, he has shown how many of the so-called spiritual manifestations may be produced, and how many of them no doubt are produced, by sleight of hand and ingenious mechanical contrivances; but expo-ing the tricks of dishonest "mediums" does not explain what is most mysterious in spiritualism, and which has bothered more eminent scientists and deeper thinkers even than Mr. Waite. We would willingly give a five-dollar bill for the privilege of listening to a lucid, scientific, conclusive explanation of the mysteries of spiritualism; we wouldn't give five cents to listen to or witness an expose of all the bosh and humbuggery with which spiritualism is surrounded.

ENGINE ELECTIONS.

The annual meetings of the several fire engine companies were held on Monday evening, and officers elected as follows:

Col. Sise S. F. E. Co., No. 2: Foreman, George Philbrick; assistant foreman, George W. Tripp; clerk and treasurer, Herman Manson; steward, Francis H. Hersey.

Kearsarge S. F. E. Co., No. 3: Foreman, John E. Harmon; 1st assistant foreman, Chas. W. Coleman; 2d assistant foreman, John W. Clark; clerk, James H. Hurd; steward, Fred Haddock.

Moses H. Goodrich S. F. E. Co., No. 4: Foreman, John S. Banks; 1st assistant foreman, Edward Watkins; 2d assistant foreman, Andrew J. Langdon; pipeman, John H. Webber; steward, Augustus Ham; clerk, Edwin M. Shannon.

WORKINGMEN'S INSTITUTE.

The members of the Workingmen's Institute had an oyster supper at their reading room on McDonough street, Saturday evening, thirty members of the association being present. Speeches were made by Mr. Geo. W. Pendexter, (the host of the evening,) Jere. Towle, Wm. Ward and others. Rev. Chas. A. Holbrook, president of the association, was prevented by his parochial duties from being present. Another reunion will occur on Fast night, with Mr. Wm. Ward as the host. The association is in a flourishing condition, and has some paying members among the most prominent citizens; Commodore Pickering, U. S. N., not only encourages the organization in this way, but contributes reading matter for the room, and the institution desires more of just such public spirited citizens. T.

SUPREME COURT.

The April term of the supreme court begins at Exeter on Tuesday, the 13th inst., before Hon. Lewis W. Clark. The number of actions upon the continued docket is 267; upon the equity docket, fifty-nine; number of state actions, twelve. The following is a partial list of grand jurors:

John C. Sanborn, Hampton Falls; Sherburne D. Smith, Londonderry; Sylvester Yeaton, Newcastle; Arthur G. Hoyt, Newington; Frank R. Alley, Newmarket; John S. Peaslee, Newton; Chas. A. Hill, Northwood; Robert S. Foss, Rye; George F. Dow, Seabrook; Alfred S. Jewell, South Hampton; Otis B. French, Stratham.

Andrew H. White of Newcastle, and Fred. W. DeRochemont, Jr., of Newington, are returned to serve as petit jurors April 26th.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

The bad weather on Saturday afternoon did not prevent a good attendance at the Band of Hope meeting at the mission hall. It was voted by the meeting to visit, on Saturday afternoon next, the Band of Hope at the Creek, conducted by Miss Esther Hague in connection with the mission school.

The gospel temperance meeting, Saturday evening, was one of the best, the attendance being good despite the storm. In the absence of Mrs. Silas Philbrick the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Hooper. Mr. John Haven read an original poem, which was received with applause; and Mr. James Sanborn made an excellent speech.

The bethel service, Sunday afternoon, was in charge of Mr. Dan. McIntire, and was interesting, as usual. A port society in connection with the bethel is to be organized, similar to those in Boston and New York, for the special benefit of seamen and the bethel; a full account will be given in due season.

The reform club held a good session Sunday evening, with speaking by members.

The Bow mission has nearly completed its first year as a mission, and a public celebration of the anniversary will probably be held, with a musical programme and addresses. L.

THE JOHNNY MESERVE WRECK.

The schooner Johnny Meserve, stranded on Odlorne's point at nine o'clock Saturday night, was on Monday reported to be about gone up, her bottom being pretty much torn to them. There were four or five big holes in her, Sunday afternoon, and she was high and dry at low tide, so that a person could walk completely around her.

In the accounts of this wreck telegraphed to the city papers, it was said that "for some reason the fog-horn at Whalesback light, close by, was not blowing at the time, which led the watch astray. This is the second complaint of the non-working of the foghorn within a few months." This statement is incorrect; the foghorn was sounding at the time of the wreck, and an hour before, as we are positively assured by residents of Newcastle and Kittery that they heard it blowing at an early hour in the evening and all through the night, and we heard it ourself at about the time the vessel is reported to have struck. That the crew of the schooner did not hear it is quite likely, for instead of the locality of the wreck being "close by" the lighthouse, it is two miles distant, and with the wind blowing smartly from the south and west it is easy to believe the sound did not reach Odlorne's point with force enough to be heard above the roar of the sea.

The foghorn was in use Saturday morning, and the light keeper says he did not draw the fire during the day, as the weather looked so unsettled; so when it commenced to shut in, at about eight o'clock in the evening, the horn was ready to start at once,—and it was started at once and kept going all through the night without cessation, up to about nine o'clock Sunday morning. The statement as to the time the horn was started is well corroborated by disinterested persons.

SOUTH SEABROOK, April 2d.

It was hoped the beach courtship had come to an end when case South Hampton vs. Richard Fowler had a final hearing; but courting has begun again, and this time the former defendant is the plaintiff. Now look out for case S. H. Goodall vs. Sewall B. Fowler. Mr. Fowler has for several years had a fishing house and dwelling on the beach, about a quarter of a mile from the fish house of Richard Fowler. On Monday last sheriff John N. Brown put an attachment of two hundred dollars on the buildings of Sewall B. Fowler, for rent claimed by S. H. Goodall, Sarah Kimball and Richard Fowler. The question now to be settled is, "Did the referees' decision give Richard Fowler a title to all the beach, or is there a limit to his claim?" There are two miles or more of beach in New Hampshire to the south of Hampton river, being the continuation of Salisbury beach; and some argue that the referee's decision did not give a title to the beach, but was simply "that Richard Fowler was not a trespasser, on any property of South Hampton." On whose property was he trespasser, then? Answer—13, 15, 14!

SEABROOK, April 3d.

Robert McQuillan, the young man injured by the careless handling of a revolver, lost the first finger of his left hand. Revolvers are getting very plenty, and the question now is, what shall be done about it? Some drunken roughs drew revolvers on Police Officer Lewis Gove a short time since, causing the using of "discretion as the better part of valor," and the roughs escaped arrest.

The following-named gentlemen were selected as prudential committees, at the several school district meetings: Samuel Stacy Walton, district No. 6; Edward L. Gove, No. 2; Rev. William A. Rand, No. 5; Robert Collins, No. 4; Jeremiah F. Gray, No. 3. Rev. Frank Haley, pastor of the Congregational church of Seabrook and Hampton Falls, has been tendered the position of school committee by the selectmen.

An old folks' concert was given at the Methodist church, on the evenings of March 25th and 26th; some thirty singers participated, under the leadership of Thomas A. Chase, Esq.; besides home talent, singers were present from Hampton Falls and Salisbury, making the concert an enjoyable one, and a success financially, some forty dollars being the result, for the benefit of the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Frye. EXE.

FISHERY NOTES.

Schooner Edward Webster, Capt. Solomon Jacobs, of Gloucester, Mass., arrived at New York on Monday morning with twenty thousand fresh mackerel, the first of the season. She stocked $1600.

Fishing schooner Polar Wave, which arrived at Gloucester on Saturday last, reports the loss of one of her crew, Geo. Nelson, who perished in his dory from exposure on the previous Monday. On Sunday, the 28th ult., in company with a man named Gray, Nelson left the schooner to attend to his trawls, and a gale and snow-storm coming on, the men were unable to find their way back to the schooner. On Monday morning at about nine o'clock Nelson died; Gray kept up his search for the schooner, and found her at three o'clock in the afternoon, his hands being badly frozen when he reached her. The schooner was on Banquereau at the time.

Sewell B. Fowler, of South Seabrook, lost his boat in the blow of March 24th. Mr. Fowler was fishing off the beach when the blow came on, and attempted to get into Hampton river, but was unable to in consequence of the wind and tide; he accordingly landed on the beach (the tide was down) and left the boat in the surf, secured to the shore by a line and anchor. By the drawing of a splice in the line the boat got adrift, and Mr. Fowler has not seen her since. The boat was a large dory, with places for two seats; the centre board was marked "Hunt," the name of the builder. There were one hundred and fifty pounds of fish in the boat when she went adrift.

The Saco & Biddeford Telephone & Telegraph Co. have completed their organization, and chosen the following officers; President, John Quinby; sec. and treas., J. F. Derby; directors, G. F. Calef, Frederick T. Brown, Frederick Yates, John Quinby, Daniel Coldthwaite, W. S. Dennett, John S. Derby. The company propose first to run a telegraph line to the pool and Ferry beach, and have already purchased the necessary apparatus for carrying that design into execution. Work has been commenced, and the line to the pool will be completed within ten days. It is proposed to establish a central system for telegraphic communication between Saco and Biddeford, including Old Orchard, and if sufficient encouragement is given, connection will be made with the central office in Portland.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

An Apache Mother.

Women belonging to the white civilized races could scarcely realize the hardihood and physical vigor of the Apache women. I recollect something that happened one day under my own notice which will illustrate this better than anything I can tell. A young Apache friend of mine had killed some game, and three or four of us went to help him eat it, and have a feast. He had a very handsome young wife, to whom he had been married about a year. Of course, she cooked and prepared the food for us, and when it when it was ready we all sat down and ate as much as we could, for it was very good. I cannot tell exactly the time we were eating and talking, but it was not less than half and not more than an hour. When we were about done the young wife came along, dressed up in all her finest clothing and ornaments, and seemed so much pleased and happy about something that we could not avoid noticing it, and her husband particularly. He asked what it was that made her look so gay and happy. She laughed and said, "No matter what it was," and for some time refused any explanation; but at length her husband, becoming irritated at her silence, she told him, if he must know, he would find out by walking down to the spring in the thicket. We all went down, and there, on a bed of moss, wrapped up in the finest skins, was a beautiful new-born child, dressed in the softest deerskin, and it even had its face painted. Its mother had certainly not been gone from us an hour, and when she returned was as lively and strong and blooming as if nothing had happened.—San Francisco Post.

—Life is made up of little things, in which smiles and kindnesses given habitually are what win and preserve the heart and secure comfort.

—The trade of blacksmith has been long honored. It has been glorified by Longfellow and other poets, pictured in glowing colors by Gilbert and many other dramatists, immortalized by the best novelists, and yet if you mistake a watchmaker for a blacksmith, he'll be mad as a singed monkey.—Boston Post.

—When the little elephant was born in the Philadelphia circus, the other elephants threw up their trunks and danced around as far as their chains would let them, and altogether raised such a hubbub that the mother became frantic. She picked up the baby with her trunk and threw it about twenty yards across the stable. It fell near a stove. Then Hebe broke her chains with a terrific plunge, and followed after the little one. She tore down the railing that was around the stove and gave the stove itself a blow that demolished the pipe. But about this time Stuart Craven, the trainer, arrived. The watchman had sent for him in posthaste when the baby was born. Craven came just in time, for under his direction and through the influence of his voice on Hebe, she was quieted and secured with chains again. The other six elephants had become calm again. The little elephant measured 35 inches in height, and weighed just 213 1-2 pounds when born. Her trunk is rather stumpy, but in other respects she is perfectly developed.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pimples, Chin Wheals, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Pruriga, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Hough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Squamous Eruptions and Irritations of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Scrofula, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Itching Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA REMEDIES should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but be ore I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 17, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For eleven years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; none have had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter is fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for them selves.

Yours truly, WILL McDONALD.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

WILLIS G. MYERS,

1 Congress Block Portsmouth, N. H.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere; and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian barley. Malt and Fresh Hops, are warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Diastase and Malt Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors and so-called "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up new the nervous, cerebral (brain) and muscular system. For pallid, fretful, nervous and poor, bronchitis and coughs, lingering sick headache, constipation, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dyspepsia, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weakness and female complaints, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, lost for appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston

SHAKERS'

SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of here ary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

A Peruvian Success Claimed.

The following despatch, dated Lima March 25th, via Panama April 3d has been received by the charge d' affairs of Peru at Washington from the secretary of foreign affairs, Dr. Don Pedro Jose Calderon: "The corvette Union forced the blockade of Huaca, fighting seven hours with two Chilian ironclads and a transport. She discharged her entire cargo while fighting, and has returned to Callao. The Union was undoubtedly sent from Callao with arms and ammunition for the Peruvians in the blockaded port of Auca, probably under command of Capt. Villavicencio, who succeeded in his errand despite of the Chilian blockading vessels. In the engagement it is fair to presume that the Union was assisted by the monitor Monco Capac and the fortifications of Auca. Capt. Villavicencio has already distinguished himself as commander of the Chalaco by many successful trips with supplies for the Peruvian forces in the southern ports of the republic, delivering all despite the efforts of the Chilian vessels to capture him."

"Those who are reliable to colds and romantic affections should be sure to have it by them," said Mrs. Partington sententiously, "and even satisfying a stop with water might cau-e embargo in the back or usuiology for the want of it." "To what do you allude?" asked Dr. Spooner, as he watched Ike, who was chalking the doctor's likeness on the door. "Sanford's Jamaica Ginger," she replied. "Ah, yes," he answered, "very true; it is excellent. Indeed nothing better."

—"Emma R." asks the Springfield (O.) Tribu e this extraordinary question: "Do you think it is right for a girl to sit on a young man's lap, even if she is engaged to him?" Whereupon the editor gets off a very extraordinary lie: "We have had no experience in the matter referred to." Why didn't he say: "If it was our girl and our lap, yes; if it was another fellow's girl and our lap, yes; but if it was our girl and another fellow's lap, never."

Mr. Fellows is daily in receipt of letters of enquiry, from various parts, respecting his Syrup of Hypophosphites. One recently received, leads to the belief that the public mistake his meaning in reference to its effect in imparting superior energy to the mind. Where the intellect has been impaired by overwork or by kindred causes, the use of the Syrup, together with proper precautions in the use of food, clothing, exercise and rest, will restore full power to the brain and nerves. Superiority of genius consists in great capacity of brain for assimilating material from every quarter, and of developing in proportion, but as by far the greater number are not well endowed by nature, consequently lacking this capacity, it would be quite impossible to find cranium space for material necessary to constitute the brilliant genius. Hence, although the Syrup will assist in restoring the mind which is lost, it cannot change a natural born idiot into an intelligent man.

—A letter wandered into the dead-letter office the other day, on which the writer, a lady, had placed a two-cent stamp and half of another of the same denomination. Her arithmetic was correct, but her method of making change had not proved acceptable to the post office authorities.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for all those painful complaints and weaknesses so common to our best female population. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—A laughable incident occurred at Christ Church, New York. The clergyman announced that the offertory would be applied to reducing the debt on the church. During the singing of the music, while the collection was being taken up, the tenor, who was a German, had a solo, in which occurred the words, "And the dead shall be raised." He succeeded in electrifying the congregation by giving out at the top of his voice, "Und se d'ad shall be raised in ze twinkling of an eye."

Profit, $1,200.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."—New England Farmer.

Doctors may Disagree

as to the best methods and remedies, for the cure of constipation and disordered liver and kidneys. But those that have used Kidney-Wort agree that is by far the best medicine known. Its action is prompt, thorough and lasting. Don't take pills, and other mercurials that poison the system, but by using Kidney-Wort restore the natural action of all the organs.

—Deadwood obituaries state that "the deceased was of an unobtrusive nature," when he didn't poke into more than three fights a week.

Use Kidney-Wort and rejoice in health. One package makes six quarts of medicine.

Portsmouth Chronicle

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N.H., as second-class matter.]

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7, 1880.

History Repeats Itself.

There was a remarkable scene in congress on Monday, when Representative Springer replied to a charge of duplicity brought against him by Manning, another democrat, who asserted that Springer did not vote on the question of giving to Donnelly the seat in congress to which Washburn of Iowa was elected, as he had said he should vote. Springer completely silenced his detractors, and showed that a letter which he some time ago received, saying that if Springer would "keep Washburn in his seat in spite of the democrats, we will pay Mrs. Springer $5000," was not written by any republican, but by Henry H. Finley, a prominent democrat and friend of Donnelly's, the object undoubtedly being to bull dose Springer into voting to seat Donnelly, through fear that if he did not so vote he would be charged with "corruption—very like the Swan-Harriman dodge in Maine.

The Washington correspondent of the Providence Journal, speaking of Springer's explanation, says: "When he had finished, it was the conviction of all that Donnelly had conspired with Finley, the well-known agent of Tilden, who handled the corruption money in the Oregon case, to write an anonymous letter to Springer, promising him a $5000 present to his wife if he would aid in the restoration of Washburn, and then secured the publication of the letter. Springer, in defending himself, took occasion to read a letter from this agent of Tilden, setting forth the political necessity of seating Donnelly. It was clear to all that this letter was written to pave the way for the anonymous communication. Donnelly exposed the fact to Springer that he had knowledge of this letter making a corrupt offer. The result is fatal to Donnelly, and when his case comes on the floor, it will be summarily disposed of. Mr. Manning, of the election committee, who seemed to be in complete accord with Donnelly, who was responsible for the charges against Mr. Springer, attempted to deny all responsibility, but the letters which Mr. Springer had read from the editor of the democratic paper here, and its reporters, fully established the fact that Manning made himself responsible to the reporters for the accuracy of what was printed. Manning cut a very sorry figure, and every member of his committee deserted him. Mr. Springer's personal vindication was not only complete, but it carried utter destruction with it to Donnelly, and put one of Tilden's old coparceners before the public again in a game quite equal to the attempt to steal Oregon."

News and Notes.

A saw mill exploded at Mill View, eight miles from Pensacola, Fla., Monday, killing one man and seriously scalding three other persons.

Schooner Delia left Harvey, Albert county, N. B., on the 24th of March, for Boston, with piling. There were eight persons on board as crew and passengers. Getting down into the bay the same night, the schooner encountered a fearful storm, and suddenly sprung a leak. The vessel was on her beam ends two hours. After cutting away the masts and rigging the vessel righted, the deck load and cabin having been completely swept away. The sufferings of the crew for thirty-eight hours following were very great. All they had to eat was one loaf of bread which had been soaked in salt water. After they had become nearly exhausted from hunger and privation, they were sighted by barque Thomas Perry, and taken off.

There is considerable excitement in New York and Washington caused by the reports of filibustering expeditions about to leave the United States for Cuba. It is stated that detachments of the expedition have already landed on the island, and that they propose to establish an organization, with a hope of enlisting recruits and organizing a government.

A. A. Richardson, a freight brakeman leaving St. Albans on a special stock tr in, Monday morning, on the Central Vermont line, was struck by a dry bridge near Waterbury, Vt., and falling between the cars was run over and instantly killed. Richardson had only been on the road a few weeks, his home being in Middlesex. He was a young man and unmarried.

Daniel Ryan, an old man between sixty-five and seventy years of age, living by himself, was found dead in his bed at Fall River, Mass., Monday morning. Ryan fell down stairs on Friday night, and his death was probably the result of injuries sustained at that time. He was of temperate habits, and the owner of some property. He leaves a wife and family in Waterford county, Ireland.

Brentano's Monthly Magazine for April contains its usual full quantity of sporting and athletic notes of all kinds. The most important article is upon "Trap Shooting," by L. Blanchard Evans, and the other contents give the latest information and hints concerning sports. The number has for the frontispiece diagrams of the single shell paper boats of Hanlan and Courtney, and the four-oared shell of the London Rowing club. Published by Aug. Brentano, New York.

Congressman Weaver, of Iowa, on Monday succeeded in getting his long-deferred resolutions before the house, and they were voted down after a brief debate, by a vote of 117 nays to 84 yeas.

George S. Robinson, of Raymond, has been sent to Exeter jail under $300 bonds, to await the action of the supreme court for an aggravated assault on his blind father, Samuel H. Robinson, who draws a large pension from the government. The fellow is twenty-six years of age. He had before attacked his father, discharging a pistol, threatening his life.

Flocker & Webster's fine furniture and brie-a-brac manufactory at Nashua, including valuable machinery for the manufacture of their goods, was completely destroyed by fire Monday evening. Probable loss, $12,000; insured $2,400.

Grateful Women.

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills, fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, and all easily removed by these Bitters.—Courant.

— It was a Chicago woman who first invented the idea of placing a canary bird stuffed with sawdust in a place where a cat would have to work two hours to get at it.

Rich in fat producing material beyond all other foods and medicines are Malt Bitters.

— There is a rumor that Mr. Joseph Jefferson intends to abandon the stage and devote himself to the sister art in which he has already won a reputation—painting.

Too much cannot be said of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam, as it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, etc., that I have ever seen, and to its wonderful effects I owe my recovery. It is well worty of praise, and I would advise all to use it who are afflicted.

Hundreds of Cases of Consumption.

We know of hundreds of cases where persons were supposed to be suffering from consumption, who have become perfectly well and robust from the use of Speer's Sambuci Wine. Many times people for years waste, and at last die from diseases of the kidneys or glands, when they were supposed to have, and were treated for, consumption. Speer's Sambuci Wine will cure kidney complaint—and when taken with a fresh raw egg, or new milk daily, has been found an excellent remedy and has the reputation of rendering a perfect cure for consumption. —Medical Times.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

—On the late Countess de Colloredo, who was once a leader in European society, it is related that she was one day taking her daily constitutional on the terrace at Wiesbaden when a young man came up to her and bowing, said: "Bon jour, Madame la Comtesse." "Monsieur," replied the lady stiffly, "I have not the honor of your acquaintance." "But I have had the honor of being presented to you," pleaded the stranger, with a smile. "Possibly; but, as I have already said, I have not the honor of knowing you." "I am the Prince of Wales," remarked H. R. H., bowing once more, and moving on. The poor countess fainted, and died four days after. It was a fatal blow.

A Down Town Merchant

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a sick child, and becoming convinced that Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homœopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the next with no rest sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother at peed from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and the little fellow awoke next morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use he Syrup and suffering infants and restless nigh have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudice of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 6

Naval Gazette.

The Portsmouth will sail from Washington for Europe about the 23d inst.

Rear Admiral Trenchard will be retired July 10th.

The secretary of the navy has ordered a board of surgeons to report on the condition of the Marion, now lying at Montevideo. The secretary is in doubt as to whether the vessel shall proceed to Callao in the early summer or be ordered home again.

Rear-Admiral Thatcher.

One of the heroes of the United States naval service is dead, in the person of Rear-Admiral Henry Knox Thatcher, who passed away on Monday at Boston, at the Evans house, where he had resided with his wife and daughter since October. The cause of his disease was kidney complaint, from which he had long been a sufferer. He was born in Thomaston, Me., May 26th, 1806, and was therefore nearly seventy-four years old. He was a grandson of General Henry Knox, of revolutionary fame. At an early age he entered the navy as midshipman, and went through the various ranks until the title which is now so widely associated with his name was conferred upon him. He was an uncompromising unionist, and during the civil war fought gallantly, his principal services being rendered in the engagement at Mobile, under Farragut, and in the storming of Fort Fisher, under Porter. A competent and brave officer, he was highly respected. Some years ago he was placed upon the retired list, and since then he has lived at Winchester, Mass., passing the summer, however, at Nahant. He succeeded his grandfather as a member of the Massachusetts Society of the Cincinnati, and was its president.

SOME OF THE BEST LIVING TROTTING STOCK!

AT AUCTION.

Every animal belonging to my Breeding Stud will be sold without reserve at Public Auction, on THURSDAY, April 22d, 1880, at 12:30 p. m. sharp, at the Agricultural Grounds, Worcester, Mass., rain or shine.

The stock consists of twenty-five head of the choicest breeding stock ever offered at public auction and all of the breeding of many of them cannot be bought at any price, as they are not to be had. Can be seen after April 15th, at place of sale. Among the lot to be sold are—

Blackwood—Bay stallion, seven y. 15.2, foaled 1871; sired by Hyatt's Hambletonian; dam Hoe mare, by Kirkham's Sir Henry. Blackwood has been kept exclusively for stock purposes, not having been used for trotting for years and a half, till quite recently he has been jogged a little, mostly to a sleigh. Mr. L. B. Vaughn, who has driven him, has kept on him two or three times for a few rods, and think he can show a 2:20 gait.

Shawmut—Brown Bay Stallion, large, foaled June 20, 1877; sired by Conning's (or Sayer's) Harry Clay; dam Hermine, (full sister to Volunteer, by Hyatt's Hambletonian. Shawmut has been, for six weeks, to the surprise of being broken, in the Mr. Silver of Concord, N. H., who has made colt breaking a business for 15 years, and he pronounces him the best jointed colt he has ever broken. Harry Clay sired the dam of more 2:20 trotters than any living stallion. Volunteer has sired more 2:30 trotters than any living stallion. The blood of Volunteer and Harry Clay (blood of Shawmut) has proved the King of the Trotting Turf, S. Julien, 2:12¾.

Camptown—son of Egbert (who is known only by Mr. J. M. Marvin) Camptown is offered monthly, to be the best breeding stallion in Kentucky.") Bay Mare, 15.3 hands, sired by Mr. J. M. Marvin's Prosper, 2:29; dam Miss McCord, by the Hobart Colt, by Hyatt's Hambletonian.

Midnight—Dam of Noonide, 5 years old, record 2:24, 3 owing trials in 2:21. Grey mare, 15.2 hands, foaled 1873; sired by Mr. Jr. (John Morse, 2:24); dam by Lexington.

Daybreak—Full sister to Noonide, 5 years old, record 2:31, got this spring, foal one, foaled 1878. Sired by D old, (Maud S., 4 year old trial 2:7¾) dam, Midnight. Daybreak promises to be last of Noonide.

Alacrity—Full sister to Cigar, 5 year old, trial 2:22¼, chestnut filly, large, foaled 1877. Sired by Harold (Maud S., 2:17¾) dam, Junie, who produced Reifsnider, Auburn Villa, who sired Mambrino Gift 2 20, and the nice colt.

Waterspite—Bay filly large, foaled 1877. Sired by Mambrino (Cuyler, 2 17); dam Waterwitch, who produced Mambrino Gift 2 20, on the grand 2:22¼ Pacer Bessie, a full sister to Waterspite, produced Gift, who trotted a mile over a half-mile track last season, as a 3 year old, in 2:38¼.

Barcona—Bay mare, 15.2 hands; foaled 1871. Sired by Bayard Emmet, (2:22) dam, Blanche, who produced Abdallah Pilot, sire of R. J. Jim, 3-year-old record 2 28, and Swigert, who sired Kentucky, 2 20; grand dam, Burch mare, the dam of Rambler, 2:21. Barcona showed speed enough before having had tendon cut off by axle breaker, to warrant the statement that he could show as much speed as any animal ever bred at Woodburn Farm, Ky.

Lady Sears—Bay mare, 15 hands, foaled 1874, sired by Kentucky Hambletonian; dam by Tippoo Saib, half brother to Kentucky's Hambletonian.

And sixteen others by such sires as Volunteer, Mr. Seager, Dunce, Knickerbocker, Tuxedo, Alnut, Richwood, &c.

Gentlemen can leave New York city Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, and return, arriving in New York at 9 29 Thursday evening. Can leave Boston at 11 A. M. on Thursday, and return, arriving in Boston at 1:30 P. M.

WASHINGTON, April 7, 1:30 A. M.

Rain arrears followed by clearing weather colder with westerly winds.

AROUND HOME.

There will be a concert in the Methodist vestry to-night.

A special train will leave Dover to accommodate passengers who wish to attend the performance of "All the Rage" at Music hall to-night.

The regular monthly meeting of the N. H. S. P. C. A. was held at Dr. May's office Tuesday evening. Considerable business was transacted.

At the North church, at 10:30 o'clock Fast day forenoon, Rev. Mr. McGinley will deliver a discourse on "Public spirit." All are invited.

Mr. E. Monroe, of the Andover (Mass.) Theological school, who has for some weeks supplied the pulpit of the Freewill Baptist church in this city, has declined a call for permanent settlement over that society.

The schooner Triton, which has been laid up inside of Noble's island bridge for many months, sailed for Bangor on Tuesday, under her old commander, Capt. Rand, on her first trip for this season. She is we believe the last of the fleet of coasters which wintered here to get under weigh.

Real Admiral Henry K. Thatcher, whose death is recorded at Boston, had been for some years a member of the Federal Fire Society of this city. He was much interested in the association, and frequently came from Boston to attend the semi-annual dinners. During his residence at the navy yard, of which he was post admiral from 1868 to 1871, he became strongly attached to our city, where he has left many warm friends.

A double harness made at the establishment of John S. Tilton for the pair of horses recently purchased by the city, we do not hesitate to pronounce as handsome and serviceable a set of harness as was ever made or used in Portsmouth; and an inspection of the same will convince anybody who knows what a harness is, that there is no need to go out of this city for anything in this line. The harnesses are brass-mounted, very heavy, and of the best workmanship.

It is observed that when the New Hampshire club dine at Young's, and the members who are prohibited by the constitution from indulging at table, go to the wine room for a perpendicular smile, they encounter Wm. Pitcher, who presides at the bar. Pitcher is half-brother to a Portsmouth merchant, and has had connections in Eliot. His name and vocation has tempted one of the funny men of the Boston press to remark that Pitcher's constant enquiry, when on duty, is "What's ewers?"

Rev. Eugene M. Grant, pastor of the Universalist church, who has been for several weeks unable to preach or attend to his pastoral duties, through nervous prostration from overwork, has at the recommendation of his physician been given a vacation by the parish. He left home on Tuesday for a visit to his friends in western Massachusetts, with whom he will enjoy a few weeks' rest and change of air. Able preachers are engaged to conduct the church services during the absence of the pastor.

The ship Grandee, of this port, Jacobs master, reported at Manilla Feb. 14th, loading for New York, was chartered previous to arrival at $8.50 per ton for sugar and $6 50 per ton for hemp. On the same date the ship Twilight, of Mystic, Conn., a vessel of nearly the same size as the Grandee, was loading at Manilla for the same port of destination, at $13 per ton for both sugar and hemp; had the Grandee secured such a charter as the Twilight it would have made a difference of about $16,000 on her freight.

Jesse A. Whitehouse, of Dover, now seventy-two years of age, and for thirty-one years an active member of the Stratford Guards, has been granted permission by Gov. Head to retain possession of the gun which he used during all those years, instead of turning it over to the adjutant general's department, when the new arms were substituted for the old ones.

"ALL THE RAGE."

Of "All the Rage," which is to be produced at Music hall this evening, the Boston Post says: "The success of this comedy is a most pronounced one. It is one of the funniest plays produced in this city for a long time, and Mr. Hardenburg in the character of the corn doctor has scored one of the most decided hits of his life. The humor in the parts allotted to Messrs. Davidge and Padgett is no degree less than Mr. Hardenburg's."

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

The following officers of Old Oaken Bucket Division, No. 2, S. of T., were installed Monday evening by D. G. W. P. Lorenzo T. Burnham:

Mrs. Mary E. Smart, P. W. P.;
Mary E. Munroe, W. P.;
Mrs. Mary C. Taylor, W. A.;
Chas. W. Humphries, Asst. R. S.;

PRESENTATION.

Friends to the number of about one hundred gathered at the elegant saloon of Mr. Joseph W. Bell, in National block, at eight o'clock on Tuesday evening, and marching in at the rear entrance took that gentleman by complete surprise. After a little skirmishing about to get in position Mr. Henry Peyser stepped forward, and in a well-chosen speech, classed in elegant diction, presented Mr. Bell with a magnificent silver water cooler handsomely and appropriately engraved, also an elegant marine and astronomical clock. To say that Mr. Bell was surprised doesn't half express it; he was dumbfounded, confused beyond measure, and blushed like a maiden. Recovering his composure Mr. Bell responded fittingly and feelingly, and afterwards spread a handsome collation for his generous guests. The water cooler was ordered especially for this occasion by Mr. John H. Hutchinson, and cost about $75. The clock was purchased of the same gentleman and is valued at $25.

Mr. Bell has hosts of warm-hearted friends and he knows how to keep them and to gain new ones; his elegant saloon is liberally patronized, and his attention to all the minor details shows that he knows how to cater to the public. So well is his saloon patronized that he has been forced to cast about for increased accommodations, and has engaged the suite of rooms in the second story of National block, and will make of them an elegant dining hall, to be presided over by experienced waiters; the cuisine to be under the supervision of a French lady cook. The establishment will be the finest in the state and one of which Portsmouth may well be proud.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Ruel Norton of Kennebunkport has been trying the fifteen puzzle, and the nearest he has come to the solution of it is that he has had fourteen added to his cat family.

An "apron and necktie" party is to be given in Bartlett's hall, Eliot, on Thursday evening, the 8th inst. There is to be an oyster supper, and a literary entertainment; and Mr. L. V. Newell of Portsmouth, the humorous vocalist, will sing several songs.

The fire by which Mr. F. Leroy Chauncey's house at Kittery point was destroyed on the 2d inst., probably caught from a defect in the chimney. The furniture in the lower story, belonging to the tenant of the house, was saved, but that in the upper story, including the contents of a room reserved by Mr. Chauncey for his own occupancy, was burned.

The Old Orchard Beach railway corporation met at Biddeford on the 3d inst., and chose the following officers: President, J. T. Farber; secretary, Geo. C. Calef; treasurer, M. L. Williams; directors, S. T. Farber of Boston, Samuel E. Spring and M. G. Palmer of Portland, Dr. J. R. Nichols of Haverhill, Amos Paul of Newmarket, Geo. C. Calef and W. S. Dennett of Saco. It is to be a narrow gauge road about four miles long, running from Old Orchard beach to the mouth of the Saco river. It will be in running order by the middle of June.

Harry Snow, a young man belonging in South Berwick, some months ago at the close of a prolonged debauch left the town, leaving a sick wife and young child in very poor circumstances financially. He subsequently turned up in Lowell, Mass., where he met Miss Angie Miles, formerly of South Berwick, and cleared out with her, previously stealing $12 from a room-mate, the girl adding to the common fund by borrowing $7 from her sister, Miss Florence Miles, on the plea that she was going to Lawrence on a visit. Florence Miles has become insane on account of her sister's conduct.

The Boatmen of Shanghai.

A correspondent of the Boston Journal writes: The floating population of China is immense; and one is struck with this at every port. To build and repair their vessels is a branch of industry I have never seen described, but it must be enormous. Millions, probably, of families live in them and never go on shore. There is no craft so small, not even the "sampan" that attends a foreign ship, but has room for its idols or gods, before which the owner burns his "joss paper." I will digress here a little to tell of the boatmen of Shanghai. They are mostly from the distant seaports of Ningpo and Swatow, being of a hardier race and better sailors than the men of this province. By some mysterious telegraphy they know when a ship is coming, and several lie waiting for a job at the "red buoy" outside Woosung. Each one has the name of the ship he served last painted in a conspicuous place aft. The one I engaged had "Hollowe'en" and his name, "Sam," underneath. Sam is a cognomen all Chinese boatmen glory in.

His sampan, which is exactly like all the rest, is about sixteen feet long, and about the shape of a half peach stone. A couple of guards run around it, as to one of our little stern-wheel steamers, projecting aft over the stern and bending up at the extremities like the horn of a crescent. What this is for I cannot make out. The forward half is decked over, and under this deck Sam keeps lots of things. The midship section abaft this is not decked, but has a platform, and is to feet over, the roof of bamboo and matting arched from side to side. Under this roof is the seat of honor. On the floor is a rug, and overhead are frescoes taken from Harper's Weekly, The Illustrated London News or Illustrated Zeitung, or an illuminated calendar, many of the pictures upside down; all begged from the different ships Sam has attended. Over this roof is his exact counterpart made to slide, and when we were seated Sam will gently slide the whole thing over if it rains, shows or the wind is raw and cold, and give us a wrap to cover our limbs with. Under this at night Sam arranges himself for sleep somehow or other, and, when religious, worships his "lares and penates." Aft the seat and roof, raised a little, is the standing place for Sam, or prop deck, where he propels the boat. He unslips this deck when hungry, and there are underneath his fireplace, kettle and other domestic utensils, and there he cooks his rice and fish.

I must not forget to tell how they propel their boats. It is by sculling. They have a gigantic oar which they poise on a pin on the stern (nobody but a Chinaman can do it,) and by means of a cord attached to the oar and the boat, they scull, or "sculo," as they call it, at a very rapid rate. Vessels of a larger size are sculled this way, by means of beams projecting from the sides, to the end of which an oar is attached. The tides at Shanghai run very swift, and the winter winds are furious and piercing; but these fellows scull right along against wind and tide. When all moored together at some wharf for the night, they form a large community, and discuss the events of the day or gamble half the night. There is nothing done within many miles of Shanghai but they know it before any one else.

—Level-headed people—The Flat-head Indians.

—The Philadelphia American asks: "Do you not look back into the dim vista of bygone years with a feeling of regret at wasted opportunities that causes a tugging at the heart-strings? Do you mean finding too late that your wife is gone away to stay all night, and that you might have stayed on with the boys just as well as not?—Boston Post.

—The largest breech-loading rifle in the country has just been completed by the South Boston Iron company for the bureau of ordnance, United States navy department. The gun, when out on its carriage, weighs 31,000 pounds, or nearly fifteen tons, and is of nine-inch caliore. It was made from an old ten-inch army Parrott gun. It is shortly to be tested at Nutt island.

HORSE OWNERS AND BREEDERS will be greatly interested in the sale of Dr. H. Y. Simpson's trotting stock at Worcester, Mass., on the 22d inst., his stud embracing some of the finest stock horses in the country, representing the best breeding strains, every animal having been selected with a view of getting the best obtainable. The collection includes twenty-five animals, and is expected to bring together the largest assemblage of horse-breeders ever known at Worcester. "Shawmut" is claimed by Dr. Simpson as the best bred Clay stallion in the country, "Harry Clay" having sired the dams of more 2:30 trotters than any living horse; and "Heroine," the best daughter of Rysdyk's Hambletonian, the dam of "Shawmut," being full sister to "Volunteer," who has sired more 2:30 trotters than any other living horse. Send for catalogue giving full description of all the stock.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

The Fusion "Reformers."

The Loyal League of Portland, Me., dedicated their rooms last Thursday evening, and speeches were made by Hon. Josiah H. Drummond, Gov. Davis and others. In the course of his remarks Gov. Davis said:

An allusion has been made to the set of adventurers, called a party, that lately endeavored to subvert the will of the people of the state. I had a little experience with that party. Well, that party started out as the party of reform and economy. When they came in they found a suit against the railroads for a tax of $70,000, which was paid in. They used that up. Last year the free high school tax was suspended, and in looking over the accounts of that governor and council, we find they have drawn out over $50,000 and charged it to free high scho ls! They left us a deficiency of $56,000 to shoulder when we started out. They have compelled us to put on an extra tax this year of a mill, which will give us $224,000, and out of that we shall pay $56,000 bonded debt, provide the $56,000 deficiency, pay $21,000 state prison debt, and all the expenses the fusion party have put on us to settle up their late trouble. So this fall we must show the people where every dollar goes, and that, accompanying the objects stated above, there must be included $12,000 for the valuation commission and $30,000 for the raw the fusion party brought on the state. We are having some sums come in unexpectedly. We got $1,000 the other day, and yesterday $925 came in.

There was considerable laughter over the last statement, the $925 referred to having been paid in by Garcelon, it being a part of the money which he illegally took from the state treasury to pay the expenses of Pillsbury's strikers.

—Ready-maid concern—Intelligence offices.

—A school teacher was endeavoring to ascertain the extent of her children's knowledge of numbers. On the question being asked, "Would you rather have three paper bags with two oranges in each, or two paper bags with three oranges in each?" all but one little fellow expressed themselves as without preference. The teacher asked this pupil for his decision, and he was persistent in liking the three bags; his reason for this was, "So I could have more bags to bust!"

—A woman at Stockton, Cal., who had a drunken husband, was waiting late at night for him to come home. The lamp was in her bedroom and she was in the parlor. Hearing a noise outside, as if a man who was drunk was trying to find the gate, she went out, and sure enough a drunken man was there. She helped him into the parlor, as she had been used to doing, and placed him very carefully on the lounge. After a hard struggle she got his coat and vest off, and then pulled at the boots (as she thought they were) but they would not come off. At length she felt up about the ankles and found that the man had shoes on—something that her husband never wore. Striking a light, she saw he was a stranger.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is currently believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pushes, Chin Whelk, Psoriasis, Lichen, Impetigo, Lepprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, Blotches, Blisters, Wounds, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Loving Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness, in all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA REMEDIES should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the length of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certainly think I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.

CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Get about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum. I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies, but one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. Many parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement, concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, and now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL McDONALD.

1515 BUTTERFIELD ST.,
CHICAGO, ILL., March 4, 1879.

CUTICURA SOAP,

Medicinal and Toilet.

WILLIS G. MYERS,

1 Congress Block Portsmouth, N. H.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and cultivates the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere; and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potas ium made by the Society.

It is as the Best as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the virtues, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eight or nine years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMO R, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 7, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

Courage in Disease.

Many a life has been saved by the moral courage of a sufferer. It is not alone in bearing the pain of operations or the misery of confinement in a sick room that self help becomes of vital moment, but in the monotonous tracking of a weary path and the vigorous discharge of ordinary duty. How many a victim of incurable disease has lived on through years of suffering, patiently and resolutely hoping against hope, or, what is better, living down despair, until the virulence of a threatening malady has died out, and it has ceased to be destructive, although its physical characteristics remained.

This power of "good spirits" is a matter of high moment to the sick and weakly. To the former it may mean the ability to survive, to the latter the possibility of out-living, or living in spite of a disease. It is, therefore, of the greatest importance to cultivate the highest and most buoyant frame of mind which the conditions will admit. The same energy which takes the form of mental activity is vital to the work of the organism. Mental influences affect the system, and a joyous spirit not only relieves pain, but increases the momentum of life in the body.

The victims of disease do not commonly sufficiently appreciate the value and use of "good spirits." They too often settle down in despair when a professional judgment determines the existence of some latent or chronic malady. The fact that it is probable they will die of a particular disease casts so deep a gloom over their prospects that through fear of death they are all their life-time subject to bondage.

The multitude of healthy persons who wear out their strength by exhausting journeys and perpetual anxieties for health is very great, and the policy in which they indulge is exceedingly short-sighted. Most of the sorrowful and worried cripples who drag out miserable lives in this way would be less wretched and live longer if they were more hopeful. It is useless to expect that any one can be reasoned into a lighter frame of mind, but it is desirable that all should be taught to understand the sustaining, and often even curative, power of "good spirits."—London Lancet.

—Customer: "Dear me, Mr. Puddifoot, why your four-penny pork pies are but very little larger than those at two pence." Puddifoot: "That's quite true, and I often hear the same remark. I see how it is, I shall have to make them two penny pies smaller."—Judy.

—A lady has been giving in Paris marvellous performances with four birds, trained to such a high degree of docility that they select, from a series of cards, replies to almost any question from the audience. These are invariably appropriate, and their originality is often striking. Altogether the entertainment, which has met with the approval of five crowned heads of Europe, maintains its character as an exhibition of perfect training, and the apparently disinterested manner in which the movement of the birds are secretly directed by the artist herself is as amusing as their intelligence.

An Open Letter. It Speaks for Itself.

WEST TOWNSHEND, VT.

Mr. Editor; Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cure of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling tube" makers (mere dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For twenty-six years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for one hundred and sixty-eight hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common-sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly, S. D. Remick.

—London Truth says—Higher instruction and the idea that womanhood has a natural right to rule the roost at all times and everywhere, has given a peculiar stamp to the fair sex in the country of George Washington. The American girl or young married woman seems thoroughly to know what she is about, and her presence of mind never deserts her.

All the nourishment of malt liquors, without their objections, found in Malt Bitters.

Fast.

This religious observance is one of ancient date. Among the oldest nations of the Orient we read of fasts and mortifications. Romans and Greeks were accustomed to observe periodical fasts, and the ancient Jews had numerous fast days. The modern Jews observe six fast days in each year. The Roman Catholic church makes a distinction between fasting and abstinence, flesh, but not fish being prohibited for fast days. The church of England observes the Lenten and Ember days and the three Rogation days before Holy Thursday, &c. The Mohammedans have a month of fasting. In New England the custom has been of long usage to observe a day designated by the Governors of states, and though not as generally observed as it was in the days of our fathers, it is still officially promulgated, and kept as a day when business ceases, and in most of the religious denominations services of appropriate character are held in their churches.

In the former days of our good old town, the boys had a game of old fashioned ball upon the parade; not a mathematical and elaborate game of base ball, but where the ball was knocked high in the air and the games were unincumbered with technical rules and regulations. During the time when slavery disgraced the country, ministers frequently took the occasion of fast day to rebuke our national sins from their pulpits, and though very many men of that day evinced a decided objection to what was denominated, and sometimes denounced, as political preaching, yet there is no doubt that the rebukes from the sacred desk caused many a listener to think of our national wrongs to our fellow men, and from this, to no small extent perhaps, may be attributed that reform which culminated in the extermination of slavery from our borders. The pews enjoyed sometimes hearing from the pulpit the denunciation of the political sins of one party, if their own politics were not criticised, but it was not so agreeable to many to have truth brought too near home. Occasionally some one, irritated by this sort of preaching, would drift away from the church of his home to attempt to find more congenial worship elsewhere. But men who thought for themselves, and who examined great questions of a public nature in all their phases, had sense enough to see that no one but themselves could be injured by this kind of desertion from the places where the faith they professed to believe, was preached. But these times have passed. Fast day excitements, caused by bold denunciatory sermons, seem to have become obsolete, and now Union meetings, where clergymen of widely differing denominational views meet, and in conjunctive harmony conduct religious services, are frequent on these days. There is no unusual abstinence now observed on fast day. Indeed, the idea seems to have gained that the worship of God can better be performed on a full stomach enjoying good digestion, than by the disfiguring of countenances and the deprivation of our customary nourishment.

Fast day is a New England institution, and though not so generally observed as a day of worship, yet brings with it such memories of our forefathers' customs, that out of respect for their memory, if not from a sense of our own duty in this regard, it is to be hoped that its annual observance will be maintained.

News and Notes.

An outrage was perpetrated at West Point, Monday night, the 5th inst., by masked men, probably cadets. A colored cadet was assaulted in his room, bound hand and foot, a piece of his ear cut off, the other ear slit, and his head bruised.

The New York court of appeals rendered decisions on the 6th inst. in the cases of Chastine Cox, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Hult, and Pietro Balbo, convicted of the murder of his wife. In both cases judgment was affirmed, and both will probably be hanged on the same day.

The New York Journal of Commerce has advanced its subscription price three dollars. The New York World has also returned to four cents a copy for its daily. When readers understand that the high prices of newspapers are a necessity imposed by paper manufacturers they will not wonder at the universal demand for a reduction of the tariff. They need not be told that it is for the interest of all publishers to furnish their journals at the lowest living rate.

Dr. Joseph Parker, a well-known druggist who disappeared from Red Bank, N. J., on the 1st inst., has deserted his wife and four children and eloped with Maggie Kearney, a former servant girl.

A druggist at Portland, Me., was aroused in the night by a man who wanted to buy some brandy. The druggist refused to sell it, fearing prosecution under the prohibition law. The man declared that the liquor was for his wife, who had been taken violently ill, and might die unless she got it; so he was given a small quantity. He was really a spy, and on the following day he had the dealer arrested.

Apprehensions are entertained in New York that the steamer Mercator, with her crew of thirty-three persons, has been lost at sea. The chief officer of the Volner, which arrived at New York on the 4th inst., says that his ship was on the route where the Mercator should have been on March 28th, and ran into an immense ice float during a blinding snow storm. What is believed to have been the missing steamer was seen fast in the ice, a long distance off. Three days afterwards the barometer fell to an unprecedented low pressure. The storm which it indicated did not reach the Volner, but extended over the ice field. The opinion is held by seafaring men that the Mercator went down in the gale. There were no passengers on board.

The attorney-general has written an opinion, which has been ordered to be published in a general order from the war department, to the effect that if a reward has been paid for the apprehension of an enlisted man charged with desertion, and the apprehended man, on trial, is convicted only of "absence without leave," the amount paid as a reward for the arrest cannot legally be stopped from his pay. This opinion concurs with one dated February 20th, from the judge-advocate general of the army, and which that officer requested should be referred to the attorney-general. The ruling will result in claims against the government for many thousands of dollars, as the system of stopping the reward from pay due has existed for nearly fifty years.

Says the Hong Kong Press: "It must not be forgotten that it California corporations employ a number of Chinese, the Chinese government has a considerable number of Americans in its employ, and might, if so disposed, retaliate in kind. Nor should it be forgotten that the Pacific railroad, which has done more than anything to promote the growth of California, was constructed by Chinese labor, and might even now be a project of the future but for the opportune presence of the Chinese there."

New Hampshire Items.

The New Hampshire Land company has been placed on the list at the Boston Stock Exchange, with a capital of $3,000,000, par value $25. As described in the prospectus, it should be called a timber or lumber company, as the purpose is to get out lumber. The market price appears to be $6 to $8 per share.

A mill owned by J. M. Whipple, in Lancaster, was burned, with all its machinery, on the night of the 5th inst. Loss $1,200; no insurance. Cause unknown.

Worden's block at Hinsdale was damaged by fire about $1,000, April 6th. The fire originated in the cellar. Supposed to be incendiary. Insured.

One of the representative manufacturers of New Hampshire is Hon. David N. Buffum of Great Falls. Through his industry, skill, and solidity of character he has been very successful. No man in his section more deservedly enjoys the confidence of all classes. He has two sons, both graduates of Yale, who prefer to follow the business of manufacturing. One began three years ago in the dye-room, and has worked his way up through all the departments to the counting-room and management. The other is on his first year of a similar course of discipline. Such examples are worthy of all commendation, and they are full of hope for the future intelligent and prosperous direction of the manufacturing interests of our state. Mr. Buffum's neighbors and friends are talking of presenting him as a delegate to Chicago, and we know of no man who would be a worthier representative of New Hampshire. The republican party would honor itself by sending him.—Nashua Telegraph.

Lieutenant Emory H. Taunt, for some time attached to the bureau of equipment at Washington, is ordered to the Portsmouth.

Captain R. B. Lowry and Master J. B. Murdock are ordered to examination for promotion.

Lieut. Comdr. Francis M. Barber is ordered to the Wyoming as executive officer.

Lieut. Benj. L. Edes is detached from the Wyoming, and ordered home.

Political.

Solon Chase goes back on his democratic allies in Maine after the following fashion: "The democracy in late state has dwindled to an insignificant third party. It has for its cap-stones the old Bourbon leaders, who hold themselves above 'common people' by reason of their wealth and superior culture, but the ground tier is all gone except a few cities. To 'fuse' with such a party is to lie down with a dead man, and fight the republicans tied to a corpse that has got a record blacker than the ace of spades."

The Charleston News says the common opinion in the south is "that Tilden is mentally, morally and physically unfit to be president." This may be, but so long as that bar'l holds out it will make no difference. Now mind that.

The San Francisco board of supervisors have adopted resolutions that the peace of the city has been seriously imperiled by alleged incendiary speeches by Mayor Kalloch, and authorized the judiciary committee to investigate the matter and report. It is said that this is the first step toward impeaching the mayor.

Not Much of a Loss.

A young lady went to a drug store, recently, located not a hundred miles from the market house, and had a prescription made up.

"How much?" inquired the lady.

"Fifty cents," said the clerk.

"But I have only forty-five cents with me," replied the customer; "can you let me have it for that?"

"No ma'am," said the clerk, "but you can pay me the five cents when you come in again."

"But suppose I were to die?" said the lady, jocularly.

"Well, it wouldn't be a very great loss," was the smiling response.

And immediately the innocent clerk gathered from the indignant flush on the lady's face that he had been misunderstood, and before he could assure her that it was the little balance, and not her, that would be no great loss, she had bounced out at a go-as-you-please gait, and was beyond the sound of his voice—Cleveland Sentinel.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be about 'nuf sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. tthf

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, April 8, 1:30 A. M.

Clear or partly cloudy weather, westerly winds, stationary to higher temperature.

AROUND HOME.

To-day being Fast-day, no CHRONICLE will be issued to-morrow.

Rev. Mr. McGinley will deliver a discourse on "Public spirit" at the North church, at 10:30 o'clock this forenoon.

Nearly all the employes of the Concord railroad have had their pay increased, the advance dating from March 1st.

The city marshal notifies the motive power of sw P-carts, wheelbarrows, etc., to keep off the sidewalks under penalty of the law. Correct.

Rev. Edward A. Rand, formerly of the Congregational church, is to be ordained to the ministry of the Episcopal church at Salem, Mass., on the 7th of July.

Dover has "Pinafore" in the afternoon, and the "Bells of Normandy" in the evening; also the dedication of a new temperance hall by the reform club, today.

The following named persons have been drawn to serve as petit jurors from ward one at the coming term of the supreme court at Exeter; Mark R. Plaisted, Augustus Ham, Charles H. Garrett.

Schooner M. E. Eldredge was launched on the 6th inst. from the yard of Justin Taylor at East Boston. She is owned by Capt. G. M. Edwards, who will command her; she now hails from Boston, and registers about 250 tons.

Arrangements have been made for half-fare rates on all regular passenger trains over the Portsmouth & Dover railroad to-day. This will accommodate all those who, having a leisure day, wish to visit either city for pleasure or business.

A lady in a neighboring town who went to her physician to have a tooth pulled, opened her mouth with such uncommon zeal that after the offending tooth was removed she found herself unable to close her mouth again, having dislocated her jaw.

The Dover reform club will dedicate their new hall to-day, and the exercises will be of an interesting character. Mr. Dodge, president of the club, has made arrangements with the railroad to carry passengers from Portsmouth and return for the price of one fare.

In a recent item it was stated that Jesse V. Whitehouse of Dover, the old gentleman who was permitted by Gov. Head to retain the gun he had so long "trained with" in the militia, had been an active member of the Strafford Guards of Dover for thirty-one years. It should have read fifty-one years.

"Nothing but this overwhelming evidence could ever have disengaged me from the entanglements of spiritualism that has baffled me for twelve years." Speech of Judge Harris at the close of Rev. Mr. Waite's exposure of spiritualism in New York. See advertisement of exposition at Music hall this evening.

A good audience assembled at Music hall, Wednesday evening of this week, to see "All the Rage," and were well entertained. There are many comical situations in the piece, and some quite unnecessary profanity; the many oaths add nothing to the effect of the play, and the management would do well to expunge them.

The Eastern and Boston & Maine railroads are asking the Massachusetts general court for legislation to enable them to co-operate their lines. As this permission will also have to be granted by the legislatures of New Hampshire and Maine, it might be well enough to try the experiment under a business contract, and save these lines large sums in train expenses.

The tug Leyden was gotten under weigh on Wednesday of this week, Mate John Vennard being in command, and Mr. E. C. Nealley having charge of the engine room; and a ten-ton lot of baled hay was taken from Jones' wharf, on this side of the river, and put on board the Tallapoosa at the navy yard, for transportation to the Washington yard, where it is destined to feed the government oxen. The hay was supplied by Charles Hayes & Son.

THE ROCKINGHAM COURSE.

On Friday evening the Rockingham Course of entertainments—one of the best ever given in the city—will close with the presentation of the "Spark" and "Silver Spoon" by the Boston Museum company, with Wm. Warren, Mrs. Vincent, May Davenport, Sadie Martinot, Messrs. Graham, Hudson, Burrows and the other popular members of the Museum company, in the cast. See advertisement.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, April 7; Batchelder, J.

James Heffron, drunk, fined $3, costs $6.90. He had probably used up all his money in getting drunk, as he had none left to pay the penalty, so he was sent to the county farm.

Ellen Farrell, another drunk, was assessed in the same amount, and paid it.

KITTERY.

At the town meeting held in Kittery on March 29th, the town treasurer was authorized to hire the money necessary to pay all the town's indebtedness, by giving notes amounting in the aggregate to ten thousand dollars in sums of one hundred dollars and upwards, said notes bearing interest at four per cent, and to be exempt from taxation. The balance on such terms as he may think best for the welfare of the town, at an interest not exceeding five per cent.

E. C. Spinney, Esq., having offered the free lease for ten years of a lot of land, containing about one acre, within six rods of the Kittery depot, for the erection of buildings for a shoe, carriage, or other manufacturing purpose, the town voted to exempt from taxation any such company locating within the town limits, for the same term of ten years. Mr. George R. Adams offers a warranty deed of a part of his lot, also near the depot, for the same purposes; others stand ready to extend to any company locating in Kittery substantial aid in other ways.

The appropriations for the current year are—$2700 for schools, $1900 for contingent, $1200 for poor, $1200 for interest, $4800 for roads, $500 for high schools; to which latter item add the state school fund, making a total for schools of $5000.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Thomas Hanson's house in the grove at Old Orchard was burned Thursday morning, April 1st; supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The lock of the house, with a key in it, was found. Insured $200.

The schooner Manser B. Oakes, W. D. Crediford master, owned in Kennebunk, left Newport, R. I., March 23d, with a cargo of potatoes for Philadelphia, and not being heard of for some time it was feared she had gone down with all hands, as she was out in the heavy gale of the 24th ult., but she arrived safely at Philadelphia on the 5th inst.

At Biddeford, the Pepperell company are about to erect a new mill. The planing mill, which stands just at the junction of Smith and York streets, is to give way to the new structure. This mill is to be carried up one story, and extended north and west so as to make a mill one hundred and twenty-five feet square. It is to be three stories high, and to have a flat roof. This new mill is to be used for weaving.

Fish and Game.

The seventh annual meeting of the New Hampshire Fish and Game League was held in Manchester on the 6th inst., with a large attendance. After the usual report of the secretary, President John B. Clarke gave an interesting account of the origin and important work accomplished by the league, in restocking our inland waters with fish, and in protecting and preserving game from wanton destruction by amateurs and vandals.

A. H. Powers, fish commissioner and superintendent of the hatching house at Plymouth, then narrated the important work of the commission during the past year; 100,000 eggs were taken from salmon caught near the hatching house, last season, 95,000 of which are now lively young salmon. The present season there should be a great run, as the largest plant was made in 1876, and one is due this season.

Hon. Joseph Kidder and Ex-Gov. Fred Smyth doubted whether the efforts to restock New Hampshire waters would prove entirely successful, until the Massachusetts laws are more rigidly enforced. Salmon and other fish are constantly taken, every season, between Haverhill and Lawrence, in violation of the law.

Ex-Gov. B. F. Prescott delivered the annual address, and was followed with remarks by Gov. Head, Dr. Edward Spalding of Nashua, Wm. G. Colburn of Springfield, Mass., Rev. L. Sears, Maj. G. C. Gilmore, city fish commissioner of Manchester, and others. The following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: President, Col. John B. Clarke; secretary, Charles L. Richardson; treasurer, Ex-Gov. Smyth.

— Respect for the Court. A young lawyer in Kentucky, when the judge decided a case against him, said to the court: "Well, now, I shall take the case to another judge, and let him make a guess what the law is."

—A complaining person spoke of the freedom from care which a friend of his enjoyed, whereupon a neighbor said: "Your friend, doubtless, has as many and perhaps more troubles than you have, but he has the good sense not to whine about it."

—A pneumatic clock company has been organized at Paris, which proposes to put up clocks in the streets and houses, and furnish the time at a trifling cost per day. This is done by pneumatic pressure, the air being compressed by steam engines and driven at intervals of a minute through the communicating tubes, so as to move the minute hands the requisite distance at each pulsation. The company undertake to pay all the cost of the fittings, supplying the clocks gratuitously, and charging only a subscription.

— There is a great muss going on among the editors and reporters of the Deadwood (Dakota) newspapers. One of the papers having followed the custom of reporting arrests, a city editor was waylaid and pounded nearly to death with a rock in the hands of a thug who had been before the court. The thug was released on straw bail by a judge whose son is the editor of another paper, and the rest of the press have taken sides. The situation is not only not pleasant, but is dangerous to the personal security of the quarelling parties.

— It is stated that last summer a drummer for a well-known jewelry house in New York was at Mount Desert, and one of the fishermen residing in that vicinity brought him two pearls. Upon looking them over the drummer asked the man what he wanted for them. He said a set of jewelry for his girl. The drummer offered him a set valued at twenty-five dollars, which the man eagerly accepted. The drummer had the pearls set in a pair of ear-rings, and disposed of them for eight hundred dollars. They were found in oysters or clams off Mount Desert. As a rule, marketable pearls are only found in the East Indies.

— The Montevideo harbor improvement company, in dredging the harbor of Montevideo, lately raised two ingots. They were at first believed to be of iron, but one of the sailors in cleaning off the shell's which covered them discovered that they were two bars of silver, each seventy pounds in weight. On one of them traces of an inscription were found; the date "1772" was still legible. There is no doubt that these ingots formed part of the treasure which the Spanish galleon Aurora took from Chili in 1772, and which, according to Lozan, was lost in that port, opposite the powder magazine, during the storm of the nineteenth of August in that year. As it is probable that in this spot there are other treasures which have been hidden during a century, the dredging company have arranged with divers to make further researches.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. L. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

A Colored Philosopher.

"One day he fell," began the president of the Limekiln club, as Elder Toots settled back for his usual nap, "I war passin' up Antoine street, an' I seed Quinwater Smith sot up on de fence. In de nirly winter I passed dat way agin' an' I saw him hustling de streets for wood. De oder day I had bizness wid him, an' I foun' de family out o' fowel, out o' provishuns, an' wuss off for clothes dan my ole cow ever was for a blanket. I knew what would happen de fust time I saw him roostin' on de fence. I tell ye, cull'd men, de men who roost on de fence in de fawl will hug a cold stove an' look into an empty cupboard all winter. Dis world owes no man a liblin'. If any member of dis club has got dat idesh under his kinks he wants to wollop it out right away. What de world owes a man an' what it gibs to ebery man, is a fair chance to earn his bread an' butter. I b'ar people groan out dat luck is agin 'em. Out upon luck! If luck means anythin', it's steady work an' takin' care of de shillins. Oder folks am whinin' arom' dat dey hev no show in dis life world! Why, when de flies an' skeeters hev a show! Ebery man has a chance to reach up, but when he makes a saloon his headquarters he's got to reach down. I doan' go mucn on public charity my self, but when I an gin I'd sooner gib to a wide-awake thief loan to a whinin', complainin' lo-fer. De curtain will now be tif on de reg'lar time table of biznes."
—Detroit Free Press.

—The great Cornish copper smelter, John Michael Williams, recently died, leaving $20,000,000 estate.

—La petite Sophie, who is very destructive of her toys, received last Christmas an indestructible picture book printed on cloth. She was at first delighted; then she began to turn the leaves with a puzzled look. "What is the matter?" said mamma. "I can't find out how it is to be torn!" whined the young iconoclast.

—Bernard Macauley, who built in Louisville one of the handsomest theatres in the country, now says: "The man who builds a magnificent theatre makes a mistake. The elegance and elaboration of the auditorium cheapens all scenic effect, and makes it look tawdry and commonplace. If I ever build another theatre I will make my auditorium as plain as is consistent with good taste. Then any effort I may make at scenic splendor or stage effect will be heightened and enhanced by the comparison with the front of the house."

—A singular affair is reported from Naples. A priest recently died of injuries inflicted by two men who insisted on his telling them the lucky number in the forthcoming lottery, and would not accept his assertion that he had no such powers. In the hospital he mentioned in his delirium the numbers 13 and 65, which fact becoming known, many persons backed those figures, while others staked their money on 3, which signifies monk. Curiously enough, all three numbers happened to win, and the government is "out" to the amount of $400,000 in consequence.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, stands for the CUTICURA SOAP, is certainly be loved to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pustules, Chin Whelk, Psoriasis, Lymphligus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Itchin, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharges; Wounds, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Stings Pies, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA REMEDIES should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WELLS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief; but when I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were all one solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1878.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WELLS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL McDONALD.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION! Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jeweled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than twenty valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities where it derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere; and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

As a blood medicine it is the best and purest, of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighte n years. I have so considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DENNO, R. M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 7, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the dire symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, consumption and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

In the U. S. Circuit Court for the District of New Hampshire, in the case of Benton of Vermont, assignee of Horatio N. Allen, against H. N. Allen et als., heard in this city some time since, Judge Clark has made a decision. The opinion is as follows:

On the 17th day of October 1873, Horatio N. Allen was seized of certain lots of land in the town of Stratford, in the county of Coos, in the state of New Hampshire.

On that day, by deed of warranty, he conveyed these lots of land to Willis Wilder of Bethlehem in the state of New Hampshire, and Richard H. Wilder of Guildhall in the state of Vermont; for the sum of $3000, and the taxes due and unpaid thereon.

In payment of his undivided half of said lands, Willis Wilder "turned out" to Allen two notes, one against the Waumbeck Lumber Company, and one against John Pierce, Jr., both amounting to about $1200, and his own note for the balance of the $1500, all of which, within two or three months thereafter, were paid to said Allen.

For payment of his half of said lands Richard H. Wilder gave his individual note of $1500, which has never been paid.

The taxes have been paid by the grantees, or one of them.

On the 9th day of January 1875, Richard H. Wilder quitclaimed his interest in said lands to Willis Wilder, and in payment took his note of $1500 and interest from the 17th of Oct. 1873; the date of the original purchase of the lands from Allen.

On the 12th day of January 1875, Allen filed his petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court for the district of Vermont; and the complainant was appointed his assignee; and on the 25th day of May 1875, he filed his bill of complaint against Allen, the bankrupt, and the two Wilders, alleging that said conveyance by Allen of the lots of land in Stratford, Oct. 17th 1873, was made to hinder, delay, and defraud the creditors of said Allen, and was void as against the complainant and said creditors; and praying that said conveyance may be decreed to be null and void; and the said Wilders enjoined from ever claiming any right, title, or interest in said real estate, by virtue of said deed of the 17th of Oct. 1873.

The bill also prays, that, if said deed is not held null and void, the said Willis Wilder be ordered and decreed to pay to the complainant the amount of the note given by him to Richard H. Wilder, and that said Richard be ordered to surrender said note to the said complainant.

To this bill the defendants have filed three several answers; each denying, under oath, distinctly and positively, that said conveyance was made to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, and alleging that it was made in good faith.

These allegations on the one side and denials on the other present the issue in the case, and it is one of fact, chiefly, if not entirely.

Was then this conveyance of Oct. 17th. 1873, of the lots in Stratford, made to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, or was it not?

If it was, under the provisions of Sec. 5046, page 981 of the U. S Revised Statutes, the complainant would be entitled to recover the land, as against these respondents, and to have the conveyance set aside, decreed null.

But if the conveyance was not made for such a purpose on the part of either of said respondents; or was not made for such a purpose on the part of the Wilders, and they had no knowledge of such a purpose on the part of Allen, and there was nothing to put them on an enquiry as to such a purpose, and the trade by them was made in good faith, then the conveyance must stand.

On this issue the burden of proof is on the complainant. He must prove the fraud, which he alleges; and make his proof so strong as to overcome the answers, which have been made, under oath, by the respondents.

This we think he has failed to do.

He has produced many witnesses, but much of the testimony is very remote from the case, and some entirely immaterial.

We have, however, considered the whole of it carefully; and have endeavored to give it its proper weight; but upon the whole evidence, on the one side and the other, we do not find that the conveyance was made to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, by either Allen or the Wilders, or that there was anything connected with the transaction, which should have put the Wilders on enquiry.

Allen desired to sell the land because it had been unprofitable to him, and the Wilders bought it for the younger to take off the lumber. As to the other payment of the bill, that Willis Wilder be ordered and decreed to pay to the complainant the amount of the note given by him to Richard H. Wilder for his half of the land, and that Richard be ordered to surrender said note to the complainant, it cannot be granted, for two reasons especially, without referring to any other.

1st. The evidence shows, that at the time Willis Wilder gave this note to Richard H. he held notes against Richard, which he had a right to have set off against this note, so long as this note should remain in the hands of Richard, and which were so set off and adjusted by the parties.

2d. Because Richard is now dead, and no decree can be made against him, and no Executor and Administrator of his has come in and been made a party to this proceeding.

The bill is dismissed with costs, one bill to the Wilders, and another and distinct bill to Allen; because it is difficult to See why he was made a party to this proceeding.

The assignee has all his property, rights and credits, and a right to recover all property conveyed by him in fraud of his creditors.

He might have been used as a witness without making him a party.

A decree of nullity against the two Wilders would by operation of law vest the estate in these lands in the assignee without any decree of nullity of the deed as against the bankrupt.

He should not be brought into court without reason, and dismissed without pay.

SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1880.

Kind Newspaper-Men.

The governor of New Hampshire, with the consent of the council, recently appointed a member of a prominent house known throughout the country as importers and dealers in pure spirituous liquors in Boston, as state liquor agent. This relieved the former official incumbent, and he uses one of the Boston newspapers to take the governor and council to task for their action in the premises.

There is nothing, either in the laws or the constitution of the state of New Hampshire, which makes it obligatory upon the executive of the state to consult the Boston newspaper-men when he is about to make an appointment, even of a resident in Boston, to any position under the laws of New Hampshire. Perhaps some of the men connected with the newspapers of Boston think that they are in some degree responsible for the political doings of their New Hampshire neighbors. But such is not the case,—although it is hard to make it understood in Boston, there is so little to criticise in Massachusetts politics, and so much to be looked after in ours.

National Guard Officers' Drill.

Many prominent officers of the New Hampshire National Guard met at the armory of the Head Guards in Manchester on the 7th inst., for a three days' session, to perfect themselves in the various duties connected with the service, and to secure a uniformity of drill in all branches thereof. Heretofore, a difference in military exercises has prevailed in different regiments. Capt. Elbert Wheeler of the Belknap Guards, Laconia, a West Point graduate, is drill master. Among those present were Brig.-Gen. Joseph M. Clough and staff; Col. John J. Dillon, First Regiment; Col Daniel M. White, Second Regiment; Col. Jacob N. Patterson, Third Regiment, and staff officers. Every branch of the service was represented, including several detached companies, and much practical good is expected to result from the session.

News and Notes.

The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals celebrated its twelfth anniversary on Friday, evening April 9th, at Music hall, Boston. A large audience was in attendance. Geo. T Angell, president of the society, presided. Addresses were made by Governor Long, Mayor Prince, Rev. Phillips Brooks, Judge Russell, P. A. Collins and others. The Schubert quartette sang several hymns and songs. The carnival of Venice was finely rendered by Ole Bull, who generously volunteered his services, from sympathy with the cause. An invitation was extended to the president of the N. H. S. P. C. A. to be present.

The body of Albert Schien, city editor of the Cleveland Anzeiger, a German daily, was found in the lake four miles from Cleveland, on the 6th inst He waded in the water, and cut his throat. The deceased was dissipated of late, and was discharged. He was born in Berlin, was well educated, served six years as an officer in the German navy, and had traveled around the world.

Harry Webb and wife were arrested at Chicago on the 6th inst., and about $10,000 worth of jewelry, shawl, dresses, etc., stolen from hotels, found in their possession.

Alpheus S. Foote, one of the proprietors of Pomeroy's La Crosse Democrat, charged with an attempt to burn the Democrat office, was on the 7th inst. held for trial in the circuit court. His examination on a charge of forgery was assigned for another date.

Ten masked robbers, members of the Welsh Mountain gang, broke into the country residence of Isaac Seldomridge, a Dunkard farmer, residing near New Holland, Pa., and compelled him and an aged sister to give up all their money and silverware.

Alec Robinson, aged twenty-six years, while returning from taking a load of goods to a newly bought farm at New Haven, Conn., Tuesday evening 6th, inst., drove into the river at Cornwall in the darkness, and was drowned. The horses got out all right.

W. C. Lowe, a flagman on the Fitchburg railroad at Hapgood's crossing in Acton, Mass., was found dead in the flag house Thursday night. He was formerly a prosperous Boston merchant.

James F. Kenney was arrested at Fall River, Mass., Thursday, for setting fire to his house to secure the insurance. The officers, finding kerosene on his hat and boots, accused him of the crime, which he confessed. He poured kerosene over the carpets and then set it on fire. He was formerly a member of the firm of Kenney & Elsbree, confectioners.

John Stannis, aged eighty-seven years, and partly deaf, was killed by a train at Meriden, Conn., on the 7th inst.

E. H. Tillinghast and George Noyes, farmers of Jewett City, Conn., have been arrested, charged with complicity in a series of petty thefts; the arrests cause much excitement there, as the accused have been ranked among the first citizens.

A man who gave his name as George M. Jones and called himself a Boston merchant, shot himself through the heart Thursday morning in St. Vincent's hospital, New York city, and expired instantly. It is believed his name was Smith, and that he was formerly an officer of the navy.

At the Methodist conference at Norwich, Conn., March 8th, charges were preferred against three clergymen, and committers were appointed to investigate and report upon them.

The United States supreme court has affirmed the decision of the circuit court of Massachusetts against the plaintiff, in the suit of Alexander G. Bowditch to recover from the city of Boston $70,000, the value of a building and contents, blown up by Postmaster Burt by order from the chief engineer, to arrest the progress of the great fire of 1872.

A woman named Mrs. McKay was so severely burned in Bangor, Me., on the morning of the 7th inst., while lighting a fire with kerosene, that she died in a few hours.

The body of a man was found in the river at Providence, R. I., on the 7th inst., having a rope about the neck, attached to a bar of iron. The man is Reuben S. Dorr, ship keeper of the schooner Yankee Blade, who was missed March 24, when the cabin door was found open with Dorr's clothes inside. There are doubts whether it is a case of murder or suicide. Dorr belonged in Maine.

As the hourly train for Lonsdale was going out of Providence, R. I., on the morning of the 6th inst., two boys, John F. Dolan, Jr., aged eight years, and Michael Murray, aged six, were struck by the locomotive and probably fatally injured injured.

Rev. H. H. Hayden was recently announced to lecture in the Methodist church at Northport, N. Y., but the trustees refused to admit an audience to hear him.

The wife of Minott Gilbert of Flanders, Conn, near Southington, has been arrested for throwing her nineteen-months-old female child into a pond, previously binding its hands and feet, and attaching it to a stone with a rope. The woman is supposed to be demented.

Hon. Edward O'Brien of Thomaston, Me., gave $600 towards loading the ship Constellation with provisions for the suffering poor of Ireland.

British barques Queen of Hearts and Ophir have been abandoned at sea, the former losing five of her crew. British ship Stornaway, from New Orleans to Liverpool with 5700 bales of cotton and other cargo, was abandoned March 22d. British steamship Syria, from New Orleans for Liverpool with 6060 bales of cotton, was abandoned April 4th. British ship Northern Empire, from New Orleans for Liverpool, has also gone to the bottom, with fourteen of her crew; eight of her men were saved.

The family of a farmer named Tyson, living a few miles from Detroit, Mich., has been arrested for the murder of a young woman named Martha Whitla. Her body was found floating in the Detroit river March 13th, 1879, bound and gagged, under the stern of one of the vessels. The police have been trying to unravel the mystery ever since. They found she had been working with the Tyson family, and that one of the sons became enamored of her and wished to marry her. She was willing, but young Tyson's father objected, and it is suspected that the family took foul means to prevent the marriage.

A baby show is to be held in Portland under the auspices of a Swedenborgian society, and the advertisement says: "Portraits of the loveliest babies of Portland to be thrown on a mammoth screen by means of a stereopticon and the Drummond light. All sections of the city to be represented. Your baby may be there." The portraits have been obtained from the various photographers.

Potatoes are selling at St. John, N. B., at the following prices: Mess Rose, fifty cents a barrel; Early Rose, Prolific and other kinds at sixty cents a barrel; and slow sales at these low prices.

John Thompson of Middlebury, Vt., an old man who lived in a filthy hovel, with eight large dogs and many birds, had a narrow escape recently. He returned to his hut after a prolonged spree, and the starved canines attacked him. His cries attracted the attention of his neighbors, who were compelled to kill all the dogs before they could rescue him. His clothes were torn off, and his flesh lacerated in many places.

Bismarck has resigned his position as chancellor of the German empire, but the emperor refuses to accept his resignation.

Political.

There was no choice of governor in Rhode Island, on the 7th inst., the independent-prohibition bolt being sufficient to prevent an election by the people. The regular republican candidates for secretary of state, for attorney-general and treasurer, received the usual majority, there being no third-party candidate. The assembly is overwhelmingly republican, which assures the election of Alfred H. Littlefield, the regular republican candidate for governor.

Mr. Bayard is not accounted as a wealthy man. His townfolks think he is worth perhaps $100,000. He has an income, they say, from his investments, his salary as a senator, his attorneyship of the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore railroad, and his law practice in vacations, of about $20,000.

THE TWO BRICK STORES,

Formerly leased and occupied by CHAS. ROBINSON & SON. The buildings have Basement Stores in the rear, which is a wharf privilege. The buildings can be fitted for tenants or for manufacturing purposes. A liberal portion of the purchase money can remain on mortgage, if desired. The Estate is owned by a resident in a distant city, and is sold on that account, and the opportunity to secure premises which can be made to pay so good investment upon the outlay is one not often seen. For further particulars or to AGREE, AIR, or the heirs of GEO. JAFFREY, ESQ., or of

AROUND HOME.

See notice of spring opening at J. M. Tebbetts' millinery store, No. 14 Market street, this day.

Mr. William Rollins of Newington, who was crushed by the fall of a tree on the 30th ult., died on the 7th inst.

The schooner Webster, from Saco, loaded with ground planter, arrived at this port on Thursday en route for Dover.

The Tallapoosa sailed from the navy yard for Washington, via Boston and New London, at an early hour Friday morning.

Schooner Charles Carroll, Capt. Burding, arrived at Concord railroad wharf on Friday from Rockland, Me., with six hundred barrels of lime for Walker & Co.

Mrs. Nancy Batchelder, widow of Benjamin Batchelder, died in Exeter on Monday morning, April 6th, at the age of eighty-five years. She had been blind for forty years.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of instruction was held on Wednesday evening of this week, but no business of public interest came up, beyond the approval of the usual monthly bills.

Schooner Ida Hudson, Gross master, sailed for Rockland on Friday afternoon with the wreck stuff saved from the schooner Johnny Meserve, which went ashore on Odiorne's point a few days ago.

Union Rebekah Degree Lodge, No. 3, will give another masquerade party in Odd Fellows hall on Tuesday evening next; their last party was one of the most success-ful of the kind ever given in Portsmouth.

A dollar bill was passed at one of our well known grocery stores on Fast day, having a slip of paper pasted on the back bearing the words (beneath a picture of a huge rum bottle) "This is my last dollar,—I spend it for rum"—to which was affixed the signature of one of our best known temperance advocates.

It was reported along the wharves, Friday evening, that a schooner recently purchased by persons at Exeter to trade between that place and coastwise ports, on her first trip up the river this week took the ground and swung across the channel, somewhere below Exeter, and that the tide was ebbing and flowing in her. Her name was not given.

A team belonging in Rye made quite a little excitement in this city, Friday. First the horse ran away on Market street, only a young lady being in the wagon, and at the corner of Market and Bow streets the vehicle was capsized and a wheel damaged, and the young lady thrown out but not seriously hurt. The damage to the wagon was repaired, and the owner of the team then essayed to steer the horse around town all right, but the animal ran away again, on Congress street, and this time smashed another wheel.

There was a gala time at the rooms of the Workingmen's Institute, Thursday evening, the occasion being an oyster supper given by Mr. William Ward to the members of the institute. Many of our prominent citizens were present as invited guests. The tables were generously spread, and presented a handsome appearance. After dinner remarks were made by Mr. Ward, Chief Engineer D. B. Macomb, Rev. C. A. Holbrook, Mr. Wm. E. Hadley and others. The company separated at a late hour, after passing a vote of thanks to the host of the evening.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Reform club on Friday evening, April 9th: President, Joseph T. French; vice presidents, Robert Phinney, Eugene A. Sanborn, Charles W. Lolley, B. Stowe Laskey, Charles Stewart; secretary, Mrs. B. F. Thorndike; treasurer, James Janvrin; chaplain, George W. Frost; finance committee, Frank W. Miller, Benj. F. Thorndike, Charles T. Wiggin; ticket sellers, Herbert Poverly, Lorenzo T. Burnham; ticket takers, Charles Holt, Charles Humphreys; trustees, Stephen W. Clarke, Charles S. Dodge, G. W. Randall.

See notice of concert and readings complimentary to Rev. Mr. Pitblado on Monday evening next.

The Journal, in its report of the wreck of the schooner Johnny Meserve at Odiorne's point on the night of the 3d inst., says: "For some reason the fog horn was not blowing at the time—so the captain reported." The fog horn was "blowing at the time" of the wreck, the captain and the Journal to the contrary notwithstanding. The keeper of Whaleback light asserts that he started the horn about eight o'clock; while on the street in this city, some minutes before eight o'clock, we distinctly heard the blast of the horn, we being sure of the time from the fact that before eight o'clock arrived we were in Music hall, and remained there for some hours—and when we came out we heard the blasts again; and the horn was heard by plenty of other persons, in this city, in Newcastle and in Kittery, all through the night referred to. The Journal's attempt to throw blame upon the lightkeeper is uncalled for and unjust.

WRECK.

As the steamer Clara Patomen was entering the harbor, Friday forenoon, she was hailed by a schooner which was making for the lower harbor anchorage, and the information given that the schooner had on board the crew of a limeladen vessel which was capsized and sunk somewhere off Boon island on the previous day, during a heavy squall. The schooner afterward proceeded toward Boston. Further particulars (which we obtained from the schooner Charles Carroll, Burding master,) are to the effect that the lost vessel was the Lucy Jane, of Rockland, with a cargo of six hundred and fifty barrels of lime, and bound for Salem, Mass. When off Boon island and in the range of the Shoals a squall struck her, when she capsized and almost immediately sunk, giving the crew barely time to escape.

A GOOD FAST-DAY SERMON.

Rev. Mr. McGinley, pastor of the North parish, preached an able sermon, Fast day, to a goodly number of hearers, many of whom came from other religious societies. The discourse abounded in practical suggestions as to our duty as public-spirited men and women; commended the liberality that displays its zeal in good works, in developing local industries, helping young people to attain success and position, etc.; and argued for the liberal support of our public schools, as an indispensable necessity towards good morals and the training of those coming after us. Our duties in social relations, and our many other obligations, were pointed out. The sermon was vigorous, practical, suggestive and withal eloquent. Although the delivery occupied fifty minutes, the preacher was listened to throughout with marked attention. The weight of the preacher's influence is decidedly in favor of progressive ideas, and the employment of all proper means which shall result in the improvement, the welfare, social enjoyment, culture and healthful growth and prosperity of the community in which we live. After the service the pastor was congratulated by many of his hearers from other churches upon the marked character of his discourse, which gave evidence of a keen appreciation of the wants as well as the opportunities of the community of which the new pastor has recently become a member.

REAL ESTATE CONVEYANCES.

[From the Exeter Gazette.]

The following were the conveyances of real estate in Rockingham county for the week ending April 7th, as left for record in the office of the register of deeds:

SANDOWN.

Wm. W. Stickney of Exeter to Geo. Marston, of Hampstead land in Sandown, $1.

Leonard L. Hook to George Marston of Hampstead, land, $110.

CHESTER.

James W. Gordon and als., of Haverhill, Mass., to George S. West of Chester, land and buildings, $1220.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The auditor's estimates for Saco the present year are $43,300.

The village of Kennebunkport has been provided with a full set of street lamps.

The farmers of Eliot have been ploughing their land, and planting peas, during the present week.

Schooner Mansar B. Oakes, of Kennebunk, which arrived at Philadelphia on the 5th inst. after a passage so long as to cause fears for her safety, lost her deck load of mackerel and had some of her spars damaged in the storm of March 24th.

Schooner Annie C. Norwood, of Gloucester, Mass., sailed on a haddocking trip the 20th ult., and the last that was seen of her was during the gale of March 24th, heading for shoal water on Cashes. She is now greatly overdue, and is given up for lost with all on board. She had a crew of fourteen men. Joseph M. Hurst, of Kittery, was master.

At the public meeting on the 5th inst. in school district No. 2, of Eliot, James Buchanan Stacy was chosen agent for the ensuing year. It was voted to thoroughly repair the school-house, and to put new seats into the building. The work has been let to the well known building firm of Tucker, Nason & Stacy, of Eliot, and the district will have a building that will be an honor to the town.

Before Breakfast

always use SOZODONT and rub it in well. It gives such pleasant relief from parched tongue resulting from sleep, promotes the healthful secretions of the mouth. It will cost more for meat and such things, but don't begrudge it.

A Down Town Merchant

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home she acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and the little fellow awoke next morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering, crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudice of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 6

Grateful Women.

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills, fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, and all readily removed by these Bitters.—Courant.

At Richibucto, N. B., on the 6th inst., a man was arrested supposed to be Henry J. Gunn, who murdered his father at Bridgewater, Mass., in September, 1879. The man arrested gave the name of Wilson, and claims to belong near Houlton, Maine.

Too much cannot be said of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam, as it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, etc, that I have ever seen, and to its wonderful effects I owe my recovery. It is well worthy of praise, and I would advise all to use it who are afflicted.

Speculators are getting up or have already made a "corner" in opium as was done a dozen years ago, when the small supply of the drug was controlled by a few men, and it was sold in jobbing lots as high as $30 a pound. The price two years ago was $4 50 per pound.

Hundreds of Cases of Consumption.

We know of hundreds of cases where persons were supposed to be suffering from consumption, who have become perfectly well and robust from the use of Spear's Sambucl Wine. Many times people for years waste, and at last die from diseases of the kidneys or glands, when they were supposed to have, and were treated for, consumption. Spear's Sambuci Wine will cure kidney complaint—and when taken with a fresh raw egg, or new milk daily, has been found an excellent remedy and has the reputation of rendering a perfect cure for consumption. —Medical Times.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which lonstitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. L. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light

An Open Letter. It Speaks for Itself.

WEST TOWNSHEND, VT.

Mr. Editor; Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cure of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling tube" makers (these dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could embargo a similar cure in the papers. For twenty-six years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for one hundred and sixty-eight hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, not resolution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and assist with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common-sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly, S. D. RESNICK.

—A boy ten years of age who has an eager love of music was permitted to attend the grand opera not long ago. When his mother asked him what he thought of the performance, he said: "It was the foolishest thing I ever saw; but it was about the best music I ever heard." Thus spoke an honest critic, and yet a bad one.

Doctors may Disagree

as to the best methods and remedies, for the cure of constipation and disorder of liver and kidneys. But those that have used Kidney-Wort agree that is by far the best medicine known. Its action is prompt, thorough and lasting. Don't take pills, and other nostrums that poison the system, but by using Kidney-Wort restore the natural action of all the organs.

—After a telegraph pole had fallen on a Savannah negro's head, he threw up his hands and shouted: "Don't hit me again with yer club, Mr. Policeman. It wasn't me that stole der crackers. It was Dandy Henry." Then he looked, saw what hit him, and walked off, saying: "Golly, I'se in luck dis mornin'. I spected dat ere policeman had me shuah dat time."

— Eureka district was discovered in 1865. It was as good as abandoned until 1869. Now it is the great mining center of eastern Nevada, producing annually millions of dollars, and supporting a population variously estimated at from 6,000 to 8,000.

Use Kidney-Wort and rejoice in health. One package makes six quarts of medicine.

Mr. Fellows is daily in receipt of letters of enquiry, from various parts, respecting his Syrup of Hypophosphites. One recently received, leads to the belief that the public mistake his meaning in reference to its effect in imparting superior energy to the mind. Where the intellect has been impaired by overwork or by kindred causes, the use of the Syrup, together with proper precautions in the use of food, clothing, exercise and rest, will restore full power to the brain and nerves. Superiority of genius consists in great capacity of brain for assimilating material from every quarter, and of developing in proportion, but as by far the greater number are not so well endowed by nature, consequently lacking this capacity, it would be quite impossible to find ample space for material necessary to constitute the brilliant genius. Hence, although the Syrup will assist in restoring the mind which is lost, it cannot change a natural born idiot into an intelligent man.

— Mr. Fletcher, the father of the author of "Kismet" and "Mirage," who was recently jilted by an ignoble English nobleman, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith possessing the attributes of a true man, than to any scion of the British aristocracy looking them."

Profit, $1200.

—In sanitarium six hour years of bedridden sickness, resting $200 per year, total $1,200—all of this expense was saved by three bottles of Hop Bitters. Taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit.—New England Farmer.

— The tramp law of Ohio is working well. In this particular it differs very materially from the tramp himself.—Keokuk Gate City.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7th.

There is likely to be a war of words in congress on the army appropriation bill, notwithstanding the opinions to the contrary that have been expressed for the last few weeks. The democrats are determined to cut down the army to the least point possible, and to lop off every official about whose usefulness there may be the least doubt, while the republicans believe that it cannot be reduced from the present standard without destroying its efficiency. It will be impossible to avoid the wrangle over the troops-at-the-polls idea, which occupied so much time last year, if the present temper of both parties holds on for a few days longer.

Mr. Springer of Illinois made a personal explanation in the house which was particularly satisfactory to all fair-minded men, with reference to his course on the Minnesota contested-election case. The charge that he voted against Donnelly for corrupt motives was trumped up by Donnelly himself, and the trick by which he tried to involve Springer was so thin and contemptible that he has become the laughing stock of Washington. The democrats will do well to run somebody beside Donnelly in Minnesota, next time; he is an injury to his own party.

The canal scheme of De Lesseps and his European speculators seems to have lost caste wonderfully since Captain Eads exposed its impracticability. The fact is, the Frenchman indulged in wild theories which cannot for a long time tickle the fancy of practical Americans. Capt. Eads will now make an effort to have his plan considered, and it is thought that many capitalists and engineers will be enlisted in his enterprise.

Senator Edmunds has really got the presidential bee in his bonnet, if we may believe the latest reports. Although his chance for the presidency is so slight, he has got quite anxious on the subject, and it is said that he has ceased talking for Grant as he did a while ago. The republicans however are not likely to take Senator Edmunds, for he has faults of temper which injure his popular strength, and he is not a progressive man. It is a fact, however, that the Grant boom is growing weaker, the republicans seeming to fear that they cannot stand up under the prejudice against the third term. The Sherman men, too, are slightly discouraged over the early triumphs of Senator Blaine in Ohio. KNOX.

Tallow "Butter."

An exchange gives the following as an easy and sure method of detecting the cheap and unwholesome "oleomargarine" from pure butter, for which it is very largely sold:

But there is a way to detect the counterfeit. We learn it from a New York dealer in butter, and here and now make it public for the benefit of all concerned—as it has never been published. When both smell and taste fail to show him which is which, the New York dealer, by the aid of his tongue, spreads the substance over the roof of his mouth, and by inhaling cool air, open-mouthed, causes it in a minute to cool there. Then, if it is oleomargarine, he can tell it by its tallowy consistency and taste. Moreover, in melting it for cooking purposes, the counterfeit does not act like real butter.

"Coaching" a Witness.

In a court in Portland, Me., a few days ago, suit was brought by Frederick E. Barker against the Maine Charitable Mechanic Association, claiming $10,000 damages for injuries to Barker's son, who sustained permanent injuries some time ago through a gate belonging to the defendant corporation being thrown down on him. The little boy, only ten years of age, who received the injuries, was called to the stand by the attorney for the plaintiff. The judge asked him if he knew the nature of an oath. He answered satisfactorily, and his testimony was admitted. He told the story of the accident in a straightforward way, readily answering all the questions put to him. Upon cross-examination he was asked if he had been instructed by any one as to what to say when he should be called to the witness stand. He replied that he had.

"Who told you what to say?"

"My mother."

"What did she tell you to say?".

"She told me to tell the truth."

"Well, what else did she tell you to say?"

"She told me to say 'Yes sir' and 'No sir.'"

"Anything else?"

"Yes sir, she told me speak up loud so that the gentlemen could hear me."

—A music store in Cincinnati sends out a circular which promises the public it will "supply any musical want." Twenty-five persons have sent orders to be supplied with an ear for music.

—Mr. Stewart, in a letter to a young man, just published, said: "I am glad to know you have got into the country. It is the best place for young men. Allow me to give you a word of advice. Just as soon as you can get out of public employment into some occupation by which you can support yourself, do it, and become an independent man. Salaries are the graveyards of all men, and very often corrupt them."

—Not long since some pious parents concluded to disabuse the mind of their little daughter about there being a real Santa Claus, and so, after reminding her of the many times they had told her about that jolly personage, and discovering that their teachings had been believed by the little girl, they boldly informed her that all her teachings on that subject were false, and that there was no Santa Claus. The little girl was wonder-struck, and after asking some questions and reflecting for some little time, significantly asked: "How is it about Jesus Christ—did you lie to me about him, too?"

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief until I used your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certainly that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely free, but be one I continued using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entire well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. ROE.

CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For eleven years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried a mirade of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. Some my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write to me and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION. It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most efficinal remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effectual treatment. AYER'S PILLS are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy actions. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Numbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other disease arising from the disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs; they regulate the liver and bile; they purify the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united in Imperial Pints into Quarts, and Quarts into Gallons.

It is as the best as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in its virtues, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed in the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully and unhesitatingly in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eight or years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other Sarsaparilla preparation, and with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Respectfully,

S. M. DINSMO RE, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofulous and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system in weakness and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

Valor's Reward.

Julius Mirch is the watchman of the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad, at the Division street crossing at Paterson, N. J. Late on Saturday night, while at his post, he was startled by the cry, "Hold these horses, or we shall be killed!" The cry proceeded from the lips of a coachman who was endeavoring to check the speed of a pair of fiery steeds that had become unmanageable. A freight train was approaching, and a collision between the train and the team seemed inevitable. Mirch, however, coolly sprang forward, and, seizing the startled animals by the bridles, turned them to one side and brought them to a standstill as the train thundered harmlessly by. The coachman dismounted, exclaiming that it was the narrowest escape he had ever had. In the carriage were two ladies—one the wife of the late Charles Danforth, of the Danforth Locomotive Works, who died about two years ago, leaving nearly $2,000,000. The bulk of this was bequeathed to Mrs. Danforth during her life. Both ladies were overcome by fright, and it was some time before they regained the full possession of their senses. Many who saw the accident and the almost miraculous escape from a fatal termination remained to congratulate Mirch on his daring and skill. It was rumored yesterday that Mrs. Danforth had presented Mr. Mirch with a munificent reward for his bravery in saving her life. A visit to the watchman's post of duty revealed a German who had lost all the nonchalance and coolness of the preceding day, and who was in the highest state of excitement. A man in Mrs. Danforth's employ, he said, had brought him an envelope from her containing the sum of fifty cents—two silver quarters.—N. Y. Herald.

Hitherto there has been no remedy which could be regarded as specific for tetanus. At last, however, an ingenious French physician has apparently stumbled upon a remedy before which tetanus yields as readily as toothache yields to the dentist's forceps, and which will, of course, supersede cicuare and all other inferior remedies. The French doctor in question was called in to attend a lady suffering from tetanus. In his report he says that she was a married woman of thirty-one years of age, and that previous to his visit her family physician had tried every known remedy for tetanus, including curare, without producing any effect. The patient was lying on her back, with her jaws tightly clinched, and the muscles of her chest and throat were so rigid that she was unable to utter a sound.

The doctor at once went out and procured a live mouse of the usual size and voracity, to the tail of which he attached a strong horse hair. Placing the mouse at the foot of the bed he permitted it to walk the entire length of the patient's body. No sooner did the patient notice the mouse than she sprang up, loudly calling to the attendants to take it off, and denouncing the doctor as a horrid, heartless wretch, who ought to be ashamed of himself and guillotined on the spot. There was no resistance of the symptoms of tetanus. In fact, the doctor adds that the lady's jaws were so thoroughly and perma cently unlocked that the husband, who is, of course, ignorant of law, has threatened to begin an action for damages against him.—Homœopathic Review.

A Wasp of Brains.

I was observing a wasp nest one morning when I saw a mud wasp come buzzing along and alight within an inch or two of it on the side opposite the opening. After all was quiet he proceeded with his little game of strategy. Creeping noiseslessly around toward the opening or entrance to the nest, he stopped a little short of it, and for a moment remained perfectly quiet. Then reaching out one of his antenæ he wriggled it before the opening and withdrew it. The overture had the desired effect, for the boss of the nest, as large a spider as one ordinarily sees, came out to see what was wrong and to set it to rights. No sooner had the spider emerged to that point where he was at the worst disadvantage than the wasp, with a movement quicker than a wink, seized the rear portion of his body around and bringing his sting through the body of his foe, killing him easily and almost instantly. The experiment was repeated on the part of the wasp, and when there was no response from the inside he became satisfied, probably, that he held the fort. At all events he proceeded to enter the nest and feed the young wasps, which were afterward lugged off one at a time.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Fish Chowder.

For a family of four, about two pounds of fish and six large potatoes will be required. The fish well cleaned, and cut in pieces four or five inches square. The potatoes pared, and sliced nice and thin. Put three or four slices of salt pork fry in the kettle in which the chowder is to be made. When done remove the pork and cut in small pieces; then put into the kettle, with the fat from the pork a layer of fish and potatoes season with pepper, and put in some of the pork; put another layer of fish, potatoes, pepper and pork, and that will probably use all the fish and potatoes. Now pour in enough boiling water, not to cover, but to come up well round the sides of the kettle, and set it to boiling. A small onion, sliced, improves it for some and spoils it for others. Split eight or ten crackers, pour about a quart of milk over them, and let them soak until the potatoes are done, which will be about half an hour. Then add the crackers and milk, and butter the size of an egg, to the chowder, and as soon as it boils it is done.

Another Murder.

On Friday last, as three little daughters of Thomas Connor, who lives near Horn's woods on Durham point, were hunting for flowers, they came upon the headless body of a man, and at once hastened home with the information, which was quickly conveyed to the town authorities. The body was found lying face downward, at full length, with both arms resting underneath. The only covering to the body was a shirt. The right arm was severed from the body at the shoulder; the head had also been cut off and could not be found, and the remains had been otherwise mutilated by the murderer. About 300 feet away the coat, pants and vest were found, and in another direction, some twenty-five feet distant, a linen collar, cap, necktie and shirt bosom, which had been torn completely off. The top part of the skull, minus the hair, and nearly the size of a saucer, and a murderous oak club, about three feet long, were also found in a little clearing, near a small loose rock, and it is evident that here the murder was committed. Several pieces of skull and brain were scattered about, and also torn clothing, all indicating the victim's fearful struggle for life. The body was positively identified as being that of a Frenchman named Peter Duvall, who suddenly disappeared from Newmarket some three weeks ago. Coroner Pray of Dover commenced holding an inquest at Durham on Saturday, which it was expected would not be concluded for several days.

The Colored Troops Fought Nobly.

There was a six-days'-go-as-you-please tramp in New York last week, and the scores made exceeded anything before recorded, the winner, Hart, making 565 miles, and the next man, Pegram, 543; both these men are colored, and belong in Boston. Hart's winnings will amount to $16,000. There were eight men who were six days in the race, the scores being as follows: Hart 565; Pegram 543; Howard 534; Dobler 531; Allen 525; Ravone 515; Williams 506; Hanwaker 450.

News and Notes.

British steamship Fernville, bound from West Hartlepool, Eng., for Boston with 1119 tons of pig iron, has been sunk at sea by collision with a piece of floating ice; the crew, twenty-three in number, were saved.

Kate Bangs, aged fifty years, a Portland, Me., domestic, has been missing since February. She left all her clothing except what she had on, a bank book with several hundred dollars to her credit, and quite a sum of ready money. Inquiry at places she was in the habit of visiting failed to elicit any information of her whereabouts. The money has been placed in a bank.

A man named McDonald was found in the water near the drawbridge at Bangor, Me., on the 5th inst., and was nearly dead when drawn out. He now says he was thrown from the bridge by three men who robbed him before they threw him overboard. He states that he was coming across the bridge alone when these men overtook him, and after a short struggle, during which they secured what money he had, which amounted to some twenty odd dollars, they threw him over the rail. He admits that he had been drinking, and states that his life had been threatened during the day. McDonald has been employed at the Katahdin Iron Works, and has the reputation of being a hard-working man.

Mr. Charles Files left his boarding house in Portland, Me., some weeks ago, to visit at Cape Elizabeth. He has not been heard from since and his friends fear that foul play, or some misfortune, has overtaken him.

The Mt. Desert Steamboat Co. have recovered $,8000 from W. H. Fessenden of Portland, Me., for breach of contract in selling them a steamboat that did not make as many knots an hour as it was claimed she would.

Samuel Glover of Fairfield, Conn., who was terribly hurt recently by a loose rail crashing into a Fourth street car in New York, has been taken home, and has brought suit against the company for $50,000 damages.

The St. Petersburg Herald announces that Russia is about to despatch five large war vessels to Chinese waters for the protection of Russian interests.

The Ex-Empress Eugenie, before starting for Zululand, presented her imperial crown to the Church of Notre Dame Des Victories, Paris. It is of great value on account of its artistic composition and the number of precious stones it contains.

The Massachusetts house has voted, 120 to 90, forbidding the delivery of liquor to minors under any circumstances, or to any person who has been intoxicated during the six months preceding.

The British steamer Darita has been sunk by a collision on the river Danube. Eleven passengers and five of the crew were drowned.

Rev. William H. Greene of Litchfield, Conn., has died in state prison, where he had been sentenced for fourteen years for poisoning his wife.

The principal feature in the Allen murder trial at Hartford, Conn., Thursday, was the testimony of the prisoner, who told for the first time the story of the attempt to escape. Another prisoner, named Brown, suggested the break, and furnished $500 with which to buy Davis, a watchman, who mailed a letter which brought to the jail a jackscrew, pistols and other articles. Another watchman, named Beadle, was afterward bought, who actually assisted Allen in an attempt to break a window bar.

Thomas and Jeannette Clark were arrested at Buffalo, N. Y., Saturday, for shamefully abusing the latter's mother, aged ninety-four years. They locked her up in a cold room for hours, broke her arm, and kicked and beat her. The poor woman was covered with bruises.

Gen. Nelson Miles, the noted Indian fighter, arrived in Chicago, Friday, on his way to Washington. He gives his opinion that there will be more or less trouble with the Indians in the northwest during the coming summer, but nothing approaching a general Indian war.

Major General Hancock has a farm of one hundred acres of fine land near Windsor, Mo., which he looks upon as his homestead, where he means to pass the latter years of his life. Before going into the army he was a citizen of Missouri, and married in that state.

By a collision in New York harbor, Saturday, between steamship Scandinavia and ship Thorvald, both vessels were badly damaged, the steamer having a hole four feet wide cut from her rail to her water line.

Dr. G. F. Goersen, a prominent physician of Philadelphia, has been arrested on suspicion of having poisoned his wife, who died some days ago.

Passed Asst. Surgeon A. A. Austin is detached from the Norfolk navy yard, and ordered to the Richmond. Passed Asst. Surgeon John F. Bransford is detached from the Richmond, and ordered to return home and report arrival.

Norfolk, Va., advices of last Thursday say: "The Portsmouth will be here early next week to go in the dry dock for repairs to her bottom. She is now at the Washington navy yard, and will sail from here for Europe about the 23d inst."

According to the latest advices, the United States gunboat Adams was at Gulfo Dulce, and the Kearsarge at Boscos Del Torro, Central American coast, both actively surveying. The Alaska and Onward were at Callao, March 17th.

The Tuscarora on the 9th inst. touched at San Diego, Cal., landed nine men who were picked up on the beach 300 miles south in a destitute condition, and sailed for San Francisco same day.

A cable despatch was received in New York on Monday, April 5th, from Commander Bunce of the Marion, simply saying, "Fever abating. Well." The despatch, which was dated at Montevideo, is our latest news from the Marion, and it will serve to allay the apprehensions of those who have friends on this vessel. At the date of the latest report by mail, March 1st, the officers and crew were still encamped on Flores island. No cases of fever occurred after leaving the ship. The process of fumigating was going on as far as practicable.

The South American War.

Panama papers of March 31st have two accounts of a recent battle at Moquega. One states that the Peruvians surprised the Chilians and slaughtered a whole regiment, driving the others to the main body of the Chilian army, some miles distant. Another report states that the Chilian army attempted to surprise the Peruvians, but were ambuscaded and badly routed. Out of 1,200 men in a crack regiment only sixty-seven escaped. The total loss of the Chilians is reported as 1,300 killed, besides wounded and prisoners lost. Ten thousand troops were ordered to reinforce the Chilians. In a recent battle between the iron-clads Huascar and Magellanes on the Chilian side, and the Manco Capac and shore batteries, the Huascar lost twenty-five killed, including her captain and two other officers, besides losing her mizzenmast and being hulled by several shot. The town was badly damaged, however, by the Augamos bombarding it at long range, several houses being torn to pieces and burned by shells, and a large number of women and children killed. On the 14th of March the Chilian fleet destroyed all the guano-loading apparatus, launches and lighters at Lobos. They landed a force of men and sacked the stores of the English Loading company. Some twenty vessels loading guano were forced to suspend operations. The Chilians carried off the governor of the island, Col. Alayza, the harbor master, and the few soldiers and sailors at the place. Two ships then proceeded to Eten, a little town on the adjacent coast, and without warning opened fire upon it, throwing shells into the town, and two shots directed against the railway wharf. Fortunately no one was injured. The only available war vessel belonging to Peru was on an important expedition to the south.

Political.

The Machias, Me., Union says there is a sentiment prevailing among democrats and greenbackers favorable to a union of parties on a candidate for governor, and suggests John B. Redman of Ellsworth.

The Vicksburg Herald complains that the democratic legislatures of Mississippi vote away the money of the people just as recklessly as did the carpet-baggers and negroes. The last legislature voted away $989,098.

There was a novel feature at the election in Fond-du-lac, Wisconsin. Sing Yan, a native of China, took out his naturalization papers and cast his first vote as an American citizen. He has lived there about two years, has learned to read and write English, and has discarded his Chinese costume, still, however, retaining his pigtail. He is the only one of his nationality in the section.

Before Breakfast

always use SOZODONT and rub it in well. It gives such pleasant relief from parched tongue resulting from sleep, promotes the healthful secretions of the mouth. It will cost more for meat and such things, but don't begrudge it.

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery.

The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.:—

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "baby" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the grinding, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 1

See a Woman!

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City. D&W1Jun81

AROUND HOME.

Schooner Charles H. Trickey, of Dover, Kelly master, has been chartered to load ice at Kennebec for Newport, R. I.

A seaman named Henry Piper, who came here to join a vessel, fell on Deer street, Saturday evening, owing to a wash-out in the sidewalk, and broke his arm.

H. C. & J. G. Howe, of Lowell, Mass., who reconstructed the print works in Dover after the fire there, have been awarded the contract for erecting the new mill for the Cocheco company.

A five-hours' go-as-you please race at Exeter, last Thursday, for the championship of Rockingham county, was won by John Behen of Newmarket, who made thirty-three and one-half miles. He received the first prize and a silver medal.

Saturday was a chilly, blustering, uncomfortable day—a very appropriate wind-up of an uncomfortable week; the dust, gravel and small rocks flew around at a worse rate than is often seen, and a thunder-storm or a street sprinkler would have been welcome.

A concert and reading will be given at the Methodist church this evening, complimentary to Rev. Mr. Pitolado. Miss Edith Wendell and others will sing, Miss Giddings and Mr. E. C. Stimpson will read, and Harlow's orchestra will furnish instrumental music. See advertisement.

Schooner Lodiba, Capt. Amee, arrived at Dover on the 6th inst. with 300 barrels of plaster, 100 barrels of bone meal and 400 barrels of lime, for Converse & Hobbs. Schooner Ida Henderson, Capt. Gross, arrived at Dover on the same date from Rondout, N. Y., with 500 barrels of cement for the same firm.

The schooner that picked up the crew of the schooner Lucy Jane, before reported capsized and sunk off Boon island, was the Castella, of Rockland, Thomas master. The captain and crew of the Lucy Jane lost everything, and were very much exhausted when picked up. They were put on board the schooner Helen Maria, Capt. Elwell, bound from Camden for Salem.

As Mr. Warren Keen was on his way from this city to his home in Rye, on the evening of last day, he was assaulted when near Seavey's bridge by two young ruffians from Portsmouth, one of whom is of a respectable family, and both of whom were probably drunk. They threw stones and clubs at Mr. Keen, and had a nice time on it one of them was keeled over by the vigorous application of a boot's toe to his abdomen, when the other begged for mercy. We believe Mr. Keen will have the young roughs arrested; we know he will, if he does his duty.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Traveller writes that paper as follows: "The story comes here from New Hampshire in a private letter that Mr. Stillson Hutchins, the editor of the daily Post here, and the Manchester Union, has purchased a house in the first congressional district, and that with the aid of Frank Jones he is setting up a plan to run for congress at the next congressional election. The story is that Hutchins is going to assist Jones to get the governorship, in return for which the democrats of the first district are to be told they must nominate Hutchins for congress."

May Fisk, who has appeared on the stage in this city several times at the head of "May Fisk's blondes," a female troupe of not-at-all-uncertain character, on the 3d inst., at Logansport, Ohio, attempted to cowhide Walter Landis, city editor of the Logansport Journal, on account of an article that had appeared in his paper. Landis, according to one account, "drew a revolver on her, which rather intimidated the pugnacious Fisk, and the cowhiding was postponed till another time." Another statement is that "Landis made no resistance, but attempted to leave the theatre; Fisk's agent and another man tried to prevent his escape, but he got the better of them." The Fisk woman was fined $20 and costs, and her "agent" $31 and costs, for the assault.

Mr. Lemuel B. Caswell last week went to Smuttynose island, with a full gang of men for the prosecution of his fish-curing business. Mr. Caswell has made and is now making considerable improvements in the hotel on Smuttynose, and will this season offer better accommodations than ever before for summer boarders.

Pegram, the colored man who won second money in the six-days' race in New York last week, took the first prize in a seventy-hours' race at Dover last year.

Assistant Paymaster Zachary T. Brown, U. S. N., of this city, has been commissioned a passed assistant paymaster in the navy from June 15th, 1878.

Our harbor is this year to be again decorated with weirs. The one which Cape Cod parties have for several years set at Pocahontas point, Gerrish's island, will be placed further to the eastward this year; and the one which extends off the shore at Fort McClary, and is run by Mr. H. Mitchell of Kittery, will be twice the size of the one used at the same place last summer.

On Saturday last Mr. Thomas Holland, who works in the Kearsarge mill and lives on Christian shore, attempted to load a rifle, but was unable to force the bullet more than about half-way down the barrel. Either through ignorance of the danger, or recklessness, he fired the charge, and the result was that the rifle burst, and Mr. Holland found himself with one hand badly torn; he may lose the thumb on that hand.

The schooner previously reported as wrecked in the river below Exeter is the Horatio Nichols, Sturgis master, which arrived at this port on the 3d inst. from Hoboken. She was proceeding to Exeter in tow when she took the bottom, and swinging across the channel grounded at both ends, so that when the tide fell she broke her back by her own weight. The tug which had her in tow was imprisoned on the un-river side of the wreck for several days, but a high tide on Friday enabled her to get by the obstruction. The schooner registers 180 tons, is owned mostly in Exeter, and had on board 325 tons of coal, consigned to Clark of Exeter; her cargo is being discharged into scows.

EXTINGUISHER ELECTIONS.

At the regular meeting of the fire extinguisher companies, Monday evening of last week, the following officers were elected:

No. 5—Warren P. Webster, foreman; Robert Bowles, assistant foreman; Lorenzo T. Burnham, clerk; Woodbury Prior, steward; Walter B. Maleon, pipeman.

No. 6—Henry Wallace, foreman; Daniel Wendell, assistant foreman; R. H. Walden, clerk; Oliver Ham, steward; Joseph Fletcher, pipeman.

THE SHOE FACTORY.

At a meeting of the directors of the Portsmouth Shoe Co., held on Friday evening, the contract with Mr. Whitcomb was signed, and other important business transacted. It has been decided to erect the factory for the combined companies on the site of the old Rockingham mill, (the Came carriage factory, at the time it was burned,) and the ground was surveyed on Saturday. Work will be commenced at once on the building, which is to be 110 feet long and five stories high; the engine room will be on one side of the building, and the old chimney now standing on the lot will be utilized. The engine to be put in will be of power sufficient to run a factory of double the capacity of this one, so that a large extension would not require any change in the engine.

FIRES IN ELIOT.

The Congregational church in Eliot was set on fire by a spark from the chimney, Sunday afternoon, and was entirely consumed.

A house occupied by George C. Ireland took fire from cinders from the church, and was also burned flat.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The city of Saco has granted permission to the Old Orchard Beach Pier Co. to proceed with their work.

A fishing schooner of forty tons, built in Kennebunk for a Portland owner, was towed from Kennebunk to her hailing port on the 7th inst.

Ship S. S. Thomas, 1554 tons register, built at Kennebunk in 1871, and owned in Yarmouth, Me., has been sold to go under the German flag.

A stable belonging to Joseph Eon, at Biddeford, was burned on Thursday night last; cause of fire unknown; insurance $400. The stable was a new one, built last year.

The Northern Shoe Manufacturing company is soon to begin operations at Biddeford. They will occupy the second and third floors of a new building to be erected on Mechanics' square by Nathaniel Currier.

Joseph Hill of Kennebunk, aged seventy-nine years; his wife Sophia, aged seventy-one; and his daughter Mary, aged forty-nine, have all died within three weeks of each other, the last of the three deaths occurring on Wednesday of last week.

The returns of the spring elections in all the towns of the first congressional district of Maine are published, and show a republican majority of 1543 against 241 last fall in Cumberland county, and 1622 against 104 in York county, or 3165 against 345 in the whole district.

City Marshal Andrews is making things warm and exceedingly uncomfortable for the retail venders of "liquid damnation," as Neal Dow calls tangleleg. There doesn't seem to be the least taste of peace for the wicked when he is around. The deputy-sheriffs, too, are busy, and putting in some good work. They make seizures every day. The fact is, the rum traffic is being rapidly driven into its hole.—Biddeford Journal.

After the "Rev." H. A. Wales of Biddeford was deposed from the pastorship of the Universalist church, on account of his connection with the fusion state-stealers, a portion of his congregation, with other fusionist admirers of his conduct, engaged him to preach to them, and hired the city hall for a church. They promised to pay the regular tariff for the hall, but it seems their promises were of the flat variety, as the rent has not been paid; so the city government has kicked the flat church into the street.

New Hampshire Items.

At a meeting of the governor and council, Friday, Edwin Breese, sentenced from Hillsborough county for forgery, and Augustus Cowan from Strafford county for stealing, were pardoned. D. A. Hill of Sandwich was appointed judge of probate for Carroll county, in place of Larkin D. Mason of Tamworth, whose term of office has expired by limitation.

The governor and council have contracted with Dr. H. P. Blackwell to pay, in accordance with an act of the legislature, a bounty of one cent a pound on beet sugar made in New Hampshire the coming year, the premium being limited to 700,000 pounds.

Merrilla Mason of North Chichester, who has been indicted by the grand jury for an aggravated assault upon her husband, will not be brought to trial, as the latter refuses to testify against her.

Ex-Senator James W. Patterson of Hanover has received the appointment for New Hampshire as a member of the committee of one from each of the states in the Union, to make proper arrangements for the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, which will occur in October of 1881.

At Grantham, on the 9th inst., a Miss Green, aged twenty years, was found dead in bed. A coroner's inquest was held Saturday, foul play being suspected.

Grateful Women.

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills, fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, and all readily removed by these Bitters.—Courant.

—The Burlington Hawkeye remarks that "as you travel around the country you are more and more impressed with the conviction that the chief end of man is to paint patent medicine signs on the fences."

The friends of temperance will find Malt Bitters invigorating and strengthening.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. L. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light

What High Prices in Paper May Lead To.

If printing paper continues to advance, newspapers will not feel to use common white rags with a plain gilt border dressed. They will much dislike to resort to so cheap a substitute, but when rag print goes up on a pair of telegraph climbers, and the paper mills plunge their thumbs into the armholes of their vests, and ask you what you are going to do about it, something must be done, and it is to be hoped that the reading public will gracefully submit to having their newspapers printed on this inexpensive material until these bloated straw-stack and rag-bag holders can be driven to the wall, and publishers can afford to return to the use of paper. We're in for breaking down the giant monopoly, and if it becomes necessary to print the paper on a bleachy rubber blanket, and have men go around and hold it while people read it, we shall not shrink from our duty when volunteers are called for.—Bristol (Penn.) Observer.

A Young Lady's Heart Misplaced.

A curious case of malposition was recently discovered by a physician of this city in a patient who was consulting him for some signal trouble. The young woman is about twenty years old, of good form, handsome face and pleasing disposition. A careful study of the precise locality and form of the heart shows it to be transferred to the right side of the chest, and, instead of the apex resting just below the breast, it strikes upward against the right collar-bone, near its outer third. In this case there must be a double curve to the large vessels of the heart, and the base of the heart is downward. In other words, the heart is on the wrong side of the body, and its apex is off. This unusual condition of things does not give rise to any serious inconvenience, except when moving too quickly or going up stairs the organ beats with painful violence against the collar-bone, where its motion is plainly visible.—Indianapolis Journal.

—"When I was once in danger from a tiger," said an old East Indian veteran, "I stood sitting cross-legged and quiet as I had no weapon." "How did it work?" asked a listener. "Perfectly; the tiger didn't offer to touch me." "Strange! very strange! How did you account for it?" "Well, sometimes I've thought that it was because I sat down on a small branch of a very small tree."

Doctors may Disagree

as to the best methods and remedies, for the cure of constipation and disordered liver and kidneys. But those that have used Kidney-Wort agree that it is by far the best medicine known. Its action is prompt, thorough and lasting. Don't take pills, and other nauseous stuff that poison the system, but by using Kidney-Wort restore the natural action of all the organs.

—The old Globe hotel at Hanover and Commercial streets, Boston, built nearly thirty years ago, of lumber cut within the town of Boston, is to be torn down to widen commercial street.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for all those painful complaints and weaknesses so common to our best female population. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—A citizen of New Hampshire undertook to introduce to his townsman Mr. Green, attorney-at-law. "Gentlemen," said he, "this is Mr. Turvey, green at law." Mr. Green was mad.

Use Kidney-Wort and rejoice in health. The package makes six quarts of medicine.

—When a man's wife comes in and sees him razor in hand and with his face all lather, and asks him: "Are you shaving?" it's a provoking thing in him to answer, "No, I'm blacking the stove," but it's human nature to so reply.

Dr. Fellows is daily in receipt of letters of enquiry, from various parts, respecting his Syrup of Hypophosphites. One recently received, tends to the belief that the public mistake his meaning to cross-refer to its effect in imparting superior energy to the mind. Where the intellect has been impaired by overwork or by kindred causes, the use of the Syrup, together with proper precautions in the use of food, clothing, exercise and rest, will restore full power to the brain and nerves. Superiority of genius consists in great capacity of brain for assimilating material from every quarter, and of developing in proportion, but as by far the greater number are not well endowed by nature, consequently lacking this capacity, it would be quite impossible to find cranium spare for material necessary to constitute the brilliant genius. Hence, although the Syrup will assist in restoring the mind which is lost, it cannot change a natural born idiot into an intelligent man.

—At an examination for admission to the bar the question was asked: "What is the rule in Shelley's case?" One of the class answered: "The rule in Shelley's case is the same as in any other man's case. The law is no respecter of persons."

Profit, $1,200.

To sum it up, six long years of bedridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know of it, for their benefit."—New England Farmer.

—The Russian government is considering the expediency of purchasing arms and ammunition in America and shipping them to Via Ivostock, to equip the army being raised in the Amoor province for the purpose of forestalling the anticipated Chinese attack.

Cleansing, purifying, strengthening and nourishing beyond all others are Malt Bitters.

—When the Russians catch a man peeping through the keyhole of the Czar's room they put out his eyes. They would kill him, only that by so doing they would be guilty of the same crime, and those who have been merely punished in the room would have been known to have forgiven and never repent the deed.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever this ferment lever and ague exists. A wineglass full three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, internally and CUTICURA SOAP, externally, have proved to be the only positive Skin-Cure Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pustules, Chin Welts, Pearly Leprosy, Lichen, Pityriasis, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough or Cracked Skin, and all Vesicular and Squamous Diseases of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and Pimple Eruptions, Redness, and Irritation of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Corns, Bunions, Chilblains, Scalds, Burns, Lasting Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affection of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors the CUTICURA REMEDIES should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WELLS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five year, and have tried almost everything that I could ear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often sent for the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.

CADIZ, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WELLS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For eleven years I suffered with this disease. I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came in sight. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off, and it grew well. I used the entire cuticle, and I can say, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter is fraud, let them write for some and see for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL McDONALD.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhaustive vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitiating habits of youth or premature decay, the effects of youthful indiscretions or excesses, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundred edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience. This work has received a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and expensive steel engravings. Three colored plates, more than 50 various prescriptions for all forms of prevailing illness, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to JOS. S. FISHER, President, Boston; CHAS. GAYLORD, President, W. PAINE, M. D., 17 S. GARDEN ST., M. D., 4 BOYLSTON PL., E. B. KEENE, M. D., 4 ADAMS SQUARE, R. S. Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items: carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the old home by the sea, it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities where is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effective treatment. AYER'S PILLS are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Numbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs; they operate to purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley Malt and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against beer, malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "sumulants."

MALT BITTERS build up new the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For feeble digestion, dyspepsia, headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the lungs and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restoratives in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Guaiac, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potass Ion made by the Society. It is as the direct solvent of the vital fluid and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its medicinal properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMORE, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood, of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys, and other organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary disease in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

Daily Chronicle.

Story of a Wrecked Life.

The most thrilling and sadly suggestive temperance lecture is the sight of a once noble, talented man, left in ruins by intoxicating drink. A Washington letter tells of a ragged beggar, well known in the streets of that city, who once held an important command in the army, having been promoted, for personal bravery, from a cavalry lieutenant to nearly the highest rank in military service. One night recently, when he had been too successful in begging liquor to sate his craving, and while lying helplessly drunk in the rear part of a saloon, some men thought to play a joke on him by stealing his shirt, and proceeded to strip him.

Underneath his shirt, and suspended by a string from his neck, was a small canvas bag, which the men opened and found it contained his commission as a brevet major-general, two congratulatory letters—one from General Grant and one from President Lincoln—a photograph of a little girl, and a curl of hair—a "chestnut shadow" that doubtless one day crept over the brow of some loved one.

When these things were discovered, even the half-drunken men who found them felt a respect for the man's former greatness, and pity for his fallen condition, and quietly returned the bag and its contents to where they found them, and replaced the sleeper's clothes upon him.

When a reporter tried to interview the man, and endeavored to learn something of his life for the past few years, he declined to communicate anything.

He cried like a child when told how his right name and position were ascertained, and with tears trickling down his cheeks, said:

"For God's sake, sir, don't publish my degradation, or my name at least, if you are determined to say something about it. It is enough that I know myself how low I have become. Will you promise that much? It will do no good, but will do my friends a great deal of harm, as fortunately they think I died in South America, where I went at the close of the war."

Intemperance and the gaming table, he said, had wrought his ruin.

An Open Letter. It Speaks for Itself.

WEST TOWNSHEND, VT.

Mr. Editor; Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cure of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling tube" makers (mere dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could exhibit a similar cure in the papers. For twenty-six years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "nasals," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for one hundred and sixty-eight hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common-sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly, S. D. Resick.

—Of a gentleman recently deceased a friend said to a news gatherer: "He was in the legislature one year, I believe; but I wouldn't say anything about that. Otherwise his life was free from blot."—Boston Transcript

From John F. Wyman, Postmaster, South China, Me.

Too much cannot be said of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam, as it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, etc., that I have ever seen, and its wonderful effects I owe my recovery. It is well worthy of praise, and I would advise all to use it who are afflicted.

Hundreds of Cases of Consumption.

We know of hundreds of cases where persons were supposed to be suffering from consumption, who have become perfectly well and robust from the use of Speer's Sambucus Wine. Many times people for years waste, and at last die from diseases of the kidneys or glands, when they were supposed to have, and were treated for, consumption. Speer's Sambuci Wine will cure kidney complaint—and when taken with a fresh raw egg, or new milk daily, has been found an excellent remedy and has the reputation of rendering a perfect cure for consumption. —Medical Times.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

Republican State Convention.

The Republican Convention for the choice of four delegates at large and two from each Congressional district, to attend the National Presidential Convention at Chicago, will be held at Phenix hall, Concord, on Thursday, May 6th, at eleven o'clock A. M.

Classed towns and those having pro rata representations are each entitled to send one delegate; all other towns are entitled to twice as many delegates as representatives.

By special arrangement railroads will furnish to delegates ticket for the round trip to and from Concord at reduced rates.

Delegates will be admitted to the hall by ticket. The committee on credentials will be in session at Phenix hotel, Wednesday evening, May 5th, to receive credentials and deliver tickets to delegates.

There will be a meeting of the Republican State Committee and of the delegates to this convention at Phenix hall on Wednesday evening, May 5th, which will be addressed by leading republicans, and will be of special interest to delegates.

Cause and Effect.

At New Brunswick, New Jersey, Saturday, the Taxpayer's Association (whatever that may be) cut off the appropriation of $10,000 for police, thus dismissing the force.

At New Brunswick, New Jersey, Sunday, there were two incendiary fires, the first one destroying the New Jersey Rubber Co.'s machine shop, the loss being $10,000, and the second destroying the house of Mr. M. H. Prevost, with a loss of $3500.

News and Notes.

During 1879 there were caught in Belfast (Me.) say by local fishermen, 1,000 barrels of mackerel, which sold for $4 per barrel, amounting to $4,000; 10,000 pounds of smelts, at five cents per pound, netted to the fishermen $500; 75,000 lobsters, four cents each, $3,000; 5,000 bushels of clams, thirty cents per bushel, $1,500; 8,000 dozen of flounders, eight cents per dozen, $640; making a sum total of $9,640 worth of fish. Between eighty and ninety men are wholly or in part dependent upon the fisheries for a livelihood. The Belfast Journal, from which these facts are taken, says that in addition enormous quantities of menhaden are taken by the Belfast bay fishermen.

At Nottawa, Mich., a station on the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad, last Friday night, Albert Cutler, of the firm of Cutler Brothers, was awakened in his room in the store by a burglar trying to force an entrance. Mr. Cutler, procuring his pistol, aimed across a piled cloth and shot the man through the heart, killing him instantly. The burglar proved to be an unknown man of the tramp order. This is the second man Mr. Cutler has shot and killed, having blown a burglar's head off with a shotgun about two years ago, while he was trying to force an entrance to a store in Colon, where Cutler was then a clerk.

A wooden tenement-house in Haverhill, Mass., was burned Sunday morning, and two men perished in the flames. A woman was badly hurt through jumping from a window.

At a public gathering at Opelousas, La., Saturday, Colin Fullider got drunk and flourished a pistol, which went off, and killed Louis Cortez. Fullider then attempted to run away, but was killed by a shower of pistol balls.

Jacob Whitney was found dead at Nahant, Mass., on the beach, Saturday morning. It is supposed he was murdered. On his person, when found, were $50 and a gold watch.

A verdict against the Maine Charitable Mechanics' Association was given at Portland, Me., Saturday, for $1,350 damages, in favor of a boy ten years old, whose thigh was broken by a gate blowing down upon him.

Maj. Dickey of Fort Kent, Me., has been in Boston examining the land records there, and finds that Massachusetts yet has the title of the settlers' lots in township No. 17, Range 7, now Wallagrass, and that the title will be transferred to Maine, and the settlers will at last get their titles.

A large gray wolf that killed $60 worth of sheep last fall, near Ellsworth, Me., recently broke through the ice on Union river, and was captured.

Rev. H. H. Hayden has settled in the house at New Haven built by Benedict Arnold 110 years ago.

George Marks, in 1855, was the proprietor of a small tavern at Lancaster, Pa., at the time the body of a man was found in the creek. It was that of a traveling salesman who had stopped at the tavern a short time before. On the 5th inst. Marks died, and when lying on his death bed confessed that he and a man named Weidler murdered the salesman. Weidler cannot be found.

The family of Cornelius Palmer, living near Tweed, Ont., were on Saturday poisoned by eating wild parsnips. One child is dead, and the mother and four children are in a dangerous condition.

Mrs. Templeton of Marlboro, Ont., was safely delivered of triplets last week, all boys. They weighed five pounds each, and are doing well. They are so much alike that their mother cannot tell them apart.

Of the political outlook in Indiana the Indianapolis Journal says: "The republicans have a fighting chance to win; but it is as well to realize the fact that it will not be an easy victory."

Fashionable Fancies.

Tailor made suits are still popular.

The new parasols are of all colors and very gorgeous.

White, always handsome and comfortable, will be worn more than ever this year.

For summer wear, kid gloves will be discarded for those in silk and fish net patterns.

Seersucker ginghams are trimmed with open patterns of white Hamburg embroidery.

The new shoes have broad, comfortable toes, and low, square heels, in English walking style.

The basque most liked for walking dresses is the skirted basque with wide pieces added below the belt.

Embroidered Canton crape, done like shawls, so as to be alike on both sides, take high rank among costly goods.

The newest stockings are of sewing silk knit in the various fashionable colors, in lace patterns and odd designs.

The Cretan crapes so dear to our grandmothers are on the high tide of public favor. They drape beautifully.

Colored silks and satin de Lyons are trimmed with cashmere beads, which sparkle like gems and are almost as costly.

Mottoes of Swiss carving in ivory, presented by bazaars are frames, are among the latest novelties for household decorations, shown by dealers.

The new brocaded grenadines have the ground of a fine and lace design in grenadine, the effect being that of rich lace woven into heavy satin.

Handsome black satin parasols are lined with colored silk, cardinal, pale blue, heliotrope or old gold and is tipped with fancy fringes which combine the colors of the lining with black.

Cambric dresses for gay young girls have dogs' or horses' heads in blue or brown, over white grounds, and are trimmed with cambric Hamburg work, in which the prevailing color is used in the scallops.

New wrappers of percale or calico are made with a yoke in the back, from which the fulness hangs in a Watteau pleat; a deep collar, square cuffs and square pockets with a Spanish flounce at the foot, complete these neat morning dresses.

Handsome travelling dresses for brides are made of cheviot cloth in small pin head checks, or dashes or in stripes. The style is the plain sortout with stitched edge, and a full round skirt, also stitched for a border but without a flounce.

New skirted polonaises have the skirt sewed on at the waist line (as in skirted coats) in all the parts except the two middle back breadths; these remain in back their full length, are very slightly draped and are trimmed up their side seams by a border. Two large buttons define the waist in the back, and the fronts are buttoned their entire length, or else are drawn back somewhat in panier fashion.

An Enterprising Mamma.

Some people imagine that American mammas are particularly gifted in working off marriageable daughters. Now, I hold that American mammas, like as the American girls, are just the best, the sweetest and the dearest on the face of this "terrestrial ball." But we must allow that they possess strategic ability and understand good generalship—always in "a good cause" be it understood. An American mamma recently gave evidence of her ability in "management" in a forcible and brilliant piece of generalship, of "change of base" in an emergency—so to speak, which revealed such qualities and abilities as would, were she a man, place her at the head of our immense army. Her eldest daughter had come with some friends to Europe. While here the hand and (let us hope) the heart of the American beauty were sought by numerous rivals. By judicious winnowing their number was at last reduced to two. Then the young lady sat down and wrote to New York, or Placidville, or Hardcrabble—whichever the maternal domicile may be located—telling mamma: "I've two suitors—awfully handsome—both dreadfully nice—fearfully aristocratic in family, and such nice manners! Cannot decide between them. What shall I do?" Ten days after Artemesia received a cablegram from her mother, "Hold both till I come!" The next steamer from New York bore among its precious living freight, the mamma of Artemesia, accompanied by her younger daughter. On their arrival in this city the mamma so skillfully conducted "negotiations" that within a month both of the sisters were happily united in the bonds, etc., to the two suitors of Artemesia! Three cheers for the enterprising mother!—Paris American Register.

—In Boston it is fashionable for young ladies to have the mumps, which, the Courier thinks, are very swell.

—The St. Gothard tunnel, in the construction of which more lives were lost than in any other similar undertaking—although no large tunnel was ever built without great sacrifices of human life—has now acquired the unique distinction of being the scene of a birth. A woman went into the tunnel the other day to see her husband, and there was prematurely taken in labor and safely delivered of a fine boy.

—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage has been lecturing at Augusta, Ga., and is described by the Chronicle of that city as saying: "I never attempt a profound lecture now. I once affected such depth in discourse, but I found out that I made two mistakes—the first was that the audience didn't know what I was talking about, and the second was that I did not myself know."

—The Express declares that so far as the young men of Rochester are concerned, the game of sweet sixteen is rather more popular than that of fifteen.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

For week ending Wednesday, April 7.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

Amount of stock at market—Cattle 4103; sheep and lambs 5717; swine 12,350; number western cattle 3363; eastern cattle 258; milch cows and northern cattle 125.

Prices of beef cattle per 100 lbs live weight—Extra quality $5.50 and $5.75; first quality $4.87 and $5.25; second quality $4.50 and $4.75; third quality $4 and $4.37½; poorest grades of coarse oxen, bulls, &c. $3.50 and $4.37½.

Brighton Hides, 7 and 8½c; Brighton Tallow, 3c; country hides, 7 and 7½c; country tallow 4 and 4½c; calf skins, 21 and 23c per lb; sheep and lamb skins, $2 and $2 each.

The supply of cattle from the west has been larger during the past week than for several weeks prior. The quality of the western cattle was of a better grade than the weeks one week ago. A large number of extra oxen having been brought in for shipment to Kansas, ship-ing cattle have been sold at 5½ to 6c per lb live weight. The trade for cattle suitable for the butcher's trade has fallen off fully ½ of a cent per lb from prices paid for the same grades of beeves one week ago. There have been but a few lots of rest. Decided out at our highest quotations this week, except for the export trade, is less to butchers range in most instances 25 to 50 cents per lb lower. From Maine the supply consisted of working oxen and milch cows.

Working Oxen—The supply in market was larger than that of last week, and the trade for them has been dull. We note sales of 1 pr. girth 7 ft, live weight, 2,400 lbs, $127.50; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 9 in, live wt 2700 lbs $144; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 4 in, live weight, 2200 lbs, $85; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 6 in, live weight, 2700 lbs, $125; 1 pr, girth 7 ft 6 in, live weight 3600 lbs $165; 1 pr, girth 7 ft 5 in, live weight 3600 lbs, $1.5; 1 pr, girth 7 ft, live wt 1,000 lbs, $55; 1 yr, girth 5 ft 8 in, live wt 1,000 lbs, $35; 1 yr, girth 5 ft 6 in, live wt 1,000 lbs, $40; 3 prs, girth 6 ft 8 in, live weight, 2900 lbs $140; 3 prs, girth 6 ft 8 in, live weight, 2900 lbs $135.

Milch Cows—There were but a few extra cows in market, most of them being of a common grade. We quote extra cows $50 and $60; ordinary $25 and $45; spring cows, $45 and $60; farrow cows, $45 and $57 per head. We quote sales of one very extra cow at $85, 1 at $80, 2 cows and calves at $45 each, 7 cows and calves at $35 to $5 each, 2 milch cows at $40.50 per head, 2 milch cows and calves at $45 each, 2 good cows at $35 each, 1 maringe, $21.

Store Cattle—None in market, except working oxen and milch cows. Most of the small cattle that are in a fair condition are sold for beef.

Sheep and Lambs—We term sheep and lambs cost about the same as the old one week ago, and 8c per lb landed at the Abattoir. Several hundred sheep were sent per steamers to Europe during the past week.

Swine—Store pigs are few in market, for which holders were asking 6½ to 6¾c per lb, live weight; fat hogs 5½c per lb, live weight.

Before Breakfast

always use SOZODONT and rub it in well. It gives such pleasant relief from parched tongue resulting from deep, prone sea the healthful secret one of the mouth, it will cost more for meat and such things, but don't begrudge it.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in expelling all worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, April 13, 1:30 A. M.

Warmer clear or partly cloudy weather, with westerly winds falling preceded by rising barometer

AROUND HOME.

Thirteen minute guns were fired at the navy yard, Monday noon, as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Rear Admiral H. K. Thatcher.

Mr. H. E. Chamberlin, superintendent of the Concord railroad, was married recently at Lucania to Miss Nellie F. Putnam, daughter of Mr. Perley Putnam, postmaster at that place.

At the meeting of the governor and council, last week, the heard g on the petition for the pardon from state prison of the liquor spotter, Thomas E. Drake, sent there from this city for perjury, was postponed until June.

At the navy yard, at 7:30 o'clock A. M., Monday, the thermometer indicated a temperature of twenty-seven degrees above zero, the barometer showed a pressure of 29.90 inches, and the the velocity of the wind was twenty-two miles an hour.

The paper festival at the North Parish chapel next Wednesday evening will be out of the regular line of such entertainments, and is creating considerable comment about town. The way for people to satisfy their minds as to what it will be is to go Wednesday evening and see for themselves. See adv't.

While Mr. Charles H. Foote was engaged in coupling freight cars at the Eastern railroad station, Saturday evening, his right hand was caught between the deadwood of two cars, the ends of the two middle fingers and thumb being so badly crushed that he will probably lose them down to the first joint of each.

On Thursday evening next, at Music hall, Josh Hart's Combination, from the Howard Athenæum, Boston, will present the laughable absurdity, "Malonie's visit to Portsmouth." The general manager, Mr. Whitenect, has always brought good shows along, and asserts this to be one of the best; and its great popularity and extended run at the Howard seem to prove it to be so. See adv't.

FIRE AT NOBLE'S ISLAND.

Shortly after six o'clock, Monday evening, an alarm of fire was given, the alarm coming from the creosoting works of the Eastern railroad at Noble's island. The building over the tanks and engine was totally destroyed in a remarkably short time, and the fire spread to the piles of sleepers stored on the island, without however doing any great damage to the latter. The loss is large, the old locomotive and the immense tanks being badly injured. The works were completed on Monday, and the creosoting of timber was to have been commenced to-day. The fire caught inside the building.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

The gospel temperance meeting, Saturday evening, was very interesting; Mrs. James Sanborn in the chair; several friends took part in the exercises.

At the bethel service Mrs. Richard Harvey presided, and there was a good meeting, as usual; Miss Nellie Locke sang several pieces.

The reform club held a rousing meeting Sunday evening. The new officers were in their places, and took part in the proceedings. Miss Hodgdon, a little girl from Great Falls, gave a recitation entitled "The drunkard's lone child," in excellent style. Mr. Charles Stuart made a speech which was full of good things, and right to the point. Several others took part, including Mr. S. W. Clarke, whom the club is always delighted to hear; also Mr. W. G. Newton, who made very interesting remarks. It was voted to read the minutes of the previous meeting at each public service, so that all may know something of the work that is being done. Rev. Mr. Leavitt, from Ashland, will speak next Sunday evening. The club starts out on the new quarter with renewed interest, and a little money in the treasury, and we have no doubt with a "God speed" from every lover of humanity. L.

THE ELIOT FIRE.

There was no insurance on the Congregational church at Eliot, burned Sunday afternoon; and all that was saved from the building was the organ and pulpit furniture. The church was erected about 1833, and the roof had never been reshingled. When the fire was first discovered there was no ladder at hand by which the roof could be reached, and valuable time was lost on this account; but even then the church would probably have been saved in a damaged condition had not Mr. George E. Ireland's house taken fire, so many persons turning their attention to the attempt to save the house that the fire again gained headway on the church, and both structures were consumed.

The dwelling was owned by the widow of Nathan Paul, and was insured to the amount of $800 in the Kittery & Eliot Mutual Fire Insurance Co. Mr. Ireland's furniture was insured, and most of it was gotten out of the building. The town records in Mr. Ireland's care (he being the town clerk) were saved.

Rev. James DeNormandie was to have preached in the church, Sunday afternoon, and started from this city on that errand, accompanied by the South Parish choir; but when they arrived in sight of the building it was on fire from top to bottom, so the contemplated service was given up.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

In York county, at the state election last fall, Hon. Bion Bradbury received twenty-nine votes for governor. The total republican vote in the town elections in York county this spring was 5924, against 6955 at the state election in 1879, a falling off of 1032; but the fusion vote fell off from 6851 in 1879 to 4302 this spring, a loss of 2549; the net result being that the republican majority of 241 last fall was increased to 1622 this spring.

New Hampshire Items.

The town of Bow on March 1st had in the treasury a surplus of over $2,000, and has voted to raise but $50 by taxation, the least amount allowed by law.

A fire on Saturday burned over a large tract of land west of Keene, burning up fences and some timber land, but was subdued before serious damage was done. Several houses narrowly escaped.

M. J. Sherman of Keene has sold the Cheshire house in that city, with other property, to Peter B. Hayward, for $80,000.

Lucy M. Green, the young girl found dead in her room at Grantham last Friday morning, was killed by a dose of oil of cedar which she took to produce abortion. This oil was furnished her by her affianced lover, George O. Hill, who is nineteen years old; the girl was eighteen years old.

Naval Gazette.

The Saratoga and Constitution sailed from Fortress Monroe, Saturday, the former for New York and the latter for Norfolk.

Lieut.-Comdr. Benj. P. Lamberton reported for duty at Washington on Monday, as assistant to Commodore Earl English, succeeding Lieut. E. H. Taunt, who reported for duty on board the Portsmouth the same day.

Capt. Henry Wilson and Lieut. H. G. O. Colby were detached from the Trenton, on the European station, on the 23d of March, and ordered home.

Ensign J. F. Parker was transferred to the Wyoming on the 14th of February. Ensign David Peacock to the Quinnebaug on the 6th of March, and Ensign S. T. Emmons on the 15th of March, all from the Enterprise.

—Salmon fishing is remarkably good in England this season, and some very large fish have been caught. Specimens weighing thirty, forty and fifty pounds are quite common.

—"Sir," roared a man out in Nebraska, striding up to a neighbor, "Sir, you are a liar." "I am?" exclaimed the astonished neighbor; "how do you know that I am?" "Because I know it; because I have found it out." "How long have you been living here?" "Six weeks." Neighbor, tranquilly nodding his head: "Oh, well, probably you do know it, then. I didn't think you had been in town so long." There was no fight.

—A young man in Crete, Neb., was arrested on an overdue claim for groceries and provisions, while he was courting a young lady in her father's parlor. He has now brought suit against his creditors, alleging in his petition that he was a young man of good financial reputation; that he was humiliated and disgraced by being arrested in the parlor of his sweetheart, and that he was damaged socially and financially; that he was held to bail, and when he appeared to defend the suit the court discharged him at once, holding that no cause existed for the arrest. He also avers that this awkward interruption of his whisperings of love so shamed him that he never afterward called to see the young lady, and thus his prospects in that direction were blighted. Wherefore he asks for heavy damages.

—A vessel is loading at San Francisco with 100,000 gallons of wine for the German market. It is the first large shipment of the kind ever made thither.

—We frequently hear a lady exclaim, "Oh, dear! I wish I were a man!" but we do not remember ever hearing a man wish himself a woman. No; man never dared allow his wishes to soar so high. He is content to admire rather than be the thing admired. N. B.—This is not taffy. —Boston Transcript.

—Inventors will be interested in knowing that by a recent decision of the patent office, persons applying for patents for new inventions are not required to furnish models, except that, in cases where the drawings and specifications fail to give all the information it desires, models may be called for.

—"My friends," said the political speaker, with a burst of ingenuous eloquence, "I will be honest—" There was a large number of his neighbors present, and the terrific outburst of applause which followed this remark entirely upset the point which the orator was about to introduce.—Rockland Gleaner.

—A worthy couple in a Massachusetts town had lost their only daughter, and were deeply depressed. As they sat one evening in the drawing-room having sighs at intervals, the wife remarked: "Well, George, there is one consolation. Situated as we are, we could never have gotten Jane into Boston society."

—A farmer who has tried the experiment of planting small and large potatoes in the same field, and weighing the product of each, gives these figures, which need no comment. Yield per acre planted with large seed, 280 bushels; small seed, 240 bushel—balance of forty bushels in favor of large seed. Those from the large seed were larger, with fewer small ones.

—A curious and unprecedented fact in connection with gambling is reported to have just taken a place at Monte Carlo. At one of the trente et quarante tables the red came out nineteen times in succession. The bank was broken twice, and recourse had to the hand to the funds of the administration. Prince Amadeo, brother of the king of Italy, was present, but took no part in the game.

—Great scandal was caused in aristocratic circles in the faubourg St. Germaine, Paris, a few months back, by the elopement of a rich heiress to London, and her clandestine marriage with a gentleman bearing a name well known in the diplomatic world at the court of St. James. As this adventure has now given rise to a suit, brought by the young lady's mother, to have the marriage declared void on the ground that it was contracted in a foreign country without the publishing of banns and without her consent, there are no reasons for withholding the names. They are those of Mlle. d'Imecourt and Musurus Bey, son of the Turkish ambassador in London. The parties were married in the county of Middlesex, but after they had cohabited for a first night, friends of the two families intervened to put an end to the scandal. A separation was brought about, and the young lady is now reflecting on her folly in the calm retirement of a convent.

Grateful Women.

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills, fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency and all debility removed by these Bitters.—Courant.

—It is only a matter of fashion! In China the women comb their hair straight back from the forehead, in America they "bang" it down over the forehead. If it were a matter of good taste and good sense, the Chinese women would appear to have the advantage.—Chicago Journal.

The friends of temperance will find Malt Bitters invigorating and strengthening.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle, and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

A Home-Made Telephone.

To make a cheap and serviceable telephone, good for three blocks or so, only requires enough wire and two cigar boxes. First select your boxes and make a hole about half an inch in diameter in the centre of the bottom of each, and then place one in each of the houses you wish to connect; then get five pounds of common iron stove-pipe wire, make a loop in one end, put it through the hole in your cigar box and fasten with a nail; then draw it tight to the other box, supporting it where necessary with stout cord. Support your boxes at their ends with slats nailed across the window, and your telephone is complete. One that is two blocks long will cost forty-five cents, and will carry music, when the organ is played thirty feet away in another room.

A Horse Story.

A farmer wanted a team horse, and procured one on trial, the animal being represented as all right. He drove to the village, when a gentleman whom he knew by sight, but to whom he had never spoken, said, "If you want a horse I advise you to get rid of [illegible] as possible, or he will do [illegible]." The farmer loaded up his [illegible] for home, the horse showing [illegible] temper as he crossed the railroad track; but he got on fairly with him, stopped and tied him up for a time when not far from home; upon restarting the horse did his best to run, but was controlled. Upon nearing a brook he at once stopped, looked all round, and then started again; just as he had fairly got upon the bridge like a flash he swung to the left, backed ridiculously and dumped wagon, load and farmer into the stream, the horse's hind-quarters and his back also being covered with water. Our informant says that if an animal ever measured with his eye where to put a load "to do himself the most good," that horse did. Suffice it to say he played no further tricks upon our friend.—Maine paper.

Profit, $1,200.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."—New England Farmer.

—"Be sure you are right, and then sit down and enjoy the prospect."—Ben Franklin.

Cleansing, purifying, strengthening and nourishing beyond all others are Malt Bitters.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my face, neck, arms and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to lift myself for eight years. I tried all the best remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. Six my parents tried everything that could all the time I was your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most efficient remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and thorough treatment. AYER'S PILLS are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Nunbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never gripe unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs; they operate to purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley MALT and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of the delicate bases in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up anew the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, nervous dyspepsia, stomach troubles, deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, scrofula and impaired blood, depletive weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, dyspeptics, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irritable in mind and body, subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and which, united with Iodide of Potass has made by the Society

It is the best and cheapest alterative and purifier of the blood, and is unlike all other preparations of Sarsaparilla which are sold in bottles, and quantities of precious proper ies. It has been proscribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the worst forms of disease. I can say with truth, more than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my patients and friends as the most valuable of all alteratives. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMORE, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and irregularities, eradicates the first symptoms of herpes, and gives to old age and youth, health, is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

The recent vote of the St. Johnsbury, Vt., town meeting to publish every week the names of all persons who should buy liquors, is said to have decreased the sales seventy-five per cent, the authorities claiming that there is now not a single place in town where liquor can be bought. The names of forty-two persons who had bought $17 worth of liquor were published last week.

J. Tucker, colored, charged with the murder of Abe Frazer in 1876, was taken from jail at Greensburg, St Helena parish, La., on Sunday morning, by fifteen men, and shot to death.

Lewis, son of Charles Hatch of Hartford, Vt., eighteen years of age, was found dead in Deacon John Dutton's sugar house at Norwich, Vt., Monday, with a bullet hole in his right temple. Although the cause is unknown, it is undoubtedly a case of suicide.

Medicinal Wine.

Physicians from the New York Board of Health have visited the Vineyards and Wine Cellars of Alfred Speer of New Jersey, but twelve miles from New York city; he is known to be one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Medicinal Wines and Brandies in the United States. He makes a Superior Port, known as Speer's Port Grape Wine, which took the highest premium at the Centennial. It is extensively prescribed by physicians as the most reliable Port for medical purposes.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

The only combination of the true Jamaica Ginger with choice aromatics and French brandy, for making ginger tea and warming drinks in colds, chills, and fevers, is Sanford's Jamaica Ginger. —A Michigan man named Maginley has lost his parrot, and is almost crazy about it. Not that he cared so much about the bird, but it had got a habit of saying "Old Maginley's drunk again," from hearing his mistress say it, and he's afraid somebody'll find the bird.

Science has accomplished no more wonderful or gratifying result than the perfection of an antidote to the chilling signs of approaching age, something to obliterate the tell-tale tracks of time, and preserve the natural adornments of youth to ripe old age. Hall's Hair Renewer does all this, and its praise resounds in cottage and palace. The dwellers among the snows of Norway and the peasants of sunny France and Spain, find use for it, and find means to get it, and it does not disappoint them. The whitening locks again resume their youthful color; the thin, dry, and faded hair becomes bright and glossy. The whole appearance is changed as if by magic, and the man or woman, who before was called aged, now appears as one in the prime of life. Such wondrous changes cannot pass unnoticed, and they have produced the unprecedented demand that now exists for the first and only article ever compounded that can produce them in a pleasing and satisfactory manner.—New Era, Woodstock, Ill.

News and Notes.

At Neenah, Wis., on Sunday morning, three masked burglars entered the residence of Mrs. J. L. Coates, and with pistols at her head demanded her money. She refusing, they beat her into insensibility, ransacked the house and made off with $4,000 worth of diamonds, watches, jewelry, etc. Mrs. Coates is in a critical condition.

At the town election in Edgefield, S. C., Monday, an altercation occurred in which Dr. W. E. Bland and A. A. Glover were shot in the bowels and are probably mortally wounded, and A. A. Cliney was shot in the thigh in two places. The quarrel grew out of the proposed reduction of the whiskey tax, and occasioned a general row at the polls. All the wounded persons were whites.

Samuel P. Kingsbury of Centreville, R. I., a hardware merchant over fifty years of age, visited Providence on the 6th inst. to deposit $9,000 in one of the banks, but instead went on a spree, and falling into the hands of gamblers was fleeced out of $6000 before he was rescued from their hands by the police. The rogues made their escape and have not been traced. While Kingsbury was visiting the saloons a policeman who knew him endeavored to induce him to give his money to some of his friends, but without effect.

Thomas Byrd, in the presence of about 3,000 people at Munfordsville, Ky., Sunday, jumped from the railroad bridge over Green river, a distance of 120 feet, to the water below. He sprang off the bridge headforemost, and sat back the water in that position. In a moment afterward he appeared swimming. He was picked up by a boat's crew, and when brought ashore passed through the crowd receiving what money was offered. He was not injured in the least.

Stamford, Conn., foiled the street sale of papers on Sunday, under penalty of arrest.

William West, employed by George Morrison, was arrested at Lowell, Mass., Monday, for stealing from his employer, and his trunk was found filled with goods thus taken. Morrison was greatly surprised and shocked, as he had trusted West implicitly.

The Delaware peach crop was again utterly ruined, Thursday and Friday nights, by frost. This assures a plenty of the fruit when the proper season arrives.

Enoch Moslander, an old man living alone on a farm in West Virginia, three miles from Bellaire, Ohio, was found on Wednesday of last week burned to death in his house. A large hole was burned in the floor, but by some means the fire had been extinguished. The theory of the neighbors is that robbers tortured him to death trying to get him to confess where his money was. Three years ago three masked men almost burned him to death for the same purpose. It was generally believed that he had a large sum of money hidden away in the house.

Cleophas Lachance has confessed the murder of Adele Deslet at Bullstrode, province of Quebec. He met the girl in the road and made improper overtures, which she indignantly spurned, when he killed her and threw her into a well.

Saturday night the body of an old man named Haskins, who for some time past has lived alone near the village of Woolcr, Ont., was found amidst the ruins of his dwelling with his legs and lower part of the trunk burned to a crisp. It is supposed he was murdered for his money, and incendiarism resorted to to hide the traces.

The city of Toledo, Ohio, seeks to reduce the interest upon a portion of its debt, by setting forth that there is some informality in the issue of some of its bonds upon which the interest is seven and three-tenths per cent per annum. It offers to replace these bonds by others bearing interest at six per cent, but the holders cannot see, if the first debt was illegal, how a new bond can be better than the old. The legal rate of interest in Ohio is six per cent. Special contracts may be entered into stipulating for the payment of interest at any rate not above eight per cent. The holders of bonds are not inclined to make the exchange without a legal decision as to the validity of their securities.

New Hampshire Items.

Eighteen or twenty years ago, Mrs. John W. Hill, then living in England, now of Manchester, broke a piece of darning needle off in her hand. During the past six months the lady has had severe pains in the lower part of her leg, and the other day Dr. Gage was called and took the piece of needle from near the ankle; the piece was about an inch in length and was discolored by its long journey through the body.

The fire in the woods at Plymouth was extinguished Saturday night. The wind going down and a heavy dew falling enabled gangs of men to subdue it. It burned over an area of about five or six miles long by about two deep. About 400 or 500 cords of cut wood, and a large quantity of valuable standing wood, were burned. No buildings were injured.

Sidney Drane, an employe of the Nashua & Worcester railroad, was held at Nashua on Monday in $500 to appear before the supreme court at the May term. He appropriated miscellaneous goods belong to the corporation. His home was searched and the goods found there. Asa Abbott, another employe of the road, was sent with his pal for four months to jail on a suspended sentence for a similar offense. Both were sent to jail at Manchester.

Naval Gazette.

Commodore Melancton is detached from the New York navy yard, and Commodore George H. Cooper is ordered to the command of that navy yard on the 1st of May.

The training ship Constitution, Comdr. Oscar F. Stanton commanding, commenced repairs at Norfolk navy yard, on Monday.

The Army and Navy Register of the 10th inst. says: "It is not probable that the project of obtaining a large appropriation for the League island navy yard was much helped by the visit of the secretary of the navy and the members of congress who accompanied him to Philadelphia on Saturday last. A prominent naval officer said to-day that he did not believe another dollar would be appropriated for the continuance of the work of improving League island, and that the best thing for the city of Philadelphia, as well as for the general government, would be to establish a new yard at Cavite." It has always been understood that there was a huge "job" in the sale of the Philadelphia navy yard and the establishment of one at League island; and it has been asserted that the board appointed to examine League island and report as to the propriety of establishing a navy yard there, were unanimous in the belief that it was totally unfit for the purpose, but they were appointed to make a favorable report, and did not dare make any other.

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery.

The following is an extract from a letter written by the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn:—

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will touch our "pens" to say, "Able singer Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the croup, cold taking, and teething sleep. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

See a Woman!

In another column, picking grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first-class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

FRESH ARRIVAL OF OYSTERS!

Has just received per schooner R. BERT PETTIS, a cargo of

FRESH OYSTERS,

Which he will sell at Wholesale and Retail at his

OYSTER HOUSE,

Nos. 18 and 20 Congress Street.

Valuable Real Estate at Auction IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps, will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equidistant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains between twenty-rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnaces, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in the part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views on the river to be had from either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or hereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Simpson drive consisting 35,640 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, hay stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harnesses, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERG. ANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house is one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of S. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEW S of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

AROUND HOME.

Mr. John C. Lewis had two fingers of his right hand broken while working at the fire on Noble's island, Monday night.

The Portsmouth Musical Association's regular monthly meeting will be held this evening in the vestry of the Middle street church, at eight o'clock.

The schooner Una is reported as arriving on Tuesday with 2500 lbs. of fish, and the Nettie Adams with 2000 lbs., both fares bringing good prices.

Dr. William Goddard, for many years a practicing physician in this city, is paying a visit to his friends in Greenland. The doctor now resides in Medford, Mass.

The Mizpah circle of the North church give their "paper festival" at the chapel on Middle street this evening. Just what a paper festival is we cannot tell, so those who are curious to find out must attend this one.

Schooner Velocipede, Chase master, one of Mr. Valentine Doane's fishing vessels was at Tarpaulin cove, Martha's Vineyard, on the 10th inst., in company with several other fishermen, bound south after mackerel.

Lewis Jennens, a teamster, of Epping, in the employ of B. W. Hoyt, fell from his team Monday, two wheels going over his body, causing injuries from which he died in three hours. He was about twenty-six years old and unmarried.

On Saturday night last the gun store of Eugene Smart, in Dover, was broken into, and two rifles, twenty revolvers, and 20,000 rounds of ammunition stolen. The thieves got into the store by forcing up a window with a lever, smashing the window-fastener.

At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Honor, of this state, held in Manchester on Wednesday of last week, Stephen W. Clarke of this city was installed as grand chaplain, Joseph H. Gardiner as grand reporter, and Clarence B. Mason as one of the three grand trustees.

The fishing schooner Flying Cloud, of this port, is undergoing repairs at Newcastle under the superintendence of Mr. Warren Keen, receiving new mast beds and fashion pieces, having windlass overhauled and fixed, etc. Mr. James W. Raitt of this city is doing the blacksmith work required.

Memorial day, May 30th, coming this year on Sunday, the memorial observances will take place on Saturday, the 29th, in accordance with a vote of the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, and of a clause of the revised statutes of New Hampshire which provides that when any legal holiday occurs on Sunday the previous day shall be observed.

The United States steamer Tallapoosa, Lieut. McClinchie commanding, which sailed from this naval station on Friday last for Washington via intermediate stations, while on the passage from Boston to New London, Monday night, was in collision off Tarpaulin Cove with schooner Dreadnaught, Griffin master, bound from Philadelphia for this port with coal; the schooner was cut down to the water's edge on the port quarter, and the steamer's stem was badly damaged; both vessels put into Vineyard Haven.

Thursday evening Josh Hart is to come to this city, and his coming will be the signal for a good turnout. The Chicago Journal, of a recent issue, says of the company: "Josh Hart's specialty combination from the Howard Athenæum, Boston, appeared here last evening in a variety bill of more than ordinary excellence. The combination is composed of people who hold high positions in this branch of the profession, who have brains and talent, and who do not have to do flip-flop song and dances or say suggestive things to gain applause or make people laugh."

Dover is threatened with the infliction of a seventy-five-hours' race, twelve and one-half hours each day for six days.

The house committee on commerce on Monday agreed to report in favor of an appropriation of $20,000 for the improvement of Portsmouth harbor, and of $2000 to be expended at Kennebunk, Me.

Major George L. Wentworth, of Salmon Falls, is reported as having received a terrible beating one evening last week, from two men, father and son, who have charge of the depot there; it was at one time thought he would not recover. The particulars of the affair have not been made public; but Wentworth has the reputation of being a very quarrel-some and offensive person when under the influence of liquor, and his name has more than once appeared in newspaper reports.

FIRES.

The four-tenement house of John Grimes, on Angle street, Dover, was burned early Tuesday morning. Loss $2500; insured $1200. The barn of Mrs. Estes was damaged $200 worth; insured. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary, as the Grimes building had been fired four times previously within ten days.

The buildings owned and occupied by Mr. C. R. Edmunds of Greenland were totally destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. The fire caught on the roof of the ell, and the high wind caused the flames to quickly communicate with the house, barn and outbuildings. Only a small portion of the furniture was saved. Loss about $3000; insurance $1000.

METHODIST ASSIGNMENTS.

R. Lunt.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

TUESDAY, April 13th.

The court came in at Exeter on Tuesday, Hon. L. W. Clark presiding. Prayer was offered by Rev. B. F. McDaniel. Jesse Marshall of Kingston was appointed foreman of the grand jury. Judge Clark briefly intimated to the jury the difference between the process of finding bills of indictment in olden times and today, and gave a brief suggestion as to the amount of evidence sufficient to warrant the jury in finding a bill, or otherwise. Deputy Sheriff J. W. Smart, of Newmarket, is in charge of the jury. The petit jurors report on Wednesday.

Cases marked for the jury are Nos. 49, 62, 69, 76, 79, 89, 92, 107, 114, 115, 119, 121, 135, 145, 161, 162, 174, 175, 182, 183, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 200, 213, 216, 237, 253 and 255,—in all, a number than at any previous term of the court.

In the case of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad vs. the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire, the plaintiffs moved for judgment on report. The defendants had no counsel present.

In Ruland vs. town of South Newmarket, there was an entry of judgment upon the verdict, and judgment satisfied.

The equity docket show less business than usual to occupy the court. In case on equity docket, Frank Walch vs. Jennie Walch, divorce was decreed.

The petit jurors for the first and second weeks are as follows: Edw. G. Shute, Hiram C. Matthews, Derry; Charles Burley, Joseph T. Porter, Exeter; Woodbridge T. Durrell, Chesley D. Hazelton, Newmarket; Charles H. Garrett, (excused,) Mark N. Plaisted, Augustus Ham, ward one, John E. Ham, ward two, Portsmouth; Joseph H. Roderick, Northwood; Alexander E. Hatch, Nottingham; Leonard Johnson, Plaistow; Rufus R. Rundlett, Raymond; Rufus I. Garland, Rye; Eliphalet Coburn, Salem; Wm. J. Moore, Sandown; Rufus Mahar, Seabrook; Samuel I. Woodman, Charles D. Durrell, South Newmarket; Charles N. Healey, (excused,) Stratham; Pierce S. Call, Windham; Wm. R. Little, Alfred B. Little, Atkinson; Eugene A. Savage, Aretas R. Glidden, Auburn; John H. Taylor, Ira Thyng, Brentwood; John P. Cate, James R. Batchelder, Derry.

The first case in order for trial by the jury, is Lulu E. Berry vs. town of Madbury; the next is No. 76, Charles W. Perkins vs. town of South Newmarket,—both being actions to recover damages by reason of defective highways.

In Berry vs. Madbury a view of the locality will be had on Wednesday, the trial to proceed on Thursday.

RYE LETTER.

RYE April 12th.

Fast day was observed by a union service at the Christian church, in which Rev. I. S. Jones and Rev. J. W. Kingsbury took part, the latter speaking for half an hour, on the "attitude of the Roman Catholic church to our common schools." There was an unusually large audience present, for a Fast day service. In the afternoon, the boys attempted a little bat and ball, and the band came out and played a little, but the weather was too boisterous for out-of-doors recreation.

A union praise meeting is to be held in the Congregational church next Sunday evening; and during the week following, Rev Mr. Folger of the Young Men's Christian association is to conduct a series of gospel meetings.

As the days are growing in length and the evening proportionally shorter, the "Martha Washingtons" of the Congregational society, and the "sociables" of the Christian society, will soon cease for the season. Both have been very successful, and have been the means of affording much real enjoyment to those who attended them. In this connection, it may be mentioned that among the many who have been constantly in demand at the "Martha Washingtons," Gertrude Garland, a little miss of ten years, deserves special notice; she was always ready to assist, and never failed in anything that was assigned her to do. She had a prominent part in the "Peak Family," "A Precious Pickle" and "Mother Goose," in all of which she did so well as to leave nothing to be desired.

Some seventy-five of our citizens went through the mud to Hampton one night recently, where about half of them, being members of the Martha Washington, society appeared at the town hall in "A Terrible Tinker," "A precious Pickle," the "Peak Family," etc., to quite a large audience. The entertainment was gratuitous on the part of the Rye people, and the proceeds went towards paying for the piano which is used in the Hampton town hall. Those who took part in the stage exercises were refreshed with cake, ice cream and coffee, at the close.

The selectmen—all three of them—went round this year to appraise the property, and as they have posted a notice that they will meet on Thursday next to "receive the blank inventories, and hear all parties in regard to their liability to taxation," it would seem that everybody would have an opportunity to make plain, if they choose, what they ought to be taxed for, and if they avail themselves of it there is no reason why the taxes of this year shouldn't be perfectly satisfactory to everybody.

Hon. E. B. Philbrick and Geo. G. Lougee are the delegates to the republican convention, to be held in Concord next month.

The voices of many frogs are heard in the land; wild geese are flying northward; martins have come; the dust is flying; the highway surveyor is at work, giving the tax-payers an opportunity of meeting together with their boys, oxen and horses "on the road," and getting their highway tax cancelled without any particular strain, either to boys, beasts or tax payers; farmers have commenced ploughing; and the hotels and boarding houses are being aired, and put in readiness for summer business. YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The recent town meeting at Kittery voted to build a road across Cutts' island to Sea point.

Medcalf's band, of Kittery, give a variety entertainment at Trefethen's hall in that town this (Wednesday) evening, and offer an attractive programme.

Charles H. Thompson launched from his yard at Kennebunkport, on Friday last, the fourth pogie steamer built by him this season for Portland owners. She was at once taken in tow by a tug-boat, and taken to Portland.

Recently a western city had quite a glorification over the arrival of triplets at the age of twenty-one years, it being heralded in the papers as the only instance of the kind on record. This circumstance brought out brief histories of triplets in various parts of the country who lived long past the age of twenty-one years; and the Biddeford Times now comes to the front with the following showing of what York county can do: "In the town of Hollis resided a family of Warrens, who had triplets, two boys and a girl; these all lived until about sixty years of age, and some of them may be living at this day. Physically these three were very portly, and weighed in the vicinity of two hundred pounds each. These persons were Thomas and Israel Warren, and the wife of Rev. Jacob McDaniel."

Planked Shad.

The approach of the season when Washington epicures can enjoy the luxury of "planked shad" reminds the correspondent there of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of the following story about Daniel Webster: "Webster was an artist in this line, and proved himself greatly upon his gifts. His only rival was an aged slave, a character on the river, called Sam. There were those who declared that Sam was the only one who knew how to cook planked shad, and others protested that the great statesman was supreme. On sunny spring days when parties of gentlemen went down the river to watch the fish nailed to their boards, sizzling and browning before the blaze of an outdoor fire, it was arranged to have a trial for the championship between old Sam and Mr. Webster. Each contestant was well backed, and the lights of those early political days were all there. First Sam split the shad, seasoned them as he knew would most nearly suit Mr. Webster's taste, and laid them before the orator done to a turn. 'Really, Sam, this is the best planked shad I ever ate,' quoth Daniel; and applause rang from Sam's adherents. Next Webster laid aside his toga and hovered around the fire, knife and salt-box in hand, watching the shad he had prepared in the way he knew would best suit Sam's taste. Sam sniffed three mouthfuls rapturously, and exclaimed, 'Pore God, Mr. Webster, I never ta ted planked shad before!' Webster yielded gracefully the palm to Sam, outdone by him in compliments as well as in cooking."

—A rural enthusiastic has discovered that there isn't anything prettier than the just hatched chicken with his cream-colored, fluff feathers, his yellow bill and his bright little eyes.

—No real generous man would go to a spiritual séance given by a lady medium, and just as the ghost is walking about (while the medium is tied in the cabinet) exclaim: "There's a rat, right by the ghost!" It spoils the effect to have the ghost yell and gather up her skirts and run.

SOME OF THE BEST LIVING
TROTTING STOCK!
AT AUCTION.

Every animal belonging to our Breeding Stud will be sold without reserve at Public Auction, on THURSDAY, April 25th, 18 6, at 12:30 P. M., sharp, at the Agricultural Grounds, Worcester, Mass., rain or shine.

The Stock consists of twenty-five head of the choicest bred trotting stock ever offered at the auction and all of the breeding of many of them cannot be bought at any price, as they are not to be had. Can be seen under date of sale, at place of sale. Among the lot to be sold are—

Richwood—Bay stallion, sire 15.2 hands high, sired by Rysdyk's dumbbells; dam Hope made, by Wilkes's Sir Henry. Richwood has been kept expressly for stock purposes, not having been used for two years and a half, till quite recently he has been jogged a little mostly to a sulky. Mr. L. B. Vaughn, who has driven him, has to go on him two or three times for a few tools, and think he can show a 2:20 gait.

Shawmut—Brown bay stallion, large, foaled June 20, 1877; sired by Conway's (or Seyfert) Harry Clay; dam Heroine, (full sister to Volunteer, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian. Shawmut has been, for six weeks, for the purpose of being broken, in the hands of Geo. W. Silver of Concord, N. H., who has an old egg breaking business of 15 years, and he pronounces him the best gaited colt he has ever ken. Harry Clay has sired the dam of more 2:3 trotters than any living stallion. Volunteer has sired more 2:30 trotters than any living stallion, the blood of Volunteer and Harry Clay (blood of Shawmut) has produced the King of the Trotting Turf, Smuggler, 2:12.

Camptown—son of Egbert (who is grandson of Mambrino Chief) by Mr. J. H. Wallace, in the March number of the monthly, to be "the best bred trotting stallion in Kentucky." Dam by Mr. Bates, 15 3 hands sired by Messenger Duroc, (Prospero, 2:30) dam Miss McCord, by the Hobert Colt, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

Midnight—Dam of Noontide, 5 years old, record 2:26, 4 seasons trials in 2:21. Grey mare, 15.3 hands, foaled 1865; sired by Idol, Jr., (John Morgan, 2:24;) dam by Lexington.

Daybreak—Full sister to Noontide, 5 years old, record 2:24; grey filly, good size, foaled 18 sired by Dolon, (Maud S., 4 year old trial 2:17½) dam, Midnight. Daybreak promises to be as fast as Noontide.

Alacrity—Full sister to Cygnet, 5 years old, trial 2:24; concentrate filly, large, foaled 1877, sired by Harold (Maud S., 2:17½) dam, Juliet, who produced Reifs' ambrino Pilot, who sired Mambrino Gift 2 20, and his sire Sontag 2:19½.

Waterspite—Bay filly large, foaled 1877. Sired by Belmont (Natwood, 2 19½) dam Waterwitch, who produced Mambrino Gift 2 20, and her sire Sontag 2:22½. Fairy Belle, a full sister to Waterspite, produced Gift, who trotted a trial over a half-mile track last season, in 2 3 and in 2:20.

Barcona—Bay mare, 15.2 hands; foaled 1871. Sired by Bayard Emperor, (2:23) dam, Blandina, who produced Abdallah Pico, sire of Rhadamanthus, year-old record 2 28, and Swigert, who sired Nestorius, 2 30; grand dam, Burch mare, the dam of Rosebud, 2 21½. Barcona has showed good enough before having hind tendon cut off by axle breaking, to warrant the statement that he could show as much speed as any animal ever bred at Woodburn Farm, Ky.

Lady Sears—Bay mare, 15 hands, foaled 1864, sired by Rysdyk's Hambletonian; dam, Thyrsis Sally, half brother to Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

And sixteen others by such sires as Volunteer, Messenger, Duroc, Knickerbocker, Tourville, Alnwick, Richwood, &c.

Gentlemen can leave New York city "early evening at 8 o'clock, and return, arriving in New York at 9 20 Thursday evening. Can leave Boston at 11 A. M., on Thursday, and return, arriving in Boston at 4 20 P. M.

THE DURHAM MURDER.

The investigation into the manner in which Peter F. Devall, whose mangled remains were last week found in Horn's woods at Durham point, came to his death, developed facts clearly pointing to one Henry Otis as the murderer.

The murdered man was twenty-seven years old, a son of Peter Devall, a French Canadian, who with his family resided in Newmarket until the 12th of last March, when the old man and the rest of the family moved to Leominster, Mass., leaving the son behind to settle with persons at Durham point for whom the Devalls had chopped wood during the winter. Otis, the suspected murderer, had also chopped wood in company with the Devalls during the winter, and he and his victim left the house of David Moody, on Main street, Newmarket, on the 12th of March, to go to a lot where they had been chopping, to measure their wood and draw their pay. They returned to the house in about two hours, and left again at about noon; and Devall was never again seen alive. Otis returned to Moody's at about four o'clock in the afternoon, very drunk, and in answer to questions as to what had become of Peter, replied: "Guess he has left me and went after his father and mother on the train,"—the Devall family having left for Leominster on the morning of that day.

Old hung around Newmarket for some days, and had plenty of money to get drink with; he also fitted himself out with a new suit of clothes. March 22d he stole a horse belonging to Miss Nellie Joy of Packer's Falls, Durham, and started morn, but was so closely pressed by the officers that he abandoned the team in a barn at Northwood, the thief effecting his escape. Devall's watch and chain, and his scarf pin, and which he was wearing when last seen alive, have been recovered from persons who received them from Otis.

The murderer, Henry Otis, has at various times assumed the names of Joy, Armstrong, Young, etc.; he is a native of Strafford, is about twenty-five years old, six feet high, and weighs nearly two hundred pounds; he has black eyes, "very difficult to catch;" dark brown mustache, and small black side whiskers. When last seen in Newmarket he wore a dark overcoat, dark pants with diagonal stripes, low cut shoes and rubbers, and black slouch hat. He has a swinging motion of his shoulders when he walks, is of very powerful physique, smooth spoken, and of good address.

New Publications.

Certain Dangerous Tendencies in American Life, and other papers: Boston; Houghton, Osgood & Co.; pp. 260; price $1.50. This is a series of practical, common-sense papers published anonymously, but which are of such a character, compared with much that comes to us in book form, that no author need have any hesitancy in admitting their paternity. The sketches contained in these papers are life-like. The homely truths are such as are needed to be told, and the tone is healthful and correct. It is a book which can be profitably read by all. Old and young, rich and poor, politician and patriot can profit by its perusal, and it should be widely circulated. Indeed, it is just such books as these that our busy, restless people should stop to read, and reflect upon the ideas therein advanced; and we trust such wholesome suggestions as are therein contained will be appreciated by a large number of readers.

Senator Bland, who has been somewhat off in his relations towards the administration, has been given taffy by President Hayes, who has appointed him one of the board of visitors to the naval academy at Annapolis.

Were man to conform more to the laws of health and of nature, and be less addicted to the gratification of his passions, it would not be necessary to advertise Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites as a restorative for the powers of the brain and nervous system, while the world's progress in enlightenment would indeed be marvelous.

—The Detroit Free Press says that "when a good looking Indian girl has the measles it always follows that from seven to fifteen of the young men in the neighborhood are soon taken down with the same disease."

"The best cough medicine in the world," The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam, Cutter Bros., & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 25c; large, $1. eod&w1mwy

—There is a Latin term for cod-liver oil, but none for the taste of it. The Latin races were not well up in profanity.—Boston Post.

During life, to be happy, we must be healthy, and protect ourselves from coughs and colds. They are the pickers that lead many to untimely graves. Adamson's Botanic Balsam cures every time. Price, 25 and 75 cts. Trial size, 10 cts.

—At a recent leap year party in New York, a young man who was slowly recovering from a stroke of paralysis and injured about ankle with the assistance of crutches, received and accepted an invitation to be present. The young ladies present filled his "order of dances" with their names, each one sitting with him through the dance she had selected.

Truly wonderful in nervousness, general debility, emaciation and dropsy,—Malt Bitters.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—For the benefit of those who wish to make trial of your remedies I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five year, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify to the truth of what I say when I say that I used only about three about six weeks until I was entirely well, but I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a scab, and I often wished I was dead to be rid of my disease. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours,
F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For eight years I suffered with this Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs, I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried a nice array of remedies and exhausted the best office. The doctors said my case was incurable. I saw your circular recommending the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the tissue to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as I came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say, I thank God and next hour by for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter true, and wishes to see me and see me and find out for them even.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION, Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, for which he was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to JOS. S. FISHER, M.D., Rev. GEO. W. LE PAGE, Rev. GEO. PRESBREY, W. PAINE, M.D., J. S. GAUNT, M.D., H. J. DOUCET, M.D., E. B. KIMBALL, M.D., J. R. THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

UP ONE EASY FLIGHT

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in those towns where it is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for illnesses, cured derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and judicious treatment. AYER'S PILLS are specially adaptable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Nausea, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Gout, Gripes, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and other diseases resulting from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these Pills are the most thorough and searching medicine that can be employed, and we believe pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs, invigorate the system, purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley MALT and Fresh Hop, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their rich store of Pure Malt Extract, than any other Bitters or any other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up most the nervous, the strong (men) and nursing mothers, the feeble, dyspeptic, sick headache, constipation, bad stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, alterative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvelous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and we commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, worn out, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irregular in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, mixed with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It is as the first as well as the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the style, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren, who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMO R, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

The Jesuit System.

One of the worst features of the Jesuit system of education, about which we hear so much of late, is that it brings up boys to be nice-mannered little formalists or fine scholars, but it fails to make manly fellows of them. The boy who is taught that it is his duty to denounce privately a comrade whom he sees doing wrong may grow up to have a keener eye for the shortcomings of others than for his own, and may at all events become an arrant mischief-maker. One of the rules of Jesuits' schools is that in the playground three boys may walk together, but not two. Two might wax confidential and become confederates in mischief, but there is less danger of this if a third be present. Three boys, however, who should constantly be seen together would soon find a reverend father gliding alongside of them to join in their conversation. The Jesuits apply all their energies to obtain mastership over the minds of their pupils, and the worst fault in their eyes is to be undisciplined—that is, to have a mutinous spirit. If a boy confided to them be unclean, greedy, uncouth, mendacious or dissipated, they try, not unsuccessfully as a rule, to cure him of his bad habits; but if they find that he has an independent spirit which cannot be curbed, they speedily get rid of him lest he should lead the others astray. It matters nothing to them that the rebellious boy be frank, honorable and fearless; the moment it is proved that he cannot be rendered docile he is regarded as dangerous. The result of this is that in the Jesuit colleges boys grow up to have a uniform pattern; they may differ in their aptitudes, but their characters are slowly and surely shaped in the same mould. If the Jesuits are abhorred in France it is mainly because men brought up in other schools find that they can never think or argue with their pupils. Jesuitry makes men whose opinions and prejudicies are not of this age; and no wonder, since the chief lesson inculcated by it is that we live in times that are evil, and amid institutions which ought to be undermined, pending the moment when they can be boldly attacked and overthrown.—The Parisian.

Ghosts.

Not Col. Ingersoll's "aristocracy of the air," but real human ghosts. Ghosts that were once healthy men and women, but are now simply the "ghosts of what they once were." As we meet them, and inquire the cause of all this change, they repeat the old, old story, "a cold," "neglected cough," "catarrh," "overwork," or "dyspepsia," "liver complaint," and "constipation," with unsuccessful physicians and remedies. In offering his Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the cure of the above affections, Dr. Pierce does not recommend them as a "sure cure" in all stages. For if the lungs be half wasted away, or there be a cancerous complication, no physician or medicine can cure. The Discovery is, however, an unequaled pectoral and blood-purifier. It speedily cures the most aggravated cough, or cold, and in its early or middle stages, consumption. By correcting all irregularities of the stomach and liver, it readily cures blotches, pimples, scrofulous ulcers, "bunches," or tumors. Hundreds testify that it has restored their health, after eminent physicians had failed. For constipation, use the Pellets. As a local remedy for catarrh, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Every Invalid a Druggist.

By buying the new and popular medicine Kidney-Wort, you get in each package enough of the dry compound to make six quarts of medicine, thus saving double the money which is usually paid for medicine, prepared on liquid. It is a specific cure for Kidney and Liver diseases.

— Dreamers are ever poor because they yearn more than they earn.

—Maine has sixty savings banks, two less than a year ago. The total deposits are more than $23,000,000.

Profit, $1,200.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."—New England Farmer.

—Twin relics of a hard winter—your coal bill and ash scap.

—A German by the name of Benetz is in New York, and all the women are crazy to see him.

Water is Free.

That's so, but to most patent medicines you pay for it at the rate of a dollar a pint. Kidney-Wort is a dry compound and one package is enough to make six quarts of medicine without addition of any poisonous liquors. It is nature's remedy for Kidney Diseases, Liver complaint and Piles, for it is both diuretic and cathartic, tonic and healing. Get it to-day.

— Fast men, like fast rivers, are generally very shallow.

—The reason "the boy stood on the burning deck" was because it was too hot to sit down on.

Excite the appetite, regulate the stomach and increase the flesh.—Malt Bitters.

Portsmouth Chronicle

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1880.

Arithmetical Progression.

The Grand Trunk railway seems to fare hardly with Boston juries. A passenger claimed to have been injured by means of a collision at Detroit. He recovered, in 1874, $18,335. This verdict was set aside for error in the rulings as to the law. A second trial, in April last, resulted in $26,500 as the amount of the verdict; this too was set aside. This week a third trial results in a verdict for $45,000. The road will have the satisfaction of having the law properly administered, while the injured passenger perhaps hopes for a new cause for setting aside this verdict, that a still greater sum may be awarded him.

Murder by Burglars.

A terrible murder occurred in Huntingdon, Mass., on the morning of the 13th inst., the victim being Perley B. Hutchinson, an aged resident of the town, by occupation a manufacturer of wooden ware, whose shop and residence is located some distance from the village centre. It is an isolated spot, where not more than half a dozen houses are grouped. He lived alone, being a bachelor, and was considered independently rich. Early in the morning, smoke was discovered issuing from his shop, and an investigation by the neighbors showed the building to be on fire. The fire started in a pile of shavings, but was extinguished before much damage had been done. During the work of extinguishing the fire, the body of Mr. Hutchinson was found in a corner of the shop, covered heavily with old bagging, with his throat cut from ear to ear. While removing the body, the neighbors were startled to see the house suddenly burst into flames. In removing the furniture, a small roll of money was found in a bureau drawer, and several bank books, showing deposits of several thousand dollars. Medical Examiner Seymour of Northampton thinks his death resulted from blows inflicted on his head, as several contusions were discovered.

Desperate Affair.

A duel was fought near Newark, Delaware, on the 10th inst., between Robert H. Adams and Dr. J. W. White. The duel was fought at ten paces, the weapons being nine-inch-barrelled rifle pistols of regulation duelling size, and were charged in sight of all the participants. Adams having been the injured party, was adjudged entitled to the first shot. When the word was given Adams fired without effect. Dr. White, when his time came, fired in the air. Adams was asked whether he desired a second shot, but politely declined, saying he was entirely satisfied. The seconds then held a consultation, and decided unanimously that ample satisfaction had been given. The principals thereupon shook hands and the party returned to Philadelphia, where both the desperate combatants belong. Both parties stand well in society, and the duel grew out of a dispute in a club room.

Human Sacrifice in Burmah.

A despatch from Rangoon, via London April 11th, says: "Seven hundred men, women, boys, girls, priests and foreigners have been buried alive under the towers of the city walls at Mandalay, Burmah, as a sacrifice for the restoration of the king's health. The panic in Mandalay is frightful, and hundreds of people are leaving the city. The king's illness is said to be leprosy."

A Calcutta despatch of later date says that the infant son and heir of Theebau, the king of Burmah, recently died of small-pox, as did also a brother of the late king. "The astrologers have advised Theebau to remove the capital to Mount Shobo, the original seat of the present dynasty. The 700 men, boys, women, girls, priests and foreigners sacrificed at Mandalay for the restoration of the king's health were buried alive, not burned, as previously stated, under the towers of the city walls."

Another despatch from Rangoon says the following is the explanation of the massacre at Mandalay: "When a city is built in Burmah, human sacrifices are offered up. A new monarch usually has a new capital. The evil spirits are irritated that there has been no change of capital, and the virtue of the old sacrifices being gone, to appease them the astrologers declared that it was necessary to offer up 700 lives. The sacrifices were made by order of King Theebau."

News and Notes.

Prof. Wood of Harvard college has concluded his labors with regard to an examination of the organs of the child of Homer Wellington of Cambridge, Mass., now under arrest on suspicion of murder. In his former report, which was but a partial one, he testified to the finding of arsenical crystals in the intestines of the exhumed child. A further and more extended examination resulted in the discovery of a quantity of arsenic being found in the liver and in the brain, giving proof that a large quantity must have been administered.

Considerable excitement prevails in White county, Georgia, over the finding of a rich pocket of gold in Nacooche Valley. Over one hundred nuggets were taken out in four days, one of which, shown in Atlanta, weighs one pound and an ounce. The yield grows richer as washing proceeds.

O'Leary has deposited $500 as earnest money, and issued a challenge for a match with Hart and Dobler to any two men in England for from $10,000 to $20,000 a side, the walk to be in New York within three months from signing of the articles of agreement, and the challenge to remain open two months. O'Leary says there are seven men in England supposed to be superior to any in this country, and he expects that Rowell, Brown or Hazael will promptly accept the challenge.

James Black, the negro who attempted to outrage the person of Mrs. Hattie Ferriss near Ford's depot in Dinwiddie county, Va., on the 3d of the present month, was taken from jail at Dinwiddie court house on the night of the 12th inst. by an armed body of seventy-five masked men, and hanged to a gallows near the jail.

James Farris of Hartford, Conn., was shot and killed by a gambler named George Petway, at Nashville, Tenn., on the 13th inst. The murder was unprovoked, and the community are highly indignant over it. Petway is in jail. Farris was with Coup's circus.

Miss Belle Cooke of Mountain View, Santa Clara county, Cal., well-known throughout the Pacific coast as an equestrienne, publishes a challenge to ride a race with any lady in the United States for one, two, or three thousand dollars a side, carrying equal weights and changing horses at pleasure; other details to be mutually arranged. Miss Cooke will be liberally backed by her California friends.

A Yanktown, D. T., dispatch says: Through some mysterious means J. W. Maxwell, who was confined in the county jail for attempting to shoot his cousin, procured a revolver, and on the 11th inst., while all the attendants but one were absent, drew the weapon, disarmed the jailor, drove him and other prisoners into cells, locked them in, and walked out of the jail, and has not since been seen. Maxwell was wanted in Wyoming for robbing the Black Hills stages, and participating in a murder.

Charles Thompson of New Bedford, when a young man of about eighteen years, left that city seventeen years ago on a whaling voyage, and left the vessel at the islands, since which time nothing was heard of him till he arrived home Thursday. It was supposed that he was dead, but his mother has had an abiding faith that he would return. During his absence he has been over nearly all the world, part of the time filling the position of mate in the English merchant service. He has often during his absence met New Bedford people, but they were never able to give him any information concerning his family.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th,&f

Farm at Auction.

WILL BE SOLD ON SATURDAY, April 17th, at 11 o'clock A.M., by order of Probate Court,

THE WILLIAM D. DURGIN FARM

Situated on Gravelly ridge and the Dennett road. Said farm contains about nine acres, and has a good HOUSE of nine rooms, wit Woodshed attached; two WELLS OF WATER at the door, for house and barn; plenty of FRUIT of the various kinds,—grapes, etc., and good BARN, with cellar under it. Has kept four cows and a horse. School very near; farm about one and a half miles from Market square.

Also, at same time and place, will be sold one horse, wagon, sleigh and harness, parlor stove, grindstone, plough, harrow, cultivator, etc.

Stores on Bow Street,

AT AUCTION.

WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION on the premises at No. 14 Bow street, on Saturday, May 8th, at 12 o'clock, noon,

THE TWO BRICK STORES,

Formerly leased and occupied by CHAS. ROBINSON & SON. These buildings have Basement Stores in the rear, which is a wharf privilege. The buildings can be fitted for tenants or for manufacturing purposes. A liberal portion of the purchase money can remain on mortgage, if desired. The estate is owned by a resident in a distant city, and is sold on that account, and the opportunity to secure premises which can be made to pay so good investment upon the outlay is one not often seen. Further particulars of WM. G. HACKETT, Att'y for the heirs of GEO. JAFFREY, ESQ., or of

Valuable Real Estate at Auction

IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 19th day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equidistant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet of thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Stimpson street containing 55,640 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SEE-GANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEWIS 3 of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

AROUND HOME.

The marines at the barracks at the navy yard were paid off on Wednesday.

Coaline, which is claimed to be unrivalled for cleaning paint, is for sale by S. A. Reed at C. Dwight Hanscom's store, at twenty-five cents a gallon.

A little boy named Mitchell was run over on Hanover street, on the afternoon of Wednesday, the 14th inst., by a job team, and had his thigh broken. No blame is attached to the driver of the team.

Elliott C. Cowdin of New York, formerly a well-known merchant of Boston, died in the former city on Monday night, March 12th. His wife was a granddaughter of the late Isaac Waldron of this city.

A horse and carriage driven by Mr. Horace Hanscom, with whom was an invalid lady, a Mrs. Bailey, collided with a horse and wagon driven by Mr. S. H. Hall on Fleet street, Wednesday afternoon, resulting in the overturning of Mr. Hanscom's carriage, badly smashing it, and throwing out, but fortunately not injuring, the occupants. The shafts of Mr. Hall's wagon were broken.

The schooner Golden Gate, Capt. Amee, arrived at Doane's wharf on Wednesday forenoon of this week with freight from Boston,—a thousand mackerel barrels and several hundred hogheads of salt to be discharged at the fish wharf, the rest of her load consisting of furniture, and a general assortment of merchandise. The vessel met with a slight accident on her trip to Boston, in the breaking of her fore gaff, which was, however, soon fixed with spare rigging and old handspikes; no other damage was sustained.

JOSH HART.

To-night, at Music hall, the Josh Hart combination will give a variety entertainment. Of this company and the sort of show it gives, the Providence Journal of the 10th inst. says:

A very successful variety entertainment was given at Low's opera house, last evening, by Josh Hart's Star Novelty company. Among the performers were Miss Kate Castleton, who gave some serio-comic selections in a fresh and agreeable style; Harris and Carroll, the very successful negro delineators; William Gorman, who gave some very excellent imitations, and an original German song; Master Barney, one of the best of jig dancers, and others of almost equally attractive quality. The entertainment concluded with "Malonie's Visit," a character sketch in which there were some very amusing situations and excellent impersonations by the whole company, and which was, in short, a roaring farce from beginning to end.

For price of tickets, etc., see advertisement.

A HINT.

Mr. Editor: Would it not be as well for the Eastern Railroad Co., should they desire to rebuild their wood-preserving works on Noble's island, to employ some Portsmouth mechanic to direct the work; and then perhaps we should not again see an iron smoke-pipe surrounded by shingles, but some regard paid to safety in construction. The result of the style in which the Noble's island structure was built was not unexpected by any MECHANIC.

A SNEAK THIEF CAUGHT.

Early in the forenoon on the 14th inst. a man entered the store of James R. Connell, and called for a charm which he stated to Mr. Connell he had previously ordered, and the price of which was to be fifteen dollars. Mr. Connell told him that he knew nothing about it, and stepped toward the window to get a charm that he had there; and as he did so the man stepped behind him, snatched a gold watch, (which Mr. Connell had just finished for a customer,) and left. Mr. Connell did not miss the watch until he returned to his work bench. The thief had got a good start, but the police were notified and in about thirty minutes the thief was behind the bars in the station house. He was traced to the White Hart hotel, and there arrested. After being arrested he threw the watch away, and it was somewhat injured. He gives the name of Albert Hurd, and claims to hail from Cambridgeport, Mass., but persons who know him say he is from Biddeford, Me. He is an old offender, and was arrested in this city once before for stealing a box of pills; and at another time tried to steal a ring from the store of Hutchinson & Connell by putting it in his mouth, but the clerk who was in charge of the store at the time was too smart for him, and made him give it up.

Early in the morning on the 14th he ordered a bill of about four dollars from Butler & Laighton, saying he would send his boy after the goods and send the money by him; he also visited Mr. Hutchinson's store, and tried to steal a ring, but did not get away with it, being too closely watched.

He was arraigned before Judge Bufford in the afternoon, pleaded guilty, and was ordered to give bonds in $500 for his appearance at the September term of the supreme court; in default of bonds he was committed to Portsmouth jail.

A PLEASURE TRIP.

For several days the members of the Humbug Fishing Association, with the proprietors and habitues of Sea-Side Lodge, have been eagerly looking forward to and making preparations for their inauguration dinner for the season of 1880, on that historic and classic spot, Pocahontas point, Gerrish's island. The yacht Humbug, and her tender the Margaret, having been thoroughly renovated during the winter months, and refitted and furnished with all the necessaries for a successful voyage, were duly launched with befitting ceremonies on Fast day; and the day set for the long-looked-for initial dinner was the 11th inst. Sea-Side Lodge had been put in complete order, and its larder bountifully stocked, for the strain upon its resources was expected to be tremendous.

Thus far had the arrangements gone smoothly and "merry as a marriage bell," but alas for human hopes! on the day set, the yacht Humbug, that idolized pleasure craft, having been seized by the merciless fury of Saturday's gale, lay a wreck, the tide ebbing and flowing through her, upon the flats, south of the south mill bridge. This disaster had not been communicated to the denizens of Sea-Side Lodge, and they glided down the beautiful Piscataqua, early in the morning on the 11th, entirely unconscious of the fate that had befallen their pleasure-loving compatriots, and soon had the "point" gay in bunting, while skillful fingers set about preparing a dinner fit for a king, not leaving out those staple sea-side requirements, fish chowder and mushroom sauce.

Dinner came and went, but no Humbug. In the meantime old Boreas had picked up the bellows and was blowing "great guns," lashing the waves into a sea of foam, and compelling reckless mariners to send under bare poles. No boat could live in such a sea, but the Pocahontas pointers knew the wind "would go down with the sun," which, however, it did not do. Anxious grew the four, as they thought of worrying ones at home, and of duties that must be performed in the early hours of the morn.

"There'll be a lull at twelve," the mariner of the Pocahontas pointers said; "we'll wait for the lull." They waited, but no lull came; the winds piped more fiercely and louder than ever.

This was unendurable, and in the wee sma' hours of Monday morning a consultation was held, and it was decided that where it was actually necessary, those who desired would be permitted to walk home; the others to remain and come up with the boat. Those who desired to tramp made just one-half of the party, and at quarter before three o'clock A. M. they left the friendly shelter of the "Lodge," and launched out into the darkness, the bogs, the woods and zig-zag paths of Gerrish's island. An hour later they found themselves gazing over the cliffs at Sea point, vainly endeavoring to find the road to the main land in that direction; at length set right, with instructions to "keep to the left," they brought up near the earth fort, with Sea-Side Lodge not two hundred yards distant; ashamed to enter there, our men pushed into the forest, and after wanderings as devious as were those of the children of Israel, and seemingly as long, they reached the main land just as the golden orb of day was leaving its watery bed. Foot-sore and weary they reached this city late Monday forenoon, happy that it is not always thus. The party left at Sea-Side Lodge may still be there, for all we know.

PEDESTRIAN.

After the foregoing was in type we learned that the party left at Sea-Side Lodge to come up with the boat made several vain essays to reach New Hampshire during the day on Monday, but were driven back by the wind and sea each time; and at last, discouraged and wet to the skin, they beached their boat near the Burnham place, Gerrish's island, and making everything snug, footed it to this city, arriving at a late hour Monday evening.

RECEPTION COMPLIMENTARY.

The welcome given to Rev. C. B. Pitblado at the Methodist church on Monday evening, the 12th inst., was a flattering one,—and one that gentleman no doubt appreciates to its full extent. It has been many years since this church has had so popular a pastor, and never before in the society's history has a minister been unanimously called to the pastorate for a third successive year, as in the present instance.

The concert and readings, Monday evening, were arranged by the young people of this church, and intended to show their gratification and appreciation at the bishop's return of Mr. Pitblado to this charge. That they were successful the well filled church, the high order of the exercises, the excellent rendering of the numbers on the programme, and the hearty and well sustained applause, fully attested. We noticed in the audience very many of our best citizens, irrespective of church relations,—an evidence of the strong hold Mr. Pitblado has upon our people in general outside of his own parish.

Harlow's orchestra never appeared and performed to better advantage than on this occasion; especially so with Messrs. Reinewald and Shillaber, their superior execution of difficult selections calling forth merited applause.

The singing of Miss Edith Wendell was magnificent, her singularly pure and sweet voice captivating the audience, who were unwilling to release her, even after reponses to encores.

The readings of Miss Giddings and Mr. Stimpson were alone worth the price of admission. Miss Giddings has a stately, captivating presence, and wonderfully clear elocutionary powers, which were well displayed in her various selections. Mr. Stimpson is one of the best—and is the most popular—gentleman reader in the city; he is heard to best advantage in humorous and sympathetic pieces, in which he moves his hearers at will; both readers were heartily applauded, and responded to encores.

The singing of Mr. Philbrick and the piano playing of Miss Roberts were both very fine, and received merited recognition from the audience.

There has not been an entertainment for many months, of this character, given in Music hall, that has approached this in the general excellence of the selections and the careful and painstaking performance of the same.

REP.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Franklin Land, Mill & Water Co. was held at Kittery on Wednesday of this week. The officers elected were: Ebenezer T. Farrington, Ichabod Goodwin, Elvin D. Hall, Charles F. Farrington, Wm. L. Dwight, Henry C. Angell and Albert B. Otis, directors; Robert F. Gerrish, clerk. On motion of Wm. H. Hackett it was voted that the directors be authorized to sell and convey any part or the whole of the mill privilege, mineral and timber lands of the company, at Franklin, Maine, as in their judgment may be deemed expedient.

About $20,000 is being expended in the improvement of the Burnham farm and buildings, on Gerrish's island, this season. Messrs. Bellamy and Riley, two of the best and most experienced carpenters of Kittery, have the carpenter work in charge, and at the present time have no less than six buildings and additions to buildings in process of completion on this farm. When completed there will be fourteen buildings in the cluster, of quaint, gothic architecture, with red roofs and white ground work, and when the back ground is clothed with the verdure of summer will make a charming picture. Mr. Choate Burnham, the owner of the farm, is a wealthy coal and lumber merchant of Boston, but spends the summer months with invited friends at this lovely island; his yacht, the "Dolphin," is now at the island, and being put in order for the boating season. The farm is under the efficient management of Mr. Potter Emery, who also being a practical sailor, will guide the yacht in her summer wanderings.

—Six medical experts examined a man as to his sanity and were evenly divided. After they had wrangled about it for a week it was discovered that they had examined the wrong person altogether.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen holding the paper before the light.

How to Tell It.

Several methods of detecting oleomargerine have been published, but they all involve the expense of delicate test instruments and are useless to the consumer who only needs his bread lubricated. When you get anything into your mouth that tastes sweet and salt and causes an involuntary reaching for a little more, something that reminds you of June clover, of the fragrance of new-mown hay, the sweet breath of the pet heifer of your boyhood days, of your then young mother's chapely hands with sleeves rolled to the elbow, "working" a golden mass into pound balls, of the days when you had to turn the crank of a thermometer churn when you wanted to go a fishing, make up your mind that you are eating gilt-edged butter; but if you get something into your mouth that cleaves to its roof like tallow on a country boy's boot, that tastes precisely as doughnut fat smells, that reminds you that you don't want any more like it, that's oleomargerine. Put it on the shelf for wheel grease.
—New Haven Repeater.

—Oleomargerine is no butter than it should be.

—It is remarked that should the proposed Canada bill for the prevention of cruelty to animals become a law, the penalty for abusing an animal will be eleven times as severe as that for assaulting a human being.

Grateful Women.

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills, fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, and all readily removed by these Bitters.—Counsel.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wineglassful three times a day is the best possible prophylactic for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

KIDNEY-WORT

THE ONLY MEDICINE

That Acts at the Same Time on THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS.

These great organs are the natural cleansers of the system. If they work well, health will be perfect; if they become clogged, dreadful diseases are sure to follow with

TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

Biliousness, Headache, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Constipation and Piles, or Kidney Complaints, Gravel, Diabetes, Sediment in the Urine, Milky or Ropy Urine; or Rheumatic Pains and Aches, are developed because the blood is poisoned with the humors that should have been expelled naturally.

KIDNEY-WORT

will restore the healthy action and all these destroying evils will be banished; neither them and you will live but to suffer.

Thousands have been cured. Try it and you will add one more to the number. Take it and health will come, more gladden your heart.

Why suffer longer from the torment of an aching back?

Why bear such distress from Constipation and Piles?

Why be so fearful because of disordered urine?

KIDNEY-WORT will cure you. Try a package at once and be satisfied.

It is a dry vegetable compound and One Package makes six quarts of Medicine.

Your Druggist has it, or will get it for you. Patent upon having it. Price, $1.00.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pimples, Chin Whelk, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Itching Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA REMEDIES should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them come or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL McDONALD.
1315 BUTTERFIELD ST.,
CHICAGO, ILL., March 4, 1879.

CUTICURA SOAP,

Medicinal and Toilet.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION; Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundred editions, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings, and one hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effectual treatment. Ayer's Pills are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Numbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs, thus operate to purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Gargsh, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of all strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMOOR, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12th.

It is said that Senator Edmunds has really got the presidential bee in his bonnet, as Washburn has, and really expects to go into the Chicago convention with high hopes; of course there are very few who agree with them, because General Grant expects with reason to have a larger part of the delegates in the south, and Senator Blaine appears to be obtaining a larger following in the north. However, every man has a right to be a presidential candidate, and Edmunds and Washburn are very respectable men, although they are not calculated to create any great enthusiasm.

There seems to be some ground for the talk that has prevailed here for the last few days to the effect that several democratic senators, including Hampton, Pendleton, Ransom and Davis, will vote against unseating Senator Kellogg of Louisiana. This explains the delay in the case, which was unaccountable before, and Senator Hill of Georgia, who has it in charge, has said that it should be forced to an issue without delay. Is this is the programme it will excite the great displeasure of Hill and other radical democrats, who are in favor of every measure possible to reduce the chances of republican restoration in the senate. But the conservative democrats, including the Tilden men, are determined, it appears, that this session shall give no chance of complaint to the country.

The republicans will have the debate on the army bill in the house all to themselves, if the democrats keep their present purpose. Several of them have said that they do not intend to answer Frye and the other republicans who have opposed the clause touching troops at the polls. It will be difficult for them to get through without some talk, however, as human nature is too weak to withstand the provocation offered by the minority.

Mrs. Lockwood, the female attorney, seems determined to trouble Senator Hill because of his assault on her in his scandal case. She made a speech in court on Saturday, in which she threatened to expose the senator's little weaknesses, if it was necessary to vindicate her own character.

The Grant men are not well satisfied with Connecticut, and they begin to despair of Massachusetts. They began by claiming both these states, and Rhode Island. The last named state sends a solid Blaine delegation, and the majority of the Connecticut delegates are for Blaine with not one Grant man among them.

KNOX.

Thousands of women have been entirely cured of the most stubborn cases of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

— When a human skeleton is dug up we frequently see it stated that the remains are supposed to be an Indian's, from the fact that flint arrowheads are found with them. The more natural conclusion is that it is the skeleton of the fellow who was trying to get away from an Indian.

Ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors of females cured by Malt Bitters.

—"What's the matter, my dear?" said a kind wife to her husband, who had sat for half an hour with his face buried in his hands, and apparently in great tribulation. "O, I don't know; I've felt like a fool all day." "Well," said his wife consolingly, "you look the very picture of what you feel."

Profit, $1,200.

"To sum it up, six long years of bedridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."—New England Farmer.

FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1880.

Taking the Census.

The plan of enumeration districts in New Hampshire, as arranged by George E. Jenks, supervisor of the census for the state, and submitted to and approved by Gen. Walker, United States supervisor of the census, is given below. The state has been divided into 279 districts for the purposes of enumeration; Manchester will have nineteen districts, Concord nine, Nashua nine, Dover eight, Portsmouth six, Keene five, Rochester three, Somersworth three, Farmington and Exeter two, Winchester two, Claremont two, Newport two, Lebanon two, Haverhill two, Littleton two, Lancaster two, Franklin two, Pembroke two, Laconia two, Gilford two. Classed Districts—Albany and Madison; Brookfield and Wakefield; Clarkeville and Pittsburg; Dummer, Errell and purchases; Carroll and purchases; Gorham, Randolph, Shelburne and purchases; Gilsum and Surry; Dublin and Harrisville; Roxbury and Sullivan; Ashland and Holderness; Bethlehem and Livermore; Bridgewater and Hebron; Campton and Ellsworth; Landaff and Easton; Grafton and Orange; Waterville, Woodstock and Lincoln; Antrim and Windsor; Sharon and Temple; Middleton and New Durham. All the other towns are one district each.

Masonic.

The annual assembly of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of New Hampshire will be held at Masonic Temple, in Concord, Monday, May 17th; the annual convocation of the Grand Chapter, Tuesday forenoon, May 18th; and the annual communication of the Grand Lodge, Wednesday forenoon, May 19th.

News and Notes.

Proctor's tannery at Peabody, Mass., was burned on the 14th inst., with a large amount of stock. Loss $60,000; well insured. One hundred men are thrown out of employment by this fire.

Schooner Telegraph, from New York for Boston, arrived at Newport, R. I., on the 14th inst., and reported that she saw a schooner, name unknown, go down with all hands on board, in the sound near Oldfields point, on the previous afternoon. Nothing was seen of the vessel or crew afterwards. A dog which belonged on board the ill-fated vessel was picked up by the Telegraph, and is now on that vessel.

Henry Schonland, a manufacturer of sausages at Hallsville, Mass., was fined $50 and costs at Lawrence on the 14th inst., for exposing for sale unwholesome veal.

A body was found in the woods near Southwick, Mass., on the 13th inst. It has been identified as that of Mr. Patterson, aged sixty, who wandered from his home in Tariffville, Conn., about New Year's, while insane; he probably died from exposure.

Charles Upton, of Derby, Conn., who threw a lighted lamp at his wife in November, 1879, fatally burning her, pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the superior criminal court at New Haven on the 12th inst., and was sentenced to state prison for ten years.

Otero, who some months ago attempted the assassination of King Alfonso of Spain, was executed at Madrid at nine o'clock in the morning on the 14th inst.

By the fall of an elevator in the Borden block at Fall River, Mass., on the 14th inst., Henry Seavy, the correspondent of the Providence Journal, was killed, and several other persons badly injured.

Miss Maria L. Harris, formerly for nine years a teacher in the public schools of Fall River, Mass., has been arrested in New Bedford for the larceny of $1,400 in United States bonds from her grandmother, and attempting to pass a forged check for $2,500. She sold the bonds for $1,300, and applied a large part of the proceeds to paying the debts of a New Bedford family in which she lived. She is about thirty years old.

The most destructive forest fires that ever visited New Jersey swept across the western part of the state on the 13th and 14th inst., doing immense damage to property of various kinds. In Cumberland, Atlantic and Ocean counties, a tract of land fifty miles long and ten wide was burned over.

The British parliamentary elections are about all over, and the returns show that the liberals will have a majority of about sixty over the conservatives and home rulers combined.

Intense anxiety is felt in England respecting the safety of the British training ship Atalanta, which left Bermuda February 1st, bound for Portsmouth, Eng. The captain of the West India steamer Tamar, just arrived at London, reports having seen on her outward journey to Aspinwall, and also on her return, a large copper-bottomed vessel, bottom up. A rough sea prevented the Tamar from ascertaining the name of the derelict craft. The vessel was of about 1000 tons, which corresponds with the size of the missing craft, and it is feared that she met with disaster in mid ocean. Several men-of-war have been sent by the admiralty to search for the wreck in question.

New Hampshire Items.

A firm of liquor dealers in Boston sued another firm for a bill of spirituous liquors. The suit was defended on the ground that the contract was made in New Hampshire, and by our laws void.

The woolen mill at Meredith Centre, owned by W. C. Marshall & Co. of Laconia, was burned April 14th. The fire caught in the picker house. Loss, $5,000; no insurance.

At New Ipswich, on the 13th inst., a fire started in a pile of brush near the centre of the town, and burned over forty acres of woodland, greatly endangering the village. The entire fire department was called out, and one hundred and fifty citizens were engaged in checking the flames.

Mrs. Edward Melcher of Lancaster, aged eighty-three years, was burned to death while alone in her house, Tuesday afternoon, the 13th inst. She was found by her husband lying on the floor, dead, and terribly burned. How she came in contact with fire is a mystery, as it is understood there was no fire in the house. Deceased was very feeble, and had been totally blind for years.

A Reckless Villain.

At Rochester, New York, a few days ago, the engineer and fireman of a locomotive left their machine for a few moments while they went for breakfast. No sooner had they entered the lunch house than they learned that their locomotive had been started west. The fireman, named Held, rushed out, and saw James McInernay jump from the engine. Held and others pursued McInernay, and were fought furiously by him before they conquered, but they finally captured the scoundrel. In the mean time the locomotive flew west through the heart of the city at the rate of about forty miles an hour. Had it been an hour or two later many persons would inevitably have been killed, as thousands of workmen and shop girls cross the tracks at that hour going to work. No bell or other warning sounded, of course. Fortunately the engine pump was open, and the locomotive worked her boiler full of cold water, and so stopped three miles west of the city, and four miles from the starting point. McInernay is twenty-two years old, and is liable to ten years in state prison for his reckless ruffianism.

More Fusion in Maine.

There was quite a large gathering of prominent democrats and greenbackers from different parts of Maine, in Bangor on the evening of April 14th. Ex-Gov. Garcelon, Ex-Councilors Fogg and Chase, Ex-Adjutant General S. D. Leavitt, F. B. Torrey of Bath, chairman of the democratic state committee, Edmund Wilson of Thomaston, of the democratic national committee, and others, were present. The gathering is believed to have been a conference of greenback and democratic leaders to arrange a basis of coalition for the coming campaign.

Romance in Real Life.

About a year ago, in Lumberton, N. C., an accomplished and beautiful young woman named Amelia Linkhaur, a highly-respected member of the Baptist church at Lumberton, drove up to a hotel in the place, asked to see Edward Hartman, a drummer, and when he appeared shot him so that he soon died, remarking as she fired, "You have ruined me, and now I will ruin you." She was lodged in jail, and before her trial gave birth to a child. She was tried about two months ago, and acquitted, she evidently having the sympathy of all the people in that section. Among the persons who wrote her sympathizing letters while she was in jail was Capt. Charles Little, a custom-house officer stationed at Sullivan's island, near Charleston, S. C., and after her acquittal he offered her his hand, which she accepted. On the 6th inst. Miss Linkhaur, with her child and sister, went to Florence, S. C., where they met Capt. Little, and the marriage ceremony was quietly performed.

— A narrow escape—a fire ladder.

—If it be proper to say "To-morrow is Thursday," why would it not be equally proper to say, "Yesterday is Tuesday?"

—A juvenile Sunday-school class in Westfield, Mass., was asked by the teacher what kind of men they thought those were from whom the Saviour cast out devils which entered into the herd of swine? One little fellow piped up, "I know; they looked like Butler men." "What makes you say that?" inquired the teacher. "'Cause I've heard pa say that the Butler men are perfect devils."

There is no sweetness in a kiss,
Unless your teeth are just like pearls,
Then won't you have its trembling bliss,
Use SOZODONT at once, sweet girls;
For it alone gives to the mouth,
White teeth and fragrance of the South.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

Valuable Real Estate at Auction

IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DUELING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about one-quarter mile from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Simpson street containing 25,640 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a finely house, carriage, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERGEANT DUELING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEW S of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1:30 A. M.

Cloudy weather, followed by rain, cold westerly winds veering to south easterly.

AROUND HOME.

Major Urch has sued a Dover gondola man for running into one of the Newcastle bridges.

G. M. Gignoux, of the Mutual Life Ins. Co., of New York, has rented the Parrot house on Middle street.

Says the Weekly: "A gentleman of this city has within a few days married the second wife whom his first on her death-bed recommended to him."

Hon. Albert R. Hatch of this city is at the Riggs house in Washington. He intends to go thence to California, on a tour of pleasure and for the improvement of his health.

At auction in Boston, this week, Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway railroad bonds brought $77.50; Salmon Falls Co., $377.50; Nashua & Rochester railroad stock, $60.25.

The cellar of Mr. D. H. Montgomery's projected new house on the corner of Miller avenue and Merrimac street was laid out on the 15th inst. Mr. Albert C. Anderson is the master builder.

Mr. P. A Butler, formerly of this city, and well known for his artistic success in fresco painting, commenced decorating the walls and ceilings of Frank Jones' country house on Wednesday, the 14th inst., aided by a corps of assistants.

Miss Parlon, formerly of this city, whose object-lessons in cookery have a wide reputation, appeared Thursday afternoon last in the working women's lecture course at Providence, R. I., and gave instructions how to deal with a side of beef.

A despatch received in this city on Thursday announced the sudden death of James M. Mitchell, of the Hotel Brunswick in New York. Mr. Mitchell was husband of the daughter of the late Samuel W. Coburn, who formerly kept the Rockingham house in this city.

Wm. Hurd of Dover, the "Gospel tent" temperance man, is giving a series of illustrated lecture, in Reform Club hall at Worcester, Mass., having commenced on the evening of the 14th inst. His illustrations comprise forty-three large oil paintings, showing the effects of intemperance.

C. M. Gignoux, general agent for New Hampshire of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, has distributed among the policy-holders in the company in this city a neat desk-pad with counting-room almanac printed thereon. The Mutual Life is largely increasing its business in New Hampshire; the general agent is in National block, Congress street.

Chas. E. Laighton & Son are to temporarily remove their extensive grocery business from the stand so long occupied in Exchange buildings to the store on State street formerly occupied by Rufus K. Oxford, and will remain there while extensive alterations and repairs are made to their Pleasant street quarters. The bottom of the cellar is to be lowered and cemented, a new front put into the store, with plate glass windows, new floors laid, etc.

The Newburyport Herald of Thursday, the 15th inst., says: "On Monday the schooner W. H. Y. Hackett, of Portsmouth, N. H., was attached at her wharf in Beverly by Deputy Sheriff Potter, and a keeper placed on board. The captain was indignant, and about one o'clock the captain, Jesse McComesky, ordered the crew to cast off the fasts and put the keeper ashore. The schooner put off into the bay and came to anchor. Deputy Sheriff Potter and others boarded the vessel and took her back to the wharf, and arrested the captain for attempting the life of Sheriff Potter, and larceny of the schooner and cargo. One of the crew was arrested for aiding the captain. They were bound over to the higher court."

Mr. James E. Dennett, for many years proprietor of the Kearsarge house, died on Thursday evening last after a long illness.

Lieut.-Col. H. Thom, of the engineer corps of the United States army, well known in this region from his connection with river and harbor improvements and fortifications building, has been nominated for promotion to colonel.

The new house of Frank Jones on the Newington road is waiting the hard wood finish which has been contracted for by a Boston firm. The Exeter Machine Works are now engaged in putting in steam heating apparatus; this will require from four to five thousand feet of piping, aside from the coils and radiators. When completed it will be one of the finest private residences, as well as the largest, in the state.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

THURSDAY, April 15th.

Case Berry vs. town of Madbury occupied the court during the day, and is still unfinished.

The grand jury reported, and were discharged.

The only liquor cases are from Newmarket and Salem. The town of Newington is indicted for obstructing a highway. Charles Gray is indicted for an assault on Patrick Sheehan.

Sentences were imposed in the following cases:

Andrew Callahan, breaking and entering the store of George Stott, in Portsmouth, (plea, guilty of stealing less than $20,) ninety days in jail and to pay costs.

Jeremiah Marden and Burleigh Tuttle, breaking and entering in Newington and Greenland, two indictments, two years in state prison.

Elmer Tuttle, breaking and entering store in Newmarket, two years in state prison.

Frank W. Gray, stealing a cask of vinegar in Rye, ten days in jail, and to pay costs.

Henry F. Beckman, of Seabrook, horse-stealing, three years in state prison. This Beckman is a notorious scoundrel and thief; while at liberty he was a constant menace to honest people's property, and whatever expense was incurred in "railroading" him to state prison was well invested.

Juan Fernandez, a Chilian, arrested in Newmarket as a tramp, one year and one day in state prison.

THE DURHAM MURDER.

Henry Otis, the suspected murderer of Peter Devall of Newmarket at Durham point, was captured in Danbury on Thursday morning last, by C. W. Sleeper and John Drew, officers from Rochester. These gentlemen arrived in Danbury at half-past ten o'clock the previous night. They had obtained information that Otis was in one of five houses in what is known as "Wild meadows," situated about four miles from the village of Danbury, and they accordingly proceeded thither, taking with them six men, and placed a close watch upon the houses. They finally discovered that he was in one of the houses owned by his sister, who had married a Frenchman and gone away, leaving the furniture in the house. About six o'clock Otis got up to make a fire, and the officers kicked at the door, which was locked. He came immediately and asked what was wanted. He was told that they came to arrest him, and he gave himself up at once without resistance or delay. He made little talk about the crime, but persistently asserted his innocence, saying he knew nothing about it. He said he had passed his days in the woods, and slept in the house where he was caught. He is about six feet high, of very muscular build, with low, flat, retreating forehead, and maintains a stolid and unconcerned demeanor.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.

The Massachusetts senate on the 13th inst. added to the bill regulating the leasing of the railroads an amendment which provides that the Eastern railroad company and the Boston & Maine road may make with each other a contract or lease for the operation of their roads for such period of time as the directors of said companies may agree to, and as shall be approved by a majority in interest of the stockholders of each company at meetings called for that purpose. Such a union of interests is to be subject to the maintenance of the facilities for travel and business over either road at the time at which it was consummated; and the income arising from such contract or lease shall be subject to the provisions of law in regard to the right of the state to purchase the said roads or reduce their tolls, in the same manner as that arising from the use of the roads. The virtual consolidation of the Eastern and Boston & Maine roads, which was so liberally ridiculed and flatly denied by many papers a few months ago when the Boston Journal first announced its probability, it seems is now in a fair way to be accomplished.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Mrs. Catharine Roberts, of Alfred, reached her 100th birthday on April 9th. She is in good health and in fair enjoyment of all her faculties, except that her hearing is somewhat impaired.

Lawrie Burke, a French boy eight years old, was drowned in the Saco river at Biddeford on the 13th inst.

Five acres of woodland near Kennebunk, owned by Albert Day, were burned April 12th, involving considerable loss. The fire caught from chimney sparks.

The York County Agricultural society will hold its next exhibition in Biddeford early the coming fall. The trustees held a meeting in Saco on the 12th inst., and decided as above stated. A committee was appointed to prepare a list of premiums and report at another meeting to be held April 26th in the city building at Biddeford.

The fifty-sixth annual convention of the Methodist Episcopal church of Maine opened in Saco on the 14th inst., Rev. Parker Jacques, president; Rev. C. J. Clark of Portland was chosen secretary; Geo. C. Andrews, assistant secretary; A. W. Potter, financial secretary; W. S. Jones, statistical secretary. The usual reports were made, and referred to the proper committees. Rev. D. B. Randall, a member of fifty-two years' standing, asked to be placed among the supernumeraries.

Massachusetts Republican Convention.

The republican state convention of Massachusetts assembled at Worcester on the 15th inst., a very large number of prominent republicans being present.

Eleven hundred and fifteen delegates were present, and Henry L. Dawes presided.

On the first ballot the following delegates at large to the national convention were chosen: Geo. F. Hoar of Worcester, Charles R. Codman of Boston, John Sanford of Taunton and Julius H. Seelye of Amherst.

The following alternates were appointed by acclamation: Eben F. Stone of Newburyport, James M. Barker of Pittsfield, Chas. Allen of Boston, and R. R. Bishop of Newton.

All these gentlemen are in favor of Edmunds for president. The delegation was not "instructed."

Naval Gazette.

Asst. Surgeon H. G. Beyer is ordered to examination for promotion.

Capt. Henry Wilson has reported his return home from Europe, and is placed on waiting orders.

Lieut. John K. Rodgers is ordered to the Washington navy yard, for instruction in ordnance duties.

The national house passed a bill on the 14th inst. providing for a permanent annual fund of a million dollars for construction purposes in the navy. There are provisions for selling thirty of the old ships, and one forbidding the use of the permanent construction fund for repairs.

Political.

At the republican state convention in Iowa, on the 14th inst., the delegates were instructed to vote for Blaine at the Chicago convention. In Kentucky and Missouri they were instructed to vote for Grant.

The Herald, of Vicksburg, Miss., a democratic paper, says: "Some of the southern states are by no means as safe as the thoughtless would have us believe, and any man who asserts that Mr. Tilden can carry the south solid is making an assertion that will never be verified. It is absolutely unpopular in this state and Louisiana to express a preference for Mr. Tilden. The people do not want him, and they will not vote for him."

After a few months of democratic rule in the District of Columbia the treasurer of the United States charges that evidence has already been accumulated to prove that hundreds of thousands of dollars have been diverted from their proper channels. It is said that the democrats are very hostile to an investigation of the charges.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart, and Palpitation, Weakness of intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. [illegible], St. John, N. B., on the yellow [illegible] wrapper, which is [illegible] the paper before the light.

Nervous Men.

Although women are usually considered to be more nervous than men, they certainly fidget less. Put an equal number of men and women to sit for half an hour upon arm-chairs with loose chintz covers and antimacassars. When the women rise the general appearance of their seats will be little altered; but when the men leave their chairs there will remain visible evidence of a screw-like action upon the chintz, and it will be a miracle if half the antimacassars are not torn from their places; or, if a lady and gentleman converse together beside a drawing room table covered with knick-knacks, the former will not touch them, but the latter will select some object and nervously play with it in a meaningless manner. One of the most wearisome and provoking forms of fidgeting is that known as "pacing the quarter-deck," in which the offender retraces a short space of ground or carpet like a wild beast at the zoological gardens when feeding time draws near. In this habit, and in many of the other ways in which a man can show that he has got what children term "fidgets in the legs," he has the power of making an intolerable nuisance of himself. The arch-fidget of history was the great Napoleon. Not only did he pace up and down, but he whittled chairs and tables, and did other naughty things for which a judicious nurse would have to tie up his hands in fingerless gloves. Such habits are but forms of nervousness, and it is certain that Napoleon was essentially a nervous man. Of all minor forms of the malady the most serious in its results of social torture is that which manifests itself in what is vulgarly known as "the devil's tattoo." Who shall describe the horrors of this evil habit? An organ grinder is an enemy to mankind, but the tattoo beater surely owes his origin to something worse than human. For such criminals, and indeed for most men who are given to making morning calls, we would suggest that digitoriums should be provided in every drawing room. These harmless instruments might then be the means, like scientific toys, of combining amusement with instruction.—An Interchange.

All Tore Up.

The democratic party is in a bad way. The Chicago Times, one of its leading organs, speaks thus dolefully of it and its aims, issues and prospects:

"If any living man knows, or thinks he knows, or fancies he can guess, what the creed, policy, programme, 'platform,' or issue is, or will be, on which that which is called the democratic party (whatever it may be) can control the next presidential election, he ought in kindness to that woe-begone concern, to come forward and disclose without delay. For there is not among them one man who has the slightest idea what his party will propose or would propose if it could, in opposition to the position occupied by the government party. Never in the history of American paryism has there been a time when a political party of any name was so utterly unable to discover a reason for its existence, or a ground on which it might possibly prolong its existence to the end of another 'campaign,' as in the self-styled democratic party of the present juncture. Its brains, such as it still possesses, are 'all tore up.' Its leaders, if it can be said to have any, are leading it in as many different directions as it is possible to find. Its steering apparatus is unshipped and destroyed. Without compass or rudder, or sail, or chart, or guide, or purpose, or aim, or mission, it is comparable only to the fragments of a wreck, tossed hither and thither by shifting winds, a thing for which there is no further use in this world of sea and land."

A party must be in a bad way, must be badly tore up, must be rotten all through, when one of its leading organs can thus speak of it.—La Crosse Democrat.

Were man to conform more to the laws of health and of nature, and be less addicted to the gratification of his passions, it would not be necessary to advertise Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites as a restorative for the powers of the brain and nervous system, while the world's progress in enlightenment would indeed be marvellous.

—One of the novelties of Breslau is a paper chimney, about fifty feet high, rendered fire-proof by chemical treatment.

Grateful Women.

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills, fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, and all readily removed by these Bitters.—Courant.

—The Chicago Journal says that Sankey's new hymn, "Is your lamp still burning?" should be inscribed to Edison.

Every Invalid a Druggist.

By buying the new and popular medicine Kidney-Wort, you get in each package enough of the dry compound to make six quarts of medicine, thus saving double the money which is usually paid for medicine, prepared on liquid. It is a specific cure for Kidney and Liver diseases.

—A polite philosopher once thanked a lady who had been singing to a party for an hour, by saying, "Madam, you have wasted our time charmingly."

Water is Free.

That's so, but in most patent medicines you pay for it at the rate of a dollar a pint. Kidney-Wort is a dry compound and one package is enough to make six quarts of medicine without addition of any poisonous liquors. It is nature's remedy for Kidney Diseases, Liver complaint and Piles, for it is both diuretic and cathartic, tonic and healing. Get it to-day.

—A poet wrote a stirring ode on a victim of persecution, who was burned at the stake about the time of the Reformation, in which occurred the line, "See the pale martyr in his sheet of fire!" of which the poet was especially proud; but the printer accidentally got it, "See the pale martyr with his shirt on fire!"

In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.

CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything they came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION; Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings, and 300 pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared market news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the old home by the sea, it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

— OF —

than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp; keeping it cool, clean, and soft, upon which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors, and exerts the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have be n familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 10, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, ESQ.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called sarsaparilla or more so which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

Daily Chronicle.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

In the case Benton vs. Allen et als., heard before the United States circuit court at its last session in this city, Judge Clark has given his opinion as follows:

I find upon the evidence the following facts proved:

That in December, 1838, Horatio N. Allen married Betsey Cody.

That at the time of the marriage Betsey Cody had money in a savings bank, and otherwise, which she had earned by her labor, to the amount of $300.

That she kept this money as her separate estate, and did not deliver it to her husband, and he did not assume control over it, or reduce it to his possession.

That some time after the marriage, some months, the husband desiring some money to pay for some cows, he had purchased, borrowed of his wife $300 of this money, and gave her his note therefor, with interest.

That he did not repay her this money, but from time to time gave her a new note for the debt and interest, and continued to do so until about January, 1874, when the principal and interest amounted to $2000, for which sum he then gave her his note.

That on the 10th day of April, 1874, the bankrupt held a note secured by mortgage against William H. Forbes, one of the defendants in this case for $2100, dated October 16th, 1871.

That on this note was endorsed Nov. 2d, 1872, $100; March 21st, 1873, $100; and April 3d, 1874, $200.

That on said 10th day of April 1874, in pursuance of an agreement with Betsey Allen, Horatio N. Allen transferred and delivered the note of October 16th, 1871, for $2100, against Forbes to Willis Wilder, another defendant in this case, to be held and collected by him as trustee of said Betsey Allen, and the money paid to her in lieu of the $2000 note, which Horatio N. Allen had previously given to Betsey Allen, which was given up.

That at the time said Forbes note was delivered to Willis Wilder he executed a receipt for the same, as follows:

BETHLEHEM, April 10th, 1874.

This certifies, that I, Willis Wilder, have this day received of H. N. Allen of Goildhall, Vt., a note signed by William H. Forbes Oct. 16, 1871, for $2100, payable to Geo. F. Fellows, or bearer, endorsed Nov. 2, 1872, $100; March 21, 1873, endorsed $100; April 3, 1874, $200. The balance due on said note April 10th, 1874, I agree to pay to the wife of said H. N. Allen, Betsey Allen, as fast as collected upon said described note.

Which receipt he delivered to Horatio N. Allen and he to his wife Betsey Allen, who still holds the same.

That said Horatio N. Allen transferred said note to said Wilder as trustee of said Betsey Allen in full satisfaction of his note to her of $2000, January 1874, and she accepted said Forbes note and mortgage securing the same in full satisfaction of the note for $2000 against H. N. Allen.

That the petition of Horatio N. Allen in bankruptcy was filed January 15th 1875.

I further find that at the several times, at which these transactions took place, Betsey Allen and Horatio N. Allen lived in the state of Vermont.

The prayer of the bill is, that the said Willis Wilder and Betsey Allen may be enjoined from the collection or transfer of said Forbes note or in any manner interfering with the same that the said Willis Wilder may be ordered to surrender said note to the orator, and that the said William H. Forbes may be ordered to pay the same to the orator, and for further relief.

Omitting from consideration her certain allegations in the bill that Forbes had been summoned to appear in the court of the state of New Hampshire to answer as trustee of Horatio N. Allen, on the suit of this complainant, and at the suit of one A. P. Richardson, more than four months before the filing of the petition in bankruptcy of the said Horatio N. Allen, I am satisfied when the foregoing facts, that the prayer of the complainant must be denied and the bill dismissed.

At common law the goods and money of the wife, at the time of the marriage, become the property of the husband.

2nd Kent 142

2nd Blackstone 433.

The law is so held in Vermont.

Sweatt vs. Hall 8 Vt. 187.

Rawlins and wife vs. Rounds 27 Vt. 375.

In N. H. the doctrine is somewhat modified.

The personal chattels of the wife remain her's until the husband reduces them to possession with the intention of making them his own.

Hall vs. Young 37 N. H. 134.

George vs. Cutting 46 N. H. 132.

The husband may, however, refuse to excuse such ownership; or he may surrender, or make a gift of the property to her; or contract with her, that she may hold it, as her separate estate, and this after marriage, and such surrender, gift or contract will be held valid, in equity, if not in law, unless in fraud of creditors.

2d. Parsons on contracts 72
2d. Story's equity " 603
Richardson vs. Merrill's Est. 32 Vt. 27.
Caldwell, admr. vs. Renfrew 33 Vt. 213.
Child vs. Pearl 43 " 224
Bent vs. Bent 44 " 555
Cumsbee vs. Kidder et als 48 " 361
Cardell vs. Ryder " 35 " 47

These decisions in Vermont are important, as the parties, husband and wife, lived in that state.

In this case, the borrowing of the money from the wife by the husband must be regarded as a surrender, or gift to her of his marital right to the property; and the promise to pay it with interest, as an agreement with her, that she should hold so much of her money as her own separate estate.

Of such surrender, gift, or contract no one could complain but an existing creditor.

She might now be able to collect the note, given for the money, of him by a suit at law, but equity would regard it as a declaration by him, that he held so much of her property as her trustee, and would protect the trust.

2d. Story's Equity 501.

Murray vs. Glasse 21st Eng. Law and Eq. 51.

This it would do as long as the trust subsisted, and if the husband performed the trust by the payment to her of the trust funds, or by disposing other property for her in the hands of another trustee, for that purpose by and with her consent, equity would not compel either her or her trustee, to refund the money, or deliver such property to his assignee in bankruptcy, unless by the use of the property, she had allowed him to defraud, or obtain a false or fictitious credit.

Cardell vs. Ryder 36 Vt. 47.

In Equity she was a creditor of her husband, equally with other creditors. They had no priority over her, and if she had retained her husband's note, given her by him Jan. 1874, for $2000, instead of accepting the Forbes' note in payment, she probably would have been allowed to prove it in bankruptcy against her husband's estate.

I have allowed the wife, in several cases, to prove a note given her by her husband for a loan to him by her, out of her separate estate, against his estate in bankruptcy.

He might pay her such a debt in preference to paying other creditors; and his assignee could not avoid such a payment, and recover back the money paid, unless the payment was made within four months of the filing of the petition in bankruptcy.

This case is quite different and distinguishable from the case of Haines vs. Scroggs, cited by complainant's counsel, 4th Otto 224 (94th U. S. Rep. 22.)

In that case, say the court "neither the husband, nor wife testifies that there was any agreement, that the husband should hold these sums as and for the separate estate of his wife."

"On the contrary the moneys were held and used by the husband for nearly fifteen years as his own property, and mingled with his personal and partnership affairs"

But in this case the money was in the wife's possession, and was treated by her and her husband as the wife's separate estate, and was only loaned to the husband upon his agreement to repay it to her with interest. He never treated it as his own money.

Again, it has been several times decided, that in cases free from fraud, the assignee in bankruptcy takes only the rights of the bankrupt.

In re C. H. Wynne 4 B. R. 5.
In re Dow 6 B. R. 10.
Mitchell vs. Winslow et al 2 Story 630-1.

Now it is quite apparent, that Horatio N. Allen, before his bankruptcy, and after he had made a settlement with Betsey Allen, and had deposited the Forbes note with Wilder as her trustee, could not have withdrawn the Forbes note out of Wilder's hands, without her consent, and there being no fraud in the transaction, his assignee could not do what he could not.

Bill dismissed with costs.

Henry Heywood for complainant; Ray, Drew & Heywood for Forbes, and Betsey and Horatio N. Allen; Hatch for Wilder.

News and Notes.

As we have plenty of army officers, considering the number of privates in the army, perhaps it might be well enough to close the West Point academy until it is definitely ascertained who of the cadets were guilty of the Whittaker outrage.

Michael Muller, a laborer on the New Haven & Northampton railroad extension at Deerfield, Mass., was killed by an explosion of nitro-glycerine on the 14th inst. Another man had two ribs broken by a heavily loaded team running over him in consequence of the explosion.

Fred Warren shot and instantly killed Mason Wilson at Montrose, Pa., Thursday, April 15th. Both are young married men.

As the St. Louis express train was leaving Sedalia, Mo., Wednesday night, the 14th inst., a Mr. Jones, a large cattle dealer from Colorado, on route for Kentucky to purchase stock, was suddenly assaulted by four men, and before he could give the alarm they robbed him of $5,200 in cash, and certificates of deposit on the Drovers' bank of Chicago for $1,986. In their haste the robbers overlooked $2,500 in money, and $15,000 worth of checks, drafts, etc., in a side vest pocket. The robbers are supposed to have come from Kansas City, and are thought to have gone west with their booty.

The Hanlan-Courtney boat race is fixed for May 19th on the Potomac river.

Mrs. Sarah Nimmo, for several years a resident of Lowell, Mass., through the means of an advertisement has discovered the whereabouts of her husband, whom she had not seen for over five years, and her daughter, now a young lady of fifteen, whom her husband took with him when, as is claimed, he abandoned his wife. He was found at Pittston, Pa., in company with another woman, to whom he had been married, he claiming to have procured a divorce from Mrs. Nimmo No. 1 on the ground of drunkenness. Mr. Nimmo was arrested on a charge of adultery, and placed under $500 bonds. An effort will be made to recover the child; also to nullify the divorce, on the ground that Mrs. Nimmo was not duly notified of her husband's application for divorce.

The jury in the case of Joseph M. Kalooosy, on trial at St. Louis, Mo., for several days, for shooting Augusta Simon, a girl who would not marry him, in October, 1878, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree on the 15th inst.

The wife of Geore Francis of Detroit has been arrested for the murder of her husband, a negro, by chopping off his head with an axe during a quarrel he had with a man named Corsey, in Francis' house, he being jealous of Corsey. The body of Francis, after the murder, was thrown into a ditch. A child of Francis was present and divulged the facts.

The case of the state of Connecticut against William W. Bromham, charged with an attempt to murder his brother Edward, has been settled at New Haven by a nolle prosequi. The two brothers were out sailing on the sound when Edward suddenly found himself in the water, but swam to the shore a mile away. His claim that his brother pushed him over seems to have been in anger at a wet skin, as there was no motive for such a deed, and the family jar is quieted.

Steamer Mercator, bound from Antwerp for New Nork, left the former port March 4th and has not since been heard of; she is supposed to have gone down with all hands. She was an iron vessel, built on the Clyde in 1877, and registered 1958 tons. The mortality among British-built iron steamships for two or three years past has been very great.

On Saturday, April 10th, the British steamer Alnwick Castle, bound for Venezuela, entered the river Elbe. The vessel, from the nature of the cargo, attracted the attention of the Peruvian consul there. She had a large quantity of war material, and intended to take 100 tons of powder at Hamburg, and then proceed to Valparaiso. While at anchor in the river she took fire, and had to be scuttled to prevent an explosion. The ship and cargo, which included a number of Krupp guns, were insured in London and Hamburg for £137,000. The Peruvian consul will proceed against the owners of the vessel.

Few details have yet been received of the loss of 190 persons who went down in the steamship Vingoria between Bombay and Kurrachee on the 28th of February. Ninety-six persons were saved, among whom was the captain's wife, Mrs. Stewart. He, poor man, was drowned, or rather went to the bottom with his ship, which sank bodily. Some unknown but tremendous leak was the cause of this terrible catastrophe. The hold had already fifteen feet of water when it was discovered, and no cause assignable or visible.

Gortschakoff, the Russian statesman, is very ill, and it is reported cannot recover.

New Hampshire Items.

Seth Potter's barn and its contents at Concord were burned last Thursday. Loss $1,000; insured $1,200.

The annual examination of the New Hampshire state reform school occurred Thursday afternoon, in the presence of a large audience of distinguished people from various parts of the state. The exercises consisted of reading, recitations, declamations and singing, and showed marked progress in various branches. There are one hundred and twelve boys and sixteen girls in the institution. Six boy were honorably discharged for meritorious conduct. Prizes were distributed among the inmates by Hon. Daniel Clark, one of the trustees, for good deportment and progress in the various branches. Speeches were made by several distinguished gentlemen.

Lindall E. Hoyt, who is charged with the recent shooting and attempted robbery of Jefferson Healey at East Candia, has been arrested at Auburn, Me. Hoyt is wanted, in addition to the attack upon Healey, to answer to various charges of robbery and other crimes in this county.

Col. Darling of Blue Hill, Me., is at Milan, N. H., with a crew of men, erecting a boarding house and getting apparatus and machinery ready to operate the Fogg mine. The ore will be taken to Portland, and shipped thence to Baltimore, where it will be crushed.

Naval Gazette.

Lieutenant Charles M. Thomas is ordered to examination for promotion; Lieutenant A. H. Vail to duty at the naval observatory; Master V. L. Cottman to the Colorado; Midshipman Frank M. Bostwick to the Lackawanna, at Mare island; Carpenter John McFarlane from the Onward at Callao, Peru, home.

Passed Assistant Engineer Wm. L. Bailie has been ordered to the New York navy yard; Passed Assistant Engineer Levi T. Safford to hold himself in readiness for sea service; Sailmaker Garrett Van Mater to equipment duty at the Boston navy yard.

Master Jno. H. Bull has been detached from the Franklin and ordered to the Powhatan; Master Jno. B. Collins from the Powhatan and placed on waiting orders; Passed Assistant Paymaster Lawrence G. Boggs from duty in the bureau of provisions and clothing, and ordered to duty at New London; Passed Assistant Paymaster Jno. N. Speel from New London, and ordered to settle accounts; Assistant Engineer H. Herwig from duty in the bureau of steam engineering, and placed on waiting orders; Sailmaker Jno. Martin from the Boston navy yard, and ordered to the Constitution; Sailmaker Herman Hansen from the Constitution, and placed on waiting orders.

Barton's "Suit in Equity."

History of a suit in equity, from its commencement to its final termination; by Charles Barton. Revised and enlarged, with forms of bills, answers, pleas, demurrers, and decrees, by James P. Holcombe. With an appendix, containing the rules of practice for the courts of equity of the United States, revised to 1877, the statute laws of the United States relating to equity in force in 1877, and the ordinances of Lord Bacon. Published by Robt. Clark & Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio; 8vo.; 1877. Price $2.50.

This is a reprint of a standard work, which is of special interest to members of the legal profession. The equity practice of this state has largely increased of late years. Upon the equity docket of both the state and federal courts are by far a larger number of cases than ever before, and the young lawyer is called upon in almost his first case, perhaps, to bring a bill in equity or to defend such a suit.

Barton is an authority in this branch of the practice of the law. The rules of practice of the courts of equity of the United States makes this a valuable book to practitioners in this state. The book has received the commendation of the leading judges and lawyers of this country, as well as the favorable criticisms of the leading law journals.

It is sent postpaid upon receipt of the price remitted to the publishers, No. 65 West Fourth street, Cincinnati.

WILL BE SOLD ON SATURDAY, April 17th, at 11 o'clock A. M., by order of Probate Court.
THE WILLIAM D. DURGIN FARM
Situated on Gravelly ridge and the Dennett road. Said farm contains about nine acres, and has a good HOUSE of nine rooms, wit Woodshed attached; two WELLS OF WATER at the door, for house and barn; plenty of FRUIT of the various kinds,—grapes, etc.; and good BARN, with cellar under it. Has kept four cows and a horse. School very near; farm about one and a half miles from Market square.
Also, at the time and place, will be sold one horse, wagon, sleigh and harness, parlor stove, grindstone, plough, harrow, cultivator, etc.

Stores on Bow Street,
AT AUCTION.
WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION on the premises at No. 14 Bow street, on Saturday, May 8th, at 12 o'clock, noon,
THE TWO BRICK STORES,
Formerly leased and occupied by CHAS. ROBINSON & SON. These buildings have Basement Stores in the rear, where is a wharf privilege. The buildings can be fitted for tenants or for manufacturing purposes. A liberal portion of the purchase money can remain on mortgage, if desired. The estate is owned by a resident in a distant city, and is sold on that account, and the opportunity to secure premises which can be made to pay so good investment upon the outlay is one not often seen. Further particulars of WM. H. HACKETT, Atty for the heirs of GEO. JAFFREY, ESQ., or of
H. F. WENDELL, Auctioneer.
April 8th, 1880.

Valuable Real Estate at Auction
IN KITTERY.
THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of May next, at half-past two o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.
The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equal distant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.
Adjoining is a lot of land 55 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.
At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Stinson street containing 35,640 square feet.
Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.
After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family do-se, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, single and double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.
The above sale is made by reason of SER. GEANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.
For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEW S of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

AROUND HOME.

The board of assessors has elected Geo. W. Pendexter, Esq., chairman, vice Mr. Rufus K. Oxford, deceased.

Messrs. T. E. O. Marvin, Charles H. Joy and J. C. Carr have been drawn as jurymen from ward two, to report at Exeter on the 26th inst.

E. S. Fay, clothing dealer, sends around a pen with a glass holder whereon he invites the purchase of boots, hats and clothing at No. 3 Congress street.

Major Augustus S. Nicholson, adjutant and inspector of the United States marine corps, made an official visit to the marine barracks at this naval station on Friday.

William Bennett of East Rochester, who has long been leader and main stay of the Rochester cornet band, has moved to this city, having secured a position in one of the shoe factories.

Sullivan & Co.'s fish market, corner of Bow and Penballow streets, has recently been very nicely refitted, painted, and put in first-class condition generally; the firm keep on sale all kinds of fresh and corned fish, lobsters, etc.

Rev. Edward A. Rand has written another book for the young folks, called "Pushing ahead, or big Brother Dave." It is number one of a "School and camp series," and is to be immediately issued by D. Lothrop & Co., of Boston.

The United States district court having allowed the claim of C. Warren Brown against the individual estate of James M. Carr, one of the partners of the late firm of Hill & Carr, bankrupts, the assignee has appealed from the order of allowance, to the circuit court of the United States.

Mary Anderson and Maggie Mitchell will both appear in this city early in May. It is said that Mary Anderson has cleared about $45,000 this season; the most profitable weeks were those she passed in Chicago, immediately after that unfortunate shooting affair in Cincinnati.

Joseph Henry Otis, the suspected murderer of Peter Devall, arrived at Dover on Friday, in charge of Sheriff Greenfield. The prisoner was arraigned in the police court, waived examination, and was fully committed without bail to answer at the September term of the supreme court for Strafford county.

The United States steamer Tallapoosa, from this port for Washington navy yard, and the schooner Dreadnaught, Griffin, from Philadelphia for this port, which put into Vineyard Haven on the 12th inst. to make temporary repairs, having been in collision on the previous night, both sailed for their respective destinations on the 14th. The steamer's stem was split and her wood-ends started, and the schooner was cut down nearly to the water's edge on the port quarter, by the collision.

POLICE COURT.

John Clark and Edward Clark were before the court on Friday for drunkenness, and were each assessed $9.90, fine and costs. Neither could pay, so both were ordered to Brentwood.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

City marshal's quarterly report was presented, and referred to proper committee.

The regular monthly bills were ordered to be paid.

Bill of City Physician Grant for attendance on prisoners was referred to the committee on claims, to report.

Consideration of request of assessors for extra compensation was postponed one week, and it was voted that the chairman of the board of assessors be invited to appear before the aldermen and explain.

Voted to make repairs to floor of city building.

Subject of repairs of Franklin school-house was referred to a committee to report.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

Of the thirty-seven indictments returned by the grand jury on Thursday, seventeen were for infractions of the liquor law.

FRIDAY, April 16th.

The court was occupied in the trial of case Berry vs. town of Madbury, suit to recover for damages received from an alleged defect in the highway. Frink and Hatch for plaintiff; Marston and Thomas J. Leavitt of Dover for town.

RUFUS KITTREDGE OXFORD.

Mr. Rufus K. Oxford, whose death has been announced in our paper, was for many years known as an active business man in our community. He began his business career as a clerk in the grocery store of Benjamin Carter. About thirty years ago he left Mr. Carter's store, then in the building now the Rockingham National bank, went into co-partnership with our opposite neighbor, Samuel W. Moses, (who had been previously one of the publishers of the NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE, in the building opposite our office,) and opened a grocery store at No. 14 Pleasant street. Subsequently the firm dissolved, and each partner started in business upon his own account, Mr. Oxford taking the store in Treadwell's building, No. 62 State street, and Mr. Moses retaining the old stand. Mr. Oxford subsequently removed to the store beneath the present office of the Daily Times, No. 72 State street, and again to the upper part of Middle street.

He was always an upright business man. He was well known in Boston as a prompt and successful dealer, and a good buyer. During all these years he attended closely to his business. For many years he was the sexton of the North church, and in his time the bell had to be rung in the summer months at five o'clock in the morning, as well as at one o'clock in the afternoon and nine in the evening. Mr. Oxford's business was near the church, and he was never tardy in this duty or in any other.

Later he served the city as one of the board of overseers of the poor, and subsequently as an assessor of taxes.

Few men among us have so constantly and uninterruptedly labored at their calling as has Mr. Oxford. He never was idle, and his strict attention to business was rewarded by attainment of a comfortable competence. Of late years, this career of constant toil seemed to tell upon his constitution, and he shew symptoms of decline in health. At the time of his death he was chairman of the board of assessors.

BOYS--ATTENTION!!

The time of the singing of birds has come, and in a very short time they will be building their nests and laying their eggs. And upon this subject we wish to say a few serous words to both boys and their parents.

An evil fashion which we hoped had died out—which we believe has died among nearly all enlightened communities—has, we are sorry to find, been revived here for the last year or two. We mean the cruel practice of bird-nesting, and of making collection of birds' eggs.

Rough, careless and cruel boys seize nest and eggs together, regardless of the mischief they do, and of the agony and screams of the parent birds. Such boys as these are insensible to reason or to pity, and can only be restrained by force and by punishment. But many others, not wilfully cruel or mischievous, have been drawn into the pursuit by the widely, prevailing idea that there is no harm in taking one egg from a nest. That this is a great mistake we desire to show. In the first place, every egg stolen makes one bird less in the world. This is no trifling matter. Considering how much birds add to the beauty and joy of summer, and how much good they do by the destruction of noxious insects, it is undeniable that every one killed or destroyed is a loss to the world; not to mention the destruction of so much real happiness as is bound up in the life of a bird.

But secondly, what one boy does another may do, and if Tom, Dick and Harry may each take one egg, how long will it be before the nest is emptied? A nest once visited is never safe again; for each boy will follow the others' lead, and argue that he has as good a right to his one egg as his school-fellow.

Third. The climbing up and looking into the nests, even if no eggs are taken, always alarms the parent birds, causes them distress and anxiety, and if often repeated will usually lead to their abandoning the nest. Some species always do so if disturbed or frightened. It is thoroughly unkind and selfish to do anything of the sort.

Fourth. This whole matter is against the law. Every boy who takes from a nest a single egg, or even has in his possession an egg taken by another, violates a law of the land as much as if he stole from his neighbor, or had stolen goods in his possession. We would like to ask those respectable, law-abiding citizens, who allow their boys to collect eggs, if they realize that they are bringing them up to despise, and elude or defy the plain law of the land? Yet this is what they are doing; and every boy who indulges himself in this cruel and injurious pastime, whether he takes one egg or a dozen, renders himself liable to be arrested, and fined five dollars for every such egg. And it is not the intention of the authorities that the law shall remain a dead letter. Our feathered wards must be protected from destruction and from annoyance; and boys who cannot be reasoned into renouncing this cruel pursuit, must expect to incur the penalty of the trangressor. How much better if they would all join in protecting these happy and beautiful little creatures, and feel pride and pleasure in being able to say that in Portsmouth the birds are both plenty and tame, because no such thing a shooting or nest-robbing is known.

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery.

The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn:—

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 1

COCA BEEF TONIC.

Highest Medals. Indorsed and Prescribed by Medical Men of all Schools.

Professor Duncan Campbell, M.D., LL.D., President Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, etc., etc., says: "It has more than realized my expectations."

Professor J. M. Carnochan, M.D., Professor of Surgery New York Medical College, says: "My patients derive marked and decided benefit from it."

Professor H. Goullon, M.D., Physician to the Grand Duke of Saxony; Knight of the Holy Cross, etc., says: "It gives more tone than anything I have ever prescribed."

Sir Robert Christison, M.D., LL.D., F.R.S., Physician to her Majesty the Queen; President Royal British Association, etc., etc., says: "The properties of the Coca are the most remarkable of any known to the medical world. From repeated personal trials I am convinced that its use is highly beneficial and tonic."

Valuable in malaria; ague; malarial debility; dumbague; low fever; marasmus; paralytic; spinal and nervous affections; female weaknesses; bilious and liver affections; weak throats; palpitation and other affections of the heart; epilepsy or falling sickness; weakness of the voice of actors, singers, public speakers and clergymen; colic; flatulency; seasickness; falling out of the hair; asthma; shortness of breath; wasting diseases; etc., etc. It is gratefully refreshing and restorative after prolonged mental and physical strain. It is pleasant and agreeable, and is readily retained by the most delicate stomach. Dr. McBean (British Medical Journal) found it of great service in consumption. Baron von Humboldt says he has never known a case of consumption or asthma among those accustomed to its use, and that they live to a great age, retaining their mental and physical faculties to the last (Cosmos).

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15th.

Forney's Chronicle, of this city, has caused a panic among the Grant men by declaring that if the Pennsylvania delegation to the Chicago convention votes as a unit at all, it will be for Blaine; and that if it divides, thirty votes will be cast for Blaine on the first ballot. Forney is good authority on Pennsylvania politics, and he says a revolution is going on there which will take the control out of Cameron's hands, if the senator persists in trying to boom for Grant.

The senate has, so far as it had authority to do, approved the Ute Indian agreement of Secretary Schurz. It has provided, however, that three-fourths of the adult Indians of the tribes must endorse the agreement before it shall go into effect. The manner of endorsement is not provided for, and I think it will puzzle the Indian bureau to get an intelligent and reliable expression of opinion from the Indians.

The Isthmus canal, as a subject before congress, has suddenly disappeared, with all those who are interested in it. This being a political year, perhaps all hope of any action is abandoned. Captain Eades' plan for a ship railway is very favorably considered by members, and it may be that some action will be taken toward promoting that enterprise.

Delegate Downey, of Wyoming, wants to have some religious pictures placed in the national capitol. Yesterday he introduced a bill in the house providing for an appropriation of $500,000 to commemorate (in suitable paintings to be placed upon the walls of the national capitol) the birth, life and death of our Saviour, as told in the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

The house held its first night session for the consideration of private pension claims on the evening of the 13th. As usual but little progress was made, although the House was in session fully five hours. There are about 2000 pension claims upon the calender of the house, but there won't be fifty of them passed upon at this session. KNOX.

London Times says: "It is probable that the training ship Atalanta has met with some grave mishap, but there are many misadventures short of total destruction, which might account for her disappearance. The report that the steamer Tamar passed a copper-bottomed ship, capsized, is contradicted by her captain."

At Harrisburg, Pa., April 15th, Geo. Yost and A. Westbrooke were fatally and four others seriously burned by the upsetting of a retort of molten iron at the Pennsylvania steel works.

Ghosts.

Not Col. Ingersoll's "aristocracy of the air," but real human ghosts. Ghosts that were once healthy men and women, but are now simply the "ghosts of what they once were." As we meet them, and inquire the cause of all this change, they repeat the old, old story, "a cold," "neglected cough," "catarrh," "overwork," or "dyspepsia," "liver complaint," and "constipation," with unsuccessful physicians and remedies. In offering his Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the cure of the above affections, Dr. Pierce does not recommend them as a "sure cure" in all stages. For if the lungs be half wasted away, or there be a cancerous complication, no physician or medicine can cure. The Discovery is, however, an unequaled pectoral and blood-purifier. It speedily cures the most aggravated cough, or cold, and in its early or middle stages, consumption. By correcting all irregularities of the stomach and liver, it readily cures blotches, pimples, scrofulous ulcers, "bunches," or tumors. Hundreds testify that it has restored their health, after eminent physicians had failed. For constipation, use the Pellets. As a local remedy for catarrh, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

—About this time "the old man" tells his daughter that as cows ain't about yet to stray into the yard, there's no thundering hurry about hanging the gate. That's how the matter looks from his standpoint.

A food and a medicine are combined in the most perfect manner in Malt Bitters.

Cuticura
THE GREAT SKIN CURE,
Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pushes, Chin Whelk, Pearly Lepra, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns; Itching Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness; in all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but become I continued using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried a thousand of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.
1313 BUTTERFIELD ST.,
CHICAGO, ILL., March 4, 1879.

CUTICURA SOAP,
Medicinal and Toilet.

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the Skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, and for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents, three cakes, 75 cents.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wineglassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

KIDNEY-WORT
The Only Remedy
THAT ACTS AT THE SAME TIME ON
THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS.
This combined action gives it wonderful power to cure all diseases.
Why Are We Sick?
Because we allow these great organs to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are thereby forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.
KIDNEY-WORT WILL CURE
BILIOUSNESS, PILES, CONSTIPATION, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, URINARY DISEASES, FEMALE WEAKNESSES, AND NERVOUS DISORDERS, by causing free action of these organs and restoring their power to throw off disease.
Why Suffer Bilious pains and aches?
Why harass with Piles, Constipation?
Why fear fever and ague? Why endure kidney and bladder complaints?
Why have sleepless nights?
Use KIDNEY-WORT and rejoice in health. It is a dry vegetable compound and one package will make six quart of Medicine. It is as easily carried as tea, and will cure as much for you. Price $1.25.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION; Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

IT is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to grizzly, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

Like a prune taken at bed-time sold by druggists everywhere. The production is carefully watched and beautiful. Physicians recommend them. Druggists keep them.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and Chronic Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley MALT and Fresh HOP, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build healthy tissue, the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive liver, kidneys and bowels, acute and neglected coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and recommend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irascible in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 19, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, ESQ.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our Society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

NICHOLAS A. BRIGGS, JOSEPH WOODS, Trustees.

New Variety of Cabbage.

George Abrahams was extravagantly fond of cold cabbage, and one day seeing that quite a dishful was left after dinner asked his wife to save it for his salad at night.

About midnight George came home laboring under a stress of heavy weather. Feeling hungry, and thinking of his favorite cabbage, he asked where it was.

His wife replied, "In the pantry on the second shelf."

Down he went, found the cabbage, got out the oil, mustard and vinegar, cut up the cabbage, dressed it to the Queen's taste and ate it all.

In the morning his wife noticed the plate of cabbage where she had placed it the day before, and turning to her "Dear George" innocently asked why he did not eat the cabbage.

"I did," he said.

"How did you like it?"

"Oh! not very well; it was tough and stringy."

"But here is the cabbage now; where did you find any more!"

"Why on the second shelf, where you told me."

A quick look at the shelf by the wife, and then a cry of agony.

"Why, George, you have eaten $20 worth of lace collars and cuffs that I had put in my starch; stringy cabbage indeed!"

Thousands of women have been entirely cured of the most stubborn cases of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—The great discrepancy between Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen's age is given by the Atlanta Constitution in few words. He is sixty-three and she is red-headed.

Profit, $1,200.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."—New England Farmer.

—We are told that "General Sherman was always coolest when on the point of attack." Most people are the hottest when on the point of a tack.

During life, to be happy, we must be healthy and protect ourselves from coughs and colds. They are the halters that lead many to untimely graves. Adamson's Botanic Balsam cures every time. Price, 35 and 75 cts. Trial size, 10 cts.

—A young wife, with one child, living at Jamestown, N. Y., was sold to another man by her husband for $50. She is now at the home of her prospective father-in-law, waiting for the son to earn money to close the contract.

Medicinal Wine.

Physicians from the New York Board of Health have visited the Vineyards and Wine Cellars of Alfred Speer of New Jersey, but twelve miles from New York city; he is known to be one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Medicinal Wines and Brandies in the United States. He makes a Superior Port, known as Speer's Port Grape Wine, which took the highest premium at the Centennial. It is extensively prescribed by physicians as the most reliable Port for medicinal purposes.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

—Thomas McElrath, of Marlborough, a victim of insomnia, has not slept for twelve years, and offers a liberal reward for a cure. We recommend him to join a police force.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Were man to conform more to the laws of health and of nature, and be less addicted to the gratification of his passions, it would not be necessary to advertise Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites as a restorative for the powers of the brain and nervous system, while the word's progress in enlightenment would indeed be marvellous.

—"There will be no clubs in the next world," says a woman's journal. But how can you play whist with a pack having only three suits?

Every Invalid a Druggist.

By buying the new and popular medicine Kidney-Wort, you get in each package enough of the dry compound to make six quarts of medicine, thus saving double the money which is usually paid for medicine, prepared on liquid. It is a specific cure for Kidney and Liver diseases.

—A Brooklyn man stole up behind a lady in a dark room and kissed her, and when he found it was his wife, and she found it was her husband, they were both as mad as wet hens.

Water is Free.

That's so, but in most patent medicines you pay for it at the rate of a dollar a pint. Kidney-Wort is a dry compound and one package is enough to make six quarts of medicine without addition of any poisonous liquors. It is nature's remedy for Kidney Diseases, Liver complaint and Piles, for it is both diuretic and cathartic, tonic and healing. Get it to-day.

—Lawyer E—— (entering the office of his friend Dr. M——, and speaking in a hoarse whisper): "Fred, I've got such a cold this morning that I can't speak the truth." Dr. M——, "Well I'm glad that it's nothing that will interfere with your business."

Nutrition improved, strength restored and disease arrested by Malt Bitters.

Child Murder in Massachusetts.

Mrs. John Driscoll, of Malden, Mass., was arrested on Saturday on suspicion of murdering the little daughter of John Credon, her next-door neighbor, at noon on the previous Thursday. The little girl, Mary Credon, about three years and a half old, was seen to enter Driscoll's house with a little son of Driscoll's, Thursday noon; her dead body was found near the Boston & Maine railroad track in Malden, Saturday morning, with the skull smashed in two places. The body had evidently been carried some distance in a sack, which was found near by.

News and Notes.

On Friday last Nathan Faucet and Jacob Muldrow, colored, were hanged at Mexico, Mo., for the murder of Octave Julow in September, 1879; William S. Bates, white, was hanged at Barnwell Court House, S. C., for the murder of Stephen W. Bush at a dance, Christmas evening; and Bill Walker, colored, was hanged at Calvret, Texas, for the murder of an old man in 1879.

Wheelright & Clark of Bangor, Me., have been awarded the contract to uniform the whole of the Maine militia.

The wife of an Irish tenant was discovered the other day taking bits of wood from a forest owned by the Marquis of Landsowne. The bailiff testified that the value of the wood might be one penny, not more. She was arrested, fined three shillings, and was going to jail from inability to pay, when her sick husband rose from bed, and walked a long distance to collect the amount from a debtor. He was already so weak from hunger that the exertion proved fatal. A jury of inquest found that he died "from destitution and insufficiency of food."

A farmer named Myles, living at Marshall, Ill., shot a man by the name of Tousley, dead on Sunday. The deed was caused, as Myles alleges, from Tousley being to familiar with Myles' wife.

During the prevalence of a heavy gale, Saturday, on the lakes, one vessel was sunk and several badly damaged; at Buffalo, N. Y., Ephriam Trumbly, one of the crew of the Miami Belle, was drowned.

Saturday afternoon Col. John R. Popham, proprietor of the Southern Intelligencer in Richmond, had an altercation with his business manager, R. G. Agree, during which Agree assaulted Popham, and the latter shot Agree in the head, inflicting an ugly scalp wound. Col. Popham surrendered himself to an officer, and furnished bail for his appearance on Monday morning at court.

In the mandamus suit of the Portland, Me., City Item, to compel the city clerk to exhibit the record of intentions of marriage, Judge Peters granted the writ.

At Hartford, Conn., April 17th, the fifth trial of Wm. Allen for the murder of Shipman, watchman at the state prison, ended in a verdict of murder in the second degree, and Judge Parsee sentenced him to state prison for life. Hamlin, Allen's confederate, is to be hung May 28th.

By the explosion of the giant-powder works at district Berkely, opposite San Francisco, Friday, twelve white men and about the same number of Chinamen were killed, their bodies being blown to atoms.

Steamer Rhode Island of the Providence line, was run into and damaged last Friday night on the sound by an unknown schooner, and was towed into Huntington harbor by the steamer Narragansett, which also took the disabled vessel's passengers on to Stonington.

The latest proposed submarine cable is to be purely American. The company is composed chiefly of New York and Philadelphia merchants. Its capital stock is fixed at $4,000,000, for which a London company offers to lay a complete working cable. England grants perpetual right of lands and operating, and the Washington government has, it is said, granted executive permission. A land station is proposed to be erected on the island of St. Pierre. France must therefore be consulted before the route is entirely clear.—St. John Globe.

New Hampshire Items.

Hon. E. A. Rollins of Philadelphia, formerly of Somersworth, N.H., has established for a period of five years annual prizes of $40, $30, $20 and $10 respectively, for excellence in elocution in Dartmouth college.

Davis & Sargent's log drive left Plymouth on Friday, having been encamped nearly a week at Livermore Falls, and greatly delayed by low water. The previous freshet scattered the timber badly on the intervale and banks.

Claud E. Partridge of Minot, Me., died from injuries received Friday while assisting in making up a freight train in the Grand Trunk yard at Gorham, N. H., thirteen cars passing over him. He was a brakeman, and unmarried.

George O. Hall of Grafton, who acknowledged his complicity in connection with the recent tragical death of Miss Lucy M. Green, has been arrested and lodged in jail at Newport to await the result of the adjourned inquest. The excitement over the affair continues, and a majority of the citizens express sympathy for Hall, while others believe that the accused has not told the whole truth, and that more guilt attaches to him than he has confessed.

Levi Powers, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Salmon Falls, died Saturday morning of paralysis, at the age of eighty-nine years. He was a veteran of the war of 1812, and probably the oldest Freemason in New England, having been a member of the fraternity for sixty-four years.

The store of S. F. Hook of Grantham was recently broken into, and goods and money carried away to the value of $300.

Naval Gazette.

Commodore A. C. Rhind is ordered to duty as president of the board of inspection.

Ensign George E. Hutter has reported his return home, and been granted five months leave.

Boatswain Andrew Milne is ordered from the Powhatan to the Portsmouth; Boatswain William E. Cooper from the Washington navy yard to the Powhatan; Boatswain John S. Sinclair from the Portsmouth, and placed on waiting orders.

The leave of Commodore A. G. Clary has been extended one year, with permission to remain abroad. Leave for one year is granted Lieutenant James A. Chesley.

Medical Director A. L. Gihon is detached from the hospital at Norfolk, and placed on waiting orders.

Lieut. F. H. Harrington, U. S. M. C., assisted by some of the marine and naval officers stationed at Norfolk, Va., has raised a fund and purchased suitable marble slabs to mark the grave of Capt. Richard T. Renshaw, U. S. N., who died in indigent circumstances in Portsmouth, Va., last year.

Political.

The republican state convention of Massachusetts listened to rather dreary speeches from Boutwell and Banks, two time-honored pensioners upon the republican party, and then voted two to one against their proposition.

A meeting of the Maine greenback state committee was held at Portland on Friday evening. Considerable discussion occurred over a choice of candidate for governor, but Prince A. Sawyer, late fusion secretary of state, was finally selected. Their state convention will be held at Bangor, June 15.

A Mixed-Up Trial.

An incident curiously illustrative of French criminal procedure recently occurred at the assizes in the department of the Oise. A blacksmith named Clabaut was being tried for the murder of a priest; there was no doubt that he had committed the crime, but medical evidence on his sanity was very conflicting. In accordance with the French practice, the procurer of the republic rose, after the witnesses had been examined, to reply upon the whole case; but instead of pressing for a conviction, he told the jury that he felt convinced that the prisoner was not responsible for his actions, and called upon them to acquit him. He went on to say that though it was a generally accepted theory that the public prosecutor should endeavor to obtain a conviction, however assured he might feel of the prisoner's innocence, he could not reconcile it to his conscience to do so, and added that he would rather throw off his magisterial gown than outrage what he believed to be the truth. The counsel for the defense having followed in the same sense, the presiding judge proceeded to sum up; but instead of placing the two sides of the case before the jury, he declared that "though the procurer of the republic had deserted his post, society should not be left defenseless;" and he thereupon proceeded to bring out all the points which told against the prisoner, dwelling on his bad antecedents, and ending by his reading the evidence of the doctors who had pronounced him insane. He even went so far as to depict to the jury the injury which the prisoner, if acquitted on the score of insanity, might inflict on the asylum to which he would be legally detained, and finally adjured them not to forget "the God of expiation and of justice." The jury returned a verdict of guilty with extenuating circumstances, and Clabaut was sentenced to penal servitude for life.

—It is strongly suspected that it was Ananias who invented the circus poster.

—Filagree gold and cameo ornaments are among the newest of the ornaments used in millinery.

—When a Wisconsin man sits up in his coffin and demands to know what the racket is, the chief mourner says—"Sarsaparilla, sir, we're performing our melancholy duty to a deceased friend, and if you try to kick up a disturbance or do anything to mar the solemnity of the occasion, you'll get hurt." And then "the corpse" is jammed down into the coffin again and the lid screwed on. They can't afford after funeral bills have been paid to have the money wasted, especially as Wisconsin men are not usually worth two funeral bills.

—A serious drawback—A blister between your shoulders.

—Poor Adam had no choice when he felt matrimonially inclined. He had to take the first woman he came across.

—Judge John Rice has been figuring in the papers of late, and we are reminded of a story current concerning him and the late war. He was a very violent secessionist, and in a speech urging secession said: "Why, —— the Yankees! If they show fight we can whip them with pop-guns." A short time after the war Judge Rice was making a speech at the same cross-roads where he had made his boasting speech before the war. One of the audience asked him if he was not the same Judge Rice that spoke there in 1860. "I am," he replied. "Well, didn't you say that we could whip the Yankees with pop-guns?" "I did, and we could have done it; but, ——'em, they wouldn't fight us that way!"

—It is said that a Westfield young man and woman who were married a few day's since took a somewhat novel way of having the ceremony performed. They secured the proper official permits and then drove to a clergyman's in an adjoining town. He was called to the door and the couple in the carriage told him their business. Of course they were invited into the parsonage, but declined, and asked if the ceremony could not be performed with them seated in the carriage. The clergyman finally consented and went through the usual formula. Soon as it was concluded the young man handed over the fee, gave the horse a crack with the whip and started on his bridal tour back to Westfield.

—A young student on the eve of his departure to study law at Paris received from his uncle a code which was to be one of his text-books at college. "If you are faithful," said the old gentleman, "I will make you a fine present." Visiting Paris some months later, he called upon his nephew and asked him how he was pleased with his gift. "But, I have received nothing," said the nephew. "Let me look at your code," was the response. The book was produced and between the leaves of the first chapter a bank note for 500 francs was discovered, which had not been found by the faithful disciple of Justinian. This was speedily restored to the pocket of the old gentleman.

—A philosopher, like all philosophers, was poor. At times he was hungry, at all times he was ragged. He offered to a Pasha to teach his donkey to read in five years. But during the difficult task he was to be clothed in purple and fine linen, fed on the best and lodged in a palace. If he failed the penalty was death. One day an old friend met him leading forth the donkey to the grove to where his lessons were supposed to be given, and he said, "Surely you do not expect that ass to read?" The philosopher, putting his thumb to his nose, winked one of his learned eyes and said nothing. "But," continued the friend, "if you fail, at the end of five years you will surely be strangled." "My friend," responded the philosopher, "you forget that in that time the ass may die."

There is no awkwardness in a kiss,
Unless your teeth are just like pearls,
Then would you share its trembling bliss,
Use SOZODONT at once, sweet girls;
For it alone gives to the mouth,
White teeth and fragrance of the South.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has naturally devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has specially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels, in consequence of this we say Mrs. Winslow is to be one of the most renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, to its exhaustion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Leader Finder, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Valuable Real Estate at Auction IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps, will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equidistant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, be led by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large wood-shed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and can be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Stimson street containing 35,000 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, single double harnesses, single harnesses, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERGEANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & Co., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEW S of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application

All voters contemplating moving from one ward to another, should do so on or before the first day of May; otherwise they will lose their vote for president in November, as the law requires six months residence in a ward or town before a person can exercise the elective franchise.

Lindall Hoyt was brought to this city from Lewiston, Me., by Sheriff Kent, on Saturday, and lodged in jail. Hoyt has been indicted by the grand jury for breaking and entering the Boston & Maine depot at Newmarket last December, and stealing money and tickets. He will be taken to Exeter to-day.

If people care anything about knowing whether milk is watered all they have to do is to dip a well-polished knitting-needle into a deep vessel of milk and withdraw it immediately in an upright position. If the milk is pure some of it will hang to the needle, but if water has been added, even in small proportions, the fluid will not adhere.

Col. James H. Jones, U. S. M. C., formerly for several years in command of the marine barracks at this naval station, but recently commanding at the Charlestown yard, died at the latter place on Saturday morning last of pneumonia, at the age of sixty years. He was one of the pall-bearers at the funeral of Rear Admiral Thatcher, and at that time contracted a violent cold which resulted in his death.

George C. Davenport and Miss Emma Abby, both of whom appeared on the stage at Music hall in this city a few weeks ago as members of "Minnie Palmer's Boarding School" company, were married in Boston on Wednesday of last week. When the newly-married pair appeared on the Gaiety theatre stage, where Minnie Palmer's company is now playing an engagement, Wednesday evening, they were momentarily disconcerted by the orchestra striking up the "Wedding march."

The Journal speaks of "Hon. Ruel Durgee of Croydon, formerly in the custom house in this city." The collector should spect his records before giving as information of this kind. Mr. Payne Durgee, brother of the veritable Ruel who derives his prefix of "Hon." from his position as "speaker of the third house," was once an inspector of customs in this city; and Ruel himself may also have been "in the custom house" to be a man, but he was never an attache of the establishment. His official ambition, since he was messenger to carry the presidential vote of New Hampshire to Washington, and came so nearly losing his charge, many years ago, has been the chairman of the board of selectmen of Croydon, where he could pass in an inventory early and to the satisfaction of the board.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

COLLECTORS OF CUSTOMS FOR THIS DISTRICT.

To the courtesy of Mr. H. A. Lockwood, deputy commissioner of customs at Washington, we are indebted for the following list of collectors who have served at this port. We preface the same by stating that Mr. Lockwood spent very many months in searching through the official records at Washington to make up the roster, hence the general accuracy can be relied upon:

Joseph Whipple,	Aug. 5, 1789,	May 14, 1816.
Timothy Upham,	May 15, 1816,	Apr. 16, 1829.
John P. Decatur,	Apr. 17, 1829,	Apr. 30, 1830.
Wm. Pickering,	May 1, 1830,	May 31, 1834.
Daniel P. Drown,	Apr. 1, 1834,	July 14, 1841.
J. N. Sherburne,	July 15, 1841,	July 31, 1845.
George Bennett,	Aug. 3, 1845,	June 30, 1849.
Lory Odell,	July 1, 1849,	Apr. 5, 1853.
Augustus Jenkins,	Apr. 9, 1853,	June 27, 1849.
Lory Odell,	June 28, 1849,	Apr. 26, 1853.
Zenas Clement,	Apr. 27, 1853,	June 23, 1858.
Augustus Jenkins,	June 24, 1858,	May 7, 1861.
Jos. B. Upham,	May 8, 1861,	July 11, 1864.
John H. Bailey,	July 12, 1869,	Dec. 31, 1872.
Alfred F. Howard,	Jan. 1, 1874.

From the above it will be seen that during the past ninety-one years Portsmouth has had fifteen collectors. The date also shows that Joseph Whipple, the first official, held the office for a period of twenty-six years and ten months, while his successor, Timothy Upham, served but thirteen years. Those who followed ranged from one to eight years each.—Journal.

THE RICE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The annual meeting of the trustees of the Rice public library, of Kittery, was held on Saturday. The report of the finances shew the amount of principal and accrued income invested Jan. 1st, 1879, to have been $31,625.

Notes receivable collected,	$10,147.40
Loans,	8,916.03
	$1,229.37
Income unexpended,	1,573.95
Income on deposits,	$2,802.32
Investment bonds at par,	$10,000.00
Loans,	18,076.22
Loans,	2,119.41
Deposited in savings bank,	1,229.37
INCOME.	$31,625.00
Balance last year,	$ 272.56
Income 1879,	2,290.09
	$2,562.65
Expended,	989.60
Accumulated income,	$1,573.95

The report of the secretary was read, and is as follows:

To the trustees of the Rice Public Library: The secretary of the trustees submits his annual report as follows:

During the year 1879, books have been added to the library as follows:

By purchase,	159
By donation,	1
Total number of books now in library,	1760
Number taken out during the year,	13,520

None have been lost or destroyed. The additions have been made by careful selection through a committee of the trustees, who have expended no little time and bestowed much attention to these duties.

The interest in the library evinced by the people of Kittery continues unabated; and the constant, uninterrupted calls for books, are the best evidence of the appreciation of the munificence of the generous donor of the fund for this most worthy object. The reading room is constantly visited by young persons, who find in the newspapers and periodicals, always accessible, far better occupation for their leisure hours than might be the case without these advantages.

It has been the effort of the committee upon the purchase of books, to supply reading which shall be beneficial in its effects. Many of the earlier purchases of books consisted in a liberal degree of works of fiction; but as the desire for reading increases, the taste of the readers shows an appreciation of a more substantial kind of reading, and works of a more serviceable character are called for.

The present cost of the books in the library is $2180.18. The books are in good condition. Many have been rebound, and it is gratifying to be able to state that those who take books from the library are careful to observe the rules as to the care and cleanliness in the use of the volumes.

The terms of Miss Rice's will require the books to be kept insured. The amount of insurance now is $1400. It is for the trustees to direct whether the amount should not be increased.

A statement of the expenditure appears in the treasurer's report; and by the books of that officer, a comparison can be easily made of each annual outlay for library purposes.

To carry out the provisions of the will of Miss Rice, much time is required of the trustees; and in justice to them I deem it proper here to state, that their prompt attendance at the stated meetings of the board, and their cheerful service upon committee and other duties, are the most convincing evidence of their readiness to further the objects of this bequest. Their duties are two-fold; the careful, able and honest management of the fund placed in their charge, and the judicious expenditure of its income in furtherance of the directions contained in Miss Rice's will. In the constant mutations of investment, with the desire to have the money produce a reasonable income compatible with security, the trustees have unselfishly labored, and an investigation of the affairs of the library and a review of its history must convince every fair and unprejudiced person that in the selection of the board of trustees the people who now enjoy, and those who are hereafter to reap the benefits of the legacy, have been well and ably served by those who have devoted so much time and conferred the benefit of their knowledge and experience upon the objects of this trust.

WILLIAM H. HACKETT, Secretary.

January 1, 1880.

The reports were accepted, and the meeting adjourned for one week.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.

Dr. J. R. Nichols of Haverhill, Mass., one of the directors of the Boston & Maine railroad, writes to a Haverhill paper that the clamor in regard to the union of the two roads is to a large extent the work of stock jobbers. He says:

The Boston & Maine has taken no part in any legislative action regarding the two roads, neither advocating nor opposing such action. No propositions made by the Eastern have been considered or discussed by the Boston & Maine, and only one meeting has been held by the committees of the two roads, and that in February, lasting about thirty minutes. It is not true that progress has been made in any arrangement for running the two roads under one management; while it is possible for the Eastern to place the management of the road in the hands of the Boston & Maine under favorable conditions, it is not probable that it will be done; and as to the Eastern controlling the Boston & Maine, the notion is too preposterous for a moment's consideration. The two roads have been running under a business contract during the past five years, which has stopped to a large extent all contention and injurious competition, and this contract is satisfactory to the Boston & Maine and has been to the Eastern, and with some modifications will probably be continued. The Boston & Maine was never stronger, or its business prospects more flattering than at the present time, and no action will be taken under its present conservative management to jeopardize its interests.

SINGULAR WILL.

The Washington Herald contains the following, of interest to many persons in this vicinity:

The singular will of the late Dr. John M. Brodhead is filed in the register of wills' office for probate. Besides the provision that the town of South Newmarket change the name to Newfield, which it formerly bore, before availing itself of the $10,000 left for a public library, there are several other eccentric features. He leaves $1000 to the trustees of Christ church, Washington navy yard, the interest to be used in keeping his lot in the Congressional cemetery in order, minute directions for which he gives. An estate is to be bought in New Hampshire for the residence of certain cousins, on condition that they each year cultivate a lot sixty feet square, on which small fruits are to be grown. In case the estate cannot be bought, the interest of the $3000 set aside is to be distributed yearly to twelve worthy young people of South Newmarket, but is not to be spared in by any who smoke, use intoxicating liquors or drugs, or make use of any profane or obscene language. A number of other charitable bequests are made, and $1500 for a picture of his father, Rev. John Brodhead, to be painted by the artist Ulke, and placed in the state house at Concord.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The spring term of the free high school of Kittery commences to-day, under the continued tuition of Mr. F. E. Rowell.

The citizens of Berwick can boast of a very peculiar board of selectmen. They are men of strict temperance principles, and have no "affinity" for spirituous liquors, tobacco, or even the mildest of intoxicants, snuff. The combined weight of these town Solons is six hundred and fifty-five pounds.

The directors of the Kittery & Eliot Mutual Fire Insurance Company have voted to assess the members of that company eight per cent on their premium notes, to meet the indebtedeess of $5000, which has accrued from fires during the last two years. Considering the amount of property insured—nearly $1,500,000—the losses are comparatively small.

—Trees and pigs must root for their living.

—Financially speaking, the French are a franc people, while Italians are lires.

—Dr. Andrews heard a burglar in his house, in Philadelphia, and had no pistol to shoot him with, so he inflated a paper bag which happened to be at hand, dashed upon the robber with a shout, and exploded the bag which made a noise like a pistol shot. The man sank to the floor in abject terror and begged for mercy.

—A few years ago the state's attorney of a northern county in Vermont, although a man of great legal ability, was very fond of the bottle. On one occasion an important criminal case was called on by the clerk, but the attorney, with owl-like gravity kept his chair. "Mr. Attorney, is the state ready to proceed?" said the judge. "Yes—hic—no—your honor," stammered the lawyer; "the state is not—in a state to try this case, to-day; the state, your honor, is—drunk!"

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. A. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is on the line holding the paper before the light.

NEW YORK SHOPPING

☞ Everybody delighted with the tasteful and beautiful selection made by Mrs. LAMAR, who has never failed to please her customers.

New Fall Circular just issued. Send for it.

Address, MRS. ELLEN LAMAR,
877 Broadway, New York City

A Zealous Temperance Worker.

There is a boy on India street, who deserves to receive a position at once on the staff of liquor deputies. His name is Campbell and he is twelve years old. This morning he went to the rear of the building next below the American house, stole two half-gallon jugs of liquor, and carried them down to the shop on the corner of Hancock and Fore streets. Then, with his sister of Fine McCowell, fourteen years of age, he put up a job on the sheriffs. Dan went down and made a regular seizure of the two jugs, and carried them to the sheriffs, who gave him $5 for the job. The plan succeeded beyond his expectation, and now there are two or three hundred boys hunting after liquors in that vicinity.—Portland Advertiser.

Canary Birds.

The bird seed is a mixture prepared for the constant use of the canary bird, but it is well sometimes to add something by way of variety to this simple bill of fare. Sponge cake may occasionally be given them, also crackers and sweet apples, but food containing salt is injurious to them. Worms should be given them, occasionally.

During July and August they should have lettuce or cabbage given them, or lettuce seed and plantain seed raised, and placed in a small cup where they can get it at pleasure.

To keep canaries healthy, their cages should be washed frequently, and their water fountains changed every day. In hot weather they should have clean water in jars to bathe in every day, which greatly refreshes them.

A little sand and a cuttle-fish bone should be kept in the cage, as it helps to keep the bird in a healthy condition.

Place the cage where it will enjoy the morning sun, and not where the afternoon sun shines hot upon it, as excessive heat may produce sickness.—Congregationalist.

How They Were Freed.

Uncle Ike was sweeping out the New Orleans Picayune office when he was interrupted by a darky who entered and said:

"Good mornin', Uncle Ike; ain't you gwine ter see Gin'ral Grant arrive ter day. De 'siety had a powerful big meetin' las' nite, an' we 'cluded to tak' part in de 'ception."

"I like ter see de Gin'ral, Jim, but bizincss am too pressin' dis time a-yeah."

"I'z sprised at you, Uncle Ike. I tinks dat it am the duty ob ebery cullud pusson ter tak' part in de 'ception ter day."

"How's dat?"

"Kase he freed us niggers."

"Didn't do no sich t'ing," said Ike, dropping his broom.

"Who was it den?"

"It was de fus gun dat Jeff Davis fished dat set us free. If he hadn't fished dat gun, we'd a-nebber bin free niggers ter day."

The French Crown Jewels.

Some time ago there was some talk about selling the magnificent collection of diamonds forming part of the French crown jewels; the collection is valued at 40,000,000 francs, and among other treasures contains the celebrated Regent diamond, alone worth 8,000,000 francs. Loth to disperse a collection of such artistic value, yet anxious to conciliate those republicans who wish the crown to be sold, the government has decided upon the following course: The crown diamonds will be divided into three classes: 1. The heraldic ones, having some artistic or historical interest; these will be deposited in the Apollo Gallery of the Louvre, and among them the famous Regent. 2. The diamonds having a special mineralogical value, will be sent to the Museum of Natural History. 3. Those which may be considered mere jewelry, and of which the value is estimated at 300,000 francs, will be sold for the benefit of the Museum funds.

The Empress Eugenie's famous pearl necklace is now the property of one of the richest women in Europe, Countess Henckel. The Empress had the pearls sold in London. One of her ladies, accompanied by two friends of the Imperial widow, carried them to an English jeweler, who bought them and disposed of them to the Countess Henckel for 360,000 francs. This lady had some of the pearls less beautiful than the others removed, and added two other rows; one, which came from the jewels sold by the Queen of Naples, the other from the necklace of the Virgin of Atocha, sold by a great Spanish personage. At present the suite of pearls belonging to the Countess, earrings and brooch included, is worth 800,000 or 900,000 francs. It is said to be the finest set of pearls in the world.

Grateful Women.

None receive so much heartfelt and none are so profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. Chills, fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, and all readily removed by these Bitters.—Courant.

—A New Hampshire woman has a husband who is addicted to joining secret societies. One of her exasperated outbursts is thus reported: "Jine! He'd jine anything. There can't nothing come along that's dark and sly and hidden but he'll jine it. If anybody should get up a society to burn his house down he'd jine it just as soon as he could get in, and if he had to pay to get in he'd go all the suddener."

"The best cough medicine in the world." The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 35c; large, $1. eod&wtmay —Women can keep secrets. A Worcester girl on a friend's promising solemnly not to tell, told that she was going to have four new dresses costing $60 each. The friend religiously kept her promise not to tell, and the first-mentioned young lady doesn't speak to her now.

Deep-seated coughs, and catarrh extending to the lungs, cured by Malt Bitters.

In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM,

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seven years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.
1315 BUTTERFIELD ST.,
CHICAGO, ILL., March 4, 1879.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who believe this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION.

Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundred and fiftieth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable work. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to JOS. S. FISHER, president; W. I. P. INGRAHAM, vice-president; W. PAINE, M. D.; C. S. GAUNTT, M. D.; H. J. DOUCET M. D.; R. H. KLINE, M. D.; J. R. HOLCOMB, M. THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

The Subscriber respectfully solicits orders for all kinds of Printing, from a

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

IT is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mothers' remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and exhausting humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18, 1880.

N. A. GRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our Society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

NICHOLAS A. BRIGGS, JOSEPH WOODS, Trustees.

Fashionable Fancies.

Lunch cloths are colored.

Street dresses are all short.

The surtout is the coming garment.

Gold glitters and sparkles on everything.

Lunch napkins and tray cloths should match.

A great deal of red is used in black dresses.

Languedoc lace is much used for trimming evening dresses.

Heavy old-fashioned English cut glass for the table is again in fashion.

Large sums are spent on flowers for fashionable dinner parties.

Crepe lisse ruchings are set inside the brims of small bonnets.

Heliotrope and cream is the favorite combination of colors this season.

Piles of fruit wreathed with similar flowers and ferns are the favorite table ornaments.

Cotton satin, with printed designs of flowers, is the novelty said to be held in reserve for the the summer.

New dress buttons come in two sizes, one for the coat, and the other for the dress waist.

New Chinese embroideries in all colors and very gorgeous are to replace last year's trimmings.

Plain colored French buntings will be combined with figured foulards for wear at watering places.

Wide round collars, a full fall of deep embroidery edged with wide lace, are the fashionable style for children's wear.

Few women's handicrafts are now more lucrative than embroidery. Such work when well done, commands high prices.

Chinese silks are made up into Louis XV. coats; the foundation or groundwork is either silk and gold or silk and silver.

A stylish corsage for dinner dresses is the jacket a paniers, the basques of which are rounded and draped into paniers on either side.

Chinese fringes are very popular; they are composed of tiny bits of floss silk, mixed with pearls and coral beads, and likewise with gold and silver threads.

The Spanish colors, mingled with red and yellow, find much favor in flowers, and Marshal Neil and bright red jacquemine roses are used in the same cluster.

Evening dresses are made with the bodice open, in the shape of a square or an oval, and trimmed with draperies, lace and fringe. The sleeves are finished at the elbow, and trimmed to correspond.

American silks every year approach nearer to the perfection of the famous costly French goods. They are shown in all the new designs of brocades, damasse and satin, as well as in plainer styles.

Unique trimmings to be seen on spring costumes, consists of satin ribbon, with small Eastern designs interwoven with gold; for example red and blue pines outlined with gold on a black satin foundation.

Narrow plestings form a favorite trimming for the foot of skirts; these are each three inches wide when finished, and are made to lap an inch upon each other; the pleating is then pulled out of its flat folds to look as bushy as possible.

Seeing a Man Home.

I picked Simmons up pretty near dead drunk, and took him home. When I got to his house, as I thought, I shook him a bit and said:

"Here you are."

"Right," said he, and gave a big bang at the door. Up went a window.

"Who's there?" screamed a woman.

"I've brought the old man home," I said.

"All right," she cried, and came to the door.

She immediately seized hold of Simmons, and gave him such a shaking that his teeth seemed to rattle in his head.

"Who are you shaking?" says he.

"Good gracious!" cried the woman, "that is not my husband's voice."

I struck a match, and she found she had been shaking the wrong man.

"There," said the woman ferociously, "I've been sitting up here and expecting my husband home drunk, and now I've wasted my strength on a stranger."

"Don't be live here?" said I.

"No," said the woman, "he don't."

"What made you knock?" said I to Simmons.

"Knock?" said he; "you told me to."

"I thought you lived here," said I.

"Glad I don't," said he.

I suppose he was thinking of the shaking he'd had.

At last I found where he did live, and got him home. Mrs. Simmons was sitting up for him. As soon as ever we knocked out she came.

"Oh!" says she, "you're the wretch as makes my poor husband drunk, are you?" and she gave me a slap across the face.

I've never seen a drunken man home since.—Exchange.

—The Croton, N. Y., Journal tells of some shrewd sheep that were pastured with some calves in an apple orchard. There were several trees in the orchard well loaded with early fruit. One evening considerable noise was heard in the orchard, and upon investigation the sheep and calves were found quietly eating apples under one of the trees. In a few minutes all the apples were eaten, when one of the sheep backed off several yards from the tree, and then butted it with all its force, bringing down a quantity of fruit. This they proceeded to eat as before, and when the supply gave out the sheep replenished it as before. This was continued at intervals until their appetite was appeased.

Terrible Disaster.

The town of Marshfield, Mo., was blown down on Sunday evening, and the ruins took fire. Forty dead bodies were recovered in a short time, and many more lives were supposed lost; two hundred persons were wounded. A relief train was sent from Springfield, Mo.

News and Notes.

At Caledonia, Elk county, Pa., on Sunday, Harry English, a notorious forger and thief, fatally shot two constables who were endeavoring to arrest him, and then escaped to the woods. The murderer was shot in the leg while running away.

The San Francisco supreme court has affirmed the sentence of Denis Kearney. There is no further appeal, and Kearney will go to prison at once unless he escapes and forfeits his bail.

The schooner which was in collision with steamer Rhode Island in Long Island sound, Friday night, as before reported, was the Ellen Fisher, bound from Wiscasset for New York with ice. The schooner had her bowsprit, and fore and main masts, carried away, and was cut down to the water's edge.

Sunday afternoon while the Gray Invincibles, a colored military organization of Philadelphia, with the Robert Bryan Post, No. 80, G. A. R., were on their return from the funeral of a deceased comrade, they were attacked with stones and other missiles by a crowd of roughs at Forty-first and Market streets. The Post was unarmed; but the Invincibles had muskets and were ordered to fix bayonets and charge, which was done, and the mob retreated, and the soldiery returned to their armory without further molestation.

A large additional area has been recently granted for exhibits from the United States at the Melbourne (Australia) international exhibition.

Hon. Martin I. Townsend of New York offers a reward of $1,000 for the detection and conviction of the persons who mutilated the colored Cadet Whittaker at West Point. In this offer he is sustained by a wealthy citizen of New York, and makes himself responsible for the payment. Mr. Townsend means business.

A family named Forest, sleeping on the ground floor of a farm house at Nelsonville, Manitoba, were recently overwhelmed by 150 bushels of wheat stored on the second story, the beams giving away, and Mrs. Forest and a child were suffocated.

Mrs. Alice Sherlock, wife of Peter Sherlock, of North Chelmsford, Mass., was found dead in a cistern Saturday. The medical examiner thinks that the drowning was accidental. Some of the town people, however, believe that the husband pushed her into the cistern. Both were drunk on Friday, and the woman was not seen after nine o'clock Friday night.

The notorious Jesse James was in St. Louis, Mo., last week. A lady who knows him says she met him and talked with him. He said his object was to secured legal escape from his present condition as an outlaw, and to guard against the danger of a possible requisition from the governor of Minnesota because of the part he took in the Northfield robbery.

The jury in the case of Caroline Brismann of New York, who sued a wealthy widow, Catherine Porsch, to recover $20,000 damages for enticing her husband from her, found a verdict for plaintiff, and assessed damages at $2,500.

A one-legged New Haven man recently stole a picture of his wife, from whom he had separated, and she retaliated by stealing his wooden leg, which soon brought him to terms.

Father Cuddihy of St. Mary's parish at Milford, Massachusetts, is trying to break up the base ball association, which has advertised a fair for its benefit without his permission, declaring that the young women who preside at the fair tables shall not receive absolution until they have made a public apology for their connection with the "loafers, who are worse than heretics."

The Bangor Whig says that a canary bird had quite an extended trip among the mailbags on the Maine Central railroad recently. It was in a small wicker cage, and in some way got mixed up with the mail, and was placed in one of the bags with a lot of papers. This bag was thrown off at Brunswick, and the bird went to Wiscasset and returned to Brunswick again, where it was taken out uninjured and as lively as ever.

Congressman Stephens of Georgia has been beaten in the matter of light physical weight. Senator-elect Mahone of Virginia weighing but ninety pounds.

Barnum has now reached his seventieth year, and in spite of his numerous ups and downs is worth $2,000,000.

Pure, wholesome, nutritious and stimulating without intoxicating are Malt Bitters.

New Publications.

Many years ago the literary world was electrified by the appearance of a remarkable novel called Rutledge by an unknown American writer, and now a new novel by the same author, entitled Missy, will be published by G. W. Carleton & Co., which promises to create as wide a sensation as did the former volume, which sold over 50,000 copies.

The International Review, for May, has the following list of contents: "Studies of primitive peoples," by Elie Reclus, of Paris; "The English language in America," by J. T. Lounsbury, of Yale college; "Open scholarships," by J. Eliot Cabot; "Skulls, brains and souls," by Thomas Dwight, M. D., of Boston; "Oliver Wendell Holmes," by Ray Palmer, D. D., of New York; "Victor Emmanuel," by Lugi Monti, of Naples; "The abuse of the ballot, and its remedy," by Hon. George W. Julian, of Indiana; "Government machinery," by Albert Stickney, of New York; "Contemporary literature." Price, fifty cents a number; $5.00 a year. A. S. The house committee on naval affairs has agreed upon a bill, relative to chaplains in the navy. It provides that their uniform shall be simply a dark blue suit, without other insignia than a plain device upon the shoulder to indicate the branch of the service. This is intended to relieve them from the unnecessary expense incurred by the uniform which has heretofore been held to be requisite. The bill also provides that chaplains shall be appointed between the ages of twenty-five and thirty-five years, instead of between twenty-one and thirty-five, as under the present law. There are now in the navy twenty-four chaplains, four with the relative rank and pay of captains, seven with the rank and pay of commanders, and seven with the rank and pay of lieutenant-commanders. The present bill provides that the six who have no assigned rank at present shall take rank and pay as lieutenants in the navy.

The Nashua Telegraph says "the legislature of 1879 appropriated $6,000 for the establishment of industrial training at the reform school. As yet but $1,000 has been expended, and that was devoted to enlarging the work shop. It is expected that the trustees will carry out the intent of the legislature, probably this year, and provide some industrial employment beyond chair-bottoming, and which will be of use to them hereafter."

There is a case on trial in the supreme court in Concord involving a $20 pew in a church there, and the expenses already amount to over $500.

ELEGANT CITY RESIDENCE
— AND —
Nine Acres of Land,
AT AUCTION.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell at Public Auction on

Saturday, May 1, at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M.,

The new French Roof Cottage DWELLING HOUSE and BARN connected with the same, upon the corner of Creek Street and Boyd Road, and facing Woodbury Street in Portsmouth, N. H., near the Woodbury mansion, with nine acres of CHOICE LAND where the same stands, on which is an excellent ORCHARD of forty pear, peach and quince trees, and one hundred and forty apple trees of choice varieties.

The house is nearly new, having been erected in 1877; is thoroughly finished inside; contains nine good-sized rooms, and very high-studed; a nice cellar and dairy, and rain-water cistern of brick, with one hundred and forty barrels capacity. The house is heated by a furnace, and in all respects is a comfortable and convenient residence for anybody. There is a good well of water upon the premises, and a carriage-house and shed, connecting the house and barn.

The situation commands a fine view of the city and vicinity, and the grounds afford a fine opportunity for improvement and adornment according to the taste of the owner. In addition to the gardens and orchards, the land will produce from twelve to fifteen tons of hay; and to any one desiring a comfortable and nice out home in close proximity to the city this affords a rare opportunity.

Also at the same time will be sold one new two-horse wagon, two-horse wagon, Woodhouse mowing machine, one express wagon, one carriage, harnesses, and a large amount of small TOOLS, including forks, shovels, plows, etc.; also about two hundred gallons cider, and part of the household furniture; also one valuable DRIVING HORSE, acknowledged to be one of the best in the city.

The premises can be seen at any time after the 27th, upon application to C. B. MASON.

Dated at Portsmouth, April 19, 1880.

Stores on Bow Street,
AT AUCTION.

WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION on the premises at No. 14 Bow street, on Saturday, May 8th, at 12 o'clock, noon,

THE TWO BRICK STORES,

Formerly leased and occupied by CHAS. ROBINSON & SON. These buildings have Basement Stores in the rear, where is a wharf privilege. The buildings can be fitted for tenants or for manufacturing purposes. A liberal portion of the purchase money can remain on mortgage, if desired. The estate is owned by a resident in a distant city, and is sold on that account, and the opportunity to secure premises which can be made to pay so good investment upon the outlay is one not often seen. Further particulars at WM. L. HACKETT, Att'y for the heirs of GEO. JAFFREY, ESQ., or of
H. F. WENDELL, Auctioneer.

Valuable Real Estate at Auction
IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DUELING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equidistant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Sliman street containing 35, 649 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERGEANT DUELING's removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEW S of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

AROUND HOME.

To horse men: Do not forget the great sale of fine trotting stock at Worcester, Mass., April 22d. See advertising columns.

The funeral of the late James Dennett, proprietor of the Kearsarge house, takes place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A Dover firm has arranged to have carloads of corn stop in Portsmouth on the route from the west, to be ground at the north mill.

A young lady named Robinson, from Boston, sang in the Unitarian quartette on Sunday, quite acceptably to the worshippers at the stone church.

Rev. E. Edmunds of Boston will hold religious services in the Court street Christian church every evening this week except Saturday, at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited.

A stout, able-bodied young man of this city last week married one of Portsmouth's fair maidens. Next morning the young bride was seen out in the yard bright and early, splitting wood to kindle the fire.

Gentlemen desiring the spring varnish properly put upon their carriages, should call upon Stephen D. Scriggins, an experienced carriage painter who knows how to do all this kind of work in an artistic manner, and does it so.

The directors of the Boston & Maine railroad are opposed to a union of their corporation with the Eastern, as are a majority of the stockholders. It will require something more than the act of the legislature of Massachusetts to bring about the proposed union, which is yet in the dim distance.

The schooner Hiram, of Calais, Me., put into the lower harbor Friday night for shelter, and after losing one anchor and breaking the stock of the other, and bumping several other vessels without giving or receiving any material damage, came up to the navy yard in distress, and moored there. She will have her anchor restocked at the yard.

In the district court, at Salem, Mass., on Saturday morning last, the case of the larceny of schooner W. H. Y. Hackett by Capt. Edgar J. McCommisky from the charge of Deputy Sheriff Potter, at Beverly, on the previous Monday, came up, and the captain was held for the superior court in $2000. For assault on the sheriff he was fined $10 and costs. The crew, who were charged with aiding and abetting the captain, were discharged.

Messrs. Laighton Bros. & Co., of the Isles of Shoals, are still making improvements on both Appledore and Star islands. On Star island they have built a house, the lower story of which will be used for a carpenter and repair shop, while the upper story is to be the boatmen's sleeping rooms. The arrangement is good, as now the boatmen can be found at any time when wanted, ready to take any parties on a moonlight excursion among the isles, which is delightful, and enjoyed by hundreds during the summer season.

The schooner Dreadnaught, Griffin master, which was in collision with the U. S. S. Tallapoosa in Vineyard sound last week, arrived at this port on Friday, and on Monday was putting out her cargo of coal at the Eastern railroad wharf, Noble's island. She was struck on the starboard quarter, not on the port quarter, as previously reported—by the steamer, about fifteen feet from the stern, and had her planking shivered, covering-board split, rail and stanchions carried away and timbers started; but she was not "cut down to the water's edge" by any means, and a few hundred dollars will repair all the damage done. In coming up the river, Friday evening, we are informed that the Dreadnaught put her jibboom into an outhouse of the Portsmouth Brewing Co.'s, and demolished it, no other harm being done.

Mary Anderson will appear at Music hall on May 1st.

Including vessels from the eastward which put in for a harbor late Sunday afternoon, there were over fifty deep-loaded schooners in the lower harbor that day,—lumber, baled hay, lime and ice comprising most of the cargoes.

"Milk and produce—Hayes farm," is the design painted upon the sides of a new covered wagon, run from the Hayes farm to the customers of that spot, famous for fruits, milk and early vegetables. The wagon was built in this city, and has the advantage of carrying a large quantity while it is of a comparatively light weight.

The best place in town to purchase ready made clothing at reasonable prices is at Myers & Co's, corner of Bow and Market streets; we do not mean ordinary slop-clothing, but a substantial article offered at a low price—because the members of the firm are practical tailors, and pay no heavy sums for rent and like expenses which would require the profit of their goods to be as high as their competetors have to make. Mechanics and farmers in the neighboring towns will find here a good assortment of desired clothing, boots and shoes, etc.; and at the same time can have a suit made to order at short notice. It is the best place in Portsmouth for good bargains, when the quality of the goods is considered.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

MONDAY, April 19th.

Lindell E. Hoyt pleaded guilty to an indictment for breaking and entering at Newmarket, and was sentenced to five years in state prison. This Hoyt is the man suspected of the murderous assault on Mr. Jefferson Healey at Candia, some weeks ago, but the evidence was not sufficient to warrant his arraignment on that charge.

Case Berry vs. town of Madbury was continued.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

The ward one democratic primary, for the purpose of electing delegates to the mass convention which is to be held at Concord, May 5th, where delegates to the democratic national convention at Cincinnati are to be elected, and a state committee also to be chosen, was held at the ward room Monday evening; Samuel Spinney was elected moderator, and M. Crowley secretary. The delegates elected were as follows: Frederick E. Potter, Marcellus Eldredge, John S. Treat, Nathan Whalley, Chas. W. Stimson and Henry R. Stoddard.

REPUBLICAN CLUB OF NEWCASTLE.

President, Moses R. Curtis;

Vice Presidents, Ambrose Card, Chas. W. Cole;

Treasurer, Albert H. White;

Delegates to the republican convention, J. Mahlon Bickford, Chas. E. Campbell.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

The Band of Hope held a very interesting service Saturday afternoon; Mrs. Hooper in charge.

The gospel temperance meeting, Saturday evening, was in charge of Mrs. Annie Adams; many good things were said during the evening, by Rev. John A. Goss and other friends. Mr. James Eaton received a present of a handsome book, it being the 4th anniversary of his signing the pledge. At the close of the meeting, four persons signed the roll.

The bethel service Sunday afternoon was conducted by Mr. Howard Anderson; subject, "The wheat and the tares." The singing, conducted by Miss Nellie Locke, was a pleasing feature. Many took part in the service.

At the reform club meeting, Sunday evening, the hall was crowded, and the service full of interest throughout; during the evening nine young men signed the pledge, some of them having been hard drinkers.

Services were also held at the almshouse and jail on Sunday. L.

POLICE COURT.

On Monday John Matthews, Henry Robinson and Robert Keyes were before the court on a charge of drunkenness, and were ordered to leave town within two hours, which they promised to do. These fellows were before the court last November on a charge of being tramps, and were committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury at the April term of the supreme court; and the grand jury having failed to find true bills against them, they were dismissed from jail Saturday morning. During their detention they gave a number of really good variety entertainments in the jail; and the last one, their "farewell concert," was given early Friday evening, about fifty citizens attending, and making up a purse for the performers at the end. Less than two hours after their discharge from jail the three were in the lockup, having been found drunk on the streets, and fighting with each other. They are a bad lot.

Martin Cavanagh, for drunkenness, was assessed $9.90, fine and costs.

MAN MISSING.

On Saturday, the 10th inst., Mr. Geo. Mudge, son of George A. Mudge of this city, went down the river as far as Newcastle in a boat, intending to run out to the Shoals, but not liking the look of the weather, returned. On the following morning, considering the weather sufficiently favorable, he started again, and rounded Fort point at about nine o'clock; his father accompanied him down the river, and as far out as Jerry's point, where he disembarked, the young man there putting a couple of hundred pounds of rocks in the boat for ballast and then keeping on for Appledore, where he had accepted a situation with Laighton Bros. & Co., as bookkeeper, for the summer season. Mr. Mudge had no particular thought concerning his son's safety, as he had several times previously made the trip to and from the islands in the same boat this season; but he sat on the shore and watched the boat until she was a mile or two outside of Kitt's rock buoy, when having for a moment lost sight of her he was unable to again pick her up. Though not wholly at ease regarding the boat's sudden disappearance from view, yet as the day was not entirely clear at the time, and the boat was a long way off when last seen, no particular anxiety was felt by Mr. Mudge and his family until Thursday afternoon last, when Mr. Oscar Laighton came in from the Shoals and announced the non-arrival there of the boat, which should have arrived in an hour or so after passing Whalesback, had all gone right.

The young man's immediate friends, hoping against hope, requested the local papers to refrain from mentioning the fact that he was missing; it was considered possible that the boat might have been merely dismasted or otherwise disabled, and driven out to sea past the islands, in which case the occupant would stand a chance of being picked up by some passing vessel; but this hope was taken away on Monday afternoon of this week by a telegram from Gloucester, Mass., to Collector A. F. Howard, stating that the boat (the "C. F. Conant") in which the missing youth put to sea, was picked up last week by a fishing schooner, empty, and taken into Gloucester.

Mr. Mudge was a young man of irreproachable habits, cool and resolute, and an agreeable and genial companion; he was about twenty years of age, and an only son.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The Old Orchard beach railroad is to cost about $30,000.

Among the papers presented at the last term of the probate court was a plan of the division of the Norwood estate, situated on the easterly side of York harbor, on the coast. This plan accompanied the return of the commissioners appointed at a previous term to make partition of said estate, and was drawn by Timothy Dame of Eliot. This plan attracted much attention from the members of the bar, and others in attendance, for the extraordinary taste exhibited. Mr. Dame is a draughtsman and surveyor of considerable experience, and is considered by competent judges to be among the best in the county.—Kennebunk Star.

—The leader of the German—Bismarck.

—There was a cock-fight in Windsor last Sunday, and one of the men lost a rooster. This was because the fight was on Sunday. The other rooster was not killed. This was because—however, we are not to be dragged into an argument.

—John Jackson of Annapolis, Md., is ill with rheumatism of the heart, according to the Baltimore Gazette. Jackson was the hero of quite an adventure during the war. A volunteer was called for to take the cap off a torpedo submerged in the harbor of Charleston. Jackson volunteered, dived to the bottom and took off the cap. For this Congress voted Jackson a medal, and President Lincoln pinned it on Jackson's breast. He is now in straightened circumstances.

—Capt. Isaac Bassett, the veteran doorkeeper of the United States senate, has received from Hon George W. Nesmith of Franklin, an old friend and neighbor of Daniel Webster, a piece of the old oak tree on the Webster farm at Franklin, which has long been memorable as being the one upon which he, while a boy, hung his scythe, the story of which is familiar to our readers. The card of Judge Nesmith accompanying it has the following: "A piece of the old oak on the Daniel Webster farm in Salisbury, (now Franklin), New Hampshire, upon which young Daniel Webster hung his scythe when his father, Capt. Webster, could not make it hang to suit him." Capt. Bassett received, just fifty years ago, when a boy of twelve years of age, his first appointment as page of the senate, through the influence of the great statesman, and retained most intimate relations toward him to the close of his life. The cane from this stick will be an exceedingly interesting memento, and a pleasing reminder of his old-time friend.

SOME OF THE

BEST LIVING

TROTTING STOCK!

AT AUCTION.

Every animal belonging to my Breeding Stud will be sold without reserve at Public Auction, on THURSDAY, April 22d, 1880, at 12:30 P. M., sharp, at the Agricultural Grounds, Worcester, Mass., rain or shine.

The Stock consists of twenty-five head of the choicest bred trotting stock ever offered at public auction, and animals of the breeding of many of them cannot be bought at any price, as they are not to be had. Can be seen after April 15th, at place of sale. Among the lot to be sold are—

Richwood—Bay stallion, stands 15.2, foaled 1872; sired by Rysdyk's Hambletonian; dam Hoe mare, by Wilson's Sir Henry. Richwood has been kept exclusively for stock purposes, not having been harnessed for two years and a half, till quite recently he has been jogged a little, mostly to a sleigh. Mr. L. B. Vaughn, who has driven him, has let go of him two or three times for a few rods, and thinks he can show a 2:30 gait.

Shawmut—Brown Bay Stallion, large, foaled June 20, 1877; sired by Corning's (or Sayers') Harry Clay; dam Heroine, (full sister to Voltigeur, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian. Shawmut has been, for six weeks, for the purpose of being broken, in the hands of Geo. W. Silver of Concord, N. H., (who has made colt breaking a business for 15 years,) and he pronounces him the best gaited colt he has ever broken. Harry Clay has sired the dams of 30 2:30 trotters than any living stallion. Volunteer has sired more 2:30 trotters than any living stallion. The blood of Volunteer and Harry Clay (blood of Shawmut) has produced the King of the Trotting Turf, St. Julien, 2:12¼.

Campton—Dam of Egbert (who is pronounced by Mr. J. H. Wallace, in the March number of the monthly, to be "the best bred trotting stallion in Kentucky.") Bro. n Bay mare, 15.3 hands, sired by Messenger Duroc, (Prospero, 2:20;) dam Miss McCord, by the Hobert Colt, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

Midnight—Dam of Noontide, 5 years old, record 2:24, showing trials in 2:21. Grey mare, 15.3 hands, foaled 1865; sired Pilot, Jr., (John Morgan, 2:24;) dam by Lexington.

Daybreak—Full sister to Noontide, 5 years old, record 2:24; grey filly, good size, foaled 1873. Sired by Harold, (Maud S., 4 year old trial 2:17¼,) dam, Midnight. Daybreak promises to be as fast as Noontide.

Alacrity—Full sister to Cygnet, 5 years old, trial 2:22¼; chestnut filly, large, foaled 1877. Sired by Harold (Maud S., 2:17¼,) dam, Juliet, who produced Reifs' Mambrino Pilot, who sired Mambrino Gift 2:20, and Hannia 2:18¼.

Watersprite—Bay filly large, foaled 1877. Sired by Belmont (Nutwood, 2:18¾), dam Waterwitch, who produced Mambrino Gift 2:20, and Sentinel 2:22¾. Fairy Belle, a full sister to Watersprite, produced Gift, who trotted a trial over a half-mile track last season in a 2:30 gait, in 2:28¾.

Barcena—Bay mare, 15.3 hands; foaled 1871. Sired by Bayard (Kentucky Pilot, 2:22,) dam, Blanding, who produced Abdallah Pilot, sire of Red Jim, 2-year-old, record 2:28, and Swigert, who sired Resolute, 2:20; grand dam, Burch mare, the dam of Rosalind, 2:21. Barcena showed speed enough before having hind tendon cut off by axle breaking, to warrant statement that she could show as much speed as any animal ever bred at Woodburn Farm, Ky.

Lady Bess—Gray mare, 15 hands, foaled 1864, sired by Rysdyk's Hambletonian; dam by Tippoo Saib, half brother to Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

And sixteen others by such sires as Volunteer, Messenger, Duroc, Knickerbocker, Thorndale, Alonzo, Richwood, &c.

Gentlemen may leave New York city Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, and return, arriving in New York at 9 29 Thursday evening. Can leave Boston at 11 A. M., on Thursday, and return, arriving in Boston at 4:30 P. M.

Ghosts.

Not Col. Ingersoll's "aristocracy of the air," but real human ghosts. Ghosts that were once healthy men and women, but are now simply the "ghosts of what they once were." As we meet them, and inquire the cause of all this change, they repeat the old, old story, "a cold," "neglected cough," "catarrh," "overwork," or "dyspepsia," "liver complaint," and "constipation," with unsuccessful physicians and remedies. In offering his Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets for the cure of the above affections, Dr. Pierce does not recommend them as a "sure cure" in all stages. For if the lungs be half wasted away, or there be a cancerous complication, no physician or medicine can cure. The Discovery is, however, an unequaled pectoral and blood-purifier. It speedily cures the most aggravated cough, or cold, and in its early or middle stages, consumption. By correcting all irregularities of the stomach and liver, it readily cures blotches, pimples, scrofulous ulcers, "bunches," or tumors. Hundreds testify that it has restored their health, after eminent physicians had failed. For constipation, use the Pellets. As a local remedy for catarrh, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

—An usher in a New York church created quite a sensation. Two young people, wearing ulsters and Derby hats, had been shown to seats, and although one removed his head gear, the other did not. The usher was surprised and grieved; he waited awhile for a manifestation of the existence of a knowledge of propriety in the mind of the offender, and then leaned over and removed the offending hat. A feminine shriek disclosed to the horrified usher that the wearer was a young woman, and he precipitately retired, while above the noise of the organist's voluntary arose that of the involuntary mirth of many of the congregation.

"The best cough medicine in the world," The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 35c; large, $1. eod&wtmay

—They were at the breakfast table, with the persted mottoes of "God bless our home," and "Peace be to all in this house," beaming down upon them, while he was drinking a large quantity of cold water. He didn't appear to care much about talking, and she had an unusual amount of table gossip on her mind. Then the milk bill was brought in, and matters began to be lively. He said a good many hard words, and vowed that two quarts of milk a day was willful extravagance. The beefsteak was pushed across the table with a force that should have made its tender-loin ache, and the coffee unsettled entirely by over-vigorous stirring. In fact, he tore around at such a rate that the mottoes seemed rather out of place, and she bowed her head meekly to the storm, heaping coals of fire on his head by her silence, until she got at his overcoat pocket and calmly extracted an unpaid bill for six bottles of "rock and rye" and two boxes of cigars. There was a silence in that room that was almost painful, and then he paid the milk bill.

HOW TO MANAGE IT. To make the world understand this very important matter is a question. The very important matter is this: Mr. W. E. Clarke, Providence, R. I., prepares a positive cure for all kidney, bladder, liver and urinary complaints—including the terror, Bright's disease. The medicine is Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and liver medicine, and it is certainly a marvel. Mr. Clarke desire us to make this important fact known, and to say that he will send free to any who apply, a pamphlet abundantly proving it. Remember the name, Hunt's Remedy. Sold by all druggists. Trial size, 75 cents.

—Matthew McKay, of Oswego, N. Y., has been bothered at finding his clock stopped mornings. He had it examined, but the repairer could find nothing wrong. He watched, and discovered the family cat to be the cause of the mischief. Attracted by the ticking of the clock, she climbed up to the shelf, pulled open the door, and pawed the hands around the dial till it stopped.

Delicate females find Malt Bitters nourishing, strengthening and purifying.

—The largest hog in the country is a Poland China, four years old this spring, now on exhibition at Junction City, Kan. His length is seven feet, girth of neck six one-half feet, girth of chest seven and one-eighth feet, width across the hip thirty inches, and weight 1532 pounds.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. 1,th&f

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, named by CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pimples, Chin Whelk, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Itching Piles; Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies, but none had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM, OF LYNN, MASS.

DISCOVERER OF

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

The Positive Cure

For all Female Complaints.

THIS PREPARATION RESTORES THE BLOOD TO ITS NATURAL CONDITION, DIRECTS THE VITAL POWER ARIGHT, STRENGTHENS THE MUSCLES OF THE UTERUS AND LIFTS IT INTO PLACE, AND GIVES TONE AND STRENGTH, AS THE ONLY TRUE CURE IS radical and entire. It strengthens THE BACK AND PELVIC REGION; IT GIVES TONE TO THE WHOLE NERVOUS SYSTEM; IT REMOVES DISPLACED ORGANS TO THEIR NATURAL POSITION. THAT FEELING OF BEARING DOWN, CAUSING PAIN, WEIGHT AND BACKACHE, IS ALWAYS PERMANENTLY CURED BY ITS USE.

It will, at all times and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the laws that govern the female system.

For the cure of Kidney Complaints of either sex, this Compound is unsurpassed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is prepared at the proprietors laboratory.

No. 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass.

Price, $1. Six Bottles to one address, $5.

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES

LAXATIVE & CATHARTIC.

Pleasant to the taste; Effective without Griping.

CURE CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS AND LIVER TROUBLES.

They take the place of the nauseating and violent cathartic pills used to relieve Costiveness. Piles, Congestion of the Liver, Torpidity, and BEWILDERED HEADS are a mile away when these medicines or mineral waters prove effective of cathartic or griping. No bad effects follow repeated use of these medicines. Children, a prune taken at bedtime sweetened and healthy. The medication is perfect and unexpectable and Druggists recommend them.

Physicians recommend them.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and Chronic Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canada Barley MALT and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up new the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged—every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, congalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, dyspeptic, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

Collins' Voltaic Plasters relieve in 5 minutes.

Sanford's Jamaica Ginger, the Delicious.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, invigorates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 19, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our Society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

NICHOLAS A. BRIGGS, JOSEPH WOODS, Trustees.

Daily Chronicle.

—Miss Neilson, the actress, will be worth a quarter of a million at the end of her present tour, without reckoning the market value of her diamonds, which represent, at jewellers' prices, $100,000. If she chose to keep on acting year in and year out, she could have a quarter of a million more in about three years. The 110 performances already given during the present tour have brought her in upward of $45,000, and she must give forty more, besides the twenty-eight California representations, by which she is sure to net $20,000. Every dollar she earns in the United States she invests in American securities.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done thousands of women more good than the medicines of many doctors. It is a positive cure for all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—A lady passenger, whose baby had kept up a dismal and incessant bawling to the sore distress of everybody in the car, apologetically observed to a gentleman in the next seat: "I hope you like children, sir?" "I do indeed," was the reply, "but I like 'em corked up."—Andrews' Bazar.

—It is said that nothing suprised Count de Lesseps and his little daughter so much, during their visit to this country, as meeting at the residence of a gentleman of New York a score or more of little Bostonians under ten years of age who talked French with an accent purely Parisian.

From observation under the microscope, of the blood of patients (using Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites) taken from to time to time, positive proof has been obtained of the steady removal of diseased and dead blood particles, and the substitution of vitalised discs so necessary to the construction of healthy muscle.

—A horse in Burlington has earned a reputation that outrivals the woman with the iron jaws. While standing near a provision store the animal lifted up a bale of hay with his teeth, swung it around in the gutter, and was about to perform the same feat with another, when the owner of the hay closed the entertainment by batting the horse over the head with a club.

INCIDENT.—In street-car. Lady, in shabby dress, to animated tailor's model, standing in front of her: "Will you please ring the bell, sir?"—"Pawdon, madam, I'm not the conductaw—sah."—Indeed! What are you?" He gives it up. But if the same question, "What are you?" were to be asked regarding Sanford's Jamaica Ginger, thousands whom it has benefited would answer in its praise.

—A young wife, with one child, living at Jamestown, N. Y., was sold to another man by her husband for $50. She is now at the home of her prospective father-in-law, waiting for the son to earn money to close the contract.

Given up by Doctors.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and cured by so simple a remedy?"

"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters; and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die!"

"Well-a-day!" That is remarkable! I know hops are good.—Salem Post.

—Thomas McElrath, of Marlborough, a victim of insomnia, has not slept for twelve years, and offers a liberal reward for a cure. We recommend him to join a police force.—Brooklyn Eagle.

"My Tormented Back,"

is the exclamation of more than one poor hardworking man and woman; do you know why it aches? It is because your Kidneys are over-tasked and need strengthening, and your system needs to be cleansed of bad humors. Kidney-Wort is the medicine you need. "It acts like a charm," says a physician, "I never knew it to fail."

—The great discrepancy between Mr. and Mrs. Christiancy's age is given by the Atlanta Constitution in few words. He is sixty-three and she is red-headed.

New York Butter Market.

In reporting the market prices for Butter, the New York Tribune, of May 20th, said, "choice packages to be retail trade reach 19 to 20 cents, but light colored goods are hard to dispose of, and several lots were thought well sold at 8 to 10 cents. This stern logic of dollars and cents is rapidly convincing dairymen that they should use the Perfected Butter Color made by Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. It gives the perfect June color the year round and dairymen that use it never send light colored goods to market."

—"There will be no clubs in the next world," says a woman's journal. But how can you play with a pack having only three suits?

Kidney-Wort will cure kidney and liver diseases and worst cases of piles.

—Poor Adam had no choice when he felt matrimonially inclined. He had to take the first woman he came across.

The aged and infirm are strengthened and faculties brightened by Malt Bitters.

—We are told that "General Sherman was always coolest when on the point of attack." Most people are the hottest when on the point of a tack.

The Foster Murder.

The trial of Fred W. Dodge, George B. Spencer and Gideon Lee, for the murder of Alvan C. Foster at Keene on the 23d of May, 1876, commenced at Keene on Tuesday before Judges Bingham and Allen.

The murder of Foster created an unusual excitement at the time owing to the peculiarities of the case. He had just engaged himself for another year to sell trees for Messrs. Chase & Co., of Roston, when he was found dead one morning in the yard of the high schoolhouse, with a sponge saturated with chloroform tied over his mouth. He was a stout, vigorous man, and nothing but chloroform, of which he was very sensitive, could have prevented a hard struggle for his life. Amos Gale, then a city policeman, says there were some marks of a scuffle, some two or three rods from where the body was found, and marks were seen as though his body had been taken up and his feet dragged toward the spot where his body lay. It was his intention to have preserved these marks until after the investigation, but while away for a short time the crowd had obliterated all signs of a scuffle. The case was thoroughly investigated by a coroner's inquest, and some of the parties now under arrest were suspected by detectives and others, but for some reason this line of the search was given up. Some thought it a case of suicide, which theory they still hold at the present time. Many think that a woman named Cram, with whom Foster was infatuated, knows more about the murder than she would care to tell; this woman at the time of the murder lived with Fred W. Dodge, but was not married to him.

Dinis Has Gone.

In the police court at San Francisco, Monday forenoon, the prosecuting attorney asked commitment for Kearney. The latter was not present, but soon appeared with his counsel, who asked for a delay to enable him to make application to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. The court denied the request as unusual and extraordinary. The commitment was made out, and Kearney, evidently greatly depressed and chagrined, was taken below, and in a few moments removed to a hack and driven to the house of correction, where, after going through the hands of the barber and donning the convict garb, he was placed in a cell. As he left the court room he asked the judge if the commitment contained any reference to the provision of the new constitution, fixing eight hours as a day's labor. The judge replied that the superintendent of the house of correction would see that he had sufficient work to do, and not too much. Kearney's counsel will apply for a writ of habeas corpus, but it is not expected to avail the prisoner anything.

News and Notes.

Later reports show that it was a terribly disastrous tornado or hurricane which swept through a portion of Missouri, Sunday evening. All but a dozen buildings in the town of Marshfield were wholly or partially demolished; and seventy-five persons perished, and two hundred were more or less injured. Other towns and cities were struck by the tempest, and many buildings wrecked. From Iowa, Illinois and Indiana there come reports of a similar visitation, causing immense destruction of property. The telegraph wires were blown down in every direction, so that only meagre reports are obtained.

A Montreal despatch reports that Mr. Soule says all matters are arranged for a race between Hanlan and Courtney; that the money is now in Mr. Blaikie's hands, to be paid the winner; that there is no prospect of the race taking place anywhere else. The course on the Potomac will be directly in front of the White House. Only Courtney and Hanlan will take part in the race.

Hiram and Eugene Dailey, of Peru, Mass., aged respectively thirty-one and nineteen years, have been arrested on a charge of murdering Perley B. Hutchinson of Huntington; they come from a worthless stock, and Hiram and another brother have been in jail on a charge of incendiarism, though they escaped conviction.

The Spanish government has prohibited the importation of pork from the United States and Germany into Spain, on account of trichinæ.

A vigilance committee is being formed in Lewis county, W. Va., as two mysterious murders have been committed there during the past few days.

Sperry Sisson, a well-to-do farmer, was found dead in George Gibson's barn at Great Barrington, Mass., Saturday, with a bullet through his body. He is supposed to have committed suicide.

A Chinaman recently arrested at Saucelito, Cal., charged with the murder of a Mr. Severance, committed suicide in his cell on Sunday by hanging, making a rope from strips of his blouse.

Chester Newton, son of Isaac Newton of Grand Menan, Me., aged twenty years, while endeavoring to put on his overcoat on leaving the schoolhouse for home one day last week, was observed to fall upon the floor, as was supposed in a fainting fit, but when raised up life was extinct.

The democratic state convention of New York was held at Syracuse on Tuesday.

—In Japan is found a beautiful fish which has a sort of gun for bringing down insects. It does not wait, like other fishes, for the fly to fall into the water by accident. Seeing one lighted near the water, the chætodon gently approaches, and aiming its beak, blows a drop of water with unerring aim, knocks the unsuspecting fly off its perch into the stream and devours it, doubtless with a relish begotten by its skill as a sportman. It is said the Japanese amuse themselves by watching their captive chætodons shoot the flies presented to them.

—The following pleasant thing in the way of definition once occurred in one of the public schools of a city in Massachusetts. A member of the committee, Captain X, was visiting the school, and the class having read from Webster's addresses at Plymouth, the captain asked the class, "Who was Webster?" One boy said: "A statesman," another "an orator." "But what is a statesman?" asked the captain. "A man who goes round making speeches," answered a boy. "That's not quite right," replied the captain; "I go around sometimes making speeches, but I am not a statesman." A bright little fellow spoke up, "I know. It is a man who goes around making good speeches."

The Greatest Blessing.

A simple, pure, harmless remedy, that cures every time, and prevents disease by keeping the blood pure, stomach regular, kidneys and liver active, is the greatest blessing ever conferred upon man. Hop Bitters is that remedy, and its proprietors are being blessed by thousands who have been saved and cured by it. Will you try it? See another column.—Eagle.

—"But I pass," said a minister recently in dismissing one theme of his subject to take up another. "Then I make it spades," yelled a man from the gallery, who was dreaming the happy hours away in an imaginary game of euchre. It is needless to say that he went out on the next deal, assisted by one of the deacons with a handful of clubs.

Sambuci Wine in New York Hospitals.

Dr. Harris, of the New York Hospital, finds Speer's Sambuci Wine an excellent tonic and gentle stimulant, and recommends it, especially for ladies. Dr. Parrish, of Philadelphia, pronounces it to be a purely unadulterated wine, possessing much medicinal virtue, and uses it for its purity, fine flavor, medicinal properties, and non-intoxicative qualities, &c. Our limited space forbids any more extracts from letters of similar import from numerous physicians and clergymen. It has been found to be the best Wine for Dropy, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, the aged and infirm, it gives strength and vigor. Excellent for Females.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

—The largest hog in the country is a Poland China, four years old this spring, now on exhibition at Junction City, Kan. His length is seven feet, girth of neck six one-half feet, girth of chest seven and one-eighth feet, width across the hip thirty inches, and weight 1532 pounds.

—A band of thieves has been going the round of the country in France, emptying of their contents the alms boxes in the churches. A piece of whalebone with a lump of cobbler's wax at the end was the instrument employed, and very successful these people would seem to have been in their various enterprises. Suspicions were first aroused at a church in Paris, and subsequent investigation led to the detection of the band, and the discovery of a box containing nearly five thousand whalebones duly tipped and prepared.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for a period of thirty years has entirely devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has specially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a soothing syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use, hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

"The Danites," an American sensational drama of the better order, combining tragedy and comedy in judicious proportions, will be given at Music hall on Monday evening next. It is a good play, and has had a big run in the large cities. Tickets for sale at Preston's.

Mr. David R. Grogan, assistant lightkeeper at Boon island, has been appointed light-keeper at White island in place of Edwin R. Hobbs, and will assume the duties at once. George O. Leavitt, second assistant light-keeper at Boon island, has been appointed first assistant.

On Thursday evening, April 22d, Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows will wind up the dancing season with one of their pleasant assemblies in Odd Fellows' hall. No pains have been spared to make this the best of the series, and it is confidently predicted that a large number of the brethren of sister lodges and their ladies will be present.

Mr. George W. Guppy, late proprietor and editor of the Times, has associated with himself George Leopold, and they are now organizing a variety show under canvass, and preparing to start out with wagons, the company to be under the management of Mr. Guppy. Mr. Charles M. Lord, last season with Batchelder & Doris' circus, is engaged as leader of the orchestra. They expect to get on the road about May 16th, and will open at Dover.

A safety device, applied to the cars of elevators, to avoid accidents in case of the breaking of the suspending ropes, or otherwise, has been recently invented by Geo. W. Fitts of South Hampton. It involves an entirely new principle, dispensing with the old ratch principle, which has been the fruitful source of so many accidents. The fall of the car is impossible; the safety increases with the weight of the load. Application has been made for a patent.

A friend hands us the following: "For several days past Mr. Will Twombly, living at No. 4 Sparhawk street, Christian shore, has suffered in the loss of a number of valuable hens, killed by some animal, (the species of which he does not know.) the heads of the fowls being eaten off, and the neck-bones picked clean. All sorts of devices and traps have been set to catch the varmint, but thus far without success,—and still the work of the fowl destroyer goes on, as on Tuesday morning three more hens were found lifeless and headless in their nests; two of the hens would on Thursday have had broods of chickens." The "animal" that has made so improperly free with Mr. Twombly's hens wears two legs and a wise look, and is called an owl. A keen-eyed watcher and a shotgun would prove an effective remedy; or a stake set up on the premises, having a small bit of board nailed on the top, and an unbaited trap set on the board and tied to the stake, might capture the nocturnal plunderer.

COMMON COUNCIL.

A special meeting of the common council was held Monday evening.

The position of clerk, previously held by Arthur F. Pfeiffer, was declared vacant, and Robert E. Rich was elected to fill the vacancy.

The annual appropriation bill, as drafted by the finance committee, was discussed, and without amendment was referred to the committee on bills on their second reading. The amount appropriated by the bill is about $20,000 less than last year's appropriations.

IN DEATH NOT DIVIDED.

Capt. Joseph Amazeen and his estimable wife, Mary E. Amazeen, have this week passed to their rest, within a few hours of each other.

Capt. Amazeen was a short time ago attacked with an affection of the throat and lungs, and his wife was in constant attendance at his bedside until Sunday morning last, endeavoring to alleviate his sufferings, when she too was obliged to retire to her bed, and gradually sinking away, died on Monday afternoon. Her husband lived until Tuesday morning, when he also passed away.

Capt. Amazeen was born in Newcastle, May 3d, 1813. He was appointed a lieutenant in the revenue marine on the 13th of April, 1837, during the administration of President Jackson; and with the exception of a short time, during which he was engaged in the grocery business in this city, was in the service up to the date of his death. He was commissioned a captain on the 11th of July, 1864, and subsequently commanded the steam revenue cutter Mosswood, at Eastport, Me., and held other important commands on various stations. He was a reliable and judicious officer; and his duty, no matter how arduous or dangerous, was ever well and cheerfully done. He was a man of sterling character, upright and unobtrusive, and an affectionate husband and father.

Mrs. Amazeen was a most estimable lady, devoted to her husband and children; she was a sister of Mr. John H. Moran of this city. They leave one son and two daughters to mourn their loss.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Considerable good pasture land in York has changed hands this spring, generally at low prices.

Ephraim Spinney, Esq., of Kittery, had a hundred cords of wood cut last winter on his land in that town near York.

A house and barn at Buxton, owned by Bradbury Woodman, were burned with their contents Sunday night. Loss about $1,000.

Thomas Mitchell of Brixham, (or Bell marsh,) York, has a calf which weighed ninety-eight pounds when born; it is of Ayrshire breed.

Mr. Colburn Barrett, of Beech ridge, York, has this spring set out several acres of choice pear trees. He had a very large pear orchard before.

It is now said that the projected big pier at Old Orchard beach will not be built after all. The pier which the new railroad company are to build at the mouth of the Saco river will answer for a landing for steamers.

The health of the people of York and Kittery is generally good at the present time, with the exception of those who are troubled with bronchial or rheumatic complaints, which are more than ordinarily annoying this spring.

A large number of young fruit trees belonging to Mr. Asa McIntire, of Beech ridge, York, were recently slashed with a knife by some miscreant, and much injured, many of them being ruined. The trees were budded last fall.

Many of the fences in York and Kittery, which are largely built of stakes, withes and boards, were blown down by the recent high winds. The farmers had better try the barbed-wire fence, which is cheap, effective and durable.

The farmers of York county say that the stock of hay now on hand is small, and they consider the recent fall in price of that commodity to be but temporary; those who have hay to sell are consequently inclined to hold on for better rates.

Mr. William Furbish, who had weirs set in the upper part of York river last year, did not find them a very successful speculation; this year he has purchased a hundred ducks, and it is said proposes to use the weirs to catch minnows for feeding the ducks with. Those weirs will have to be made pretty close grained.

John Lary, a young man about twenty-six years old, was severely burned in the foundry of the Water Power machine shop at Biddeford, Monday afternoon, by accidentally running against and spilling upon himself a ladle of melted iron which was being carried to a mould by a fellow workman. There is but a small chance for his recovery. He is unmarried, but has a widowed mother.

It is said that a clergyman of the Christian denomination in York is so radical a "temperance" man that he will not eat an apple because there is cider in it. It is also said that at the ordination of a preacher some time ago, the York minister refused to participate in the "laying on of hands" because the candidate used tobacco; the latter yarn is quite likely to be true.

Hartley W. Mason has two houses now in process of erection at York harbor, and is repairing a third one, the latter being the one he has occupied in the summer season for several years past. Two of the buildings have been leased, one to New York and the other to Boston parties. Several Portsmouth mechanics are among the large number engaged on the buildings. Repairing and enlarging of buildings, in preparation for the summer travel, is brisk in that locality just now; the Marshall house is receiving a wider piazza and other improvements, and all the boarding-houses are being more or less extensively fixed up, inside and out.

The following assignments of pastors for towns in York county were made at the recent Methodist conference at Portland: Saco, Leonard H. Brown; Biddeford, D. W. Le Lacheur; Biddeford Pool, H. B. Mitchell; Goodwin's Mills, James H. Trask; Kennebunk, John Cobb; Kennebunk Depot, D. Perry; Kennebunkport, B. Fallman; Cape Porpoise, to be supplied by Mary Loudridge; Ogunquit, I. Lord; Berwick, J. A. Carey; South Berwick, G. F. Cobb; Eliot, J. P. Lapham; South Eliot, R. H. Kimball; Kittery, K. Atkinson; Kittery navy yard, William W. Baldwin; York, O. H. Stevens; Alfred, James Nixon; Shapleigh, etc., to be supplied; Hollis, Joseph Colby; South Standish, George Holt; Buxton and Gorham, E. K. Colby; Gorham (High street,) Thomas Tyrie.

ELEGANT CITY RESIDENCE

— AND —

Nine Acres of Land,

AT AUCTION.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell at Public Auction on

Saturday, May 1, at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M.,

The new French Roof Cottage DWELLING HOUSE and BARN connected with the same, upon the corner of Creek Street and Boyd Road, and facing Woodbury Street in Portsmouth, N. H., near the Woodbury mansion, with nine acres of CHOICE LAND where the same stands, on which is an excellent ORCHARD of forty pear, peach, and quince trees, and one hundred and forty apple trees of choice varieties.

The house is nearly new, having been erected in 1877; is thoroughly finished inside; contains nine good-sized rooms, and very high-studded; a nice cellar and dairy, and rain-water cisterns of brick, with one hundred and forty barrels capacity. The house is heated by a furnace, and in all respects is a comfortable and convenient residence for anybody. There is a good well of water upon the premises, and a carriage-house and shed, connecting the house and barn.

The situation commands a fine view of the city and vicinity, and the grounds afford a fine opportunity for improvement and adornment according to the taste of the owner. In addition to the gardens and orchards, the land will produce from twelve to fifteen tons of hay; and to any one desiring a comfortable and pleasant home in close proximity to the city this affords a rare opportunity.

Also at the same time will be sold one new two-horse dumpcart, two-horse wagon, two-horse mowing machine, one express wagon, one carriage, harnesses, and a large amount of small TOOLS, including forks, shovels, plows, etc.; also about two hundred gallons cider, and part of the household furniture; also one valuable DRIVING HORSE, acknowledged to be one of the best in the city.

The premises can be seen at any time after the 27th, upon application to C. H. M. MASON.

Dated at Portsmouth, April 19, 1880.

JOS. P. MORSE, Auctioneer.

Valuable Real Estate at Auction

IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DULLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equal-distant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Stimson street containing 35,640 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERGEANT DULLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEWIS of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Stockholders of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire will be held at the ward room near the passenger station of the Eastern railroad, in Portsmouth, on TUESDAY the fourth day of May next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the following purposes:

To elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and to transact any other business that may legally come before them.

Stap19 WILLIAM H. HACKETT, Clerk.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 19, 1880.

THEORY VS. FACTS.

All established theories are set aside by solid facts. The solid facts in this case are, that the business interests of our fair city have been more greatly enhanced within the past year by one single enterprise, conducted by one single mind, than by all other productive institutions in Rochester. We refer to the manufacture of Hop Bitters. The remedial properties of hops, with the herbs introduced, principally buchu, mandrake and dandelion, had long been known, but there had been so much mere stuff—large, deleterious stuff—foisted upon the country, under the general cognomen of "bitters" and "remedies," that this medicine, which had been perfecting under the experiments of skilled pharmaceutists and chemists, had to overcome the distrust of all such "remedies" by the slow process of information, which has been so successfully done that to-day the druggist who does not embrace Hop Bitters in the list of his regularly ordered medicines, or the family that does not know its beneficial effects would be difficult to find.

THE MANUFACTORY

is located on Mill street, from which emanates the preparation that is daily shipped to all parts of this country, and to sections of the globe over which the American flag does not float. The business is splendidly systematised, and everything goes on so quietly that it would be difficult to imagine that so extensive a business was done in that locality. Each department is overseen by competent persons. The items for bottles and for packing-boxes are enormously surprising, and those who furnish these two articles alone have reason to rejoice at the discovery of Hop Bitters, while the myriads of sick people who have been cured by this invaluable remedy have greater reason to rejoice.—Rochester Evening Express.

MORE FACTS.

STERLING, ILL., August 22, 1879.

We feel we must write something of the success of Hop Bitters. Their sale is thribble that of any other article of medicine. Hence we feel it but justice to you and your Bitters to say that it is a medicine of real merit and virtue, and doing much good and effecting great cures.

Yours, J. F. & H. B. UTLEY.

ASHTABULA, O., Nov. 16, 1878.

Gents—We have used your Bitters, and like them very much.

HAYESVILLE, OHIO, Feb. 11, 1880.

I am very glad to say I have tried Hop Bitters, and never took anything that did me as much good. I only took two bottles and I would not take $100 for the good they did me. I recommend them to my patients, and get the best of results from their use.

C. B. MERCER, M. D.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 15, 1878.

We take pleasure in giving you a notice and a nice, strong one, as it (Hop Bitters) deserves it. We use it, and we know it deserves it.—The Register.

WENONA, ILL., Aug. 6, 1879.

Hop Bitters are the most valuable medicines I ever knew. I should not have any mother now but for them.

HENRY KNAPP.

LONE JACK, MO., Sept. 14, 1879.

I have been using Hop Bitters, and have received great benefit from them for liver complaint and malarial fever. They are superior to all other medicines.

P. M. BARNES.

KALDMAZOO, MICH., Feb. 2, 1880.

HOP BITTERS MFG. CO.:

I know Hop Bitters will bear recommendation honestly. All who use them confer upon them the highest encomiums, and give them credit for making cures—all the proprietors claim for them. I have kept them since they were first offered to the public. They took high rank from the first, and maintained it, and are more called for than all others combined. So long as they keep up their high reputation for purity and usefulness I shall continue to recommend them—something I have never before done with any other patent medicine.

J. J. BABCOCK,
Physician and Druggist.

KAHOKA, MO., Feb. 9, 1880.

I purchased five bottles of your Hop Bitters of Bishop & Co. last fall, for my daughter, and am well pleased with the Bitters. They did her more good than all the medicines she has taken for six years. WM. T. MCCLURE.

The above is from a very reliable farmer, whose daughter was in poor health for seven or eight years, and could obtain no relief until she used Hop Bitters. She is now in good health as any person in this country. We have large sale, and they are making remarkable cures.

W. H. BISHOP & CO.

SILVER CREEK, N. Y., Feb. 6, 1880.

Gents—I have been very low, and have tried everything, to no advantage. I heard your Hop Bitters recommended by so many, I concluded to give them a trial. It did, and now am around, and constantly improving, and am as nearly as strong as ever. W. H. WELLER.

Many vile compounds have been sold under the name of "Bitters," but it is a comfort for the afflicted to now realize that with Hop Bitters at their command they can be cured.—San Francisco (Cal.) Chronicle.

If Lord Byron, Shakespeare, Tennyson, or Longfellow, all of them were to write, they could not invent praises or use adjective of sufficient philological signification, nor language strong enough to express the wonderful power of Hop Bitters to cure the sick. This medicine is now so widely known as the best and purest bitters manufactured that it is perhaps superfluous to write about it. It is justly popular.—Oneida Sun.

Life of Dr. Channing.

The life of Dr. William Ellery Channing. The centennial memorial edition, by his nephew, Wm. Henry Channing; Boston: American Unitarian association; pp. 719.

This Life of Dr. Channing is an abridgment of the three-volume memoir of 1400 pages, sold for $2.50; but, by the adoption of a larger page and smaller type, into the pages of this one-volume edition have been put more than two-thirds of the original matter,—the omissions being only of the less important extracts from sermons and correspondence.

To help a wide circulation of this centennary memorial edition, it is sold for the exceedingly low price of one dollar,—the price also of the association's one-volume edition of Channing's works, with which it is uniform in shape and in style of binding. The work is partly an autobiography, extending as far as materials at command of the author would allow. There is much in this book to be learned of this distinguished divine, as well as in regard to his spiritual growth, his ministry, and the doctrine he maintained—always in a christian spirit. Indeed, Channing, though the head of a body of christians, was not a controversialist. His kindly traits and his true Christian temper and characteristics have even caused the most rigid doctrinaires of other denominational views to pay tribute to the excellence of his life, and characters. The low price at which the work is published, it would seem, would allow nearly every one to become familiar with the life and writings of a clergyman who has exercised more influence among the Christian worshippers of this country than any other man.

For sale by Mercer Goodrich, No. 1 Market street.

A Chicago Business Man.

"Hi! sonny," said a keen-looking Chicago business man, "what are you looking for? Let me see that letter."

"No, I can't let you have that letter; there bonds in it."

"Why, I've been waiting for you this half hour to bring me those bonds—I bought 'em of what's his name?"

Upon this the lad took out a big envelope marked "J. Smith, Esq., present," in the upper corner, "$2,000 U. S. 5-20s," and in the lower corner, "Commission due, $5. Please remit by bearer."

"That's all right, sonny," said the keen-looking business man as he hauled out a scantily furnished purse, gave the boy a $5 bill and a quarter, and said, "There, sonny, that quarter is a reward for your cleverness and fidelity," and putting the envelope in his breast pocket he walked leisurely round the corner, and, hailing a car, was whirled away at a comparatively lightning speed. Not till he had reached Union park did he draw the precious envelope from his pocket, and tear it open. He then found that the envelope contained a copy of the Chicago Times, which he could have purchased at the office for five cents.

— Cheap out-of-door breakfast. A roll on the grass.

—At the Rochester depot the other day a Saratoga trunk was put on the platform, to which was securely fasted a very old and worn out shoe. Upon investigation it was learned that the trunk was that of a bride, and that a friend instead of throwing the old shoe after her tied it to the Saratoga. It did not bring good luck, however, for she fell as stepped from the cars, and sprained her ankle.

—An account of a recent affray in Prussia shows that the old brutal spirit of Junkerdom has lost little or nothing of its ferocity of late years. It seems that a party of German officers took offence because their salute was not returned by the civilians in an inn at Georgenburg which they entered. Thereupon one of the former drew his sabre and ran one of the refractory civilians through the body, by way of giving him a lesson in good manners.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pustules, Chin Wheik, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Itching Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness; in all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.
1315 BUTTERFIELD ST.,
CHICAGO, ILL., March 4, 1879.

CUTICURA SOAP,

Medicinal and Toilet.

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the Skins of Infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, and for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents, three cakes, 75 cents.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC ELECTRIC PLASTERS

These Plasters put new life into the Weak and Sleepy Muscles, strengthen the Lame and Painful Back, draw Inflammation from the Liver and Kidneys, stimulate the Stomach and Bowels, and when placed over the pit of the Stomach, cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and Bilious Colic, prevent Ague, Malaria, and other Diseases. Get the genuine.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wineglassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

KIDNEY-WORT

The Only Remedy THAT ACTS AT THE SAME TIME ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS.

This combined action gives it wonderful power to cure all diseases.

Why Are We Sick?

Because we allow these great organs to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are therefore forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.

KIDNEY-WORT WILL CURE

BILIOUSNESS, PILES, CONSTIPATION, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, URINARY DISEASES, FEMALE WEAKNESSES, AND NERVOUS DISORDERS,

by causing free action of these organs and restoring their power to throw off disease.

Why Suffer Bilious pains and aches? Why tormented with Piles, Constipation? Why frightened over disordered Kidneys? Why endure nervous or sick headache? Why have sleepless nights?

The KIDNEY-WORT and rejoice in health. It is a dry, vegetable compound and one package will make six clear Medicine. If of your Druggist, he will order it for you. Price, $1.00.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES

LAXATIVE CATHARTIC.

Pleasant to the taste; Effective without Griping.

CURE CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS AND LIVER TROUBLES.

They take the place of the nauseating and violent cathartics used to relieve Costiveness, Piles, and Inactivity of the Liver. Formerly, two or three PRUNES acts as a mild laxative; two or three as the effect of cathartic medicine or griping. No bad effects but without fail relieve. Children, from half a prune, follow repeated use.

☞ A prune takes at bedtime acts like a charm. The medication is entirely vegetable and healthy. Physicians recommend them. Druggists keep them.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases,

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley, Malt and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up new the nervous, muscular (tonic) and muscular system. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

Collins' Voltaic Plasters relieve in 5 minutes.

Sanford's Jamaica Ginger, the Delicious.

SHAKERS'

SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and debilitation of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in its effects upon general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 19, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, ESQ.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,
NICHOLAS A. BRIGGS,
JOSEPH WOODS, Trustees.

Our New York Fashion Letter.

THE NEW BONNET.

New bonnets are so similar in outline to those of the winter, that the desire for distinction which seems inherent in the human breast, must needs find scope in other directions. So in consequence, there is oftentimes the most lavish piling together of extreme colors that ever you saw, while manufacturers of flowers, although sometimes content with giving them to us in patterns copied after nature, have oftener preferred to go far beyond her modest dictates—and thus we see enormous red or yellow daisies, asters twice the size of those that a garden ever produced, etc., etc. There is a strong partiality for wide-open, many-petaled flowers, and therefore any variety coming under such appellation is sought for. Foliage is at a discount, and though not abandoned, is but sparingly intermixed, and for the most part in unpretentious shades of green. Flowers, in consequence, are massed in rows or great bunches, with staring effect, but we have grown accustomed to these pronounced dispositions and scarcely look at them; a toning down of extravagant results is oftentimes produced by soft serge silk in one delicate shade throughout, or by the use of solid colored ribbon. Other silks and ribbons however are extremely bright, and in varied combinations as to color. Striped ribbons are quite fashionable; and dots, both in self color and in gay contrasts, and of all sizes, are in vogue.

COSTUMES.

Combination suits are genuine combinations, for the two materials are united throughout, and this to the disadvantage of a skirt of one fabric and overdress of another. The latter idea indeed is almost wholly excluded except in case of some elegant, light material, but even here the skirt should correspond in tone with what is worn above, and there is almost always a unity apparent somewhere. Trimmed skirts and basques are extremely fashionable, and in this style we find the Delphine costume which embodies the latest ideas. Even wash dresses follow, and are shown ready made with unlined, tight fitting basque or half fitting jacket which can be belted in. In general, the trimming on the skirt is so arranged that it can be displaced for washing, but it is of course more convenient to have a separate overskirt, and here we find the Mabrilla, which is at once simple and graceful. The Gwendoline costume, suitable for silk or wool, is made with a long coat-shaped basque and trained skirt on which the drapery is very handsomely disposed; and the Croisette basque would be quite becoming to a full figure, as it is long and plain on the sides. For travelling, the Windsor redingote answers the same purpose as an ulster, but it is of newer shape. Wash dresses are constantly relieved by ribbon bows, and silk or wool costumes are also adorned in like manner, but to a limited extent only. Buttons are a favorite addition to the last named varieties of outfits, and are in such diversity that a description would be never ending. At times they ornament costumes of plain wool instead of brocade, and form a beautiful and glittering finish. Everywhere there is a rage for shirring, so much so that it can hardly be overdone or misplaced. But plaitings are likewise very popular.

GLOVES, ETC.

In kid gloves the Harris kid lace top is extremely elegant, and especially adapted to summer wear, as an opportunity is given for a display of the beautiful finish at the top. Such finish is of kid finely cut to resemble lace, and it is so skillfully done that the imitation is remarkable. It is either of uniform color with the gloves or of white kid contrasted with some stylish shade, and altogether is by far the most attractive glove shown. The Harris seamless retains position as a perfect fitting and very durable glove. This style is without ornament at the top, long at the wrist and with delicate self stitching on the back.

Among modern conveniences, a prominent place must be given to Cash's woven initial letters, which are fast superceding the old marking-ink bottle, stamping, or any other such inconvenience. They are woven of a useful size in Old English type, in Turkey red color which is perfectly fast, and being all woven on the same sized piece of cloth for the ground, can be sewn on with a machine or by hand. They are made up in small boxes, each containing twelve dozen letters of a kind, or they can be bought in any quantity, as they are brought out in long strips that can be cut to suit purchasers. Many a lady allows her clothing or household linen to remain unmarked, rather than go through the process of handling hot irons, run the risk of spilling ink, etc. By the new method, marking becomes a pleasant pastime, almost like some piece of easy fancy work. Handsome monograms are also seen.

The Harmonious Democracy.

The democratic factions of the state of New York held their separate conventions at Syracuse on the 20th inst. The Tammany convention held out an olive branch—a sort of an olive branch—to the Tilden convention, but it was contemptuously declined by the latter. Each convention then elected delegates to the national democratic convention, and adjourned. The factions are more bitter than ever against each other, and there is little prospect of the breach being healed.

The Storm Signals.

Cape Cod has recently furnished an illustration of the folly of disregarding the storm signals. On Saturday, the 27th ult., the morning opened with a clear, bright sky, warm southerly winds, very nearly calm, and with every indication of continuous fair weather. At 11:30 A. M., and while the sky was yet unclouded, across the wires flashed the warning words "up signals" for Highland light and Provincetown. At nine P. M. one of the most furious southeast gales and snow storms of the winter was sweeping the country and the coast. The schooner Ann S. Brown, of Barnstable, left North Truro harbor in the morning with the signals in full view, was driven on the rocks near Boston light, and totally lost with all on board. Schooner John A. Cook left port at the same time bound to the north shore, and next day was seen off Thatcher's island, bottom up, her crew probably having perished. A young man left the harbor in a dory to go to his home in Truro, only just across the bay; a few days later his boat drifted ashore at Sandwich.

News and Notes.

The disasters from the tornados in the western states on the night of the 18th inst., exceed anything heretofore known in this country. The storm seems to have extended over a very large part of Missouri. Great destruction of property and loss of life occurred in other states. The pecuniary loss at Marshfield, Mo., is estimated at from $360,000 to $400,000. Every business house in the place is in ruins. Of the eight hundred inhabitants, seven-eighths are without houses, clothing, food, or means to procure them. The dead number nearly one hundred, and over two hundred are seriously injured.

By a fire in Richmond, Me., April 21st, $110,000 worth of property was destroyed, and over two hundred persons thrown out of employment.

Capt. James Rackliff died at Portland, Me., April 21st, aged one hundred years, five months and fifteen days. He was a veteran sea captain and merchant. He was made a Mason in 1808, and there it is said are only four older Masons in the country.

Stearns K. Abbott was arraigned in the supreme court at Lowell, on the 21st, for the murder of Mrs. Maria L. Crue at Groton, Mass., last winter. He pleaded not guilty, and counsel was assigned him by the court.

A Philadelphia despatch says: "Catharine Hill, a colored woman, has filed an application for a pension. She enlisted and served in the Union army three years under the name of Henry Williams. She enlisted because she shot Henry Stump, son of Judge Stump of Perryville, Md."

James Jolly, recently taken back to Georgia from Mississippi for the murder of a Miss Norris in Dekalb county, Ga., three years ago, took the officers to the spot where she was buried. The body was found near the surface. Considerable excitement exists in the county, and there are threats of lynching.

Frank Leslie, the well known publisher, having turned away his wife of thirty years and disinherited his children, leaving all his property to a mistress whom he finally married after forcing his wife to submit to a divorce, is having his life overhauled in a New York court, the children having brought suit to contest his will.

Stephen M. Pillsbury, Jr., formerly of Newburyport but recently of South Boston, committed suicide in a barn at Chelsea some time between Sunday morning, the 18th inst., and noon of the following day. He arranged pieces of joist, a broad axe and other articles in such a manner that his head was cut completely off.

The trial of the negro, Thomas Smothers, for outrage on Miss Liens, in Washington, D. C., resulted on the 20th inst. in a verdict of guilty, and Smothers will go to the penitentiary for thirty years. The jury consisted of eight negroes and four whites.

Ah Lee, a Chinaman, was hanged at Portland, Oregon, April 20th, for a murder committed over two years ago.

Ten thousand tons of ice owned by a Mr. Ensign, and located at Point Roche, slid into lake Champlain on the 19th inst. Loss, $12,000.

W. H. Hammond and George J. Johnson, two citizens of Rome, Ga., had a quarrel, which resulted in Hammond stabbing Johnson in the back, killing him.

At Brantford, Canada, Benjamin Currier, an Indian farmer, is arrested for the brutal murder of his wife, whose head and body were terribly cut with an axe.

Wm. Weeks, charged with the murder of William Rhodes, a fish peddler, at Hicksville, L. I., in December, 1878, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to Sing Sing for life.

Naval Gazette.

Lieut. Col. Thomas Y. Field, First Lieut. George B. Haycock, Major Clement D. Hebb and Capt. Geo. Collier, of the marine corps, are ordered to examination for promotion.

Comdr. Henry B. Seeley is detached from command of the Ajax, and placed on sick leave.

The funeral of the late Col. James H. Jones, commandant of the marine force at the Charlestown navy yard, was largely attended on the 20th inst.

The U. S. S. Tennessee sailed from Hampton roads on the 21st inst., with the United States minister to Colombia on board, charged with a message to the Columbian government in reference to the De Lesseps canal project.

Admiral Rodgers reports the arrival of the Pensacola at Acapulco from Panama; she would cruise along the Mexican coast before proceeding to San Francisco.

The Trenton was at Naples April 4th, bound to the eastward; the Quinnebaug was at Leghorn on the same date, bound for Morocco. The Wyoming was at Alexandria March 17th.

The surviving officers and crew (or most of them) of Chief Engineer Wood's torpedo boat, which destroyed the confederate ram Albemarle, are making congressional efforts to have a re-adjustment of the award of their prize-money.

The Nautical Gazette well says: "The committee on naval affairs has recommended the passage of the bill which makes a navy officer judge advocate general of the navy. This place has always been held by a civilian lawyer who belonged to the bureau of justice. However much we may esteem the present incumbent, we feel it our duty to deprecate any act which puts a military officer in the judiciary, on the broad ground that it is dangerous to the republics."

It is recommended in a congressional committee, that a law be made requiring that candidates for professorships at the naval academy be examined as to qualifications before appointment. In an academy where country school boys are frequently taken as freshmen, and where a university course is given in the short space of four years, we should expect to see professors and teachers very much above the average.

DOOMAGE.

A question is asked in regard to the matter of doomage under the present tax law:

If the person fills out the blank with the exception of one item, in regard to money on hand or at interest, but in this item alone wilfully refuses to disclose, is he subject to "four-fold" doomage on his whole return, or only what is omitted?

The attorney-general settled this point last year. His decision was that a man could be doomed only for a wilful neglect or refusal, and then only on the amount which he did not return on his blank which should there appear, and not upon his whole tax. The attorney-general's words were: "If the assessors are dissatisfied with the return of a tax-payer, and seek to ascertain otherwise, as nearly as may be, the value of his property and estate for which he is liable to be taxed, and then doom him to pay four times as much as they think him legally liable to be taxed for—if this be the true interpretation of the law, then it is one of the most oppressive and odious enactments that ever found its way into the statute books of a civilized country! But this cannot be the true meaning, and in my judgment will never receive such by the court." The right of doomage attaches where there is a wilful concealment of property.

AROUND HOME.

"The Danites" at Music hall next Monday evening. It is a good show.

The fishing schooner Grace Choate went on the marine railway at Kittery on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Mr. Chas. M. Lord is not engaged as leader of the orchestra of a travelling show, as reported, nor is he thinking of joining any show.

The Collateral Loan Co., of Boston, will have their regular semi-annual sale of unredeemable articles on Tuesday next, at which time they will offer some excellent bargains in watches, diamonds, silver-ware, etc.

The Gloucester, Mass., Bulletin says it was the schooner Nevada, which arrived at that port on the 17th inst., which picked up and carried in the sailboat C. F. Conant, missing from this port since the 11th inst. The Bulletin reports the boat as picked up on Georges, but gives no information as to when or in what condition she was found. The collector of the port of Gloucester writes that the boat when picked up contained neither sail, oars nor ballast.

Capt. David R. Grogan, of Newcastle, the recently appointed keeper of the Isles of Shoals light, is in every way fitted for the position, being an experienced light-keeper and an intelligent, trustworthy and reliable man. He was appointed second assistant at Boon island several years ago, but was shortly promoted to first assistant, in which position he gave entire satisfaction, and where he remained until promoted to the keepership of White island. Having formerly for many years sailed the ocean blue, he will be alive to the necessity of letting his light shine.

William H. Dodge of Dover, acting for Thomas Donnelly, has served notice on the mayor of Dover that he intends to sue the city at an early date for the value of Donnelly's horse, which he claims was injured, and had to be killed in consequence, by being frightened by a band of music on Fast day. This is a funny affair. Dodge was the party who hired the band, for the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the reform club. The music of the band was the cause of the accident, and the party who hired the band now notifies the city that he, in behalf of Donnelly, will sue for loss sustained. Had Dodge not hired the band there would have been no accident.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

Joseph H. Gardiner, acting D. D. G. of Maine, instituted Wentworth Lodge, Knights of Honor, at Kittery, with twenty-six charter members, on Saturday evening, April 17th. The following is the list of officers:

P. D., Daniel C. Newton;
Dict., George Manent;
V. D., A. Stevenson;
A. D., Levi Goodrich;
Reporter, R. C. Goodwin;
F. R., D. M. Shapleigh;
Guide, Henry Taylor;
Chap., E. G. Adams;
Treas., Joseph Parker;
Trustees, I. O. Trefethen, Jos. H. Sewards, Geo. H. Hayes.

After the officers were elected and installed, the officers of Gov. Goodwin and Sagamore lodges of this city were invited to take the chairs, and did so, conferring the three degrees on one candidate in full, closing their labors at half-past eleven o'clock.

CLARENCE W. AMAZEEN.

A letter received in this city from Florida Tuesday evening, gives the sad intelligence that Clarence W. Amazeen of this city has been drowned in the St. John's river. He was a son of John E. Amazeen, and grandson of the late Capt. Joseph Amazeen, who died on Tuesday. For many years he was connected with the Times office in this city, and was a young man of good and industrious habits, and respected by his associates. He went from here to Florida last fall, and at the time of his death was clerk on a passenger steamer running on that river.

The accident which resulted in Mr. Amazeen's death occurred as follows: While talking with the mate of the steamer—the H. B. Plant, commanded by Capt. Fitzgerald of this city—he attempted to lean against the rail, at a place where a section had been removed, (the boat being then nearing a landing,) and fell backward into the river. Every effort was made to save him, but he sank immediately, having probably been struck by the wheel. He was to have returned north in a few weeks. The letter giving this sad news was written by the purser of the steamer, and dated the 16th inst., at which time parties were engaged in grappling for the body; and the tone of the letter shows that the quiet, manly and self-respecting character of the deceased had won the warm friendship and esteem of his associates in Florida.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

The third annual report of this excellent institution is issued, under date of February, 1880. From it we compile the following:

The whole number of children admitted during the past year was twenty-four; returned to parents, or provided for, seven; present number, seventeen. There has been no serious sickness, and the general health is good. During the three years of the institution's existence, forty-one children have been cared for. The majority of the children have their board partially or wholly paid by friends; there are several, however, from whom nothing is received, and on this account there is special need of contributions.

The trustees are: Rev. Charles A. Holbrook, Hon. Daniel Marcy, Commo. C. W. Pickering, U. S. N., Hon. Albert R. Hatch, Ex-Gov. Ichabod Goodwin, T. Salter Tredick. Rev. Mr. Holbrook is rector, Mrs. John H. Yeaton treasurer, and Miss Hannaford matron of the home.

The objects of the home are thus set forth in the report:

The reception of homeless children under twelve years of age without distinction of creed or color, of the following classes:

1. Motherless children whose fathers, especially seafaring men, are obliged by occupation to be much away from home, and who have no proper person to care for their children during absence.

2. Children of poor parents, obliged by long continued sickness to neglect their families, and who place their children for a season in our care expecting upon recovery to claim their own.

3. Children rendered temporarily homeless by fire or other accident.

4. Children whose homes have been broken up by the intemperance or desertion of father or mother; under such circumstances the parent remaining pays, according to ability, a certain sum at regular periods.

5. Children left orphans, or abandoned by both parents, whose friends or relatives bring them temporarily to us, while finding a proper home for them elsewhere.

To train the children in practical home duties, to encourage habits of honesty, truthfulness, purity and industry, to prepare them to take their position in after life as useful members of society, to give a Christian home to those who otherwise would have perhaps no home at all; such are some of the aims and objects of the work. Children placed at the home are not surrendered to the institution, but are held subject to the personal or written order of parents or authorized relatives. Children who are old enough, will be sent to the public schools in the district in which the home is situated, and when especially desired, will be allowed to attend such places of religious worship as their parents or guardians may desire. When it is possible, it is expected that those who place their children in the home will pay according to their ability, towards their support.

It will be seen that the home can be only partially self-supporting under the circumstances. Any offerings of moneys or useful articles will be thankfully received. Money may be sent to the rector or treasurer; other things to the home, No. 51 Court street.

The treasurer's financial report shows total cash receipts for the year of $1724.71; expenditures $1452.90; balance, $271.81. Included in the receipts is the legacy of $500 from the late John Walker.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The ice for the summer hotels and boarding houses in York was mostly procured from the local ponds during the winter just past; the supply is considered sufficient. Mr. Andrew Webber cut seven hundred cakes on his pond, the cakes being eighteen inches square and fourteen inches thick.

The farmers of York county last year paid more than usual attention to the raising of poultry, and "kept over" larger flocks than common. During the winter and early spring quite a number of fat hens have died from what seems to be an enlargement of the liver—a similar complaint to that of which so many turkeys died in that section last fall.

New Hampshire Items.

Maj. Thomas A. Ambrose died very suddenly at Concord, April 20th. He was for many years landlord and proprietor of the Central house in Boston, and subsequently landlord of the Eagle hotel in Concord. He was nearly seventy years of age.

A jury was impanelled at Keene, on the 20th inst., to try the alleged murderers of Mr. Foster. Sixty-seven names were drawn before the panel was completed.

At Pittsfield, on the 12th inst., Albert Wiggin, aged sixteen years, and another youth, named George Brown, were splitting wood together, when, as Brown reached over to strike on his partner's end of the log, his axe struck Wiggin in the knee, splitting the bone in two lengthwise. Surgical aid was immediately obtained, but the nature of the wound is such that he cannot live.

New Publications.

Blackwood's Magazine for April, 1880, has been republished by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., No. 41 Barclay street, New York. The following are the contents: Brummagem morality; Reata, —Part XIII; The peasant proprietors of Norway; Bush-life in Queensland,—Part V; The Afghan war,—passages from the Note-book of a staff Officer,—Part II; Eleanour—a tale of non-performers; The Prince Consort; The Crisis Abroad; The appeal to the country. The periodicals reprinted by The Leonard Scott Publishing Co. are as follows: The London Quarterly, Edinburg, Westminster, and British Quarterly Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine. Price, $4 a year for any one, or only $15 for all, and postage is prepaid by the publishers.

The May number of the Eclectic is at hand, and contains, besides its literary attractions, a fine steel engraved portrait of the venerable Dr. Leonard Bacon. The literary contents are varied and interesting, comprising the following articles: "Copyright," by Matthew Arnold; "The northeast passage: narrative of Lieut. Palander, Swedish royal navy, commander of the exploring vessel;" "An eye-witness of John Kemble and Edmund Kean," by Theodore Martin; "Yoshida-Torajiro," a bit of Japanese biography; "Radiant matter," by D. Pidgeon; "The bells of Lynn," a poem; "Henri Regnault;" "White Wings: a yachting romance," by William Black; "Greek and Christian views of beauty," by Rev. R. St. John Tyrwhitt; "Chippers of flint;" "Fate, or God?" by Paul H. Hayne; "Mademoiselle de Mersac," a story; "On the art of sketching from nature in water-colors," by Walter Severn; "Chinese proverbs;" "An old boat," a poem; a biographical sketch of Dr. Leonard Bacon (to accompany the portrait;) and copious editorial departments of "Literary notices," "Foreign literary notes," "Science and art," and "Varieties." Published by E. R. Pelton, No. 25 Bond street, New York. Terms, $5 per year; single number, forty-five cents; trial subscription for three months, $1.

"Corn is King." Far more bushels of corn are raised in America than of all other grain crops added together. For some weeks now this will occupy most attention. The American Agriculturist for May gives instructive results of hundreds of careful experiments with fertilizers on corn during 1878 and 1879; and there are some 130 other articles, and seventy-five original engravings, all useful and instructive to every cultivator of a small garden or a large farm. The department of agriculture gets a hard hit for sending out some bogus seed. Exposure of humbugs, hints and helps for farmers, various dairy matters, etc., etc., makes this a valuable number. Price fifteen cents, or $1.50 a year. Orange Judd Company, New York, publishers.

—Sensible married men always depend on their better halves when they want to change their quarters.

A Stitch in Time Saves Nine

is true of old coats, and mouths. When the former shows the first defect take a "stitch," and always keep the mouth right by using SOZODONT. Ipecots less for a new coat than a set of teeth. False teeth are not as pleasant as natural ones.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty-five cents a box. t,thsf

ELEGANT CITY RESIDENCE

— AND —

Nine Acres of Land,

AT AUCTION.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell at Public Auction on

Saturday, May 1, at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M.,

The new French Roof Cottage DWELLING HOUSE and BARN connected with the same, upon the corner of Creek Street and Boyd Road, and fronting Westerly Street in Portsmouth, N. H., near the Woodbury mansion, with nine acres of CHOICE LAND where the same stands, on which is an excellent ORCHARD of forty pear, peach, and quince trees, and one hundred and forty apple trees of choice varieties.

The house is quite new, having been erected in 1877; is thoroughly finished inside; contains nine good-sized rooms, and very high-studded; a nice cellar and dairy, and two water cisterns of brick, with one hundred and forty barrels capacity. The house is heated by a furnace, and in all respects is a comfortable and convenient residence for anybody. There is a good well of water upon the premises, and a carriage-house and shed, connecting the house and barn.

The situation commands a fine view of the city and vicinity, and the grounds afford a fine opportunity for improvement and adornment according to the taste of the owner. In addition to the gardens and orchards, the land will produce from twelve to fifteen tons of hay; and to any one desiring a comfortable and pleasant home in close proximity to the city this affords a rare opportunity.

Also at the same time will be sold one new two-horse dump-cart, two-horse wagon, two-horse mowing machine, one express wagon, one carriage, harnesses, and a large amount of small TOOLS, including forks, shovels, plows, etc.; also about two hundred gallons cider, and part of the household furniture; also one valuable DRIVING HORSE, acknowledged to be one of the best in the city.

The premises can be seen at any time after the 27th, upon application to C. B. MASON.

☞ Sale Positive.

Valuable Real Estate at Auction

IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JAMES W. DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of May next, at half-past three o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equidistant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with pantries, and heated by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellars. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Stimson street containing 25,500 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERGEANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 41 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEWIS of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Stockholders of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire will be held at the ward room near the passenger station of the Eastern railroad, in Portsmouth, on TUESDAY the fourth day of May next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the following purposes:

To elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and to transact any other business that may legally come before them.

Stap19 WILLIAM H. HACKETT, Clerk.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 19, 1880.

During last fall six suits were commenced in the courts of Massachusetts against Jay Gould to recover nearly $3,000,000 on claims growing out of "Black Friday" transactions. Gould recently obtained in New York a temporary injunction restraining the defendants from prosecuting the suits in Massachusetts, or bringing any others on similar claims.

A new and curious case of death from poisoning has occurred in Philadelphia. A young woman who wore colored stockings and shoes with copper nails, had her heel punctured by one of the latter. Inflammation immediately set, in and in a few days she died. Physicians do not know whether to attribute the poisoning to the stocking or to the nail, or to both.

During the five years of Gladstone's administration England's national debt was decreased £26,196,919; during five years under Beaconsfield the decrease was £1,294,405. During five years under Gladstone taxation was decreased £12,451,000, and during five years under Beaconsfield it was increased £1,378,900. The gross expenditure during the same time under Gladstone's administration was £268,612,208; while under Beaconsfield's it was £401,739,323. It is no wonder that the favorite "strong man" with the English voters is William E. Gladstone.

Don't Give Up.

What if you have tried different "put up" medicines in vain. Have you not been equally disappointed in some physicians? Do not consider your case incurable until you have made a thorough trial of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. They are chemically pure, of uniform strength, and have come into general use by reason of superior merit. In cases of general and nervous debility, consumption, bronchitis, dyspepsia, liver complaint, scrofulous bunches, ulcers and eruptions, the Golden Medical Discovery is a speedy and positive cure; while thousands of women, who had for years been bed-ridden, have, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, been restored to perfect health. The introduction of these two remedies has revolutionized the treatment of chronic diseases. Patients are no longer depleted and salivated, as the tonic and alterative properties of the Discovery long since demonstrated a better way. Ladies need no longer submit to the use of the caustics and knife, as the Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to cure the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. Mrs. Samuel M. Kemper, of Gallaudet, Ind., writes, "Your Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Purgative Pellets have save my life."

HOW TO MANAGE IT. To make the world understand this very important matter is a question. The very important matter is this: Mr. W. E. Clarke, Providence, R. I., prepares a positive cure for all kidney, bladder, liver and urinary complaints—including the terror, Bright's disease. The medicine is Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and liver medicine, and it is certainly a marvel. Mr. Clarke desire us to make this important fact known, and to say that he will send free to any who apply, a pamphlet abundantly proving it. Remember the name, Hunt's Remedy. Sold by all druggists. Trial size, 75 cents.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is certainly proved to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pushes, Chin Wheik, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin: Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Scrofulous Tumors, Boils, Scalds, Burns, Itching Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 23, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seven long years I suffered with Salt Rheum. I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for over two years. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors PRES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley Malt and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up anew the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For dyspepsia, feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and despairing coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 19, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, ESQ.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our Society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,
NICHOLAS A. BRIGGS, JOSEPH WOODS, } Trustees.

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES

LAXATIVE & CATHARTIC.

Pleasant to the taste, Effective without Griping.

CURE CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS AND LIVER TROUBLES.

They take the place of the nauseating and violent cathartics used to relieve Costiveness, Piles, and inaction of the Liver. For adults, one MEDICATED PRUNE acts as a mild laxative; two or three by the effect, a saline cathartic medicine or mineral waters but without nausea or griping. No half-sick feeling follows repeated use. For children, a prune taken at bed-time acts like a charm. The medication is entirely vegetable and healthful. Physicians recommend them. Druggists keep them.

Daily Chronicle.

The Story of a Drink.

During the war our townsman, James F. Moore, on one occasion went out in front of our lines to give some water to a wounded Yankee, who was lying in a helpless condition upon the grounds but lately occupied by the federal forces and from which they had recently been driven. The man was crying piteously for water, and the bullets were rattling around from both armies. Moore said he intended to risk the exposure to do the deed of mercy, and went out to him. It proved to be a captain of a Pennsylvania regiment, who was profuse with thanks, and offered Moore his gold watch, which the gallant confederate declined. He begged for his name, that he might, if he survived the war, remember him. This he wrote down in his memorandum book. The captain recently wrote here to know if Moore was living; said he was rich, but dying of consumption, and desired to provide for him in his will. Mr. Moore wrote to him and received a friendly letter in reply telling him that there was $10,000 set apart for his use, to be paid in installments of $2,000 each. The federal soldier has since died, and recently the payment of $2,000 was received. Truly, 'tis "good to give even a cup of cold water in the right spirit."—Fort Smith (Ark.) Herald.

The Invention of Steel Pens.

According to the following extract from a manuscript document in the library of Aix-la-Chapelle, entitled "Historical Chronicle of Aix-la-Chapelle, Second book, year 1748," edited by the writer to the mayoralty, "Johann Janssen," it would appear that the invention of steel pens is of older date than is commonly supposed. The paper referred to says: "Just at the meeting of the congress I may without boasting claim the honor of having invented new pens. It is perhaps not an accident that God should have inspired me at the present time with the idea of making steel pens, for all the envoys here assembled have bought the first that have been made, therewith, as may be hoped, to sign a treaty of peace, which with God's blessing, shall be as permanent as the hard steel with which it is written. Of these pens, as I have invented them, no man hath before seen or heard; if kept clean and free from rust or ink, they will continue fit for use for many years. Indeed, a man may write twenty sheets of paper with one, and the last line would be written as well as the first. They are now sent into every corner of the world as a rare thing—to Spain, France and England. Others will no doubt make imitations of my pens, but I am the man who first invented and made them. I have sold a great number of them at home and abroad, at one shilling each, and I dispose of them as quickly as I can make them."

—The latest fancy in dinner cards is to have a real flower attached to a card cut diagonally at the ends.

—London is startled by a sensational breach of promise of marriage. A young guardsman, the head of a rich country family, after two years' engagement, allowed the preparations for his marriage to go so far that besides insisting on the selection of his fiancee's wedding dress, he ordered the wedding cards, purchased the ring and traveling trunks (with his own initials on those of the lady,) had the lady's monogram on her two carriages altered to his own, selected the clergyman, and, last, read over the settlement to his affianced wife four days before the intended ceremony, then left town, and has not since been near his waiting bride. The lady has sued her faithless lover.

"My Tormented Back,"

is the exclamation of more than one poor hardworking man and woman; do you know why it aches? It is because your Kidneys are over-tasked, and need strengthening, and your system needs to be cleansed of bad humors. Kidney-Wort is the medicine you need. "It acts like a charm," says a physician, "I never knew it to fail."

—A southern paper has an article headed "Facts about beavers, and how to catch them." This will be interesting reading for people whose beavers blow off and lead them an exasperating chase on windy days.

"The best cough medicine in the world." The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 35c; large, $1. eod&wtmay

—So many societies for the promotion of things are established that Johnnie wants to know why somebody doesn't get up a society for the promotion of boys in school without making them study so.

Why suffer from that cough when Adamson's Botanic Balsam will speedily and surely cure you? Children like it. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers at 35 cts. Trial size, 10 cts.

—A machine has been invented which is to be placed at Genesee Falls at Rochester, N. Y., in the spring, and it is intended to compress air to supply the city with a motor capable of working all portions of machinery in the city, running all street cars at one-tenth the present cost, and able to supply the city with a light cheaper, softer and safer than the Edison horse-shoe light."

Kidney-Wort will cure kidney and liver diseases and worst cases of piles.

—No boy will do anything to discourage hornets from building a nest in the school house or say anything about it during vacation, but he'll be awfully afraid of being stung when school begins.

Secret Societies.

In many countries of the earth secret societies have long been in vogue. The school-boy at the academy never feels better than when he joins the school secret society, and on the next day sports the usual mystic breast-pin. Then in college, he delights in membership of the time-honored societies upon whose rolls are the names of men famous in literature, politics and professional repute. Emerging from college, he seeks other societies, and early becomes enrolled as a member of this or that order, always enjoying the pleasures and privileges of the new relations until, satiated, he turns to some other "association where he may spend his time and his money.

There is doubtless much that is helpful in some of the ancient and perhaps modern organizations which invite the new recruit to join their ranks, but there is such a thing as overdoing this pastime.

The readiness of many to join something is easily seized upon by the knowing ones who act as financial sponsors to the modern society. To-day these "institutions," if we may be allowed the use of so comprehensive a word for such a class of results, are the projections of men who know the passion of mankind for such kind of pastime. The mode of organization is based upon and takes the shape of guarantees of indemnity, in case of death. In other words, as the life insurance companies will only insure persons in good health, those in poor health or with constitutional or acquired disability, and not insurable, are invited to join some society wherein in case of death, an assessment is paid and the family of the deceased is promised to be paid a given sum, as if insured by some sound and reliable insurance company.

This plan takes, first, because the assessment seems light; and second, from the circumstance that men of all things delight in being humbugged. In other words, they do not investigate for themselves but take upon trust the guaranty of some one who is shrewder than themselves that in the dim future the benefits shall come, no matter if no safeguards are used as security for the expected benefit. To give a zest to the appetite for joining these schemes, a veil of secrecy is cast over them. The managers organize a head centre or parent "lodge," give dispensations for a reasonable consideration, designate a pleasing and high-toned appellation for their body, and issue charters to subordinate organizations; while they luxuriate upon the results of the scheme. The order flourishes under different names; at one time it will be known as the Order of Red Heads, then as the Knights of the Blue Shirt, again as the Soldier of the Scarred Poll; indeed the name must be one which, like the treasurer, "takes." No one asks as to security, perpetuity or reliability of these prolific associations. No one thinks he is becoming attached to an organization which may at any moment crumble to pieces. It is the fun of paying away money for an uncertainty which the people want, and while the minority of prudent and sagacious men are content with savings banks and life assurance, as the mode of preparation for the "rainy day," the great majority seem to stand forth and reaching out their arms as if in welcome of some new and untried project with which to expend their savings, seem to cry out as with one voice, "Come and relieve us—of our money."

In Great Britain these associations have started, many like mushrooms growing in a single night; but experience has shown that the want of reliable management, the inability to continue the collection of voluntary contributions, and the lack of a continuing interest in the associations, added to the fact that after reflecting upon the system so many members become satisfied of its impracticability, and one by one retire from the co-operation, have caused most of them to suspend or go out of sight. But like all such projects the system must have its day in our country. It must convince by experience and not by the cautionary suggestion of those who look far enough to see the workings of the attempt to cheapen insurance, and of course in attaining this information the members must roundly pay, as is the invariable experience in all such instances, of which the history of the world is not without frequent illustrations.

New Hampshire Items.

Mrs. Charles Maynard of Lyndeboro, a lady about thirty-five years of age, cut her throat, Friday morning, April 16th, and died soon after. She leaves four young children.

The brick dry house of the Keene Chair company at south Keene was burned on the 21st inst., with 11,000 chair-frames. Loss $2,000; no insurance.

State Fish Commissioner Hayes has just placed 20,000 trout, hatched at Plymouth, in the streams near the Fabyan and Glen houses in the White mountains. Commissioner Powers has put about 50,000 young salmon in the waters near Plymouth. The other 100,000 hatched will soon be distributed in various localities.

The store and tenement house of Samuel J. Evans, at Lancaster, was so badly damaged by fire on the 21st inst. as not to be worth repairing. The goods, which were uninsured, were all saved. Loss on building and contents of tenement, $2,000; fully insured.

Charles P. Chamberlin of Woodville, who mysteriously disappeared a short time since, has been found and taken back to his home. He wandered away in an insane condition, and is still unable to give any account of his travels. He had a similar attack once before, immediately following his discharge from Libby prison, from which place he was released near the close of the war greatly enfeebled in body and mind.

The second day of the Foster murder trial at Keene was spent in taking the court, jury, prisoners and counsel over the road to Bellows Falls, by the same route a team was driven on the night of the murder. Certain houses and places of note were pointed out for reference during the trial; also the tall bridge, and where one of the party took a back street to keep out of sight. There are about 200 witnesses, some of whom have come from Iowa.

Naval Gazette.

Commander Bunce, of the Marion, at Montevideo, under date of March 10th reports all the yellow-fever patients well except two or three, who were not quite strong enough to go on duty. He expected to have the officers and crew on board by April 1st. His opinion is that the fever was brought on board in the fuel taken on at Rio. Every want of the crew, sick and well, who are on Flores island, has been supplied. No deaths other than those heretofore reported have occurred.

News and Notes.

The Boston & Maine railroad pays a dividend of $3.50 a share, May 15th.

Three men in jail at Moberly, Mo., charged with murder, were taken out of jail on the 21st inst. by a mob of masked men. One of the accused, named Ira Caisson, confessed, whereupon he was put back in jail, and the other two, Yancy and Mitchell, were hung.

On Wednesday evening, the 21st inst., while the Habneman Hospital fair was in progress at Madison Square Garden in New York, the front wall of the building fell out into the street, and a part of the roof fell in upon the eight hundred or more people present. Several persons were killed and many wounded, and paintings valued at $150,000 were destroyed. The building, which is owned by Wm. H. Vanderbilt, was injured to the amount of $40,000.

A duel occurred at Jacksonville, Fla., just beyond the city limits, Wednesday noon, April 21st, between two Cubans, Raphael Toledo and Yudaleirs Pina, both cigar makers. Three shots were exchanged, and Toledo was killed.

A quarrel occurred near Compton Mills, N. J., on the night of the 20th inst., between James Sheppard and his brother-in-law, Heinrich Moran. Moran stabbed Sheppard twice with a large case knife, inflicting fatal wounds. Moran is at large.

A fire in Hull, Ont., near Ottawa, April 21st, destroyed between 700 and 800 buildings; 4,000 people are homeless, and many lives were lost.

H. Limberg shot Wm. M. Gray dead in a broil at Chicago, on the 20th inst.

W. Ezell shot Dr. Dalton dead at Mayfield, Ky., during a family quarrel, April 20th.

A man who suicided recently in Worcester county, Mass., left the following note for his friends' consolation; "Method, poisoned by prussic acid; cause, none of your business; destination, hell."

Charles Smith stabbed Jack Wilson dead in Cincinnati, on the 21st inst. Both were colored men.

James Jewett, a policeman, shot Chas. Cooley dead in his store at Nelsonville, Ohio, on the evening of April 21st, and then shot himself in the head.

Wm. Ramsey shot Samuel Woodlaw in Philadelphia, Wednesday night, April 21st, in a quarrel.

—Do not get hopping mad, if you find a hop scotch diagram on your sidewalk now.

—When a Kentucky man got well enough to be out after a difficulty with a mule, he fixed the treadmill of a sawing machine so that it would roll, put a tempting measure of oats in the manger at the upper end, and left the mule alone with the contrivance, and after the animal had worked for half a day in vain effort to climb up to those oats, every time he had stepped forward on the mill it having rolled back with him, that mule was the most fatigued, ugliest, maddest, most disgusted creature in Kentucky, and the avenger felt as tickled as though he had won $48 at poker.

Who Is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has specially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 2

Rev. John W. Murphy, formerly of this city, and for several years pastor of St. Mary's church at Bangor, Me., has been appointed rector of the cathedral at Portland, in place of Rev. Father Bradley, who has been transferred to Manchester in this state. Father Murphy will close his labors in Bangor on the 1st of May.

Mr. Samuel Lamprey will commence a dancing school for young ladies, masters and misses, in Mechanics' hall on Wednesday afternoon, May 5th, to continue on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons for a period of twelve lessons. Mr. Lamprey is the best teacher of dancing this city has had since he first commenced to give instruction, and will teach all the latest styles. For terms, etc., see advertisement.

Mr. Edwin J. Hobbs, keeper of White island light, a soldier in Capt. Thacher's company during the war, has been summarily bounced to make room for a civilian. Mr. Hobbs' record as a keeper is A 1. The light-house board declined to remove him, and it is thought that Sec'y Sherman, who issued the order for removal, cannot have fully investigated the subject. Hobbs has asked for an investigation.

The alarm of fire at about three o'clock last Thursday afternoon was occasioned by a slight fire in the barn at Henry R. Stoddard's place, near Frank Jones' residence. The alarm was not a very big one, but it was larger than the fire, which was probably occasioned by the putting of a lighted cigar in a coat pocket; the coat was burned, and the floor was a little scorched, but the conflagration was all out before the fire department could get near it.

It is with pleasure that we chronicle the appearance in this city on the evening of Thursday, May 6th, at Music hall, of the charming and ever welcome Maggie Mitchell in her popular and original creation of "Little Barefoot." Her present engagement at the Grand Opera house, New York, has been a succession of ovations, the sign "Standing room only" being displayed every night. See future advertisement for particulars, and of the opening sale of tickets.

The obsequies of Capt. John Amazeen and his wife were held in St. John's church on the 22d inst., a large congregation assembling to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed. The funeral procession presented the unusual and saddening spectacle of two hearses moving side by side, and the two bodies were laid in one grave at the south cemetery. The pall-bearers were Daniel Marcy, John R. Reding, William Simes, Lyman D. Spalding, T. E. O. Marvin, John Rand, Oliver M. Knight and W. Freeman.

THE DANITES.

This play, which is to be presented at Music hall on Monday evening, is essentially an American play, and is one of the most pleasing dramas of the sensational class; the scene is laid in the "diggins" districts of the Sierras, and the various odd characters introduced are amusing in the extreme. The following, which we clip from an exchange, is a fair description of the piece:

This play is a strong one, because it embraces the two most essential elements of the drama. Its plot is the working out of a mystery by the dramatis personæ, which is not a mystery to the audience. All of their actions arise from mistaken motives which are so clearly comprehended by the auditors that at times they feel like rising in their seats and letting the deluded actors into the secret. This has been the cardinal principal of the drama from time immemorial. The mystery in the present instance is that of a maiden following her lover in the disguise of male attire, a theme which has been employed by poets and romancers since literature had an existence. Poetry and pathos are imparted by the lover paying court to and marrying another, in the sight and knowledge of the helpless girl, who will do nothing to thwart her lover's happiness. The treatment of this theme is perfectly pure, as the girl does not assume male attire at first to follow her lover, but to save her life from the vengeance of the Danites, two of whom are pursuing her as the last member of a family which has fallen by their hands, and whose death is necessary to their safety.

APPROPRIATIONS--1879--1880.

The city councils last year voted to raise on the polls and estates of the inhabitants of this city, and non-residents liable to be taxed, the sum of $129,000, which with railroad and savings bank taxes, and other income of the city, if any, was appropriated as follows:

State tax	$20,260
County tax	27,730
City debt	5,000
Interest	5,600
Salaries of city officers	5,000
Streets	7,925
Fire department	9,000
Support of the poor	4,000
Police	1,500
Watch	2,300
Street lights	2,400
Repairs and rents of school-houses	2,500
Printing	600
Roads out of the compact part of the city	1,500
Repairs of bridges	100
Schools, in addition to literary fund	20,000
Sidewalks	700
Sewers	2,500
Sprinkling streets	500
Health committee	200
Celebration of independence	100
Memorial day	150
Repairs of almshouse and buildings	100
Contingent	4,000
Land damages	400
Collector's commissions	800
Discount on taxes	6,600
South millpond	7,770
North millpond	1,000

These appropriations foot up a total of $145,235, in addition to which there was an extra appropriation of $4684.93 for the fire department, (for the purchase of new hose and steam fire engine,) bringing the total appropriations up to $149,919.93.

The appropriation bill for 1880—'81, as submitted to the city councils by the joint committee on finance, is as follows:

State tax	$16,400.00
County tax	24,515.92
City debt	5,000.00
Interest	8,300.00
Salaries	5,000.00
Streets	8,000.00
Fire department	8,800.00
Support of the poor	4,000.00
Police	1,500.00
Watch	4,200.00
Street lights	2,300.00
Repairs and rents of school-houses	1,000.00
Printing	400.00
Roads	1,500.00
Bridges	800.00
Schools	20,000.00
Sidewalks	1,000.00
Sewers	1,000.00
Sprinkling streets	500.00
Health	158.00
Memorial day	150.00
Repairs on alms house	100.00
Contingent	4,000.00
Land damages (corner of Hanover street and at south pond,)	770.00
Collector's commissions	800.00
Discount on taxes	6,500.00
North pond	300.00
New hose for fire department	1,500.00

These items foot up $126,245.52, or $23,674.41 less than the total appropriated in 1879; and if the extraordinary expenditure for fire department purposes is subtracted from last year's bill, the proposed appropriations this year are still $18,989.48 under the total of last year's.

Persons interested in the matter can see, by comparing the bill passed last year and the one introduced this year, just where the proposed saving comes in.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

George W. Pendexter, chairman of the board of assessors, appeared before the board, and explained the reason why the board of assessors asked for extra compensation. Further consideration was postponed until the next meeting.

Cornelius Keefe asked permission to encumber Washington street for purpose of making repairs; granted.

Committee on city land and buildings, to whom was referred the subject of needed repairs at the Franklin school-house, reported, stating that extensive repairs were needed, and made a request that the whole board visit the premises. Report accepted—and voted that the board visit the premises Thursday afternoon, the 29th inst., at two P. M.

In convention, John J. Pickering was elected assessor of taxes in place of Rufus K. Oxford, deceased; and James H. Thompson, Charles H. Hayes and Chas. R. Green were elected city weighers.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The appropriation bill was amended by adding $1500 for the purpose of new hose for the fire department, and as amended passed.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

Eben E. Bowley of Fremont, for larceny, was sentenced to six months in jail; Michael Carrigan, assault, thirty days in jail; Joseph W. Smith, assault, thirty days in jail; George S. Robinson of Raymond, assault, thirty days in jail.

In case Berry vs. town of Madbury, action to recover for damages alleged to have been caused by a defective highway, the jury disagreed.

In State vs. Janvrin, for obstructing an officer in the execution of his duty, a verdict of guilty was rendered.

W. H. Briant of Salem was found guilty on an indictment for selling liquor; on five other indictments he retracted his former plea, and pleaded guilty. He was fined $50 and costs on each indictment, and went to jail in default of payment.

Perkins vs. town of South Newmarket was begun Wednesday afternoon.

POLICE COURT.

George Anderson was before the court on Thursday last, charged with drunkenness, and was sent to Brentwood for ninety days, and ordered to pay $6.90 costs.

THE DURHAM MURDER.

The coroner's inquest on the body of Peter F. Devoll was concluded at Durham on the 21st inst. The body, which had been buried, was exhumed and laid in the town hall for the inspection of the jury and the public. A more careful examination disclosed some additional facts, not previously made public. The decapitation was effected so low down on the spinal column that the shoulder blade was entirely gone, and but fifteen of the vertebræ in the backbone were left. This must have been done with some sharp, heavy instrument, as the bone was cut smooth. Upon the right side six ribs were missing, and five on the left side. The whole of the internal organs were also gone. Portions of the skull and ribs picked up recently near the scene of the murder, bear marks of some keen instrument. The same was evident in the separation of the right arm at the shoulder. Marks of an animal's teeth were to be seen about the shoulders and lower part of the breast. At the conclusion of the inquest the remains were turned over to Devoll's father, who took them to Newmarket for interment. The finding of the jury was, in substance, that the death of Peter F. Devoll was caused by blows on the head from an oak club found lying near the body, and from other violence at the hands of one Joseph H. Otis, otherwise known as Geo. Armstrong.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The annual meeting of the Sullivan Mining Company will be held at Kittery, on Wednesday, May 5th.

Mr. Andrew Webber, of York, has a native goose which stocked $18 last year, a good part of which was profit.

The bridge between Buxton and Hollis, burned some weeks ago, is to be rebuilt; Buxton's half of the new bridge is to be of iron, and will cost $3000; Hollis' end is to be built of wood.

Hon. Edwin C. Moody, of York, has planted a big field of potatoes already this spring,—20,000 hills, it is reported,—putting a single potato in each hill. We hope Edwin's farming ventures will turn out better than his political ones did last year.

A small store in district No. 6, Saco, owned and occupied by Robert Brown, was burned April 19th. It contained a small stock of confectionery, tobacco and light groceries. This store was broken into and robbed some weeks ago, the stolen property being afterward found hidden in the woods near by. Cause of fire unknown.

A boy named Willie E. Lane, fifteen years old, was drowned at Salmon falls, Hollis, April 20th, by the swamping of a boat a short distance above the dam. Another boy who was in the boat swam ashore, but Lane was carried over the dam; he was a good swimmer, but was probably hurt when the boat went over, as he made no effort to save himself.

The fire which destroyed the house of Nathaniel P. Webber at York, one evening a few weeks ago, caught from a defect in the chimney during the absence of the family. It is said that a parcel of drunken rowdies who had been hanging around during the afternoon of that day, and making considerable noise, amused themselves while the house was burning by throwing back into the flames various articles of furniture which other and better people had rescued.

ELEGANT CITY RESIDENCE

— AND —

Nine Acres of Land,

AT AUCTION.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell at Public Auction on

Saturday, May 1, at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M.,

The new French Roof Cottage DWELLING HOUSE and BARN connected with the same, upon the corner of Creek street and Boyd Road, and facing Woodbury Street in Portsmouth, N. H., near the Woodbury mansion, with nine acres of CHOICE LAND where the same stands, on which is an excellent ORCHARD of forty pear, peach, and quince trees, and one hundred and forty apple trees of choice varieties.

The house is nearly new, having been erected in 1877; is thoroughly finished inside; contains nine good-sized rooms, and very high-studded; a nice cellar and dairy, and rain-water cisterns of brick, with one hundred and forty barrels capacity. The house is heated by a furnace, and in all respects is a comfortable and convenient residence for anybody. There is a good well of water upon the premises, and a carriage-house and shed, connecting the house and barn.

The situation commands a fine view of the city and vicinity, and the grounds afford a fine opportunity for improvement and adornment according to the taste of the owner. In addition to the gardens and orchards, the land will produce from twelve to fifteen tons of hay; and to any one desiring a comfortable and pleasant home in close proximity to the city this affords a rare opportunity.

Also at the same time will be sold one new two-horse dump-cart, two-horse wagon, two-horse mowing machine, one express wagon, one carriage, harnesses, and a large amount of small TOOLS, including forks, shovels, plows, etc.; also about two hundred gallons cider, and part of the household furniture; also one valuable DRIVING HORSE, acknowledged to be one of the best in the city.

The premises can be seen at any time after the 27th, upon application to C. E. MASON.

FRANK HOLMES' FINE

Dwelling House, Stable & Land,

WILL BE SOLD AT

AUCTION, Without Reserve,

On TUESDAY, May 4th, 1880,

AT 3 O'CLOCK, P. M.

On the Premises.

THE HOUSE is a frame two-story with ELL and STABLES, all new and in good order. House contains NINE ROOMS. There are two acres of good LAND with a good APPLE and PEAR ORCHARD—two WELLS and one LIVING SPRING on the premises, which are situated on the main road leading from Greenland Parade to Union Mills, and at the corner of Haines lane. The sale will be positive. A part of the purchase money can stand on a mortgage if desired. One hundred dollars will be required to be paid on the purchase to bind the sale. There are other two acres of LAND adjoining that can be purchased if wanted. This is one of the pleasantest places in Greenland, where taxes are low.

For further particulars enquire of FRANK HOLMES, on the premises, or of

Valuable Real Estate at Auction

IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equidistant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace, register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Stimson street containing 35,640 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERGEANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEWIS of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

The Missing Atalanta.

It will be a strange and a very sad coincidence if the British trading ship Atalanta, sister vessel of the ill-fated Eurydice, proves to have been lost at sea, as is now probable. The Atalanta left Bermuda on the 1st of February, bound for Portsmouth, England, and she has not been seen or spoken since. She was due at her destination weeks ago, and carried supplies for only sixty days. She was commanded by Captain Stirling, and had on board eleven officers and three hundred young seamen. The Channel fleet has been ordered to search for her, and a steamship has been sent to the Azores for tidings of her, but thus far the only report received is that of a captain of a West Indian steamer, who states that he saw on his outward journey and on his return, a large copper-bottomed vessel, bottom-up, whose name he could not make out. It is two years since the sister ship, the Eurydice, foundered off the Isle of Wight, with all on board. The tragic story of her loss can hardly have been forgotten. She was returning from the West Indies, having on board 325 officers and seamen. It was a bright afternoon, and she was sailing past the Isle of Wight, with every stitch of canvas set, passing so near the land that the crowd on the esplanade at Ventnor could make out the cordage of her rigging. A sudden squall of snow and sleet, descending without any warning, hid the vessel from view, and when the storm lifted only a moment later, the startled crowd looked in vain for the vessel. She had capsized in that terrible gust and gone to the bottom, carrying her crew with her. Only two men escaped. If now the Atalanta has gone in the same way, it would seem to be time for the British admiralty to provide more seaworthy craft for the training of young British seamen.

He Turned the Tables.

There is nothing like presence of mind after all. One dark, rainy night, old Mr. Botts, who lives on Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, was trudging homeward when he discovered that he was being dogged by a burly ruffian, evidently intent on robbery. They were in a lonely part of the town, and the man was just at his heels, when the doctor, buttoning his coat up to his chin, suddenly turned back and said to his pursuer:

"Please, sir, give me a cinee to buy something to eat. I don't want to get whisky, indeed I don't; haven't had anything to eat for two days."

"Great Scott!" exclaimed the footpad, repocketing his slungshot with profound disgust: "to think here I've been piping off a d——d pauper for over a mile." And he walked off cursing the luck.

Sambucci Wine in New York Hospitals.

Dr. Harris, of the New York Hospital, finds Speer's Sambuci Wine an excellent tonic and gentle stimulant, and recommends it, especially for Indies. Dr. Parish, of Philadelphia, pronounces it to be a purely unadulterated wine, possessing much medicinal virtue, and uses it for its purity, fine flavor, medicinal properties, and non-intoxicative qualities, &c. Our limited space forbids any more extracts from letters of similar import from numerous physicians and clergymen. It has been found to be the best Wine for Dropy, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, the aged and infirm, it gives strength and vigor. Excellent for Females.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

—The best case of absent-mindedness of which we have lately heard was that of a Heidleberg professor. While he was crossing a street a watering cart let its flood loose upon him. The professor quietly raised his umbrella and walked two blocks before he discovered that the sun was shining brightly.

How to manage it. To make the world understand this very important matter is a question. The very important matter is this: Mr. W. E. Clarke, Providence, R. I., prepares a positive cure for all kidney, bladder, liver and urinary complaints—including the terror, Bright's disease. The medicine is Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and liver medicine, and it is certainly a marvel. Mr. Clarke desire us to make this important fact known, and to say that he will send free to any who apply, a pamphlet abundantly proving it. Remember the name, Hunt's Remedy. Sold by all druggists. Trial size, 75 cents.

—How to manage hair pins is told by a fashion writer:—"Stick all your hairpins downward; then you will not be annoyed by their falling out by the way, neither will your friends be worried by mental calculations as to how long it will be before a hair-pin falls, when it hangs out of your head more than half its length."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done thousands of women more good than the medicines of many doctors. It is a positive cure for all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—T. F. Kelly of Philadelphia deemed himself an uncommonly wicked sinner. By way of penance he sold his house for $700, gave the money to the poor, and started bare-footed for the Roman Catholic monastery at Loretto, Pa. He is begging his food and lodging on the way, and his feet are terribly swollen from hard usage and cold. He intends to spend the rest of his life as a monk.

From observation under the microscope, of the blood of patients (using Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites) taken from to time to time, positive proof has been obtained of the steady removal of diseased and dead blood particles, and the substitution of vitalised discs so necessary to the construction of healthy muscle.

—A story is told of General Butler's sarcastic retort upon a Massachusetts judge, whom he was teasing for a ruling favorable to a cause he was defending in court. The judge got out of patience at last, and somewhat testily exclaimed: "Mr. Butler, what do you think I sit here for?" The general quietly shrugged his shoulders, and replied: "The court has got me now."

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pushes, Chin Whelk, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Itching Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful case of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Anyone who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley MALT and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up anew the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular systems. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and protracted cough, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weakness of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, emaciated, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy—as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company, as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS'

SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, cackles the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weakness and debilitating humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 19, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturer, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our Society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

[American Agriculturist for May.]

HINTS FOR MAY WORK.

May is a very busy month, and there is so much work crowded into it that a farmer is in danger of being in a hurry. Every hour of work should be so planned that it will tell most effectually, and this requires considerable thought in order to do the most urgent and important work first, and leave undone those things which may be done almost as well bye and bye. As we sow so do we reap, and as this is the month of sowing, the work now will in great measure determine what the harvest of the year shall be. Keep pushing on, but with a plan.

Labor.—It must be admitted by every one familiar with farm work, that the labor problem is a difficult one, and it may fairly, from its importance, claim the first consultation in deciding upon the plan of operations for the year. The largest possible crops may not return a profit, if the labor in their production has not been well planned. One of the most important advantages obtained from a systematic rotation of crops, consists in the judicious distribution of labor throughout the year so that there may not be a surplus at one time, and a deficiency at another that will require the employing of extra hands at the highest wages.

Mangels may be sown early this month. Our practice has been to sow in drills thirty inches apart, using six pounds of seed per acre. A liberal supply of seed is required to secure an even stand, and the plants should be thinned by striking a broad hoe directly across the drills so that single plants will stand twelve to sixteen inches apart. Root crops are often a failure from defective thinning.

Clover.—An early rolling of clover to settle the roots that have been raised by frost will be especially appropriate after the open winter just passed. Fifty pounds of plaster per acre will often have as good effect as the larger doses of 100 and 200 lbs. that are recommended. Wood ashes on many soils will be found a useful application.

Meadows.—Pick up any stones that may have been raised above the surface from the action of frost. The roller may be used to bring the surface into good shape for the mower. Meadows are frequently injured by the tread of cattle before the ground is fairly settled. The grazing of meadows in spring is at the expense of the hay crop. It is better to keep cattle in the barn until the pastures are ready to furnish them a full ration.

Jerusalem Artichokes are growing in favor; they are relished by nearly all domestic animals. They may be left in the ground all winter, and when dug in early spring are crisp and fresh and the most acceptable change in the feed. The round, short variety called "Brazilian" is best. The seed is cut the same as potatoes, furrows made three feet apart, and the pieces dropped about twelve or fifteen inches apart in the furrow, and covered with a few inches of earth.

Sheep.—Sheep should be tagged before turning out to graze. Dry ewes may be fattened, and marketed as soon as possible. Lambs that are for early market, will need the best of care and extra feed. The good shepherd will look well to his flock, and count it every day, so that no animal may get strayed far away and lost. The best way to kill ticks is to dip the lambs shortly after the sheep are sheared, in tobacco water to which sulphur is added.

Washing Sheep.—A deduction of about 1-4 is made by the wool buyers for all unwashed fleeces, and this is right if the washing is properly done. Take it all in all it is best to wash the sheep, though there may be cases where it is not convenient, expedient or even safe.

ORCHARD AND NURSERY.

Grafting can be done now, but great care is necessary. As the bark peels easily at this season it should be cut through with a knife, and the saw made to follow the cut, otherwise the bark may be peeled and a bad wound made. It is not best to remove all the buds from the stock before the graft starts, as there will then be no inducement for the sap to flow upwards. Some of the buds of the graft is made and the buds upon it have started, all those upon the stock below should be removed, in order that the graft may have the full supply of sap.

The Tent Caterpiller will hatch into the "worms" which will begin at once their ravages upon the foliage. Fortunately these destructive caterpillars put up a "sign," without which they might escape notice. They pitch their "tents" at once, and though these are at first small they may be readily seen in the early morning when the dew makes them conspicuous. Take the tent when the whole family is "at home" and crush it under foot. Various devices are suggested for this, but the hand, with or without a glove, is the best. For the higher limbs a pole with a slab attached may be used.

Curculio of the plum stings the fruit while it is quite small. The trees should be jarred in early morning, beginning when they are just passing out of flower, and the sluggish beetles caught on a sheet opened beneath the tree for the purpose. Afterwards those caught on the sheet should be burned.

Borers.—Their presence is known by the sawdust they make. The only effectual method of reaching them is by probing with a wire; cutting the tree with a knife as little as may be found necessary.

Planting in Orchards.—There is a general reluctance to give up the soil of the orchard entirely to the trees. While the orchard is young it is best to cultivate it thoroughly, and hoed crops, like potatoes, roots, etc., can be grown as a present pay for the trouble, but as the trees get older and shade the ground, nothing else but fruit should be expected from the orchard. It is a good practice to pasture hogs in the orchard in clover sown for the purpose, as it is one of the best methods of enriching the soil and at the same time destroying insects.

FRUIT GARDEN.

Blackberries and Raspberries may still be planted, but as they start early they should have been set before this. Stakes or trellises should be provided to which the canes are to be secured. Novices fail to understand that it is the new canes that grow this year that are to bear the fruit the next season. All suckers are to be treated as weeds unless new plants are desired, when the best ones may be saved.

Grapes.—One healthy, vigorous cane upon a newly set vine is enough. Tie it up securely to a support. Vines are trained so variously that specific directions can not be given. Whatever the method of training it should keep in view and provide for the crop next year. Generally the fruit-bearing shoots for the present year should be stopped; that is, have their further growth in length prevented, by pinching off the end of the shoot at one, two or three leaves beyond the uppermost cluster of grapes; this should be done very early, as soon as the clusters of buds (often mistaken for young grapes) and the young leaves can be distinctly seen.

KITCHEN AND MARKET GARDENS.

Asparagus should be cut with a strong, round-pointed knife, and with care that the neighboring younger shoots or buds may not be injured. Cut the bed clean, leaving no small shoots to grow now.

Beans.—Plant the bush sorts in drills eighteen inches apart, as soon as there is no danger of frost. The Limas are not to go in until the cold rains are over and the ground well warmed. Set the poles four feet apart, and afterwards plant four or five beans to each pole, thrusting the seeds into the soil with the eye downward. See that the poles are firmly set.

Egg Plants.—Nothing is gained by setting plants in the open ground until warm weather sets in. Push them with a good supply of rich manure. Liquid manure may be used, and with very good results.

Peppers.—Set out plants when the weather has become settled. A few should be in every garden.

Our Best Reward.

WINSTON, FORSYTHE CO., N. C., March 15, 1880.

To the Hop Bitters Manufacturing Co.: GENTS—I desire to express to you my thanks for your wonderful Hop Bitters. I was troubled with dyspepsia for five years previous to commencing the use of your Hop Bitters some six months ago. My cure has been wonderful. I am pastor of the First Methodist church of this place, and my whole congregation can testify to the great virtue of your Bitters.

Very respectfully,
REV. H. FERREE.

News and Notes.

The Boston & Maine railroad pays a dividend of $4.00 a share, May 15th.

Mrs. Isaac O. Pierce has been arrested in New Bedford for being accessory in the forgery of Miss Maria E. Harris, in witnessing to the signature of the latter as Sarah Harris, knowing she was not Sarah Harris. Mrs. Pierce's husband is already under arrest for a similar offense.

The barque Sea Breeze, at New York from Rotterdam, brought in the crew of brig Annie Wharton, ten in number; the brig was abandoned March 23d, disabled and sinking. On the 13th inst. the Sea Breeze saw a large barque near by, but a heavy squall, with snow, hid her from view for a short time, and when it cleared away the vessel was not to be seen; she must have gone down, with all on board.

A few days ago we published a paragraph that schooner Telegraph reported that she saw a schooner go down in Long Island sound near Oldfield's point, and that the only thing saved was a dog, picked up by the Telegraph. It is thought that the schooner which sank may have been the I. M. Kissam, which sailed from New York for New Bedford, and passed through Hell Gate on the 13th inst. She had a cargo of iron for the Gosnold mills, and it is known she had a dog on board; and no tidings have been heard of her since she passed through Hell Gate.

A young man twenty-one years of age, by the name of John S. Baker, was arrested in South Albion, Me., on the 20th inst., for outraging Nellie M. Dudley, only thirteen years of age. He confesses his guilt. Baker assaulted the girl in the road.

The second trial of Mrs. Catherine Zell at Carlisle, Pa., convicted last November of murdering Mrs. Mary Kiehl, and sentenced to be hanged, ended last Thursday night with a verdict of acquittal.

At Montreal, on the evening of the 21st inst., a Mr. Judner, book-keeper for a firm of contractors, sat a valise containing $15,000 in a Pullman car, and stepped to the platform to converse for a few minutes with a young lady; when he returned to the car the valise and its contents had disappeared.

The town of Licking, in Texas county, Missouri, was destroyed by the cyclone of Sunday night, the 18th inst., sixty-five buildings out of sixty-seven being blown to pieces; only one person was killed, though many were hurt. At Flat creek, Mo., ten lives were lost.

The loss by the great fire at Hull, Ont., is estimated at nearly $3,000,000, with no insurance. Four lives are known to have been lost, and many hundred persons have been made destitute.

Destructive fires have recently been raging in the swamps of North Carolina. Zachariah Owens, who was engaged in getting out shingles on Alligator river in Tyrrell county, was surrounded by the flames, and with his wife and three children was burned to death.

Spence Pettis, the notorious forger, swindler and thief, hung himself in his cell in the state prison at Concord, Mass., Friday evening. He was one of the most skillful and dangerous forgers in the country, and one of the meanest and most sneaking curs that ever benefitted the world by leaving it.

The straw shop of the Hills Manufacturing Co., of Amherst, Mass., was burned Friday; loss $100,000. Three hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

Steamer Tropic sailed from Philadelphia April 22d, with a cargo of arms and ammunition, and a torpedo boat, for the Cuban insurgents.

New Hampshire Items.

A few days ago a man named Shackford, who resided in Canaan, out of the village, exchanged places with a man named Webster, in the village, and both moved the same day. On the following Friday a four-years-old daughter of Mr. Webster fell into a tub of water, and was so badly scalded that it died Sunday morning. On the same day, Mrs. Shackford fell down a flight of cellar stairs and broke several of her ribs. She is a woman about sixty years of age.

Nathan H. McKean, a son of Nathan McKean of Nashua, was recently killed by falling from the fourth-story window of a hotel at Atkinson, Mo. It is supposed that he got up in his sleep and walked through the window while in an unconscious state. He fell fifty-seven feet, striking on a pavement and then rolling into a cellar way. No bones were broken, but his internal injuries caused his death in a few hours. He leaves a widow, a Nashua lady, and two children.

John Jones, an old and well-known resident of Enfield, dropped dead last Thursday while engaged in surveying land. His age was about sixty-seven years.

In the supreme court at Lancaster the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff, in the case of Abigail Wentworth vs. the town of Jefferson, for damages caused by a defective highway, awarding $1,764.

Consumptives gain in flesh, strength and spirits under a daily use of Malt Bitters.

The Powhatan sailed from Norfolk for Annapolis April 22d.

The United States ship Minnesota has been ordered to proceed from New London to New York to enlist boys into the United States navy. She will sail within a few days.

Lord Mayor Gray of Dublin, Ireland, has visited the United States ship Constellation. He expressed the thanks of the Mansion House relief committee to the American people and the United States government for aiding the relief of the distress in Ireland.

Demond, the defaulting treasurer of the Home Missionary Society, will have another trial in May. The trouble with Demond was that none of the ingenious sisters had worked, to suspend in his office, the woollen motto "Thou shalt not steal," and he forget the injunction.

is true of old coats, and mouths. When the former shows the first defect take a "stitch," and always keep the mouth right by using SOZODONT. It costs less for a new coat than a set of teeth. False teeth are not as pleasant as natural ones.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has specially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from untimely grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 2

See a Woman!

In another column, picking grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first-class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. AROUND HOME.

The first lot of shoes was shipped from the Portsmouth Shoe Factory on Friday.

The street sprinklers were out for the first time this season, Friday morning. They were heartily welcomed.

Mr. George S. Heaton, formerly of this city and of the marine band, joined Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty company in Hornellsville, N. Y., on the 17th inst.

Two car-loads of machinery arrived in this city on Friday from the Whitcomb manufactory at Mechanic Falls, Me., to go into the new building on the Rockingham mills site, when it is finished.

Miss Mary Miller, artist, of this city, has recently sold through Williams & Everett of Boston, two fine oil panels of large size, for $80 each, to go to Marblehead, Mass., town hall. She is also doing some fine work in charcoal, besides her usual oil portraits and varieties—at her studio on Congress street.—Weekly.

The Journal says: "Mr. Charles W. Norton of this city has contracted with the Eastern railroad to build a large icehouse for the restaurant at the depot in this city, similar to the one constructed by him for the Rockingham house." The ice-chest at the Rockingham is as fine a one as we ever saw.

Harper's Weekly says a physician named Parsons lectured in a down-east town the other night, and was introduced to a one of the Parsons "who preached little and practiced much." That night reply to the M. D. of that name on State street, though we believe he confines his lectures to his patients.

A despatch from Salem, Mass., to the Boston Journal of Friday, says: "The mortgagees of the schooner W. H. Y. Hackett of Portsmouth, N. H., which is now under attachment by Deputy Sheriff Potter of Salem, have attached the property of the latter official for damages caused said mortgagees by detainment of the vessel, and to otherwise secure themselves. Colonel George C. Concord, N. H., and S. B. Ives, Esq., of Salem, are counsel for the mortgagees."

Capt. Thomas Curtis, the oldest male resident of Newcastle, died April 21st, at the age of eighty-six years, eight months and eleven days. He was formerly for many years connected with the late Capt. Thomas K. Oliver in the fishing business, was several years town treasurer, and a highly respected man. Two of his sons were officers in the 13th Regt. N. H. Volunteers during the rebellion; and a daughter is wife of Mr. Elvin C. Kinnear of Dover.—Mr. Kinnear's mother being, we are informed, the oldest female resident of Newcastle.

A letter from Capt. John Amazeen, dated at Jacksonville, Fla., April 19th, was received in this city Friday evening, and announces the recovery of Clarence W. Amazeen's body on Sunday, the 18th. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Jacksonville, and the grave properly marked. The letter contained extract from Jacksonville papers, one of which, the Sun and Press, in the office of which a paper he was at one time employed, speaks of him as "a faithful and amiable young man, well liked by all who knew him," and another says "he was highly regarded by all who had formed a acquaintance."

There was a grand "musicale" on Pleasant street last Thursday evening, and where several hundred friends and acquaintances of a young couple who the evening got married assembled with drums, fog horns, etc., to give the happy pair a good send-off if "music" could manage it. The groom, having a hint of what was coming, had provided all the stores required for the occasion, and the musicians were promptly called in to refresh themselves after their arduous labors, the newly-married couple visiting upon them until after one o'clock, when the last squad departed.

Jason A. Haley, son of S. A. Haley of Portsmouth, who took up his residence at Sandina, Florida, a few years since, has lately been elected mayor of that city.

The ship Frolic, which was so long and so successfully commanded by Capt. John C. Bush, late of this city, and which was sold a few months since to go under the German flag, has had her name changed, and is now the Elise.

A horse belonging to Jefferson Lewis of Kittery ran away from in front of Pryor & Matthews' hardware store on Market street, Friday afternoon, and made things lively for a short time. He went around through Ladd and High streets and Market square to Market street again, and up Market street as far as N. F. Mathes & Co.'s store, in excellent time, and brought up there, with the wagon to which he was attached upside down, and his leg badly cut. On the route he pitched the contents out of the wagon he was drawing, and injured another team by running into it.

THE DANITES.

"The Danites: or the Heart of the Sierras," which is to be presented on Music hall stage next Monday evening, should be greeted by a large audience, for the play is a good one. There is enough of the pathetic in the plot to make it interesting to follow, and a good deal of rollicking but not offensive fun is scattered all through the piece.

THE MYSTIC.

The steamer Mystic came off the marine railway at Kittery on Wednesday, the 21st inst. While on the railway she had a new bow put on, apparently patterned after that of the noted yacht Una, and has also been fitted with two cabins. The forward (or gentlemen's) cabin will seat about sixty persons; the ladies' cabin will seat thirty-five, and is to be handsomely and conveniently upholstered. The carpenter work has been done under the superintendence of Mr. Warren Keen—of course in the very best manner. The boat was built at Norwalk, Conn., in 1875, and Mr. Keen informs us that the best of stock was used in her construction, and that the materials were put together in a workmanlike style, and very strongly fastened with galvanized spikes and bolts; her frame is of white oak and chestnut, and her planking of white oak, two inches thick. Her engine has been overhauled and put in first-class working order, and she is now a far better boat—as well as a much handsomer one—than when she was first put afloat. She is allowed to carry one hundred and seventy-five passengers. Her owner, Capt. "Rashe" Trefethen of Kittery, has not yet announced what business he intends to put her into, but says that he will make up his mind what to do with her when he gets her all finished and ready for the route.

HAVE A BITE?

One of the results of the opening of the new restaurant at the Eastern railway station in this city, shortly, is already seen in advance, in the closing of the International dining rooms, at Ipswich, Mass. The entire building wherein Mr. Smith dispensed home-made beer, somewhat digestible mince pies, and hot oysters, was removed last Thursday. It is to stand at a corner quite a distance from its old site. No more shall travelers hear the brakeman warble "Ipswich—five minutes for refreshments;" but after May 1st, farther east will resound the higher-toned announcement, "Portsmouth—twenty minutes for lunch!" Here the law-abiding citizens of Maine will quaff their last glass of lager before crossing to the land of prohibition; and here, too, will be found those substantial en route solids so much appreciated by travelers by rail.

POLICE COURT.

Martin Locke was on Friday complained of for assault on John W. Kelly, son of John Kelly. This case grew out of a boy's quarrel, culprit and complainant being two boys who got into a fight. Locke pleaded guilty, the case was placed on file, both parties were instructed and excellently advised by the court, and all hands were then turned into the street.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

Stephen Chapman of Newmarket was convicted on an indictment for selling liquor, and was fined $50 and costs; jail in default of payment.

In case Perkins vs. town of Newmarket, a verdict was returned for the town. Action to recover for injuries incurred by reason of alleged defect in the highway. Smith for plff.; Marston and Eastman for the town.

The trial of cases on the state docket was ended Friday forenoon. Two indictments against Patrick Ryan of Newmarket were tried, and on each a verdict of guilty was returned. Harriman for the state; Smith for respondent.

No. 106, Frederick E. Potter vs. Thomas Quinn, was tried Friday afternoon; action brought to recover the amount of a physician's bill. Quinn had an action against the city of Portsmouth, for which he recovered a goodly sum in damages, and omitted to pay his attending physician. He objected to the amount of the bill, and to the mode of treatment. Plaintiff appeared as a witness. The defendant, his son, and Dr. S. C. Whittier testified for the defence. The jury took the case just before the adjournment, and it is they (if they agree) who "decide when doctors disagree." Page for the doctor; Harriman for Quinn.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

Children's Band of Hope meeting at Bow mission hall this afternoon at three o'clock. Service in charge of Mrs. Hooper.

Gospel temperance meeting this evening at 7:30.

Bethel service at 4:15 Sunday afternoon. A lady in charge. Seafaring men especially invited.

Rev. Mr. Chase, of Exeter, will preach in the Middle street church.

Rev. F. L. Wiley, of Whitefield, will preach in the Pearl street church.

CAUCUSES.

The republican caucus in ward one was held Friday evening, and the following-named gentlemen were chosen delegates to the republican state convention: William R. Martin, John A. George, John Critchley, George W. Pendexter, Orville D. Bryant, and Alfred C. Hoyt.

The republicans of ward two caucussed Friday evening, and elected delegates to the state convention as follows: John H. Broughton, George Annable, Charles H. Sides, Moses Yeaton, John Knowlton, and Samuel S. Green. These gentlemen are understood to be all in favor of the election of delegates to the national convention who will vote for James G. Blaine as a candidate for president.

The democratic caucus in ward two, held Friday evening, elected the following as delegates to that party's state convention: Charles H. Downs, Samuel Barrett, Albert Hayes, Thomas E. Call, Jr., Daniel L. Leavitt, and Samuel R. Gardner.

A meeting of citizens to appoint a committee to act in conjunction with the committee of Storer Encampment relative to the observance of Memorial day will be held in the common council room in the city building on Monday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance of persons interested is asked.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

A house at Biddeford pool, owned by Dexter J. Bickford and occupied by Barker Legallee, was burned April 22d, with its contents. Loss $1,200; uninsured.

An unoccupied store belonging to Leander Parsons, at Long beach, York, was burned at about two o'clock Friday morning by an incendiary fire; loss $300; reported to be fully insured.

The world-renowned Short Horn cow "First Duchess of Oneida" is dead. She was bought by Lord Skelmersdale in 1873 for $30,000.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits. Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies wearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

ELEGANT CITY RESIDENCE

—AND—

Nine Acres of Land, AT AUCTION.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell at Public Auction on

Saturday, May 1, at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M.,

The new French Roof Cottage DWELLING HOUSE and BARN connected with the same, upon the corner of Creek Street and Boyd's Road, and facing Woodbury Street in Portsmouth, N. H., near the Woodbury mansion, with nine acres of CHOICE LAND where the same stands; on which is an excellent ORCHARD of forty pear, peach, and quince trees, and one hundred and forty apple trees of choice varieties.

The house is nearly new, having been erected in 1877; is thoroughly finished inside; contains nine good-sized rooms, and very high-studded; a nice cellar and dairy, and rain-water cisterns of brick, with one hundred and forty barrels capacity. The house is heated by a furnace, and in all respects is a comfortable and convenient residence for anybody. There is a good well of water upon the premises, and a carriage-house and shed, connecting the house and barn.

The situation commands a fine view of the city and vicinity, and the grounds afford a fine opportunity for improvement and adornment according to the taste of the owner. In addition to the gardens and orchards, the land will produce from twelve to fifteen tons of hay; and to any one desiring a comfortable and pleasant home in close proximity to the city this affords a rare opportunity.

Also at the same time will be sold one new two-horse dump-cart, two-horse wagon, two-horse mowing machine, one express wagon, one carriage, harnesses, and a large amount of small TOOLS, including forks, shovels, plows, etc.; also about two hundred gallons cider, and part of the household furniture; also one valuable DRIVING HORSE, acknowledged to be one of the best in the city.

The premises can be seen at any time after the 27th, upon application to C. B. MASON.

☞ Sale Positive.

AUCTION.

FRANK HOLMES' FINE

Dwelling House, Stable & Land,

WILL BE SOLD AT

AUCTION, Without Reserve,

On TUESDAY, May 4th, 1880,

AT 3 O'CLOCK, P. M.

On the Premises.

THE HOUSE is a frame two-story with ELL and STABLES, all new and in good order. House contains NINE ROOMS. There are two acres of good LAND with a good APPLE and PEAR ORCHARD—two WELLS and one LIVING SPRING on the premises, which are situated on the main road leading from Greenland Parade to Union Mills, and at the corner of Haines line. The sale will be positive. A part of the purchase money can stand on a mortgage if desired. One hundred dollars will be required to be paid on the purchase to bind the sale. There are other two acres of LAND adjoining that can be purchased if wanted. This is one of the pleasantest places in Greenland, where taxes are low.

For further particulars enquire of FRANK HOLMES, on the premises, or of Valuable Real Estate at Auction IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equi-distant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The principal house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank or the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 65 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land lying on the other side of Stimson street containing 35,040 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payment can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, pair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, plated coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERG'T GEANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEWIS of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION on the premises at No. 14 Bow street, on Saturday, May 8th, at 12 o'clock, noon,

THE TWO BRICK STORES,

Formerly leased and occupied by CHAS. ROBINSON & SON. These buildings have Basement Stores in the rear, where is a wharf privilege. The buildings can be fitted for tenants or for manufacturing purposes. A liberal portion of the purchase money can remain on mortgage, if desired. The estate is owned by a resident in distant city, and sold on that account, and the opportunity to secure premises which can be made to pay so good investment upon the outlay is one not often seen. THEORY VS. FACTS.

All established theories are set aside by solid facts. The solid facts in this case are, that the business interests of our fair city have been more greatly enhanced within the past year by one single enterprise, conducted by one single mind, than by all other productive institutions in Rochester. We refer to the manufacture of Hop Bitters. The remedial properties of hops, with the herbs introduced, principally buchu, mandrake and dandelion, had long been known, but there had been so much mere stuff—rye, deleterious stuff—foisted upon the country, under the general cognomen of "bitters" and "remedies," that this medicine, which had been perfecting under the experiments of skilled pharmacentists and chemists, had to overcome the distrust of all such "remedies" by the slow process of information, which has been so successfully done that to-day the druggist who does not embrace Hop Bitters in the list of his regularly-ordered medicines, or the family that does not know its beneficial effects would be difficult to find.

THE MANUFACTORY

is located on Mill-street, from which emanates the preparation that is daily shipped to all parts of this country, and to sections of the globe over which the American flag does not float. The business is splendidly systematized, and everything goes on so quietly that it would be difficult to imagine that so extensive a business was done in that locality. Each department is overseen by competent persons. The items for bottles and for packing-boxes are enormously surprising, and those who furnish these two articles alone have reason to rejoice at the discovery of Hop Bitters, while the myriads of sick people who have been cured by this invaluable remedy have greater reason to rejoice.—Rochester Evening Express.

MORE FACTS.

STERLING, ILL., August 22, 1879.

We feel we must write something of the success of Hop Bitters. Their sale is thribble that of any other article of medicine. Hence we feel it but justice to you and your Bitters to say that it is a medicine of real merit and virtue, and doing much good and effecting great cures.

Yours, J. F. & H. B. UTLEY.

ASHTABULA, O., Nov. 16, 1878.

Gents—We have used your Bitters, and like them very much.

HAYESVILLE, OHIO, Feb. 11, 1880.

I am very glad to say I have tried Hop Bitters, and never took anything that did me as much good. I only took two bottles and I would not take $100 for the good they did me. I recommend them to my patients, and get the best of results from their use.

C. B. MERCER, M. D.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 15, 1878.

We take pleasure in giving you a notice and a nice, strong one, as it (Hop Bitters) deserves it. We use it, and we know it deserves it.—The Register.

Sirs—I was given up by the doctors to die of scrofula consumption. Two bottles of your Bitters cured me. They are having a large sale here.

LEROY BREWER.

GREENWICH, N. Y., Feb. 12, 1880.

Hop Bitters are the most valuable medicines I ever knew. I should not have any mother now but for them.

HENRY KNAPP.

LONE JACK, MO., Sept. 14, 1879.

I have been using Hop Bitters, and have received great benefit from them for liver complaint and malarial fever. They are superior to all other medicines.

P. M. BARNES.

KALDMAZOO, MICH., Feb. 2, 1880.

HOP BITTERS MFG. CO.:

I know Hop Bitters will bear recommendation honestly. All who use them confer upon them the highest encomiums, and give them credit for making cures—all the proprietors claim for them. I have kept them since they were first offered to the public. They took high rank from the first, and maintained it, and are more called for than all others combined. So long as they keep up their high reputation for purity and usefulness I shall continue to recommend them—something I have never before done with any other patent medicine.

J. J. BABCOCK,
Physician and Druggist.

KAHOKA, MO., Feb. 9, 1880.

I purchased five bottles of your Hop Bitters of Bishop & Co. last fall, for my daughter, and am well pleased with the Bitters. They did her more good than all the medicines she has taken for six years. WM. T. MCCLURE.

The above is from a very reliable farmer, whose daughter was in poor health for seven or eight years, and could obtain no relief until she used Hop Bitters. She is now in good health as any person in this country. We have large sale, and they are making remarkable cures.

W. H. BISHOP & CO.

SILVER CREEK, N. Y., Feb. 6, 1880.

Gents—I have been very low, and have tried everything, to no advantage. I heard your Hop Bitters recommended by so many, I concluded to give them a trial. I did, and now am around, and constantly improving, and am as nearly as strong as ever. W. H. WELLER.

Many vile compounds have been sold under the name of "Bitters," but it is a comfort for the afflicted to now realize that with Hop Bitters at their command they can be cured.—San Francisco (Cal.) Chronicle.

If Lord Byron, Shakespeare, Tennyson, or Longfellow, all of them were to write, they could not invent praises or use adjective of sufficient philological signification, nor language strong enough to express the wonderful power of Hop Bitters to cure the sick. This medicine is now so widely known as the best and purest bitters manufactured that it is perhaps superfluous to write about it. It is justly popular.—Oswego Sun.

New Publications.

The Folio for May is an unusually attractive number, containing four songs, two piano pieces, and a new "decoration hymn," besides the usual amount of reading matter and a portrait of Signor Campanini, the celebrated tenor of Col. Mapleson's opera troupe. If you cannot buy it of the local dealer send to the publishers, Messrs. White, Smith & Co., No. 576 Washington street, Boston; price fifteen cents per number, or $1.60 per year.

I. K. Funk & Co., 10 & 12 Dey street, New York, have published Ruskin's "Letters to Workmen," and Tennyson's "Idyls of the King," being Nos. 20, 21 and 22 of the "Standard series," a series which seeks to crowd out from the homes of the masses the "dime novel" class of literature. Nos. 20 and 21, price fifteen cents each, (usual price $2.00), are Ruskin's famous "Letters to Workmen—Fors Clavigera," written during the years of communistic excitement, '71 and '72. These letters are full of quaint Ruskinian advice to all sorts of workmen. The assault on communistic ideas is vigorous, although the standpoint is monarchial. The placing of these books in the hands of the masses is timely. The type in this series is leaded, and the paper and press work are good, avoiding that common objection to cheap books—hurtfulness to the eyes. The only secret of the cheapness is the large size of the editions published.

Three Links Outweigh Two.

A laughable story of sharp practice is told at the expense of a couple of members of the house of representatives. As the story goes, two democratic members, noted for the "loud" character of their jewelry, met in the coat-room, each wearing an enormous watch chain. Attention being accidentally attracted to these articles, there was a discussion of their relative weights, and as each insisted his was the heaviest, a bet of $10 was made, and settled by putting the chains upon the scales in the house post-office.

A few days later the winner of the bet happened in Galt's jewelry store, where he saw a heavy chain, which, on inspection, he found belonged to his friend of the house and was told it had been left there to have two extra links added. Suspecting something, he called in at Semkin's and left his own chain with orders to put in three extra links.

A short time after, the two gentlemen met again in the coat-room, when the loser declared himself dissatisfied with the former test, insisting that the letter scales were not correct, and that a comparison by the scales of a jeweler would show his chain the heaviest. The other party believed the scales were right, but allowed himself to be bantered into a new bet of $25, to be settled by an appeal to finer scales. Of course the result was that the three new links outweighed the two, and the $25 was added to the $10 already won. Whether the victim has discovered exactly how he came to lose his second bet is not stated, but he has eschewed his cable chain and now wears a watch-guard of ordinary size and weight.—Washington paper.

The Girl Pound in China.

Moung Edwin, Burmese, who has been educated in this country with the view of sending him as a Baptist missionary to Burmah, lectured recently in Baltimore. Speaking of the deplorable condition of women in the east, owing to peculiar religious teachings, he said: "Girls in China are believed to have no souls, and to kill them is not murder, and therefore not to be punished. Where parents are too poor to support their girl children they are disposed of in the following way: At regular intervals an appointed officer goes through a village and collects from poor parents all the girl children they cannot care for, when they are about eight days old. He has two large baskets attached to the ends of a bamboo pole, and slung over his shoulder. Six infants are placed in each basket, and he carries them to some neighboring village, and exposes them for sale. Mothers who desire to raise wives for their sons buy such as they select. The others are taken to the government asylum, of which there are many all through the country. If there is room there they are taken in; if not, they are drowned."

Don't Give Up.

What if you have tried different "put up" medicines in vain. Have you not been equally disappointed in some physicians? Do not consider your case incurable until you have made a thorough trial of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. They are chemically pure, of uniform strength, and have come into general use by reason of superior merit. In cases of general and nervous debility, consumption, bronchitis, dyspepsia, liver complaint, scrofulous bunches, ulcers and eruptions, the Golden Medical Discovery is a speedy and positive cure; while thousands of women, who had for years been bed-ridden, have, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, been restored to perfect health. The introduction of these two remedies has revolutionized the treatment of chronic diseases. Patients are no longer depleted and salivated, as the tonic and alterative properties of the Discovery long since demonstrated a better way. Ladies need no longer submit to the use of the caustic and knife, as the Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to cure the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. Mrs. Samuel M. Kempter, of Gallaudet, Ind., writes, "Your Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Purgative Pellets have save my life."

—The sexton flew around and opened the windows as if he were going to clean house, when the the preacher said the air was so bad in the close church that it put the organ out of tune using it to blow with.

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pimples, Chin Warts, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Frosted by CUTICURA SOAP, is earnestly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pimples, Chin Warts, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Frosted by CUTICURA SOAP, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Itching Piles, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I was scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.

CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and Sick Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canada Barley, Malt and Fresh Hops, and warranted more nourishing, invigorating, vitalizing and refreshing than any other Bitters in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, such as "stomach," "head" and "manulants."

MALT BITTERS lay dormant in the secretory cells of the system, and rouse the vital energies. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, nervous exhaustion and fever, bronchitis and deep seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, debility, mental and physical debility, premature weakness of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvelous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irritable in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Brunswick German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it, from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 19, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, ESQ.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr. Thomas Corbett, a member of our Society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, upon which we may compartison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

NICHOLAS A. BRIGGS, JOSEPH WOODS, Trustees.

ON THE DEATH OF A BROTHER.

From pleasant home and loving friends,
The sea-boy roamed afar,
Nor feared the ocean's dashing foam,
Before old Neptune's car,
With manly heart at duty's call,
He sought a distant strand,
Then longed once more in peace to see
His own dear native land.

Did they but know the sufferer's lot,
How gladly by his side
Would three dear loving sisters wait,
Whileshed life's feeble tide:
How would a parent's love with care
Support the aching head,
And words of consolation breathe,
Till life's last hope had fled.

But dearer, yet more distant too,
Earth's loveliest spot now seems,
As wakes the troubled patient oft
From tantalizing dreams.
And faintly and more dimly too
The lamp of life must burn,
Till son and brother can no more
To cherished friends return.

He sleeps in peace; yes, sweetly sleeps,
His wanderings all are o'er;
With him the storms of life are past,—
He sought the heavenly shore.
There in that "better country" far,
Where trouble ne'er can come,
He finds the promised haven blest,—
A blissful, glorious home.

Then, mourning friends, from tears refrain,
The lost may yet be found,
For far beyond earth's changing scenes,
Is known enchanted ground.
There friends will meet with friends most dear,
Sad partings all be o'er;
And love's sweet bonds be joined again,
Discovered never more.

An Aged Couple Depart.

A touching incident occurred in the deaths of the aged people, Mr. and Mrs. Dickson, last week. For convenience in attendance during their illness they were placed in separate bedrooms. The heads of the beds were placed against a thin partition, which having an open door permitted the two old people to converse, though not able to see each other. The night before the husband died his wife heard him groaning, and was very anxious to be with him, but was unable to arise. Soon she was informed that he was dying, and in order to be near him the beds were moved so as to bring them parallel with the partition, the heads opposite the door. This done the fond wife reached out her arm, grasped her husband by the hand, and held it during his last moments. Thus death found them, as fifty-one years before the marriage ceremony left them, joined hand in hand. It was a simple and affectionate tokened of the love of a long life, and the day following the wife, too, folded her arms in the sleep of death.—Oskaloosa Herald.

HOW TO MANAGE IT. To make the world understand this very important matter is a question. The very important matter is this: Mr. W. E. Clarke, Providence, R. I., prepares a positive cure for all kidney, bladder, liver and urinary complaints—including the terror, Bright's disease. The medicine is Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and liver medicine, and it is certainly a marvel. Mr. Clarke desire us to make this important fact known, and to say that he will send free to any who apply, a pamphlet abundantly proving it. Remember the name, Hunt's Remedy. Sold by all druggists. Trial size, 75 cents.

—Mother (noticing her son's greediness)—"George, you should always leave the table feeling that you could eat a little more." George—"I do, mother."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done thousands of women more good than the medicines of many doctors. It is a positive cure for all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—Miss Eliza Weatherby's health is so bad that she proposes to retire from the stage at the end of the season until she is better. She will visit England, where she will remain to recuperate.

From observation under the microscope, of the blood of patients (using Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites) taken from to time to time, positive proof has been obtained of the steady removal of diseased and dead blood particles, and the substitution of vitalized discs so necessary to the construction of healthy muscle.

—Twenty-one new planets were discovered last year, but the world must go right on with the same stove-pipe invented fifty years ago.

Kidney-Wort will cure kidney and liver diseases and worst cases of piles.

—Livery horses belong to the hire class of animals.

Nursing mothers and delicate females gain strength and flesh from Malt Bitters.

Sambuci Wine in New York Hospitals.

Dr. Harris, of the New York Hospital, finds Speer's Sambuci Wine an excellent tonic and gentle stimulant, and recommends it, especially for ladies. Dr. Parish, of Philadelphia, pronounces it to be a purely unadulterated wine, possessing much medicinal virtue, and uses it for its purity, fine flavor, medicinal properties, and non-intoxicative qualities, &c. Our limited space forbids any more extracts from letters of similar import from numerous physicians and clergymen. It has been found to be the best Wine for Dropsy, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, the aged and infirm, it gives strength and vigor. Excellent for Females.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

Take Off the Tax.

Whatever else may be doubtful about the intention of the authors of our tariff laws, they undoubtedly meant to place on the free list all materials used in the manufacture of paper. It happened that pulp of wood, which is by far the most important element in the manufacture of paper used by the daily and weekly press of the country, was not specifically and by name exempted from duty. Under a treasury decision which held that this verbal omission was fatal to the free admission of wood pulp, a few manufacturers of that article have been able to impose an exorbitant tax on the general body of paper-makers, by whom it is of course shifted on the consumers, the newspaper publishers of the country, and the burden falls with special hardship on publishers outside of the great cities—we, consequently, being imporerished so that a handful of monopolists may grow rich. The most powerful champion of these monopolists is Representative Garfield. Were his opposition to the bill withdrawn, the restoration of wood pulp to the free list, where it belongs, would be accomplished in a few days. While his opposition continues the monopolists are secure. Can Mr. Garfield afford to continue his support of a tax which brings in no revenue to the government, but which interferes very decidedly with the dissemination of knowledge among the people?

Very Like a Whale.

A Philadelphia paper of the 23d inst. says: "The steamer Tropic left the capes yesterday for Cuba with a cargo of new explosives, small arms and a novel submarine torpedo boat originally invented by Professor McClintock, who lost his life a few months ago while experimenting with his torpedoes in Boston harbor. The Tropic was suspected by the Spanish authorities for some time, and was followed by a Spanish gunboat on her last trip. She arrived in this city from Jamaica on Monday, and with the greatest haste was again dispatched to the West Indies on Wednesday, being at least three days earlier than she was ever known to leave the city before. Her coal and supplies were already on the wharf on the day of her arrival, and were taken aboard as fast as she was unloaded. The sub-marine torpedo boat in question is thirty-two feet long, seven feet beam and eight feet depth of hold, built wholly of iron, and said to be capable of remaining under water forty-eight hours. She will be used in Cuban waters against the Spanish navy.

News and Notes.

A despatch from Reno, Nev., on the 23d inst., says the Ordway excursionists had been detained there for thirty-six hours, blockaded by the severest snow storm for many years. Twenty engines and more than 1,000 men were at work between Reno and 'Cisco, with the hope that the train would reach San Francisco by Saturday. The citizens of Reno gave to the New Englanders a complimentary benefit at the theatre, Wednesday evening, the 21st, the whole audience joining in singing songs and other amusements. Addresses were made by Gov. Head of New Hampshire, Judge Sargent and others.

The Massachusetts legislature adjourned Saturday.

Of the forty-one life-saving stations along the New Jersey coast from Sandy Hook to Cape May, thirty-four were closed last week.

In the United States house of representatives, Friday, Mr. Waddell of Missouri alluded to the terrible tornado which recently swept over the town of Marshfield, in his district, and which left a large number of persons homeless and destitute, and introduced a joint resolution directing the secretary of war to furnish the governor of Missouri with 500 tents for the benefit of the sufferers. The resolution passed.

England positively refuses to accede to the American government's demand for compensation for the outrages committed at Fortune bay, Newfoundland, upon American fishing vessels.

The dead body of Miss Jennie Reynolds of Columbus, O., aged twenty-five years, sister of Councilman Reynolds, was found in a lumber yard in a prominent part of that city, Friday morning. An examination by the coroner shows marks of violence about the throat, but otherwise the body is uninjured. The supposition is that the young woman was decoyed into the place and choked to death.

Charles G. Basse, recently sentenced to two years' imprisonment for embezzlement from Mitchel's bank at Milwaukee, Wis., aggregating upward of $140,000, has been pardoned by Gov. Smith. He is physically broken down, and his precarious state of health is given as the reason for pardon.

The affairs of the Dexter, Me., savings bank, of which the murdered Barron was cashier, are to be ventilated again. The mother of the cashier is taking legal steps with the hope of recovering the $1,000 which he bequeathed her as a support for her old age; and the suit of the bank, to recover $5,000 of the missing funds of the bank from the Barron estate, will be entered at the next term of court.

Albert M. Atwell, nineteen years old, son of B. W. Atwell of Springfield, Mass., an Episcopal clergyman, shot himself on the sidewalk near his home, Friday night, dying instantly. He ran away during the previous week with another boy, taking considerable money which he had deposited in the bank. Nothing was heard from him until Friday night, when he entered the house, went to his own room, took a pistol, and rushing out of doors committed the deed. Remorse for his misdeeds is supposed to have been the cause.

Hon. E. B. French, second auditor of the treasury, died in Washington on Saturday. He was a native of New Hampshire, had been secretary of state of Maine and member of congress from that state, and was appointed to the position which he held at the time of his death by President Lincoln, in 1861.

Much excitement prevails at Ashland, Wis., over the reported discovery of gold and silver in paying quantities, at Brunschwiller and Silver creeks, fourteen miles south of Ashland.

Edward Nugent and Henry J. Redemeiers were hanged in the city jail yard at St. Louis, Mo., Friday morning.

The Boston & Albany railroad pays a dividend of $4.00 per share on the 15th of May.

Adam Dickes of Newton, Mass., was shot dead by an accidental discharge of his gun while engaged in conversation with two ladies at Oak Hill, Newton Centre, last Thursday. The concealment of the fact and the destruction of the gun by his parents at first gave rise to suspicion in regard to the matter, but it is now believed that it was a case of accidental shooting.

Capt. Edward M. Wright of the ordnance corps, U. S. A., who has been off duty upon sick leave for some months past, fatally shot himself Saturday morning, the 24th inst., in Washington, while laboring under temporary abberration of mind. He was a son of Judge Wright of Indiana, from which state he was appointed to the military academy at West point, and entered the army in June 1866.

A very interesting ceremony took place in the United States house and senate last week, the occasion being the presentation to the United States of the desk on which Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence. The desk was presented through Hon. Robert C. Winthrop of Massachusetts, by the heirs of Joseph Coolidge, who married Miss Randolph, Jefferson's granddaughter; Jefferson having presented the desk to Mr. Coolidge. It resembles a small mahogany box when closed, and can easily be carried under the arm. The lid is double, and is ingeniously arranged so that it may be opened out in the form of a writing desk. The ceremonies were very simple and very interesting, the speeches being in excellent taste.

In Bowdoin College, Me., have recently been found, locked in an old drawer, one hundred and thirty-eight drawings and sketches, collected by James Bowdoin in Paris more than seventy years ago. These sketches are rare and choice; many bear the artists' names upon them. Among the names appear Del Sarto, Dominichino, Salvator Rosa, Claud Lorraine and Simbert.

Cassidy, treasurer of the township of West Garafraxa, Ont., has been convicted of embezzling $5,808 of the township's funds, and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Gladstone was "sent for" by Queen Victoria on Friday, and consented to form a new ministry.

Murder in San Francisco.

Charles De Young, editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, who some months ago attempted to blow out "Rev." Kalloch's brains with a pistol but blew him into the mayor's chair instead, was shot and instantly killed in his office, Friday, by Kalloch's son. The murderer was lodged in prison, and closely guarded. Kalloch's entered the business office of the Chronicle, shortly before eight o'clock, and without speaking, commenced firing at De Young. The latter ran to a desk, Kalloch firing at him as he ran. On reaching the desk, De Young turned and faced his opponent with a pistol in his hand, when Kalloch, leaning over the counter, fired again, the ball striking De Young in the mouth. Kalloch then started for the door. De Young raised his pistol as if to fire, but apparently his strength failed him, for the pistol was not discharged. The ball had pierced the base of the brain and in a few moments he expired. Only one wound was found on his person, although four shots were fired by Kalloch, two having pierced the glass door and the partition of the office, and the third lodged in a window casing. The arresting officer stated that young Kalloch was the coolest person he ever saw. He observed strict reticence, and on being shown to his cell positively refused to have any intercourse whatever with the representatives of the press.

Naval Gazette.

The U. S. S. Wyoming sailed from Larcana, Cyprus, on the 23d inst., for Constantinople, with Minister Maynard on board.

The Tuscarora arrived at San Francisco on the 22d inst. She has been making hydrographic surveys on the Mexican and South American coasts.

The Swatara sailed from Aden for Point de Galle, April 6th.

Medical Director A. L. Gibon is ordered to duty as a member of the board inspection, on the 1st of May.

The senate has confirmed Commo. Andrew Bryson to be a rear admiral, Capt. Earl English to be a commodore, and Comdr. Charles C. Carpenter to be a captain.

Political.

The supreme court at San Francisco has granted Denis Kearney a writ of habeas corpus, returnable before the superior court of San Francisco.

The supreme court at Des Moines, Iowa, has decided that in the case from Jasper county, wherein a greenbacker and anti-monopolist agreed to take a county officer for less than the legal salary, and return the surplus to the county if elected, that the election was void, as the proffer was a bribery of the voters.

In a speech in the New York state senate at Albany, on the 22d inst., Mr. Jacobs, who presided over the regular democratic convention at Syracuse, and who is a delegate to Cincinnati, said that as Tilden stands in the way of a successful issue in the presidential campaign, he would be against him. Jacobs is from Brooklyn, and was understood to be a Tilden man.

AROUND HOME.

Over thirty coasting vessels were at anchor in the lower harbor, Saturday evening.

Mr. B. F. Haley of Newmarket has secured the contract for making the uniforms for the militia of Maine—an $18,000 job.

It is reported that the republicans have engaged one of the halls in the Franklin buildings to be used as headquarters during the approaching presidential campaign.

Miss Norah Bartlett of this city was superintending a table at the Hahneman hospital fair in Madison square garden, New York, when the wall and roof of the building fell last week, but was unharmed.

A meeting of citizens to appoint a committee to act in conjunction with the committee of Storer Encampment relative to the observance of Memorial day will be held in the common council room in the city building this eventng at 7:30 o'clock.

A large number of plasterers, under Mr. W. J. Fraser, are at work upon the hotel Wentworth at Newcastle. The terracing and grading of the grounds has already caused a marked change in the face of nature in front and at the sides of the hotel.

The naval constructor and assistant constructor at the navy yard are both absent from the station on duty as members of boards to examine vessels of the navy. During their absence the master carpenter is in charge of the work in the department of construction and repair.

Thomas Curtis of Newcastle, whose death on the 21st inst. has already been alluded to, was the last surviving member of Capt. William Marshall's company, which was stationed at Newcastle for the defence of Portsmouth harbor during the war of 1812; he drew a pension for this service.

The ship Granite State of this port, Ross master, arrived at Melbourne, Australia, on the 22d inst., from New York. The barque Harvard, of Boston, commanded by Capt. Samuel Pray, of this city, arrived at Yokohama, Japan, on the 22d inst., having left New York Nov. 11th—a very fair passage.

The steam launch "Little May" has been engaged to take the workmen to and from this city to the Hotel Wentworth at Newcastle. She was out on the river, Saturday, and went first-rate; we do not know what has been done to her, but she gets over the ground at a much better rate of speed than ever before.

Mr. A. Brackett Trefethen will to-day commence laying brick on the extension of the malt house at Jones' brewery. Mr. Trefethen is also engaged in putting in the new front of Peirce's block, Market square, and will do the work for Frank Jones in the improvement of the front of Chas. E. Laighton & Son's store in Exchange buildings.

Rev A. A. Waite has removed his family from the state of New York to Newburyport, Mass., and will take up his permanent residence in the vicinity of that city. Mr. Waite delivered his illustrated temperance lecture on "The good Samaritan" in Newburyport city hall, Friday evening, to a crowded audience, and followed it with a "chalk talk" to the children, the lecture and "talk" being received with much favor.

The early mackerel venture has not proved a success, says the Cape Ann Advertiser. Several of the fleet have met with disaster, owing to the severe weather, etc., and the unusually early catch was not followed up by any considerable fares. The early-caught mackerel are said to have been very small, but schools of better quality may be expected to put in an appearance within a few days. The fleet already on the grounds comprises eighty-five vessels,—forty-seven from Gloucester, twelve from Maine ports, eighteen from Cape Cod towns, two from Boston, three from Newburyport and three from Portsmouth.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

In the case of Potter against Quinn, the jury on Friday returned a verdict for the amount claimed by the doctor.

The new docket is to be called to-day.

CAUCUSES.

The democrats of ward three on Friday evening elected Frank Jones and Charles A. Sinclair delegates to the state convention.

The democratic caucus in ward four was held Saturday evening, and Daniel Marcy and Henry F. Wendell were chosen as delegates.

THE DANITES.

This evening, at Music hall, those who enjoy a really good play will be afforded the opportunity of securing an evening's pleasant entertainment. "The Danites," a drama in which comedy and tragedy are combined in such a manner as to make it intensely interesting, will be given by a company comprising most of the cast that has been so successful in its presentation in all the larger cities of the union, using the same scenery and accessories as elsewhere. See advertisement.

CREEK BAND OF HOPE.

The devoted Miss Hague is to give her school a free supper and entertainment at the Spalding schoolhouse on Wednesday evening, April 28th, at half-past six o'clock. Contributions for the tables are solicited from all interested and will be received at the school house at any time after half-past one o'clock; also a general attendance is invited.

THE PORTSMOUTH BREWING COMPANY.

The attainment of such a degree of excellence in the product of ale that it will command a ready sale to customers has been a long and costly experiment to many, while this result has never been achieved by others who have entered upon the business without sufficiently calculating its requirements. The ales made in Portsmouth early found favor with dealers, and whatever misfortunes have overtaken the projectors or those who developed other kinds of manufacture in our city, the product of the malt tubs has been one accompained by liberal pecuniary returns to the brewers. Doubtless, one feature in the ale was the uniformity of its standard, owing in part to the purity of the water used at at the breweries. But however excellent the ingredients, two essential elements in the business have always been requisite; one, a competent brewer; the other, an energetic and sagacious seller. Without these there could be no success.

Of the India pale ale, cream ale and porter drank in New England, much of which the imbiber thinks,—nay, insists, is Bass' or some other well known imported product—is made by the Portsmouth Brewing Company on Bow street. The company under its present management has abundant orders for its various productions, which have a high repute among dealers.

The increase of its business has compelled the erection of a large building north of the brewery proper. In the lower room are cellars for the storage of ale where six hundred barrels of ale, etc., can be kept until it can attain proper age, before it is sent to customers. This building is over a hundred feet in length by sixty in width. Above is the new tun room, to which will be removed the four tuns now in the main building. Here the fermentation is in process, and with room for two more tuns when the demand justifies their construction. The liquid passes though copper pipes, iron pipes having long since been discarded as likely to be affected by the liquid passing through them, and impairing the brew. Here every attention is paid to cleanliness and ventilation, while the drainage, immediately into the swift tide of the Piscataqua, precludes the possibility of bad odors coming back from the refuse pipes into the works—an evil sometimes existing in less favored localities. In this building also is the cooper shop. The company manufactures its own ale barrels, from white oak staves bought directly from the grower of the wood in Michigan. Two thousand new barrels are annually required in their business, in addition to the repairs done upon returned casks. There are also rooms for storage of hops and other merchandise. The building has stone pillars to support the beams between the stories, and is built with great regard to sustaining heavy weights.

The Portsmouth Brewing Company is a corporation with a paid-up capital. The president is Arthur Harris, Esq., a well known practical brewer in New York; William H. Palmer is treasurer; Daniel M. Lenigan is brewer. Mr. Lenigan came here from Boston, and was inducted into the business by Mr. Harris, whose success as a manufacturer of porter is well known to the trade. The ales and porter of this company find ready sale in Lynn, Salem, Providence, Woonsocket, Lawrence, Lowell, Newburyport, Marblehead, Boston and many other places.

The screenings are bought by farmers in the vicinity, and are sent as far as Newmarket, and by rail to Lebanon, Me., and other towns in the country. The grains are used by dairymen, and the hops for top-dressing; the latter are eagerly sought for by grass growers as the most economical kind of dressing for grass ground to be obtained.

It is the intention of the company to remove their boilers and place them nearer the wharf, adding another boiler. They will also rebuild the wharf, erecting a facing of stone, which will give them a substantial wharf seventy-seven feet long, where their coal can be landed and placed in bins without extra handling, and where can be shipped ale sent in coastwise vessels, or to the provinces, as well as hop beer, a summer drink with less than two and a half per cent of alcohol, made to be sold in places where malt liquors are tabooed by the enforcement of prohibitory laws.

The company contemplate the erection of another store house upon part of the land recently acquired by them. Their business seems to be well established, and this is a result from making a high standard of ale and other products, and keeping it at a uniform grade of excellence. This it is that makes a high reputation for their commodities, and allows the company to make a fair average dividend while its goods are constantly being sought for in new markets, and by new customers.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Secretary Sherman has appointed Paschal Fernald of Kittery second assistant light keeper at Boon island, vice George O. Leavitt, promoted to be first assistant.

The city treasurer of Biddeford has disposed of $50,000 in 4 1-2 per cent city bonds, at par, in Portland. This indicates that the city's credit is pretty good.

Messrs. Frost and McKenney, two of the gentlemen who were largely instrumental in starting and carrying on the recent religious revival in South Berwick and vicinity, were last week engaged in holding revival meetings in York.

At an adjourned meeting of the board of trustees of the Rice public library of Kittery, held on Saturday, Ephraim C. Spinney was re-elected treasurer, and William H. Hackett secretary. Ex-Gov. Goodwin, the president, holds his office under the by-laws by virtue of his previous election to the presidency.

A Kittery correspondent of the Great Falls Journal says there was a narrow escape from a serious accident near Fernald's bridge in Kittery, on the Eastern railroad, Tuesday morning of last week. An ice train, going west, ran into the Conway freight going east. Fortunately both trains were rounding the curve quite slowly, and the only damage done was the smashing of the cowcatchers of both engines, and a bad fright to the train hands.

New Hampshire Items.

Wells B. Brown, who eloped from Lebanon last February with Mrs. Josephine E. Stevens, leaving his own wife and family behind, and went to Aurora, Ill., where he married Mrs. Stevens, who was afterward found dead in bed by his side, has been discharged from custody, the grand jury refusing to indict him for poisoning his paramour, and no one appearing against him for bigamy.

The fancy dry goods store of Goodall & Chesley, of Farmington, was broken into by a thief on Tuesday night of last week, and goods amounting in value to $60 stolen. No trace of the burglar has yet been found.

Auction Sales.

ELEGANT CITY RESIDENCE
—AND—
Nine Acres of Land,
AT AUCTION.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell at Public Auction on

Saturday, May 1, at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M.,

The new French Roof Cottage DWELLING HOUSE and BARN connected with the same, upon the corner of Creek Street and Boyd Road, and facing Woodbury Street in Portsmouth, N. H., near the Woodbury mansion, with nine acres of CHOICE LAND where the same stands, on which is an excellent ORCHARD of forty pear, peach, and quince trees, one hundred and forty apple trees of choice varieties.

The house is nearly new, having been erected in 1877; is thoroughly finished inside; contains nine good-sized rooms, and very high-studded; a nice cellar and dairy, and rain-water cistern of brick, with one hundred and forty barrels capacity. The house is heated by a furnace, and in all respects is a comfortable and convenient residence for anybody. There is a good well of water upon the premises, and a carriage-house and shed, connecting the house and barn.

The situation commands a fine view of the city and vicinity, and the grounds afford a fine opportunity for improvement and adornment according to the taste of the owner. In addition to the gardens and orchards, the land will produce from twelve to fifteen tons of hay, and to any one desiring a comfortable and pleasant home in close proximity to the city this affords a rare opportunity.

Also at the same time will be sold one new two-horse dump-cart, two-horse wagon, two-horse mowing machine, one express wagon, one carriage, harnesses, and a large amount of small TOOLS, including forks, shovels, plows, etc.; also about two hundred gallons cider, and part of the household furniture; also one valuable DRIVING HORSE, acknowledged to be one of the best in the city.

The premises can be seen at any time after the 27th, upon application to C. F. MASON.

☞ See Preview.

Dated at Portsmouth, April 19, 1880.

AUCTION.

FRANK HOLMES' FINE
Dwelling House, Stable & Land,
WILL BE SOLD AT
AUCTION, Without Reserve,
On TUESDAY, May 4th, 1880,
AT 3 O'CLOCK, P. M.
On the Premises.

THE HOUSE is a frame two-story with ELL and STABLES, all new and in good order. House contains NINE ROOMS. There are two acres of good LAND with a good APPLE and PEAR ORCHARD—two WELLS and one LIVING SPRING on the premises, which are situated on the main road leading from Greenland Parade to Union Mills, and at the corner of Haines lane. The sale will be positive. A part of the purchase money can stand on a mortgage if desired. One hundred dollars will be required to be paid on the purchase to bind the sale. There are other two acres of LAND adjoining that can be purchased if wanted. This is one of the pleasantest places in Greenland, where taxes are low.

For further particulars enquire of FRANK HOLMES, on the premises, or of

Valuable Real Estate at Auction
IN KITTERY.

THE PREMISES known as the RICE PLACE, formerly occupied by JACKSON DURLING, Sergeant of U. S. Marine corps, will be sold on the premises on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of May next, at half-past twelve o'clock, P. M., sharp—subject to previous disposal at private sale.

The estate consists of land fronting on the road leading from Portsmouth Bridge to the Navy Yard village, and about equi-di-tant from the railroad station and the Navy Yard bridge; and it extends back upon the road leading to the site of the old Rice mansion. The present house is in fine order. It was built by the late JOHN RICE for his own occupancy, and contains fourteen large rooms, with painted walls, heated by furnace register in every room, bath-room and water closet, with hot water heated from the range. The house is situated upon the highest land in this part of Kittery, affording one of the finest views of the river to be had upon either bank of the Piscataqua. The outbuildings consist of large woodshed, store house and large barn, with cellar. The garden, which is extensive, has about forty excellent fruit trees in bearing order.

Adjoining is a lot of land 85 by 85 feet or thereabouts, fronting on the Ferry road, called the "Stephen Spinney" lot, and is to be sold separate from the above.

At the same time, will be sold either in lots or in one body, the land upon the other side of Stimson street containing 35,640 square feet.

Liberal terms as to payments can be had upon above pieces of real estate.

After sale of the real estate will be sold sundry articles of personal property, consisting in part of a family horse, carriages, wagon, sleigh, express wagon, pung, stable furniture, fair double harnesses, single harness, robes, etc., with sundry articles of household furniture, fire-proof safe, placed coffee urn, and a variety of other articles.

The above sale is made by reason of SERGEANT DURLING'S removal to another State. The opportunity to purchase a well-built house in one of the best situations in Kittery, convenient to the railway station, churches, schools, public library, etc., is seldom to be found.

For further particulars enquire of N. F. MATHES & CO., 48 Market street, Portsmouth, or JOSIAH W. LEWIS of Kittery. The house can be seen at any time upon application.

A New Industry.

It has long been a problem how to prepare fresh fish so as to have it retain its peculiar qualities and be free from taint in any climate and after any length of time. Heretofore experiments in this direction have been unsuccessful, but it appears now to have been solved by Mr. Charles Alden, late of Newburgh but now of this city, whose evaporated fish meets a want long felt for something of the kind. By this method the fish, after being caught, are subjected to a process by which, without the application of extreme heat or use of salt, it is rendered fit for use as a perfect substitute for the fish as first taken from its native element. After a trial, we have no hesitancy in saying that it fulfills our most sanguin expectations, and justifies the claim its inventor makes for it. Mr. Alden has had experience in evaporating several fruit, vegetable and animal sustances, and in this latest invention brings into play the theory which has made his condensed milk, evaporated peaches, etc., successful. He is about establishing works here for the prosecution of preparing the fish, and we hope a thriving industry will grow out of it.

—Some men will go and lug a pole and a basket and a box of innocent worms along a brook all day, catch nothing, and come home and brag about getting fifty trout, which they did from a farmer's boy. Other men will sit in the farmer's barn and play poker and drink whiskey while the boy is catching the fish, and will be able to tell just as big a story. The latter is the true way to go fishing. —Boston Post.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of malaria is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wineglassful three times a day is the most possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

KIDNEY-WORT

THE ONLY MEDICINE

That Acts at the Same Time on THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS.

These great organs are the natural cleansers of the system. If they work well, health will be perfect; if they become clogged, dreadful diseases are sure to follow with

TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

Dilliousness, Headache, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Constipation and Piles, or Kidney Complaints, Gravel, Diabetes, Sediment in the Urine, Milky or Ropy Urine; or Rheumatic Pains and Aches, are developed because the blood is poisoned with the humors that should have been expelled naturally.

KIDNEY-WORT

will restore the healthy action and all these complaints will vanish like a dream.

Thousands have been cured. Try it and you will add one more to the number. Take it and health will come more gladden your heart.

Why suffer longer from the torment of an aching back?

Why bear such distress from Constipation and Piles?

Why be so fearful because of disordered urine?

KIDNEY-WORT will cure you. Try a package at once and be satisfied.

It is a dry vegetable compound and

One Package makes six quarts of Medicine.

Your Druggist has it, or will get it for you, if you ask for it. Price $1.00.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is generally believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pimples, Chin Whelk, Psoriasis, Pemphigus, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Scaly and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Boils, Felons, Tumors, Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness. In all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement. I have been afflicted with a skin disease for upwards of 5 years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I tried your CUTICURA REMEDIES and, as a last resort, I concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until was entirely well, but that I commenced using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public. Yours truly, E. M. FOX,

CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1876.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, ears, neck, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first use of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out the truth.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, increases the flesh. It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions. It purifies the female system of ulcerative weakness and debilitating humors, and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N. H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation, which so me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M. D.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 19, 1880.

N. A. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir,—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty-five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market. My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it. Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by the Chemist Corbett, a member of our society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

Portsmouth Chronicle

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N.H., as second-class matter.]

TUESDAY, APRIL 27, 1880.

News and Notes.

Full details of the murder of Charles De Young at San Francisco by young Kalloch, son of the mayor of the city, are published. The murderer had been on a drunken spree for some time, and all reports agree that he premeditated the crime; and there is much evidence that his father advised and abetted the murder. The provocation for the killing is supposed to have been the republication of a pamphlet containing Kalloch's record in Boston, and the evidence offered at his trial in that city for adultery, many years ago. It is stated that the better class of the citizens of San Francisco, while not expressing any sympathy for De Young, exhibit a strong feeling of indignation against the Kallochs, considering their whole course disgraceful, and expressing the belief that it is time the city were rid of them in the interest of respectability, peace and good order. At the same time there is no unhealthy excitement, and no mob violence is feared.

The daughter of Bridget Mitten, living at Lowell, Mass., had two fingers and a thumb blown off Saturday by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge which she was picking with a hair pin.

The pupils of the St. Ursuline convent at St. Martin's, Brown county, Ohio, have been sent home two months in advance of the usual time, on account of the appearance among them of a singular nervous disorder with an epidemic tendency.

On Friday last Philip M. Thomas, of Barnesville, Ohio, to ascertain if his gun was loaded blew down the muzzle, with his foot on the hammer. He was a highly respected member of the society of Friends.

Sergeant Luke Walker, U. S. A., died at Fort Knox, Me., April 2d, where he has had charge since 1863. He was an active participant in the Mexican, Florida, and civil wars. The sergeant is said to have been a great favorite of Gen. Scott's. He was ordered to Fort Knox, where he arrived on the 5th day of July, 1863, taking charge of the ordnance and ordnance stores at the post, and where he remained until his death.

Andrew Smith, aged sixty years, of Newport, R. I., has been found guilty of felonious assault on a fifteen-years-old girl.

Mary A. Field, widow of Theodore T. Field of Conway, Mass., aged sixty years, drowned herself on Thursday of last week in a pond near her house.

Controller Wadsworth of New York has sent Governor Cornell the result of his investigation into the Binghamton insane asylum, which is understood to reflect severely upon the managers of the institution and recommend the removal of the trustees.

A boy twelve years old, son of Matthew Thomas of Paterson, N. J., hung himself Friday night to escape a whipping which his mother had promised to give him for disobeying her.

There was another great storm in the west, Saturday night, great damage being done in Illinois and Iowa. Many buildings were blown down, and paths were cut through the woods in many places. There was some loss of life.

During the now almost forgotten civil war a gallant Massachusetts officer fell at the head of his brave black regiment while storming Fort Wagner. The rebels, with withering sarcasm, afterward announced that they had "buried him under his niggers." It would be interesting to known what West Point thinks of Col. Shaw. What Col. Shaw, had he lived, would have thought of Gen. Schofield and the West Point cadets can be readily imagined.—N. Y. Times.

Naval Gazette.

Paymaster I. Goodwin Hobbs has returned to the torpedo station at Newport from his visit to New York on leave.

Naval Constructor Webb reports that the old wooden sailing ship Savannah would make a good fever-ship for the new quarantine station at Washington, and as soon as the report is approved she will be remodelled for that purpose.

Graduation day at the naval academy will be about June 10th, but as the Constellation will not be back by that time, the annual cruise will be later than usual. There are sixty-one in the graduating class of cadet midshimen, and eighteen in the class of cadet engineers.

The U. S. S. Tallapoosa arrived at Portsmouth, Va., the 23d inst.

The U. S. S. Wachusett, Comdr. Byron Wilson, is detached from the South Atlantic squadron, and ordered to report for duty in the Pacific squadron.

The U. S. S. Marion, Comdr. Francis M. Bunce, is ordered to duty in the South Atlantic squadron, her orders to the Pacific squadron having been revoked.

Commander Selfridge reports the arrival of the Enterprise at Funchal, Madeira, on April 5th, and she would sail in a few days for Hampton roads.

The U. S. S. Kearsarge, Commander C. B. Picking, was still at Chiriqui at latest advices from Panama, but her operations are apparently greatly annoying the Central Americans. A dispatch dated Panama, April 12th, says: "Commander Picking says that his mission is not secret, but he refuses to define its object. He is examining the harbors round the lagoon, not surveying. President Cervera to-day attributed the presence of American man-of-war ships to an effort made by the Washington government to divert attention from M. de Lesseps' scheme, and to defeat it. He does not believe that America wants Colombian territory. He thinks that the canal scheme is opposed to American policy. Cervera has sent communications to the American consuls at Aspinwall and Panama, requesting information about the mysterious movements of the Kearsarge and Adams, also to the Colombian minister at Washington, reporting that yellow fever is increasing here."

While at Philadelphia recently Secretary Thompson asked Congressman Leopold Morse, of Massachusetts, what he thought of the League Island navy yard site. Mr. Morse replied that he had interested himself at various times in behalf of officers who desired particular details, and he had known of many such applications to the secretary, but he never yet heard of any officer applying to be detailed to League island, and he was forced to the conclusion that it was not a proper place for a navy yard.

Political.

The Oregon republican convention was almost unanimous for Blaine.

John Kelly, in a speech at Tammany hall, New York, Friday night, said that if the democratic national convention nominated Tilden the nomination would be defeated by the democracy of the country. He believed, however, that Tilden would not be nominated. He urged agitation until after the convention.

Denis Kearney's habeas corpus case came up before the superior court of San Francisco in banc on Saturday. The court decided that it had no power to review its own action, and Kearney was sent back to the house of correction to serve out his sentence.

D. P. Crocker and others, of the Crocker paper company, are just about closing an important bargain for the purchase of the Olcott falls water privilege, on the Connecticut river, two miles from Hanover, together with 200 acres of land lying on each side of the river. This is said to be one of the largest unimproved water privileges in New England, but is only about one-sixth that of Holyoke, or some 5000 horse power. The present owners are the heirs of Rufus Choate, the famous lawyer, and James Bell and parties connected with Dartmouth college. The buyers have no present plans for the development of the property, but it will probably not long lie idle. It can be improved for limited use at small expense, or it can be developed on a large scale as the owners may decide. The deeds are expected to pass in a few days.

—Dr. Johnson had a habit of eating very fast and using his fingers in place of his fork. One day the cynic was dining with a company, when a young would-be wit remarked, "Doctor, you remind me of Nebuchadnezzar." "Nebuchadnezzar?" replied the doctor, his mouth full of victuals—"ah, yes. That's because I'm eating with brutes."

—A New Bedford man invented a fish-pole cane which worked with a spring, and on the latter being touched the inner rods would fly out and form a pole, and it was a man who didn't understand the nature of the cane who was carrying it, and while carelessly pointing at a gentleman some eight feet away accidentally touched the spring and the pole flew out and took the victim square on the nose. And when the latter got up he had to be held by four men while the facts were explained to him, and even then he wasn't satisfied.

Don't Give Up.

What if you have tried different "put up" medicines in vain. Have you not been equally disappointed in some physicians? Do not consider your case incurable until you have made a thorough trial of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. They are chemically pure, of uniform strength, and have come into general use by reason of superior merit. In cases of general and nervous debility, consumption, bronchitis, dyspepsia, liver complaint, scrofulous bunches, ulcers and eruptions, the Golden Medical Discovery is a speedy and positive cure; while thousands of women, who had for years been bed-ridden, have, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, been restored to perfect health. The introduction of these two remedies has revolutionized the treatment of chronic diseases. Patients are no longer depleted and salivated, as the tonic and alterative properties of the Discovery long since demonstrated a better way. Ladies need no longer submit to the use of the caustics and knife, as the Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to cure the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. Mrs. Samuel M. Kemper, of Gallaudet, Ind., writes, "Your Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Purgative Pellets have save my life."

—It makes a mother's heart revert to her younger days when she comes into the parlor next morning after her daughter's beau has been around, and finds only one chair in front of the fireplace, and the others sitting along the wall, as if they hadn't been touched for three years.

Our Best Reward.

WINSTON, FORSYTHE CO., N. C., March 15, 1880.

To the Hop Bitters Manufacturing Co.: GENTS—I desire to express to you my thanks for your wonderful Hop Bitters. I was troubled with dyspepsia for five years previous to commencing the use of your Hop Bitters some six months ago. My cure has been wonderful. I am pastor of the First Methodist church of this place, and my whole congregation can testify to the great virtue of your Bitters. Very respectfully, REV. H. FEREBEE.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 11, 1880.

Hop Bitters Co.: Please accept our grateful acknowledgment for the Hop Bitters you were so kind to donate and which were such a benefit to us. Yours very gratefully, Old Ladies of Home of the Friendyless.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty-five cents a box. ktuhsr

AROUND HOME.

Major Urch's marine bicycle is in a good state of forwardness.

A small audience attended the performance of "the Danites" at Music hall, Monday evening. Those who did attend were well entertained.

Several new blackboards have been put on the walls of Mechanics' hall to accommodate the largely-increased attendance at Mr. Smith's business college.

Gov. Long of Massachusetts has signed the railroad-lease bill, with the clause allowing the Boston & Maine and Eastern railroads to consolidate under a single management.

Elder Waite gave five "chalk talks" in Newburyport last Sunday, besides addressing a crowd of about two thousand persons that gathered on a public square to hear him. In the evening he had a crowded audience at the city hall, the building being packed before seven o'clock, and many persons having to go away, unable to obtain admittance.

The steamer Daisy, of the United States lighthouse board's fleet, on Saturday moored an automatic buoy off Newburyport bar in eight and a half fathoms of water. The Herald says that on Saturday evening the people of Newburyport were treated to a concert by this buoy, its tones being a cross "between a groan, the bellowing of some wild beast, and the fire alarm by a steam gong." As the buoy is automatic, being worked by the action of the waves, its melody in heavy weather will no doubt prove as soothing as a cat-concert to sleep-courting Newburyporters, and they cannot even have the poor satisfaction of throwing bootjacks at the buoy, whose notes were heard six miles at sea on Saturday night.

POPULAR BOTANIZING.

Mr. Editor: During the present spring term teachers can awaken an interest among their pupils that will result in a permanent benefit. Ask the scholars to bring to school a specimen of each of the new wild and garden flowers as fast they appear; have a row of vials filled with water at the teacher's desk in which they can be placed; let each scholar label his or her flower with its English name, at least, and, if possible, have the botanical name added. At the end of the week have a short exercise with the whole school in which the names shall be reviewed and the teacher talk with the pupils about the most common facts relating to the flowers which are before them. For instance, they will not all know that the dandelion is made up of many flowers of two kinds, that its seeds are provided with means for flying, etc. Lowell's poem on the dandelion might be read. Many of the boys and girls cannot tell you how the blossoms of the maple, ash, and elm, look, and do not know whether they produce seeds or not. How puzzled they are when you ask them about the seed of the pine! Let one flower of every species be gathered, no matter how unassuming it may be. What a prize the first dog-tooth violet is to the boy or girl who finds it and brings it to you. They will be interested to know what they have already thought about it, that is, that it is a lily. By continuing these exercises thro' the floral season a new interest is inspired in minds that are all ready to love beautiful things. A knowledge of the names of our common flowers is much less widely spread than we realize. INTEREST.

"GO-AS-YOU-PLEASE."

Ezekiel D. Clements of Dover, who has won some fame in that city as a contestant in "go-as-you-please" pedestrian matches, on Thursday of last week broke open a trunk belonging to Alfred Demeritt of Madbury, for whom he had been at work, stole $85 in gold, and absconded. An officer from Madbury followed the thief to Dover, and captured him at the Boston & Maine depot as he was about to board the train for Great Falls. On the way to the police station Clements jerked clear of the officer and ran off, followed by the officer and a number of citizens whom he summoned to his aid. Among the latter was Ed. Jordan, another "go-as-you-please" celebrity of Dover, who in the enthusiasm of the chase pulled out a revolver and fired two shots after the fugitive thief, which the latter replied to by a volley of rocks. Clements was finally captured in Guppey's woods, but a friend paid back the stolen money and all costs, and the thief was allowed to leave the city, which he did on Friday.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

Nearly fifty children attended the Band of Hope meeting, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Martin, ex-president of the Woman's League, addressed the gathering in a very pleasant manner. The band is prospering under the excellent management of Mrs. Hooper and ladies of the league.

The gospel temperance meeting, Saturday evening, is one of the most interesting and profitable ones held in the hall, and we believe the only one in the state conducted entirely by women; and it is usually full of life and good grace. The one last Saturday evening was in charge of Mrs. Stacy Hall, who offered some interesting remarks; at the close several signed the pledge.

The bethel service, Sunday afternoon, was in charge of Mrs. Hooper, the subject under consideration being "Faith." Several strangers were present, two of whom (one a sailor from Denmark) took part in the exercises; many good things were said, and the time was too short to enable all who wished, to take part. This service is conducted every alternate Sabbath by a lady.

The reform club meeting Sunday evening was well attended, and full of interest and enthusiasm, a number of members speaking. Mr. S. W. Clarke urged the need of a purer and more elevated literature for the young than much of that they now are supplied with. A sailor told how intemperance had robbed him of money, clothing, health, and many a good position on board vessels, all which by temperance he had regained. Miss Mamie Leslie gave a recitation entitled "Look not on the wine."

The other usual mission services were held Sunday. At the jail there are but few prisoners in the cells. At the almshouse Superintendent Shannon has provided a melodeon for use at the morning service, which is presided over by his grand daughter, Miss Carrie Lord. L.

SUPREME COURT--CLARK, J.

MONDAY April 26th.

The new docket was called. Thomas E. O. Marvin was excused as a juror from Portsmouth.

Case Bartlett vs. town of Epping, action for damages alleged to have occurred from a defect in the highway near Epping corner, was opened; a similar action, brought by another occupant of the vehicle, was tried at the January term. The jury went to take a view of the spot where the accident occurred, and the trial will begin on Tuesday morning. Bartlett and Frink for plff.; Copeland and Wiggin for Epping.

MEMORIAL DAY.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of citizens was held at the common council room on Monday evening, for the purpose of making arrangements for the proper observance of Memorial day. Col. William H. Sise was appointed chairman, and on taking the chair addressed the meeting, making a few appropriate remarks, paying a just tribute to the memory of the deceased soldiers, and the duty of all in uniting in paying them proper respect. Wm. A. Hodgdon was chosen secretary. A permanent organization was afterward effected by choice of Ex-Gov. Goodwin chairman, Col. Wm. H. Sise vice chairman, and Wm. A. Hodgdon secretary.

A committee of three were appointed by the chair, consisting of John H. Locke, Herman W. Oxford and Lewis B. Marden, to select a committee to act in conjunction with the G. A. R. Post, and reported the following, which were accepted and adopted:

Invitations, Samuel Dodge, Justin V. Hanscom, John E. Colcord, Howe Call.

Flowers, Wm. Russell Foster, Wm. H. Preston, Samuel W. Moses, Jr., Arthur W. Walker.

Decoration of Graves, Wm. A. Payson, Charles Robinson, Jr., Michael E. Long.

Finance, Andrew P. Preston, C. M. Gignoux, Charles A. Sinclair, Henry H. Ham, Jr.

Evening Exercises, Herman W. Oxford, Thomas E. O. Marvin, R. H. Perkins.

Procession, Route, and Ceremonies at the Cemetery, Jerome C. Butler, Lewis B. Marden, Elbridge G. Pierce, Jr., Wallace Hackett.

Printing, Walter H. Page, John Laighton, Henry Wendell.

Music, Samuel C. Whittier, Frank W. Hilton, C. Morris Tredick, Walter C. Harriman.

The following were appointed a committee to select a chief marshal: Col. W. H. Sise, Wm. A. Hodgdon, on the part of the citizens, George E. Hodgdon, R. E. Rich, Oliver M. Knight, for Storer Encampment.

The meeting then adjourned to next Monday evening at the same place, at eight o'clock.

All the gentlemen appointed on the committees are requested to meet at that time for the purpose of perfecting arrangements.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The "Tack-slingers" and "Know-nothings" are two base ball clubs of South Berwick. At a recent game the former were victorious by a score of seventeen to fifteen.

The Times says the Somes and Bradbury bridges are unsafe, and need repairing. The late administration left all public works in about the same condition, and kept the money for election purposes.—Biddeford Journal.

Henry Otis, the suspected murderer of Devoll at Durham, was at one time employed as a farm hand by John Fife of South Berwick, Me., and when he left stole $60 from Mr. Fife. It is quite likely that a murderer would be mean enough to steal.

The Biddeford Union and Journal says: "The court records, the streets, and the shops prove that the crusade of the city marshal, policemen and deputy sheriffs against 'the critter' and his venders has been productive of happy results. The war has been sharp and decisive, and rum has retired to its dark, miserable holes. A great deal of 'contraband' has been seized, and more will be if brought into the city." The Boston Post, which not long ago asserted that the then numerous rumsellers of Biddeford all "voted the republican ticket in order to secure protection," will please copy.

INTOLERANCE IN BIDDEFORD.

Report has been published that Rev. Mr. Wales of Biddeford was shut out of the city hall in that place because of non-payment of rent. His friends now explain that they had made an agreement with the outgoing city government for the use of the hall for one year at a rent of $250, payable monthly, being about $4.80 a Sunday. When the new republican city government came in they were determined to prevent Mr. Wales from using the hall. So excuses were sought for breaking the agreement in regard to the hall—and his friends were informed that he could have the hall until October on payment of $8 a Sunday. This they would not do, and another hall was obtained for meetings, where a full congregation attends. This is all there is to the story that Mr. Wales was turned out for non-payment of rent. It is a case of republican intolerance.—Portsmouth Times, April 22d.
